Mr. WILLIAMS, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2195, (Senate Bill No. 1346), entitled:

An Act providing for the reimbursement for loss or damage sustained by the breaking of a dam near Austin Potter county and making an appropriation therefor.

Mr. COX, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2198, (Senate Bill No. 168), entitled:

An Act to make an appropriation for the improvement of the maritime port facilities of the State of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia and providing for the expenditure thereof and for the appointment by the Governor of a competent engineer to assist and co-operate therein.

Mr. MATT, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2186, (Senate Bill No. 1170), entitled:

An Act refunding to Frank Bolger Ex-Treasurer of Bedford county certain moneys by him erroneously paid in the State Treasury.

Mr. MOSES, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2171, (Senate Bill No. 506), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to pay the proportionate share of the Commonwealth for improving and paving Herr street in the city of Harrisburg in front of the State Arsenal.

BILL INTRODUCED.

Mr. REX. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. The title of the bill will be read for information.

The Clerk then read the title of the bill as follows:

"An Act providing for and regulating the incorporation into a third class city of a borough or two or more contiguous boroughs."

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, my recollection is that we had a bill of a similar character offered in this House at this session.

Mr. REX. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, my statement was that it is my recollection that we had a bill of like character considered in this House.

Mr. REX. Mr. Speaker, I know of no such bill.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, my impression is that a Senate bill, the author of which I do not recall at this time, provided for the same thing, and that bill was passed by the Senate and referred to this House.

Mr. REX. Mr. Speaker, this is simply an enabling act to allow the boroughs to take advantage of coming into the third class city class, supposing that bill No. 13 becomes a law. In other words, instead of waiting until 1916 to become effective, it would give them an opportunity of coming under the provisions of this act at the next general election.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the introduction of the bill? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the bill will be received by the Clerk.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 43

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this Senate Resolution No. 43.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the resolution as follows:

A concurrent resolution for the appointment of a commission to investigate and report to the next session of the Legislature all matters pertaining to cold storage and the preservation of food products and the length of time goods shall remain under refrigeration or cold storage and to the branding and sale of such articles and making an appropriation to meet the expenses of the said commission

Whereas there has been and is considerable agitation regarding cold storage and the preservation of food products as well as the length of time that goods shall remain under refrigeration or cold storage and the proper branding and sale of such articles

And Whereas it is of the utmost importance that a thorough and complete investigation and study of the whole matter of refrigeration and cold storage should be made at the present tme

Therefore be it resolved if the House concur that a committee of five members of the General Assembly three to be apppointed by the president pro tempore of the Senate and two by the speaker of the General Assembly to investigate at the earliest possible moment and to report at the next session of the General Assembly to investigate at the earliest possible moment and to report at the next session of the General Assembly a comprehensive bill covering the following questions

1. The necessity of cold storage and the proper provisions for the protection of perishable products
2. The value of such products to the producer and the community at the period of the greatest production when the supply exceeds the demand and at all other times .
3. The length of time articles should remain under refrigeration or cold storage.
4. Whether refrigerator or cold storage products shall be branded and if so what shall be determined to be refrigerator products or cold storage products or both
5. The effect on the price of commodities by reason of placing them under mechanical refrigeration or cold storage
6. The relation of cold storage or refrigeration to the high cost of living
7. The effect of cold storage legislation in other states
8. The advisability of a uniform cold storage or refrigeration law provided that the actual expenses incurred by the committee shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) which shall be provided for in the general appropriation bill

On the Question,

Will the House agree to the adoption of the resolution?

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1, line 2 by striking out 5 insert 6, also strike out 2 and insert 3.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1880, (Senate No. 512), as follows:

An Act to prohibit coroners acting coroners or deputy coroners within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from doing business as undertakers or being interested in such business during their terms of office and providing a penalty

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any coroner acting coroner or deputy coroner in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to be engaged in business as an undertaker or to be interested directly or indirectly in such business during their term of office Provided however That this act shall not apply to any coroner acting coroner or deputy coroner until the term of office he is holding when this act becomes a law shall have first expired

Section 2 Any person violating any provision of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300) for any violation and upon a conviction of a subsequent offense shall in addition be sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the jail of the county for not less than sixty (60) days nor more than one year for each offense

On the Question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, It seems that there is a misunderstanding and I demand a roll call.

The SPEAKER. A roll call is demanded and the question is on, Will the House agree to the bill on third reading.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me there is unwise opposition to this bill. The matter has been fairly considered in committee. The evil to be remedied is that if a coroner exercises his opportunity to get the work of an undertaker, without being perhaps properly equipped for the duties, and executing that work and exceeding their rights improperly, that is the thing to be avoided. The object is to prevent a public officer who is a coroner and not an undertaker, to act as an undertaker. The purpose of the bill is to stop that improper practice.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, this is not the way to remedy that evil, in my opinion. I don't see why you should bar undertakers from being coroners who then could act as undertakers, if that is their regular occupation. A proper course to pursue is to pass a statute not to allow a coroner to act as an undertaker, unless that is his work, but if you go on and bar out all the undertakers of the State of Pennsylvania from holding public office because they are undertakers, that is wrong and I doubt very much whether the bill is constitutional now. I think this bill ought to be defeated.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on Third Reading of H. R. bill No. 2020, (Senate No. 441), entitled:

An Act to amend section seventy-four of an act entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth" approved the second day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine by providing for the payment of mileage to inspectors of election for delivering the ballot boxes to the justice of the peace after the election

On the Question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ULERICH. Mr. Speaker, I think this is a foolish sort of a bill. There is a bill in the hands of the Governor now providing for doubling the wages of an inspector and I feel quite sure the bill will be signed. If that is the case, the inspector gets enough, and at any rate he will only have the ballot boxes a couple of squares. It seems to me a foolish proposition and I hope the House will vote it down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was not agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on Third Reading of H. R. bill No. 2035, (Senate No. 950), entitled:

An Act regulating the offering or operation of automobile vehicles for hire in cities of the first class providing for the licensing of said vehicles providing for the licensing of operators chauffeurs or solicitors for such vehicles authorizing them to solicit business upon the highway authorizing the making of regulations by the Department of Public Safety in said cities governing the operation of said vehicles and operators thereof and providing penalties for the violation thereof

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. W. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was before the House last night it was defeated under a misapprehension. I have talked to a great many of the members who voted "no" on this bill and they advised me that their reason for so doing was that they thought it was another bill all together, that they thought it was a bill permitting outside gardeners to come in and fix up cemetery lots. This bill has absolutely nothing whatever to do with that bill. This bill practically has for its purpose the same purpose of House Bill No. 735, which passed this House unanimously and passed the Senate unanimously but was vetoed by the Governor on the ground that it was piecemeal ligislation. House Bill No. 735 being an amendment to the existing cemetery laws. The purpose of this bill is to extend the provisions of existing cemetery laws for the removal of bodies from cemeteries which have been abandoned, and no longer used for that purpose. This bill before it was introduced in the Senate was submitted to the Governor and to the Attorney General and met with their approval, meeting their objections to the other bill. Under the existing law there are only three ways in which bodies can be removed from a cemetery. One is by the consent of all the lot owners, and that is practically an impossibility on account of the deaths of the owners and an inability to find the heirs. Another way is where the municipalities direct that streets be cut through the cemetery. In that case the bodies can be removed from the bed of the new streets. Another way is where the cemeteries have become a nuisance and unsanitary and a menace to the neighborhood. This bill provides for the removal of bodies from such cemeteries. That condition exists in the X district in which I live. It is the intention of this bill to extend the existing laws in order to meet that condition. All parties are protected. It must be done by a petition to the court of quarter sessions and that court must be satisfied as to the necessity of it and as to the existence of that condition, when the court will enter a decree authorizing the removal of the bodies. Under the provisions of this law lot owners will have the right to accept a lot like value in a different cemetery or receive the cash value of the lot which will be determined by the court. Thus it will work no hardship to anybody and I ask the gentlemen of this House to support this motion for recosideration.

The question recurring,
Will the House agree to the motion?
It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—6.

Barner,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 538, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of purchasing land for rifle range or land for permanent camping ground for division encampment or land for permanent camping grounds for three separate brigade encampments either or all and providing for the care and preparation of same said purchase of land to be made under the direction of the State Military Board the title thereof to be examined and approved by the Attorney General and the purchase approved by the Governor and fixing the maximum average price per acre of such land as may be purchased providing that the title to all lands purchased shall be vested in the Commonwealth and land be used for military purposes under the control and direction of the Adjutant General and providing for the method of payment of land purchased

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker,

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. S. B. Scott.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, one of the advantages of returning to the House more than one session is the recognition of old friends on the calendar. I desire to interrogate the gentleman who is the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Whitaker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the genman has this appropriation ever been made before?

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, it has been made, I understand, at two previous sessions. It has been at the disposal of the Adjutant General for the last four years, not exactly in the same amount. Previous to this it was $110,000. The Adjutant General is now asking for $100,000. The reason it was not expended in the previous four years was that the Adjutant General would not pay an exorbitant price for land, and he says that on various occasions on which he has chosen suitable camp sites, the owners of the land, on discovering that fact, put the price up too high, and in his usual careful manner he refused to expend the money under the circumstances. He now wants the same appropriation made again in order that he may make further efforts to obtain a site during the next two years.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, my view of the case is that if in the four years the Adjutant General has found himself unable to make a purchase for this reason, that it would be of very great assistance to him in keeping down the price if the Legislature did not make the appropriation and there would be no temptation to eat up the whole appropriation. Now, of course, the results of this thing are that by having this money appropriated year after year and lie unexpended in the State Treasury, it simply lies in the State depository. That is to say, some bank or other is getting the use of$100,000, and of course it is a great profit to them; also it usually is an excuse for not making appropriations to worthy charitable institutions. We are told that there is not enough money in the State to erect a home for feeble-minded women, and yet we are told that $100,000 ought to lie idle for two years and has lain idle for four years simply because the Adjutant General cannot find a proper site at a proper price. Now, we may defeat this appropriation at this time; the Adjutant General can go ahead and find a suitable site and he will not be embarrassed by the knowledge of a large appropriation, and then he can come to the legislation and ask for a specific appropriation. I think the best thing to do is to defeat the bill.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, the facts are that it would be impossible for him to get options on such a large tract of land as this unless he had a sum of money, for the reasons that I stated before. The price always goes up when the owners of the land know that the State is the prospective purchaser. As a matter of fact the Adjutant General now has in view a purchase which he is about ready to make at a very reasonable price. He cannot state where it is and he cannot attempt to get options on it for that very reason. If this appropriation is continued, he is enabled to purchase and will do so this year, because he has the site in view and knows that he can get it at a reasonable price. I do not think it would be economy to let it go two years without an appropriation, because it is impossible to get so large a tract of land when the owners know just who the purchaser is to be. On the question of economy, it is cheaper for the State to purchase a permanent camping ground than to do as they are now doing, renting ground each year for the National Guard camp. They have to pay a large rent; they have to tear down fenses, lay water pipes, build sinks each year on the ground and then replace the fenses, take up the water pipes, and all at an unusual unnecessary expense. Whereas, if they had a permanent camping ground, all these things could be made permanent and they would not be under this expense.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to investigate the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Whitaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITAKER. Yes, sir.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, what is the amount of money that the Commonwealth pays each year for the leasing of the grounds?

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, I cannot answer, I do not know.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, how long has the $200,000 that has been appropriated remained unexpended.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, the amount is not $200,000. I think I said before $110,000.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, what was the amount before?

Mr. WHITAKER. $110,000, now and then.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. And the session before that?

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, my opinion is that it was $110,000.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I further desire to ask the gentleman whether the Adjutant General has an option now on any land?

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, I do not know whether the Adjutant General now has options on any particular piece of land. He has told me that he knows of a site which he can now purchase at a very reasonable price. Whether he has a written option or not, I don't know. I think he has not.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this legislation for purchasing a camp ground is to my mind very doubtful as to being desirable legislation. The Camp of the National Guard as all of us know, covers a very small portion of each year. To own a permanent camping ground merely for the purpose of encamping the soldiers there in their days of camp and for a rifle range seems to me to be a very poor investment on the part of the State. Now, so far as the rifle range is concerned, a rifle range situated in any one portion of this State cannot be beneficial to the whole State. The various armories have their various places for target practice. The leasing of land to camp on seems to me to be the logical thing to do. No man in business who is going to use a place of business for a few weeks would have a permanent investment of from $100,000 to $200,000 when he can lease for a few weeks the land that would accommodate such a business at a much smaller rent than the interest bearing charges of that investment price. But there is nothing serious in this bill from the sense of an investment. The Adjutant General is not going to buy any parade ground; is not going to buy any rifle range. This appropriation, as you members of the House will find before the session is through, is just one of those perquisites that arise in Harrisburg, and those of us who come here now, come here without knowing and they go away without knowing about what is going on in Harrisburg in relation to this $100,000 that is appropriated by the State. It is not appropriated for the purpose of being spent. It is being appropriated for the purpose of making up the $8,000,000 that will lie in the Treasury, and that money will be placed in the various banks throughout the Commonwealth, and the various banks that have these various depositaries usually have on their board or among their officers men who are friendly to the dominant powers. There is no possibility of this money's being spent, and it costs the State what? It costs us just $5,000 a year for making this appropriation. When we appropriation $100,000 and that $100,000 remains in the Treasury it means that that $100,000 goes to a particular bank or particular banks, and that particular bank or banks, in using that money makes $5,000 on the State's money, and when they are making $5,000 with the State's money, a portion of that returns and compensates them for being a little accommodating in approving the paper of some one who has had a little to do in making that depositary. How many of us come in and go out without discovering what these little appropriations mean. For instance, you find in your general appropriation bill an appropriation of from $75,000 to $300,000 for the building of bridges; no particular bridge to be built; no bridge is built except the bridge hat covers the space from the Capitol over to the favorite bank somewhere about the State. That money makes money for somebody else. In the first place I do not believe that this is going to be a good investment. There is going to be no camp ground. We have given them four years to buy it, and they never bought it. No thought of it. Now, are we going to tie up $100,000 in the Treasury? Those of us who have to go home with appropriations, are we going to be met then with the charge that we cannot get appropriations because the State is shy of funds, when this only a part of the surplus that you read of in the papers that is in the Treasury, working in the Treasury? Now, Mr. Speaker, what the gentleman from Germantown says about meeting old friends here on the calendar is so; he met this one time and time again, and friend has passed him without being recognized. He simply recognized it this time. Let us put our stamp of disapproval upon this bill; at least, let us put out stamp of disapproval upon this bill; at least, let us, by our stamp of disapproval on this bill, indicate our disapproval of this system. Now, some of you new members will answer my argument who never heard of it before, and they will give us words of wisdom.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I have no particular knowledge of the system that the gentleman from Philadelphia refers to with reference to appropriations, and I am one of the new members to whom the gentleman has referred, but I do know that from the standpoint of the State of Pennsylvania, this proposition as embodied in this appropriation bill is purely a business proposition. We have in this State, I believe, and it is so recognized the county over, an efficient national guard. If that National Guard is to retain its efficiency, it must be properly cared for by the State. In this country we have a small standing army, and that is made possible by reason of the fact that the states maintain efficient National Guard organizations. I do not believe that the State at this time or at any other time in the future can afford to abandon its support of that organization. It has been the custom in this State year after year to rent camping sites, and the rental item is not the only item involved in that particular.

It is necessary to improve these camp sites by the construction of proper sanitary and water facilities and after the camp is concluded at the nd of the period of a few days the improvements made are an absolute loss and waste to the State and I venture the assertion that the interest that the State is paying on this sum of $100,000.00 by reason of rental and improvements on temporary camp sites amounts, honestly figured, to from ten to fifteen per cent. and if a permanent camp site was secured we might in five or six years have it paid for by saving this amount in rental and in temporary improvements in temporary camp sites. So I say that this is only a business proposition and I want to say in reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia that I do not believe that the Adjutant General is a party directly or indirectly to any such scheme as has been advocated or has been suggested by the gentleman from Philadelphia. The only trouble with the Adjutant General of Pennsylvania is that he is too economical in the administration of his Department and the reason that this money has not been expended before is because of his desire to see that the State gets one hundred cents on the dollar for all that was expended for a permanent camp site and I believe that it is our duty, both from a business standpoint in caring for the resources of the State and from the sense of public spirit to pass this bill continuing this appropriation in order that the State may save what is now being expended in temporary camp sites and for the purpose of properly supporting and maintaining the military arm of the State and National Government and I hope that this House will pass this bill without serious opposition.

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, the imputation made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, directed against Adjutant General Stewart I do not think is worthy of him. No one of us who are acquainted with the man either personally or by reason of knowledge gained by public print, can for a single moment believe that the Adjutant General of this State would be a party to such a small transaction as to ask the legislature to pass an appropriation of this character for the purpose of feathering the pocket of some particular bank or directors who might be in cohoots with the persons in power. We do not have to dwell for a single minute on the virtues of the National Guard and I dare say that the legislatures that have sat here on two prior occasions should have decided for us the wisdom of making this appropriation. I merely want to attract the attention of the gentleman from Philadelphia to the men who now cotrol the public funds in this Commonwealth, the Auditor General and the State Treasurer. Surely they have not been elected upon those tickets which the gentleman from Philadelphia might have taken issue with in having a tendency to deposit money in that manner. I therefore think that this bill should go through without a dissenting voice. It will merely show the recognition that we owe to our National Guard and show confidence in the integrity and ability of the Adjutant General. Now it is peculiar that the tactics used in all appropriation measures up to date which did not meet with approval of the gentleman from Philadelphia, should heretofore have taken the form that the appropriation is not necessary or that it was excessive or that there was something dishonest connected with it. We have a reasonable explanation of why these funds have not been spent for the purpose appropriated in the past. The Adjutant General has been frank to declare that he has not spent this money because he could not get proper value for the money. What better reason could be give? Would it be more satisfactory to the gentleman from Philadelphia if the moneys had been expended for lands at exorbitant prices? Now because we have a man who comes here and says "I have not spent the money because I could not get the full value for it," is he to be criticised? It would be folly for a man to vote against this bill for any reason advanced by my colleague from Philadelphia. I therefore hope that the House will pass this bill.

Mr. ALLEN Mr. Speaker, like the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Samuel B. Scott, we recognize these old faces and I might call the attention of the House this year to the fact that if this bill was passed, as a similar bill was passed two years ago, perhaps next year you would come back and find the same thing staring you in the face and you would know why. I happened to be a member, Mr. Speaker, of this House two years ago and at that time a bill of like character, in like amount was presented to this House. And as my recollection goes now, and it is fairly distinct in that matter, the suggestion was made at the time, just as it is now, that a piece of property which would be acquired by the Department for this use was within reach and all that had to be done was reach out and take it over, and so the bill went through. That $110,000.00, as has been suggested, is lying idle. Two years ago when the General Appropriation bill, along with special bills, and bills which would have raised your and my salary—which we need—were presented to his Excellency the Governor, I recall most vividly, and by recollection is clear and distinct on that particular point, that when this legislature had sought to raise the salary of its successor, those who are here this year, the bill was vetoed and came back, for a reason which was very good to wit, want of revenue. It would have taken, Mr. Speaker, about this amount of money to make us comfortable today in a financial way, instead of being so uncomfortable as we now are. But this amount of money that legislature saw fit to lay aside, for as I say, immediate almost immediate use, but strange to say, it was not used. It has lain there for two years, and again this year, in a body composed largely of new men, new faces who have no recollection from their daily contact with the work of past history, we are met with what to you is a new bill for $110,000.00, for the purpose of buying a permanent camping ground or such camp ground as the State may see fit to acquire or this Department may see fit to acquire for this purpose. I do not know. It may be that the suggestion which has been made that this would be accomplished and very shortly, it may be worked out just as has been suggested, and then again it may fall down just as it did two years ago and $110,000.00 more may be added this year to that fund and next two years when new faces will again be in place, what to them is a new bill and perhaps another $110,000.00 may be added as an increment to this fund.

Mr. Speaker, in relation to the cost of camping grounds, I place very little credence in the fact or statement that it costs and will continue to cost a large amount of money for these places. True, for the temporary buildings which have to be erected it does cost something, but Mr. Speaker, the great railways of this and any other Commonwealth usually have somewhere along their lines grounds which are used for picnic grounds, grounds which are used for the accommodation of large crowds, and why? For the reason that by getting those crowds there, for the reason that by getting special attractions there, people will be drawn there and being drawn there they will run train load after train load of excursionists and thereby the railroad reaps a benefit and those grounds, Mr. Speaker, while I am not thoroughly acquainted with the conditions in this State, yet I do ynow that in some states great grounds are kept by the large railway concerns for that very purpose and for no other purpose. The bill which have been suggested to this House and which must be handled by this House will doubtless exhaust all of the State revenue. I shall be surprised and agreeably surprised, Mr. Speaker, if the members of this House when they look over their bills for special appropriations, after they shall have been signed by his Excellency the Governor—I shall be agreeably surprised if we all see that the bills which went through this House and were approved by the Senate met the approval of His Excellency in the full amount, for the reason that I do not believe there will be sufficient revenue left to meet those full amounts and it will devolve upon His Excellency, looking after the revenues of this Commonwealth as he must—it will devolve upon him to pare down those appropriations to an amount which will bring them within the revenues as an aggregate.

Another thing, Mr. Speaker, that I desire to call your attention to is the fact that this is not the only appropriation for the Department of Military in this State. Had I my original bill here I might be able to turn at once to the appropriation which I believe runs up to about the figures of $740,000.00 to the National Guard. I would ask, in order that I might be correct, the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee or the Chairman of the Special Committee on Appropriations who have the General Appropriation bill in charge, state what amount is set aside specifically for the uses of the Armory Board. I desire to ask how much has been set aside for the use of the Armory Board in the Armory Bill.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, there is nothing set aside in the General Appropriation Act for Armories, but in the separate bill there is $750,000.00.

Mr. ALLEN. Now, Mr. Speaker, the House must not lose sight, but understand further that the $750,000.00 set aside in the Armory Bill for the specific purposes does not embrace the amount of money that it takes to conduct and carry on the Adjutant General's Department which in addition to that adds quite an increment. Mr. Speaker, this House, I believe stands here for the expenditure of the revenues of this State for those purposes which will be most beneficial, and which are now asking for aid. If the National Guard for these purposes has been able up to this time to accommodate itself in a different way and this Legislature has unwisely heretofore started the fun which now amounts to several thousand dollars a hundred and some thousand dollars. Isn't it time to stop now until the proper showing should be made as to where and when that money is going and when it is going to be used. Mr. Speaker, this bill out to go down to defeat.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I thoroughly agree with the remarks made by the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Humes. The encampment of the National Guard of the State of Pennsylvania is an annual and permanent affair. I have witnessed on two occasions the preparation for camping grounds on the battlefield of Gettysburg and in my opinion the cost of that preparation, placing water pipes, removing the fences, excavating for pits, and building outhouses would cost at least five thousand dollars, and in twenty years time the State of Pennsylvania would save in rental and the cost of preparation the actual expenditure asked for here at the present time. Mr. Speaker, I believe that this proposition is a matter of economy to the State of Pennsylvania. The State of New Jersey has owned for many years its own camping ground at Sea Girt and there is no more beautiful spot in the State of New Jersey for camping grounds than Sea Girt. I believe that the great State of Pennsylvania for one hundred thousand dollars should equal at least the small State of New Jersey and I hope gentlemen of the House that this measure will prevail.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.

On the question.
Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page eighteen of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 1810, Senate Bill No. 322.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of H. R. bill No. 1810 (Senate Bill No. 322), entitled:

An Act to extend the time for opening and completing of certain railroads and railways in this Commonwealth

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I desire the sponsor of the bill to make some explanation of the bill and to state what this bill is intended for.

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, the law at present gives the corporation who commence railroads two years from the time of staking out for the completion of the railroad or railways, and this bill is intended to extend the time from two years to five years.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if the provisions of this bill pertain to old rights of way of railroads that have been begun and have been abandoned.

Mr. CONNIFF. Not to those that have been abandoned, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MATT. But it does to those where work has been begun

Mr. CONNIFF. To those that have already been commenced, the time is extended for the completion thereof.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides for an extension or a revival of right of ways of railroads that have been begun and which have been abandoned. I mean by that they have quit working on the railway.

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, it extends the time of those that have been commenced but for some reason or other have not been able to complete the same.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, this bill also extends the time to those that have not the charter, does it not?

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, yes, if they have been presented for some reason or other.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I am sorroy I must oppose this bill, for this particular reason: A number of years ago there was the old South Penn Railroad Company which extends from Allegheny County to the Delaware, through the southern portion of this State, that has gone through practically every county from Allegheny to Delaware and has torn up miles after miles of land in building the road and has destroyed miles and miles of the farmer's lands who gave them the right of way and why this road has never been completed is what we don't know, don't understand and can't find out, but the disappointments to the people interested and the destruction of the farms along this right of way has been a terrific hardship and a great disappointment to the people along that line. Hence there are a number of places that have only a small railway and yet it is impossible to get the right of way by reason of the charter of the old South Penn being held and up to this particular time, the old South Penn charter is practically null and void. Mr. Speaker, I hope the House will defeat this bill for the reasons that I have already stated and further, because a number of these right of ways, I understood, have been taken over and we passed a bill yesterday, giving the State Highway Department the right to take over railways that have not been built and have practically been abandoned.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I think the objection made by the gentleman who has just sat down are objections which should be well considered by this House. It has been the policy of the State to require railways and railroads to complete their operation within a certain time. It has been the policy of this State to limit that time to two years and, in certain cases, to three years. This bill comes along and gives them five years additional from the end of the time limit that they have at the present time. In other words, a railway chartered in 1913 has five years additional from 1915 and a railway which is to be built can wait until 1920 before attempting to complete its operation. I believe the policy of the State should not be changed. I believe this bill is a bad one and that it should be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 584, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Punxsutawney Hospital Association at Punxsutawney Jefferson County Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill for the appropriation of $53,000 to the Punxsutawney Hospital. The bill was introduced by the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee originally for $55,000. The appropriation of all other sessions to this hospital was somewhere about the figure of $10,000. With reference to the report from the Pennsylvania Board of Charities and the Committee on Lunacy, a report was made upon this Hospital by William G. Theurer and the report that he has made of the Punxsutawney Hospital is as follows: Report made December, 1911. "Capacity of the hospital, 34; patients, 13; entirely charity, 5; bad ventilation; cellar in bad condition; otherwise, institution in good shape." The report of the Board of Commissioners of Public Charities upon this Hospital is as follows: "Maintenance asked by the hospital, itself, of the Board of Charities, $25,000." The House will understand that all institutions file their affidavits setting forth their financial conditions. Application is made, and the application in this case calls for maintenance, $25,000; improvements, finishing basement, $500; building, finishing second story, $2,500. Or they have asked in entirely $2,800. That is what the institution itself has asked. The Commission recommends that this institution should receive about $9,600 a year. It further says that recommendation should be $9,600. They further report this hospital is in bad financial shape. Its real estate is valued at $62,000 and is encumbered by a mortgage of $50,000. It also reports a deficit at the beginning of year of $38,540 and a deficit of $2,105 for last year. A recommendation for $9,600 for one year, or $19,200 for two years is made for maintenance. The amount recommended by the Appropriation Committee is $53,000. This hospital contains 34 beds, and the report of the hospital shows that they have had hospital days for their patients amounting to 5,191; that is, taking all the beds throughout. They stated that their average per capita cost per day is $1.98. The expenses for 1912 were $18,129.62. They received from patients the sum of $8,110.84. They have received from the services of nurses $413; or a total of $8,523.84, which would give to them, from their own figures, taking into consideration the fact that it costs to maintain this whole hospital 34 beds free to the charity patients when they have but 5, it would cost them $18,129.62 to maintain. And they get $8523.84. That would give them a deficit each year of $9,605. And that is the amount that has been appropriated or recommended by the Board, $9,600 a year. Now, the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee who has offered this bill for the hospital in his own district justifies himself in asking for this increase for the purpose of giving some $20,000 for the erecting of buildings and $4,000 for an automobile for the hospital. Now, it is perfectly laudable for the gentleman who is Chairman of the Appropriation Committee to ask for an appropriation and a large appropriation for the hospital in his own immediate neighborhood, and I dare say that those of us in the House want to see him get an appropriation and a fair appropriation, but when the rest of us have to step aside when a hospital such as is in my district, when it is a lying-in hospital where a woman without a home, without a bed, must go and seek charity, a hospital to cover the whole of the city of Philadelphia gets but $22,000, and that is for lying-in for the poor girl, the woman of the street, the woman who has no home. I say, Mr. Speaker, it is wrong for the Chairman of this Appropriation Committee to come in and ask us to come in and raise his appropriation up to $53,000. I suggested to him this morning, knowing that we were going to attack this bill, that he send the bill back to his Committee, the Committee he is Chairman of, and hold it there until your bill and my bill and some other bills come out here on the floor of the House, and then we will all join with him, not only give him his $9,600 a year, but aid him to get his hospital out of its difficulties. Now, his hospital is a trifle as compared with some of the hospitals that come from districts that some of us come from. I say that his five charity patients amount to nothing as compared with every night the five souls without a pillow to lay their head on, knocking at the door of charity in my district, which gets but $22,000, and who have not asked for much more, though they ought to get $100,000. Now, Mr. Speaker, I hope that the gentleman having this bill, the Chairman of this Committee, will see the propriety of sending this bill back to his Committee and hold it there until molded to a proper figure and not stubbornly stand behind his bill and force those of us who argue this way to vote against his charity. We do not want to do it. I therefore urge that the gentleman from Jefferson will move to send his own bill back to his own committee and there hold it and there mold it so that it will be a bill that we can all support; but if he doesn't see fit to do that, I for one intend to oppose this measure.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I am at a loss to know the purpose of the gentleman from Philadelphia. Out of over 400 appropriation bills, selecting one, two or possibly three institutions out of the entire number. That the appropriation as he has stated is unfair and the amount of the increase which he says is so deceptive,—I want to say to you, gentlemen of the House, that the increase in this hospital is not more than in many other institutions I can name you—I have a list of 89 different institutions before me where the Committee recommended for improvements from one to thirty thousand dollars: Their conditions seeminly are the same as this institution's. This institution is located in a locality in a section of the State where there is a large mining population, factories, mills and other matters of industry which require the care of a hospital. The only perceptible raise in this institution is the $20,000.00 for indebtedness incurred on the repairs of these buildings. The item of an ambulance for this hospital is absolutely necessary. They get patients into this institution from a distance of 25 to 30 miles. They have no ambulance, no means of conveyance, except to bring them in on trolley cars or railroads or horses and carriages. Last Saturday morning there was a young lady brought in by automobile a distance of 28 miles, and I know of many instances where they had to bring their patients in in baskets and lay them across on the machine, the automobiles, and it is very necessary that this institution should be supplied with an ambulance and I hope the gentlemen of this House will take a view of this matter that the purpose of attacking this bill is unfair to the institution.

Mr. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, I live in the adjoining county, 28 miles from Punxsutawney and I will not be positive that I am correct, but I believe that the Punxsutawney Hospital provides for at least three or four adjoining counties. We are building a hospital now in our county, but out of the multiplicity of coal mines and thousands of laboring people cases of accidents are all taken over on the railroad to Punxsutawney. It is not like Philadelphia with its 100 hospitals that get State aid and city aid. This is in a country district and it has been a God-send to that entire region there. They have an elegant staff there. They give their services for practically nothing, and patients are shipped there for operation and in cases of accidents from all that section around there and if there is a worthy appropriation asked for in this House, I say it is that the Punxsutawney Hospital is one. This is not as if it was situated and surrounded with hospitals and I will say with all kindness, that it does not come with good grace from my friend from Philadelphia, when he stops to figure the amount of appropriation that that city gets, to take the time of this House in opposing a worthy appropriation for a hospital that is an absolute necessity in that community and has been struggling along and increasing its capacity as much as possible, employing good surgeons and I hope the members of this House will treat the County of Jefferson, that accommodates in their little hospital the surrounding counties, fairly and squarely and measure the amount in money asked for there with the amount of money that the City of Philadelphia comes in and demands from this House. "Charity begins at Home" and I think the country people should take care of the country hospitals and the city people take care of the city hospitals.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia has read to the House the report of the Board of Charities. I want to read it and read it loudly, so that you can all hear it, for possibly you have not read it and I want to read you the vital parts of it. I want to say to you that the Board of Charities has indirectly recommended all that we have given this institution.

"Their apparent need is $9,600.00 a year." Now that means that provided the capacity of the hospital should remain as it is now, but the amount of money asked for for improvement means that this hospital will be able to accommodate that terrific demand that has been made upon it in the past, that has filled its corridors with cots, by providing proper arrangements for them. The report of the institution says, "For 34 beds", but very frequently there are forty-five to fifty beds in that hospital and they are out in the corridors. Now if we give this additional to meet this great need for improvements, the number of beds will be somewhere between 50 and 60 and yet the Board of Charities recommends a little short of $20,000.00 and the Appropriation Committee, in order to meet that additional census that will be added, has only added on $4,000.00.

Now, Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of this House, we have heard the voice of Jacob and felt the hand of Esau frequently. A member of this House coming from a great city with its enormous wealth and asking the State of Pennsylvania to help those various charities in an amount which means nearly eight million dollars—that is what the requirements will show if you add them up—and yet a member from that great city comes here and singles out in a coal mining sections of our State, where any man who travels over the State must observe there are no beds in those isttutions paying $20.00 and $30.00 a week where the money can be thrown into those institutions to help maintain them. If the City of Philadelphia needs in its wealthy midst $8,000.000.00, in the coal mining district, where the gentleman from Philadelphia knows—no, I do not think he does know—but the men who traveled over this State and have come in personal contact with the conditions—and there is not a man that went over the State I do not believe but would be willing to rise here and corrobate what I tell you—from observation I want to say to this House that there is not one of these institutions that I have visited that I would no have liked to give them every dollar they asked for. In not a single one of them do I believe the money is wrongfully expended. The only proposition in this bill is in this poor coal mining district are you going to give them this assistance? Why, my fellow members, in Shenandoah there is a hospital supported entirely by the State, for that poor coal mining section and for the coal miners about Ashland there is another supported entirely by the State, and a little further on, at Hazleton, there is another supported entirely by the State. Here is an institution that has been running along there for years. The report says that they are in bad financial condition. Why in bad financial condition? Because of their efforts to aid more than their finances would warrant, and at the end of the year they have gone into the hole. Now I am not going into a long argument on this question. Here, however, in the central part of Pennsylvania in the rural districts composed largely of the poor miners we are asked whether this legislature cannot wisely grant the assistance asked for and believed to be correct by the men who are there on the ground and have no interest except to do that which is right to help this poor hospital in a poor district, and I ask every man of you to vote for this bill as it stands and as it is introduced and on the file.

Mr. CHARLES A. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, as a member of that sub-committee I feel that Ishould say that we visited that section of the State which is surrounded by nearly one hundred thousand consisting mostly of laboring men, and I wish to state right here that the hospital is worthy of every cent they ask for, for this very reason, which was not given. The figures show conclusively that sixty-five per cent. of the patients were entirely free and some 20 per cent. of the remaining number were only partly paid. Therefore you can see, gentlemen of the House, the necessity for this appropriation. The hospital was filled and the hospital needs this money, and I hope that you will give it your support.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I feel that the gentleman from Delaware is a much more brilliant painter than he is a mathematician. He has pictured this hospital with its corridors filled, with continuous knocking at the door for further admission and yet lost sight of the fact that the report which is intended as a guide for this House specifically states that there is room for but 34. There has been admissions but for 13 per day, a little more than 33-1-3 per cent. Mr. Speaker, it might be that the additions which have been suggested as necessary under this bill, which embodies an item for indebtedness already incurred, have been necessary, but it certainly has not been necessary according to the reports of the Committee which has investigated, it has not been necessary for the admissions of the people, because the requirements of the hospital have only been lived up to the extent of 40 per cent. Mr. Speaker, I do not know that this Legislature is compelled to look to the bad management of State or semi-State institutions, or wholly charitable institutions. I do know, Mr. Speaker, that so far as one particular item in the bill is concerned, I feel that no member in the House has been convinced of the necessity of that item and that is the item of $4,000.00 as suggested as absolutely needed for an automobile. In a district of this character, Mr. Speaker, and I come from the country and still live in the country—in districts of this character, I leave it to the honest judgment of this House, whether or not it is not a fact that in the great majority of cases in those seasons of the year when the cold weather has set in, when there is frost and thawing that you cannot use an automobile on the public highways; an absolute impossibility, unless you are traveling over macadamized roads or State Highway roads, and you cannot travel upon the back roads, or on the cross roads, or up the hillside or down in the hollow, because your machine will halt and you will have to send for some farmer to pull your machine out and your machine, so far as realizing the purpose for which it was intended, is absolutely a failure.

Now, further than that, it has only been a few years, Mr. Speaker, when even in our great cities the old horse ambulances met the requirements of the conditions, where there were hourly demands for ambulance service. Today, having as they have, a transient body of people in those hospitals, coming today, going tomorrow, places filled in today, being called out any time and all the time, you have your ambulances, your automobiles, with quicker service they will give; but I leave it as a matter of judgment, Mr. Speaker, whether or not an institution whose showing is only up to 13, with a capacity of 34, and that thirteen doesn't mean that thirteen new patients are received there every day. I presume that this hospital is no exception to the rule, and the man who comes in today to have a temporary dressing made, or something of that kind, becomes a patient on the books of that hospital, although he may be able to go home tomorrow or today, and he does not even need any assistance to go there. On the other hand, a man who comes there today and is there for a month or six weeks or, two months perhaps needed assistance in reaching that hospital, but did he need an automobile to go there. In the winter when the weather is breaking up, and we have chuck holes every here and there in the road, because that is the condition you find in these mining districts, if you are honest with yourselves, under these conditions, isn't better to send your team and your team ambulance out to get that man than to rely upon a buzz wagon that might not get back until tomorrow. There would be a good deal more sense in it. There are other needs that a team of horses can be put to if they are in an institution of this kind that no automobile will reach. You would not take your ambulance if you had a load of coal to be hauled to the institution. You would not take your automobile. If you had to get your hospital supplies down at the town and bring them back, to bring back a special supply, you would not take your ambulance to do that, you would have to have your team, and if you had a team it would serve the double purpose. I admit as the gentleman from Delaware has said and I am heartily in accord with his ideas on that matter that if I had my wish in the matter we would give to these needy institutions every dollar that they deserve, but I am opposed and I do enter my protest to making fish of one and foul of another. I do that and when you look with any degree of care over the appropriation bill, you will find, Mr. Speaker, that certain institutions regulated and controlled by certain people have been wonderfully favored in this matter, while the needs, the absolute needs of others which are crying for an needing actual assistance are merely winked at and given a passing glance in the great and mighty parade that is going by. Mr. Speaker, if all of the patients that have been coming into this hospital for the past year, according to the reports of this Committee, were allowed the sum of two dollars and over per day, two dollars and a half per day for the maintenance of those patients, it would not reach the sum of over ten thousand dollars for the maintenance and support. You must count and no business man can count otherwise, you have got to count on your insurance and your repairs and everything of that sort in figuring up your pro rata cost per patient, and add all the figures in the actual cost, and Mr. Speaker, I imagine that when this appropriation bill comes around next session it will show how much has been wiped out of this deficiency and it would also show that the per capita cost for the past year and the two succeeding years will be enormous and the needs much greater. It seems an absurdity to me that a hospital whose showing is thirteen patients, and whose capacity is thirty-four needs fifty-three thousand dollars out of the exchequer of this Commonwealth for buying an automobile and paying the debts incurred heretofore and for providing and supporting the prospective patients of about thirteen or more during the next year. Mr. Speaker, I would not raise my voice against this, and I will not raise it against any bill unless I think and candidly believe and feel and can show that a discrimination has been made which this House ought not to have countenanced.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be postponed for the present and be made a special order for next Monday evening at nine o'clock.

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I offer a substitute to that motion, by moving that this bill be recommitted to the Appropriations Committee.

Mr. LORENZO SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia is out of order.

The SPEAKER. Rule 22 of the House provides that a motion for postponement shall preclude commitment. Under the rule, it would appear to the Chair that the motion to recommit is not in order.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion to postpone.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Appropriation Committee.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced presented the following communication from the Governor which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1748.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 10, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1748, entitled:

"An Act relating to the height of buildings in cities of the second class limiting the height of buildings to be erected therein and making provisions for enforcing the limitations imposed by this act."

In view of the fact that a commission created by the legislature is now making an investigation of the subject matter of this bill and will recommend to the next session of the General Assembly the enactment of legislation for the proper and safe construction of buildings within the Commonwealth I am of opinion that, instead of arbitrarily limiting the height of buildings in cities of the second class, the better course would be to await the result of the investigations and recommendations of that commission.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the communication will lie upon the table. The Chair hears none.

It is so ordered.

AMENDED SENATE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented for concurrence bill numbered and entitled as follows, viz:

Senate Bill No. 10.

An Act to amend an act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act to provide for the appointment of county and city inspectors of weights and measures providing for their compensation and expenses prescribing their duties prohibiitng vendors from giving false or insufficient weights and fixing the penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof"

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment. The vote had on final passage and third reading on said bill was reconsidered in the Senate and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the house is requested.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend the title, line 7, after the word "hereof" by striking out the following: By restricting the provisions thereof to counties and cities of the second and third classes regulating the appointment and compensation of the inspectors extending their powers and duties and changing the penalties for violation of the said act

Section 1, line 39, strike out after the word "That" the following "the several boards of county commissioners and"

Line 40, after the word "class" insert "and the several boards of county commissioners"

Line 44, after the word "city" insert "Provided however that the payment of a minimum salary shall not apply to counties having a population of fifteen thousand or less'

Line 57, after the word "standards" insert "Provided further in cities of the first class the inspectors shall be appointed by the county commissioners of the county in which the said city may be located"

On the Question,

Will the House concur in the amendments of the Senate?

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House concur in those amendments. There is a question in our county whether our commissioners are city commissioners or county commissioners, and that amendment was put in to cover that.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides for the appointment of sealers of weights and measures in cities of the second and third class, fixing their term of office, but they cannot be removed at any time except for inefficiency. Under the provisions of the bill, they never can be removed except charges would be filed against them in that way? There is no term specified.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, the appointment is by the local office and it names the tenure of office under this bill.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, the act does not appear to clearly state that. It provides that they shall be named and it provides further that the county and city inspectors of weights and measures shall hold their office during good behavior and shall not be removed or discharged except for inefficiency, incapacity, or conduct unbecoming employes and until said officials shall have been furnished with written statements of the reason for such removal.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, that is nothing more than the civil service we have hollering for for the last six months. They are appointed for good behavior. They should be appointed for good behavior. If they don't behave themselves, why they can be removed.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendment of Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken, and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1967 (Senate No. 1050), entitled:

A joint resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to investigate into the causes of mine accidents in the anthracite coal regions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania authorizing the commission to conduct experiments and tests and to enter mines fixing the compensation of the members of the commission and making an appropriation to carry into effect the provisions of this resolution

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, while I feel that every safeguard should be taken to protect the men employed in and about the mines of our State and every precaution taken to avoid accidents I am convinced that the Department of Mines has all the power and rights suggested by this resolution to investigate the cause of accidents. From an examination of the 1911 anthracite report by the Chief of the Department of Mines I find that nearly 60 pages are devoted to reports of investigations of accidents during the year made by Department Inspectors. The creation of the commission suggested by this resolution with an appropriation of $25,000 is under the circumstances unnecessary.

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, the objections of the gentleman from Tioga that the Bureau of Mines has the power that is delegated in this bill, are not founded on facts. It is not true that they have any authority to investigate and make tests as to the causes of mine accidents. In other states for instance, in the state of Illinois there is appropriated fifty thousand dollars each year for the investigation of the causes of mine accidents; in Ohio twenty-five thousand dollars and in Indiana fifteen thousand dollars annually. We are only asking for the investigation of the causes of mine accidents in the anthracite regions and we are asking for twenty-five thousand dollars for the two years, or $12,500 for each year. The only fault that may be found with this resolution is to the effect that the $12,500 annually might not be sufficient. This is a meritorious measure. Any measure that would eliminate the causes of these terrible accidents in the anthracite regions is meritorious, even though it would save but one life, and I ask the members of this House to support this bill.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that we have in the State of Pennsylvania probably hundreds of mining engineers who are using every effort to solve this proposition at the present time.

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, I do not think these mining engineers are trying to solve this question. It is a known fact that they have not solved it and I do not think that they are entering into the investigation of the causes of accidents. They are not performing the proper tests.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Is it not true that the Mining Department of the State of Pennsylvania is and has been working along these lines for a number of years?

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, they are not, and I do not believe that they have the power to make the tests that are provided for in this bill.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. To what kind of tests do you refer?

Mr. CONNIFF. Tests that would tend to show for instance what support should be given to the roofs in these mines and in the gangways and chambers.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I want to support any measure that is meritorious. I may not be informed properly of mining matters, but it has occurred to me and I always believed that the Mining Department of the State of Pennsylvania was doing everything they could along this line either by reading or by experiment. I thought the mining department was doing this.

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, it is true that they are not making these tests.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I do not think anybody can object to the small amount of money that is called for in this appropriation. It is only for the matter of saving the lives of men and if the gentleman from Delaware was as familiar with mining as your humble servant he certainly would be in favor of the bill; when he understood this dangerous and hazardous work. We are only asking for this because the State at present does not have sufficient power along this line. If they did have we would not be asking for this appropriation. I say that in many cases the Mining Engineers are not giving sufficient time and thought to the safety of the men working in the mines. Their idea is to bring out modern machinery so by the use of the modern machinery they can produce coal cheaper. It is not a question of saving the lives of the miners who work in the bowels of the earth. These engineers, because the law is not enforced in a great many cases are not making these tests because they are hired by the coal companies. That is the reason why we are having so many accidents and it's pretty nearly time that our great Commonwealth cried halt on it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken, and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1383, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of further carrying out the provisions of a joint resolution approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "A joint resolution to provide for the participation of the State of Pennsylvania in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition to be held in San Francisco California in nineteen hundred and fifteen to celebrate the completion and opening of the Panama Canal and the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Pacific Ocean and providing for the appointment of a commission and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of the same"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated for the purpose of further carrying out the provisions of a joint resolution approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled 'A joint resolution to provide for the participation of the State of Pennsylvania in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition to be held in San Francisco California in nineteen hundred and fifteen to celebrate the completion and opening of Panama Canal and the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Pacific Ocean and providing for the appointment of a commission and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of the same" The money hereby appropriated shall be paid out of any moneys in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriatd to be expended on vouchers duly certified to the Auditor General by the president of the Commission

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, this is one of the appropriation bills to which even the attention of the press has been called at this time and it has been called because of the fact that institutions have had to suffer that bills of this character might pass. My attention was called, Mr. Speaker, when this bill was under consideration a few days ago to the provisions of the original bill and I must admit that when I looked into the original appropriation that I was somewhat surprised. At the last session of the House, when this commission was provided for, it was done in this way: The commission was appointed and an appropriation at that time of one hundred thousand dollars was made for the provisions as specified in the bill in the following way:

"Be it further resolved that the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof, as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby specifically appropriated to defray the expenses of the said commission, to be paid to the duly elected Treasurer thereof upon its organization, in such amounts as he may deem necessary." That is for the accounting of the money but the resolution which carried the purposes for which this commission was appointed provided for a commission of twenty-one members as follows:

"That a commission of twenty members be and the same is hereby created on the approval of the Joint Resolution, the members of said commission to be appointed by the Governor of the Commonwealth. The said Commission shall organize within thirty days after their appointment and make the necessary arrangements for the proper representation of this Commonwealth at said Exposition, including the erection of a suitable State Building and aiding exhibitors as shall in their judgment be proper, in order to secure exhibits on the part of this Commonwealth."

The part that I desire to refer to in this resolution and the part which was called to the attention of the House the other day when this bill was under consideration is this: That while always, heretofore, for making an exhibit of this kind or making an appropriation for the reception of the people of this State who might attend this exhibition, the State has erected a State Building which has been a sort of resting and meeting place for the people of the State of Pennsylvania. That commission has assisted, Mr. Speaker, if you please, the exhibitors in making arrangements to get their exhibits to that exposition and taking them away and providing for the space, etc., and there has never been a time, up to this time, that those exhibits were not exhibited in various buildings which were set apart for their reception and for their exhibition. I take it that the building which is intended under the provisions of this resolution is the same sort of building that has been provided heretofore. The condition which is attached to this resolution and to which I most seriously object is this: Having already had appropriated to that commission, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars and now having, under the provisions of this bill, an additional sum of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars appropriated, making in all a sum of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars, it rests on that commission to say how this money shall be spent, whether Tom Brown, Bill Smith or Dan Jones or anyone of them be given the whole amount for the purpose of making a single exhibit, or whether that commission distributes it among its friends as it sees fit, or otherwise. My contention is this, Mr. Speaker, that while the rest building may be necessary and should be necessary and should be a nice edifice, a monument, if you please to the advancement and the progress of this Commonwealth; while all that is true and right and should be done, I do not believe in placing in the hands of a commission which is appointed by any one power,—I don't care what that power may be,—I don't believe in the appointment of a commission which shall have in its hands funds to the extent of $350,000 to $450,000, if you please, to distribute among its friends. Heretofore the mining interests have paid their own expenses, the milling interests have paid their own expenses, the manufacturing interests have paid their own expenses, and I for one, as a member of this House of Representatives, will decline to place my stamp of approval upon turning over to any commission in this Commonwealth the sum of $100,000 added to $350,000 more to say you shall use as you see fit, and to favor whomsoever you please. The purpose, Mr. Speaker, if you please, of expositions of this kind, are two-fold; first, a great meeting place and an exhibition that will appeal to the people and bring them there,—a meeting place for the people if you please. The next purpose of an exhibition of this kind is to give the manufacturer of products an opportunity to advertise his wares. Now, where else does the state step in and do the paying for the advertising? Why should the State of Pennsylvania, Mr. Speaker, step behind some particular manufacturer and say, "Here is $10,000, $20,000 or $50,000 set aside to you for the purpose of making your exhibit at this place." Why, you take one of our home industries, Mr. Speaker. All the way from this Capitol to the Smoky City in western end of the State, on every favorable hill-side, you see the "57 Varieties." On this particular commission, and I only use this as an example, on this board of commissioners, among the twenty commissioners appointed you see the name of H. J. Heinz. H. J. Heinz does not need the State of Pennsylvania to pay for his exhibit. He makes his exhibits everywhere that there are any people to advertise to. You go down to the sea coast today, and out on his pier you see his magnificent exhibit which will be kept there until the season closes. You go to every exposition that is held in this country during the exhibition season and you will see the "57 Varieties" duly advertised. You can take the United States Steel interests in and about the State of Pennsylvania. They need no advertising and they would not ask this Commonwealth to pay one single cent to make an advertisement of their products. Their name is their advertisement and they need no helping hand in order to make that exhibit. If it be that they want to show some particular armor plate to the nations of the world whom they think will be gathered together at that place and they believe that it would justify them, they will make that exhibit without State aid. And so it goes all over this State, and I say, Mr. Speaker, for one member of the House who was here two years ago and who voted in support of this resolution, I will say that my eyes have been opened since I carefully examined the provisions of the resolution, because I knew nothing of the fact that it carried such liberties as this and extended the scope of the commission to this broad extent that is given here; that it put the $100,000 in their hands to be distributed wherever they saw fit, and I do propose now, since my eyes have been opened, Mr. Speaker, to correct as far as I can the error of two years ago by saying "Nay, nay, Pauline" tô the addition of $350,000 for the same purpose. Mr. Speaker, there is no one here on the floor of this House who is more anxious to see this State do itself justice by the erection of proper edifices for proper purposes than I am, but I do object and object most stenuously to placing large sums like this, which as I say has called itself to the attention of the public press whereby this House and its actions are being advertised, by setting aside such vast sums as this for such purposes and at the same time leaving our nedy institutions crying for aid.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether he is making his speech on the Panama question or whether he is advertising Heinz's pickles.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I will state to the gentleman from Delaware that Heinz's pickles need no advertising. Like some pickles on the floor of this House, they are duly advertised from day to day.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I may have misunderstood the gentleman from Allegheny, but I understood him to say that the passage of this bill meant about $450,000. If so, I differ with him. The bill originally, provided for $1000,000 but was cut to $50,000 by the Governor, and that Commission never used but a little over $11,000 of that money. That is the only proposition before the House and that is the one you met here a few days ago. Are we willing to vote that the exposition shall have the assistance of this State to the amount of $350,000? That is all that is before the House and I think we will approve of it again.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I want to read so that the record may be complete in this matter, and following up what I said a moment ago about the newspapers taking this up. I want to quote a squib which appeared in a local paper with reference to this self-same bill; the Harrisburg Patriot of May 29th recites the following: "Chairman S. Taylor North, Chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations, has been quoted as saying that he does not think his Committee can find the money to carry out the intent of the Ambler bill to provide such a farm village for feeble-minded women of child-bearing age. Surely a committee that can reommend an additional appropriation of $450,000,"and you will remember that that was the recommedation of the Committee—''to the Pennsylvania Panama-Pacific Exposition Commission, which has already spent more than $11,000, more than $10,000 of which went to pay for a joy ride to San Francisco and back, can find one-fourth of that sum to be used for the segregation of women to stop the multiplication of criminals, paupers, idiots, lunatics and prostitutes in this State. It will be a shame to the Pennsylvania Legislature in the year of our Lord 1913 if it adjourns finally without making a substantial beginninig towards checking this maligant social malady which, like a cancer, is eating into the very vitals of the Commonwealth." Under that charge, Mr. Speaker, each member of this House is brought face to face today with standing or falling, and I for one am willing to stand, but to clean my linen before I fall.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, I understood the gentleman to read from the Harrisburg Patriot, and I would just like to follow it up by saying that this article found in the Harrisburg Patriot is no indication that it is true any more than if it had been in the North American.

The SPEAKER. The point is well taken.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, in reply; the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen, quoting from the Harrisburg Patriot, I want to say that I am glad to have this opportunity of denying that statement. I have been misquoted on several occasions, Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House, but have refrained from paying any attention or replying to newspaper articles. But as the gentleman has seen fit to give me the publicity at this time, as I said before I am glad to have the opportunity of denying it absolutely. And to the party who quoted me, I want to say to him, if he is present, that the statement is false, absolutely false, and there is no foundation whatever for making this statement.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was in the Appropriation Committee, Section 23, which carried the appropriation for the bill, was stricken from the bill and the bill reported back to the House with the understanding that the appropriation shall be carried in the General Appropriation Bill or in a separate Appropriation Bill. Up to the present time the General Appropriation Bill has not been reported form the Committee, neither has a special appropriation bill applying to this particular bill been reported from the Committee.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I move you that section on this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. ALLWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I notice that House Bill 1574 has printed upon it that it was reported from the Committee on Judiciary Special by Mr. Ehrhardt. As it carries an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars, it is impossible for it to have been in that committee. When this bill is reprinted, I wish that Speaker would instruct the Clerk to have that correction made also.

The SPEAKER. It also shows that it was reported from the Committee on Appropriations. It is possible that this bill might have been in the Judiciary Special Committee.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. That is impossible, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, the bill was referred to the Judiciary Local committee and it is a mistake of the printers. It was referred to the Appropriations Committee but it came original from the Judiciary Local.

The SPEAKER. The correction will be made.

SENATE BILL NO. 421 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1402 (Senate Bill No. 421), entitled:

> An Act to repeal the act entitled "An Act to provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the poor in the county of Washington" approved the sixth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty and to repeal the first four sections of the act entitled "A supplement to an act entitled 'An Act to provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the poor in the county of Washington' passed the sixth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty and also 'An Act to incorporate the Monongahela Manual Labour Academy'" approved the twenty-ninth day of March Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six and to repeal the act entitled "A supplement to the laws for the relief and support of the poor in the counties of Washington Green and Fayette approved April sixth one thousand eight hundred and thirty" approved the thirtieth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five so far as it relates to Washington county be made a special order of business for Tuesday, June 17th, at eleven o'clock A. M.

Mr. BROWNLEE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1104, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Highway Department to be used in deepening straightening widening and otherwise improving Turtle Creek so as to prevent damage and danger from floods and overflows and granting to the said State Highway Department the authority to make said improvements

Whereas Turtle Creek within the County of Allegheny was by act of Assembly approved the sixteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight declared to be a public highway and the part or portion thereof extending from the western boundary line of Westmoreland County westwardly through Allegheny County to the mouth of said Creek at the Monongahela River into which it empties is bounded on the south by North Versailles Township and on the north by the boroughs of Wilmerding Turtle Creek East Pittsburgh and North Braddock all being densely populated districts and all the abutting property being occupied and covered throughout by railroads and manufacturing corporations as well as individual owners of property and

Whereas By reason of the devious winding and crooked course of said creek within said limits by its narrow width and insufficient banks as well as by obstructions which have found their way into the bed of said stream during the long course of years and by reason of the accumulation of silt and other substances in the bed of said stream to such an extent as to greatly interfere with and injure and destroy the efficiency of the sewage systems of the said abutting districts so much so as to endanger the public health of the citizens in the vicinity and throughout said districts and

Whereas by reason of the premises disastrous floods have occurred and recurred with great frequency particularly during the past ten years at which time said stream has overflown its banks devastating large areas within said districts and in its vicinity by which very great damage and injury have from time to time resulted and

Whereas Said public highway or stream by reason of the premises is a proper subject for state consideration to the end that the evils recited may be cured and the health and property of the citizens may be guarded and protected therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary be and the same is hereby appropriated for the purpose of deepening straightening widening and otherwise improving Turtle Creek at such points as the said Highway Department deems most necessary for the protection of the State Highway and the health of the public also including if found necessary the construction of retaining walls dredging and the removal of obstructions from the bed of said creek

Section 2 The said Highway Department is authorized directed and empowered to make the improvements provided for in section one of this act either with or without cooperation and assistance from the abutting and adjacent owners of property along and near to said creek to prepare plans and specifications therefor and let contract or contracts therefor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman what the intent of the bill is?

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides for the deeping and widing of Turtle Creek. During the last ten or fifteen years the stream has gradually filled up until now the bottom is almost level with the bank.

I think they then took out the gravel and put it on this road, which parallels this and thus relieved the sewer system. The sewer was two or three feet below the bed of the stream. We ask to be granted this appropriation.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1204. entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Gatlin Institute of Pittsburgh

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I ask the sponsor of the bill to explain the purpose of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. H. P. Kuhns.

Mr. H. P. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, The Gatlin institution is a corporation under the laws of Pennsylvania for the treatment of the liquor habit only.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman how many patients are being treated in the institution?

Mr. H. P. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, I really don't know that.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, how many sessions have the Legislature been giving appropriations to this institution?

Mr. H. P. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, they never got an appropriation before.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr Speaker, I think that this bill shows the extent to which this House is going with its appropriations. If those of us who are opposing absolutely absurd extravagance of this Legislature in giving away millions of dollars belonging to this very rich State, to my mind this is the limit. Here is a private institution for the purpose of curing the liquor habit coming to the State, asking for twenty thousand dollars appropriation and they get two thousand dollars appropriation. If we would tolerate such a bill as this at this session, next year we will be giving them twenty thousand dollars and possibly the next session after that we will be giving them a hundred thousand dollars. We find that appropriations in this Legislature always grow larger; none of them diminish. We find appropriations to some State departments starting ten years ago with the modest sum of twenty thousand dollars a year and in 1913 we appropriated $1,200,000.00 to that same department. To allow such appropriations, while it involves but the sum of two thousand dollars, it starts a precedent which we don't know where it will end. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Samuel B. Scott, has already said in his remarks against the character of the appropriations for the educational institutions of the State of Pennsylvania, that we are going beyond all limit, without any guiding hand in appropriations of that character, but there is excuse for our extravagance in appropriations of the nature of an educational appropriation. There is an excuse for our extravagance of our giving with child-like confidence in the Appropriations Committee any appropriations to charitable institutions, but where, Mr. Speaker, can there be any excuse for us to allow such appropriations as this—two thousand dollars to a private institution for the cure of the drinking habit to be sung through the House with 138 votes—surely we cannot go to this extent. If the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kuhn, has a meritorious claim for this character of appropriation and shows to us that we should give serious thought to this bill, in thus starting a new avenue that we should aid him in whatever we can with the little information he is able to give to the House, but he should not expect us to vote for this appropriation. as it stands to-day with the information at hand. I will suggest to him, if he wants to save this bill, that he move to postpone it and then come back with full information later, so that we can argue the matter pro and con.

When I make that suggestion I expect to hear from the gentleman from Delaware, who will object; I expect to hear from my friend from Philadelphia, who I suppose will object; I expect to hear from all of the gentlemen of the House who have been going along as they have for the protection, in their estimation, of the administration, and say that this is an attack upon their friend, the Executive. Now, it is not. It is a mere protection to ourselves and we are sane in our legislation we will stop and halt the matter right here. The gentleman from Allegheny should not press this matter now and should not ask us to vote upon it without giving the House full information upon the subject.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, there is a saying in the good book that "we strain at a gnat and swallow a camel." There are certain gentlemen on the floor of this House who have gone along and advocated the appropriation of upwards of a million and a half dollars and never winked an eye. Here we come along with a little appropriation of two thousand dollars to help out poor unfortunate down and out drunkards which some people think the State has been a party to in the making them such, and here is an institution trying to help these poor men who have lost their property and their manhood by this method, to help them to get back on their feet and then we have men here who oppose them. It seems to me that it is a proper appropriation and the State ought never to want to avoid doing anything to help in such cases. I am in favor of this bill and would like to see it pass.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Rockwell.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Rockwell, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether he is familiar with the institution?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, only so far as this bill goes.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman ever visited the institution?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, no, sir.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know whether there is any poor broken down drunkards in that institution that are being supported without compensation?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I only know from the reading of the bill what the institution is and what the purpose of it is. The bill says it is to treat men and try to cure them of the liquor habit.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentlemen know how long this institution takes to cure a man and turn him out?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, no. sir.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman be surprised to learn that they cure them in two or three days and charge them a hundred and twenty-five dollars. This gentleman referred to the fact that we passed large appropriation bills and never winked and I ask that gentleman from Tioga if he has any information whatever on this institution?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I think if the gentleman from Philadelphia knows so much about this institution it is needless to furnish him with any information.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, is that the gentleman's reply to the question—I am asking for information.

Mr. W. A. BLAIR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman who introduced this bill

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kuhns, permit himself to be interrogated by the gentleman from Cambria?

Mr. H. P. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. W. A. BLAIR. Mr Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he knows what the charges are for treating these cases?

Mr H. P. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, I believe it is a hundred and twenty-five dollars for a cure. They are supposed to be cured in four or five days.

Mr. W. A. BLAIR. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that any institution that can cure the drink habit in four or five days for one hundred and twenty-five dollars a case, that it should be self-sustaining.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1204 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. H. P. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present and that it be made a special order for Monday evening at ten o'clock.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1257, entitled:

An Act to reimburse the heirs of Eliza Mellon deceased for money escheated from the Western Saving Fund Society of Philadelphia and authorizing the State Treasurer to refund the sum of sixty-five dollars and eight cents ($65.08)

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. GRAMLEY. Mr. Speaker I rise to a point of ininformation. I say that when a grandchild gets one-half of all there is, there is only a half left and when that half is divided among six equally each one gets one-twelfth. I, therefore, ask to amend line eight of section one, changing the word "one-sixth" to "one-twelfth."

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I ask that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. GRAMLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, this is only one of a series of amendments which are in the hands of the Clerk pertaining to this bill. The proposed amendments are to restore the bill to the shape in which it was reported from the Committee on Judiciary General. This is a bill that was drafted, using as a skeleton a bill introduced by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Gray, for the purpose of carrying into effect the recommendations of the Committee that was appointed to investigate the organization of the employees of the House and Senate. The Committee on Judiciary General, carrying into effect the report of that Committee, embodied the report in two bills, one applying to the House and one to the Senate. The bill as it was reported from the Judiciary General Committee, was the bill that applied to the Senate. The bill as it has been mutilated and mangled, after it was referred back to the Committee on Judiciary General, has removed from it every purpose that the Committee had in mind when it framed the bill. I trust that this House will adopt all the amendments which have been offered, carrying into effect the purpose which is outlined in order that this bill may carry into effect the scheme of organization that was adopted by the committee which made the investigation. The organization for the Senate was patterned after the organization for the House, and I have reason to believe that it is a system that will be conductive to more efficiency, both in the House and Senate. I have been told by several on the other side of the House that they were anxious to have this matter pushed in order that they could secure the same improvement in the system of the organization of employees as we have undertaken to secure for the House in another bill. I trust that the House will adopt this and the other amendments which follow.

Mr. FRANK GRAY. Mr. Speaker, I agree with the gentleman that it was a skeleton. Now I have tried to put a little flesh on it. This bill now is a bill that covers both the House and the Senate employees. The bill as he has stated was mine, was taken for the Senate, and the bill introduced by him was used for the House. I cannot see, if this bill suits the members of the House, any reason why two bills should go over to the Senate when one will answer the purpose. It is up to the members of this House to say whether they will agree to this bill or wait for the other one. The other bill is on final passage and we have no Senate bill except we amend this one, but as it is I refuse to accept it as sponsor. I think this is a good bill, and if I can get 103 more in the House to vote the same way, why it will go through.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, the purpose that has been in the mind of those who are interested in this subject was that the employees of the House and Senate would give better service and the organization would be more effective if they were elected to work as clerks for the House or as other employees of the House under the control of the elective officers of the House, and not to be appointed to particular positions in order that they might not have the excuse of saying, when they were asked to do some particular thing, that it was not one of the duties of the particular position to which they were elected. Today we have employees who have not done a single stroke of work since this session started, simply because there has been no work in the particular position to which they were elected, while in other department of the House—and the same is true of the Senate—other employees have been compelled to work overtime, to work fifteen and sixteen hours a day at times, simply because of the rush that came on them at certain times while these other employees have had absolutely nothing to do. The purpose that we have had in mind was to equalize the work so that every man in the House would have only a certain amount of work to do, could perform his duties within certain hours, or by working a certain number of hours, and each one would bear his share of the burden. This bill, as now amended, goes back to the old system so that men are elected to particular positions, and in the future, if this bill was passed, we would have absolutely no improvement on the present system and there would be absolutely no equalization in the hours of labor or in the amount of labor that is being performed by the different employees.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire at this time to call up House Bill No. 954 on page 12 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed for the present.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 954, entitled:

An Act to amend an act entitled "An Act regulating the sale of milk and its fluid derivatives in cities of the first providing for the licensing of those engaged in that business and providing penalties for the violation thereof" approved the twenty-seventh day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine so as to provide for an annual license fee each calender year prescribing the fees therefor and providing for the numbering recording and posting of such licenses and the appplications for new annual licenses

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this bill does noe carry an appropriation. It is a butter and milk bill introduced at the request of Doctor Neff Director of Public Health under Mayor Blankenburg of Philadelphia and the purpose is the regulating and licensing of milk dealers. I appreciate the fact that the gentleman from Delaware will likely oppose it. I suppose some of the gentlemen in the House and all the gentlemen from Philadelphia in the House will be enthusiasticly in favor of this bill. As the Chairman of the Committee I will state that this bill has absolutely no protest against it. (Laughter). I, therefore, for the unanimous consent of the House. Under the present law the Director of Public Health licenses the milk dealers generally. This gives him the right of the renewal of the license. It reduces the license fee of five dollars to a fee of one dollar. But possibly the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Campbell is familiar with this bill and can explain it. I don't think that there is any opposition to it. (Laughter).

Mr. J. J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, under the old act which provides a five dollar license fee which is perpetual. Under this act, it is a dollar a year. The health authorities has a right to go into any one's place and take the license away from them immediately. I ask the House to vote this bill down.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was not agreed to.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, there is nothing on the calendar tonight; therefore my motion to amend the motion of the gentleman from Crawford until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, we have on the calendar a lot of final passage bills, sixteen of them, that have not been reached yet and we have a great number on first reading, and a short session tonight will clean up the final passage calendar and move the first reading bills on to second reading tomorrow. It will require only a short session to make considerable headway and it will save the day.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is informed by the Clerks that if we could pass these bills to night, we would probably reach an early adjournment tomorrow forenoon.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not think we will gain a particle of time. The Appropriation Committee is holding a meeting tonight and is very desirous of getting the general appropriation bill out and would like to have a full membership. It will be a matter of gaining time instead of losing time by adjourning tonight until 10 o'clock omorrow. You will absolutely gain time. I hope the amendment to adjourn until tomorrow morning will prevail.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment to the motion?
It was agreed to.

On the question,

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, this bill is known as the Cemetery Bill, which was defeated by a vote of 96 to 57. It has been amended to include the County of Philadelphia only but even with this amendment it still affects the following cemeteries:

Cedar Hill and Association.

Fair Hill, belonging to the Soceity of Friends and Quakers.

Knights of Pithias, at Frankford.

Laurel Hill, North, South and East.

Levington, Manayunk.

Monument, Mt. Moriah—Two Jewish cemeteries, Mt. Sinai.

Mt. Peace.

Mt. Vernon, German.

German Lutheran.

Northwood. Germantown.

Glenwood.

It will not be very long before this act would affect Allegheny County with over one million inhabitants.

This bill is not just to the people who have purchased lots in cemeteries on the lawn plan, of which they are now and should be barred forever.

The condition remains the same as when I spoke against this bill the last time and the bill should be defeated.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor, Mr. Humes, to explain as to the difference in the number of the employees under the new bill and the old and the decrease in the expenditure.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I thought that every member of the House understood this bill by this time. I can not tell the exact number of employees and in which this bill differs from the present law it makes a difference of something in the neighborhood of between twenty-five and thirty-five thousand dollars on a session based on a hundred and thirty-five days.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, a reduction.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir, a reduction of from twenty-five to thirty-five thousand dollars. The whole report of the committee upon this bill was based on a saving of something like forty thousand dollars. This does not include the Senate reduction. My recollection that a portion of the reduction places this bill approximately at least at a saving of twenty-five thousand dollars.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman tell us the number of employees under the new bill or if there is any difference in the number of the employees from those under the old bill.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I could have told a few days ago exactly what that number is. I do not have it in mind just at this time. But the employees provided for by this bill are sufficient as I think every one that is familiar with the situation agrees to take care of all the work there is to be done in this House. I think the reduction of the number of employees under the new bill is in the neighborhood of from twelve to fifteen or possibly twenty, but they are all rearranged.

The thirty-fourth section was read and agreed to as follows:

When Act Takes Effect

The title was read as follows:

An Act creating a Department of Charities defining its powers and duties restricting the issuance of warrants by the Auditor General for the payment of money to certain institutions prohibiting the solicitation of appropriations by officials and employes of institutions regulating the responsibility for maintenance of beneficiaries transferred from one institution to another providing for the return of alien indigent insane persons and abolishing the Board of Public Charities

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment to the title.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Title line 7. Strike out "and.'
Title line 8. After "charities" insert "and repealing certain acts."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The title as amended was then agree to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to the fact that this bill is providing a salary for the head of a department of ten thousand dollars a year. It provides another salary of six thousand dollars annually. It provides for salaries I think of three other officers at somewheres about three thousand dollars a year. The bill is intended to take the place of what is known as the State Board of Charities, the head of which Department draws no salary. In my judgment the State Board of Charities without any salaries will do just as good work as an organization with all these salaries attached. We all know that the State Board has given efficient service to the State at no expense and I feel that we should not pass a bill of this character placing these additional salaries and expenses upon the State, and I think that this bill might as well be defeated now.

Mr. O'NEIL. Mr Speaker, I want to call the attention of the House to this bill. The present Board of Charities has now been in existence for over thirty years and there has never been an investigation or any scandal connected with it. If we pass this bill the State will be put to an expense of $150,000 a year and I move you Mr. Speaker, that it be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this bill was placed upon the calendar after it had been negatived recommended by the appropriations committee. This bill was put upon the calendar by a motion offered by myself and seconded by the sponsor of the bill not with the hope that this bill was going to become a law this session, but it is a bill that is aimed towards relieving what we have seen of this legislature, the blind giving away of money by means of appropriations. For us to defeat the bill now without discussion would be to my mind a very great mistake. This is legislation that while we cannot possibly accomplish it at this late date of the session, it is legislation that eventually has to become a law. The people, Mr. Speaker, are going to learn, those who have not already learned, that we sit here on the floor of this House and vote thousands and thousands and millions of dollars to the various charitable and educational institutions without knowledge whatever as to the merits of the institutions. Now for us to have that great power to sit here in the legislature voting away the vast millions of dollars that we do each session, is ridiculous. And for any one to say that the present Board of Charity is sufficient fails to go to the full extent. Undoubtedly the gentleman that hold the officers of being members of the Charity Board are men who give their services without compensation and do it most charitably, and the men who hold the salaried positions undoubtedly efficiently do their work, but this legislation is a start or entering wedge of legislation that is going to take from this Legislature the responsibility of voting these millions of dollars away without knowing what we are voting for, and it is going to establish a department and that department will have the money voted over it. It will be a sort of commissary department,, a department that will give out to the various charities the amount of money the charity should have. This bill should not disturb the gentleman from Delaware who are friendly to the present Board of Charities. There is no thought of this becoming a law this session. The bill is offered for the purpose of having a full discussion to get the views of those that favor this kind of legislation, and the views of those who oppose it? It is done for the purpose of raising in the public press public interest in this character of legislation, and as I predicted the other day in putting this bill on the calendar, the man who takes up this legislation and makes it has campaign basis and goes before the people is coming back here with a real live issue. There will be some person in the Legislature who will grab this issue, educate the people to what it means, and write his name down to a high position among the people. Now, Mr. Speaker, in order that we will not merely drop this bill from the calendar.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL.

I move the further consideration of it be postponed for the present,

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it seems very strange that I do not hold the same views on some subjects that the gentleman from Philadelphia does, but I think he crosses himself sometimes, and I think that he has crossed himself badly in the argument he offers at the present time. His whole action this session has been to distruct the reports of the various departments of this State, but a great many of us have a great deal more confidence in the different departments. He has a right to his position. Some of us have the confidence in the Departments and in our committees and vote for the legislation that is recommended by the committees or that comes from our various departments, containing a monetary proposition. The gentleman tells the House that there is no hope of passing this bill. I do not know why he should have that conclusion until it comes to a vote. I do not know whether he is opposed to the bill or not. He said that we ought to discuss it, and therefore I have an invitation from him to discuss the other phase of it. The other phase is this: There is practically twenty millions of dollars annually of this state's revenue divided throughout the State among various institutions. This bill, according to the gentleman from Philadelphia is going to create a board of commission to have sole control of that money. Now the truth of that matter is that we probably will have no more confidence in the report of a commission that handle fifteen millions of dollars, than we would have the report of a department of this State that asks for two hundred thousand dollars. In all probability the Legislature in the future would have a greater distrust because of the greater volume of money. Under the present law, we have the State Board of Charities composed of men who get no pay and who ask for no pay, but who have given efficient services.

Examine all of the accounts coming in, examine the records of the Auditor General and find out every dollar that has been expended and as his vouchers are deposited to correspond with their expenditures and the representatives or the agents of the State Board of Charities goes into every one of these institutions and examines the expenditures and to find out whether or not they are proper or probably what they ought to be. This department can do no more, certainly, and the gentleman from Philadelphia don't intend to say to this House that this man is going to have the expenditure of this great sum of money and that the Legislature of the future is going to hand it over to them and if he does, I don't think this House will give a single vote for that proposition. The only proposition contained in this legislation is whether it is better to have a State Commission go ahead with salary the same as the Governor of the State of ten thousand dollars a year with three deputies at six thousand dollars each, to remain here and read reports by the agents, and running expenses up to fifteen or twenty million dollars. If that is what the House wants, pass the bill. If they don't want that, then we don't want to pass this bill. That is all there is to this proposition and that is all that is involved.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. John R. K. Scott.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia Mr. John R. K. Scott, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. HUMES Mr. Speaker, I would like to know what section or portion of this bill would accomplish the method of distributing appropriations or aid to local institutions in the manner he has described. I have failed to find it and would like to know to which section he refers.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Crawford is entirely right. I have sought to place this bill on the calendar to have discussion on legislation of this type. This bill does not meet with the approval of many and I don't believe that the gentleman from Crawford, himself, approves of it. A great many of those associated with myself don't approve of it. The bill as it is drawn now, undoubtedly won't meet the conditions, and that is what the gentleman from Delaware has said with much force. My motion now may be appreciated by the fact that we are pressing towards the end of the session, and it is merely that this bill may be placed on the postponed calendar and then called up with an opportunity to have all the intelligent views of the gentleman from Delaware and the gentleman from Crawford, whom I know has expressed, privately, his views upon this legislation, and it will lead towards legislation that will relieve the condition such as we find here in 'this Legislature under the present law. My motion to postpone may prevail or not—just as the House sees fit. If the House feels that it wants no discussion on legislation of this character, they can vote accordingly. I press my motion to have this bill postponed for further consideration.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I supplement that by amending to postpone indefinitely.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I think I had the floor. It was rather a long answer to my question to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. John R. K. Scott, but I waited courteously until he was through.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Humes, has the floor.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, if this bill accomplishes what the gentleman from Philadelphia inferred at least, that it ought to accomplish, in his first remarks, I think I would possibly be the last one to join in any effort to dispose of it in any unceremonious manner. I believe that the gentleman is absolutely right when he says that the appropriations to charitable institutions of the State are being made on the wrong basis and that the system needs improving. I believe that even the much troubled Chairman of the Appropriations Committee will agree with that proposition, but this bill does not do that. There is a bill, however, that does do that. I think that the gentleman from Philadelphia is confused in the bills and that the bill that he has in mind, when he makes the statement which he has made to-night, is a bill which I have the honor to be sponsor of and which is now reposing quietly in the Appropriations Committee. It strikes me that we need not incur an enormous expense in distributing funds to the public charities of the State, but that we can put the charities in a position where they can secure relief in an orderly way on the per capita method, so they get just what they earn and it is purely within a mathematical proposition the same as the present support that is given to the indigent insane and that it is not necessary to create an expenditure of one hundred and fifty or one hundred and sixty thousand dollars in creating such a department as this bill creates. I think that if the gentleman will save his thunder and his effort to discuss the question of the method of hospital appropriation until we can discuss it on a bill that will accomplish all the things that he desires to accomplish, that he will render a greater service to this House and to the State than by occupying the time of the House with a bill that creates a lot of new and unnecessary positions.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion for indefinite postponement.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr Speaker, I desire to say that the gentleman from Crawford is quite right. There is no question that the bill in the Appropriation Committee meets with the approval of many of us and his bill was the outcome of this same discussion. I would suggest that the gentleman from Crawford do as was done by those of us who brought this bill on the calendar, by having his bill brought out with an affirmative recommendation from the Committee on Appropriations and have it put upon the calendar and when this bill comes out let it be discussed. It won't take more than an hour of the time of the House and, undoubtedly, the result will be a very great benefit to the Commonwealth.

BILL POSTPONED.

The SPEAKER. The question is upon the motion to postpone further consideration of this bill for the present.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. CLAYCOMB Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from bills on second reading, page 22, House Bill No. 1369.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, June 12th, 1913.

The House met at 10 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (George E. Alter) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The CHAPLAIN (Rev. J. E. Wright) offered the following prayer:

O God, give us a sense of the security we have; of the assured protection in Thy Fatherly love and favor. Like a Father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him. Thou dost love us with an abiding, unchanging love and a love which is infinitely wise and generous and true. Our forgetfulness and waywardness, even our selfishness and sins, cannot change Thy love. When we wander out of the way Thou dost graciously follow us and restore us to our place; when our feet slip or stumble along the path and we unhappily fall, Thou dost tenderly lift us up and set us upon our feet.

Even when we imitate the Prodigal of the Parable, gathering all our substance and turning away from the Father's house to waste it or spend it in reckless living, still Thou dost regard us, awaiting the troubles which will surely come and the cry of penitence, and will hold a place for us in the Father's house with the robe and the rainment and the kiss of forgiveness and welcome. This love is high; we cannot attain unto it. It is broad and deep; we cannot measure it.

May it impress us profoundly; may we answer to it with the love of our own poor hearts; may it constrain us to do Thy will and to keep Thy commandments; may it inspire us to aspriations that will imitate Thee and so grow to be like Thee. We commend ourselves now to the keeping of Thy providence and grace, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

The CLERK proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, when upon motion of Mr. Wiltbank, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2056 (Senate No. 1259), entitled:

On the question,

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, as this bill seems to be of such great "perniciosity" I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Benninger.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BENNINGER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman why cities should not be able to protect themselves against tubercular cattle?

Mr. BENNINGER. Mr. Speaker, if the cities of this State were to enforce this test, it would destroy half the cows in the State and the city people would pretty soon be without milk.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I never drink milk myself.

The SPEAKER. The Chair was under the impression that the gentleman from Philadelphia was a Progressive.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was not agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1392 (Senate No. 158), entitled:

An Act to authorize the Board of Commissioners of every township of the first class to establish lights upon State Highways in such townships

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to insert an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Title, line 2, After the word "highways" insert the words "and turnpike roads"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment? Is there any objection?

The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to on third reading.

Ordered, That the bill lie over for printing.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendments.

The SPEAKER. The remaining bills on the calendar are appropriation bills. If they were appropriations to private institutions, it would be manifestly impossible to proceed further at this time. However, they are all appropriations of expenditures by the State itself and therefore, we can proceed to act upon them. The first bill is House Bill No. 19.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 19, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the erection of a monument in the borough of Wrightsville Pennsylvania to mark the most eastern point reached by the Confederate Army during the Civil War

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, it is characteristic of a decadent age to spend the energies and the capital which might otherwise be devoted to progress, in the celebration of the exploits of ancestors who are more worthy than ourselves. It was the decadent Greeks who celebrated the deeds of the heroes of Homer who erected statues to Hercules, whose counterpart they could not find among themselves. My attention has been attracted to a remarkable series of attempted legislation which has been introduced in the House and the Senate, all towards the celebration or commemoration of some fact or circumstance of the past. Similar bills have been introduced in the past, in former sessions.

One or two each session would create no remark, but so numerous have these bills become this session that I have thought it worth the effort to peruse the whole calendar, and I have been astonished that there have been forty separate and distinct bills of this kind introduced in this Legislature and that they carry a total appropriation of $1,665,400.00. In order to show you the various character of these bills, I will simply read a few words from the title of each to indicate their purpose.

Bill numbered 19, an appropriation for the erection of a monument in the borough of Wrightsville, Pennsylvania to mark the most eastern point reached by the Confederate Army during the Civil War, five thousand dollars.

Bill No. 22, for the erection of a tablet marker or a monument to commemorate the services and patriotism during the Civil War of the Allen Infantry of Allentown, Pennsylvania, officially known as Company G, Twenty-fifth regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers and commonly styled the First Defender. $1,600.00.

Bill No. 80, for the erection by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of a statute in memory of General George Meade, $17,500.00.

Bill No. 129, for the erection of a monument to commemorate the services of the Forty-seventh regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers in the Battle of Cedar Creek, Virginia, $3,300.00.

Transportation of veterans to Gettysburg, which of course, is an unusual matter, $165,000; to the commissioners of Valley Forge Park, $202,000; One Hundred and Ninety-Eight Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers Infantry at the battles of Poplar Grove Church, Hatches Run, Lewis Farm, Gravely Run, Five Forks, and at Appomatox Court House, for the erection of a suitable monument, $5,000; to the Gettysburg Battlefield Memorial Commission for various purposes, $55,000; an act for carrying into effect the provisions of a concurrent resolution—it does not say what it is for—$20,000; to purchase of historical works, $6,000; marking site of Battle of Brandywine, $10,000; Paoli Parade Ground, $10,000; Celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation, $75,000; for the commemoration of the founding of the public school system, $100,000; monument on the Grand Army of the Republic lot in Mount Vernon Cemetery in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, $6,000; commemoration of the conference of the Governors of sundry loyal States, $50,000; monument to commemorate the heroine of the battle field of Monmouth, known as "Mollie Pitcher," $15,000; authorizing counties to appropriate moneys for monuments or memorials in memory of the soldiers, sailors and marines of the Spanish-American War, any old sum; Panama-Pacific International Exposition, $450,000, reduced recently to $350,000; soldiers' memorial monument in Cambria county, Meade township, $2,500; for the erection of a monument for the reception and preservation of certain relics of the Battleship Maine, $25,000; monument and memorial tablets to Battery F, Pennsylvania Artillery, $2,500; monument and memorial tablets to Battery F, Independent Pennsylvania Artillery (known as the Hampton Battery) on the Battlefield of Chancellorsville, $2,500; acquiring and marking the site of Fort Morris, $1,000; Fiftieth Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg Commission, $195,000; to arrange for and supervise the transfer from the Library and Museum building to the new cases in rotunda of the Capitol building of the flags of Pennsylvania commands in the War of the Rebellion and Spanish-American War, $10,000; for the restoration of the brig Niagara, $75,000; General Braddock Memorial Park Association of Fayette county, $10,000; for the revision of Bates' History of Pennsylvania Volunteers, $10,000; designating the Monday after the second Sunday in May of each year as a public legal holiday to be known as Mothers' Day; for establishment of a park at or near the spot where General George Washington crossed the Delaware, $25,000; erection upon the grounds of the Allegheny Arsenal at Pittsburgh of a monument in memory of the persons who lost their lives by an explosion, $1,000; erection of a monument to General Stephen Moylan, $20,000; for a survey of Militia Hill and Fort Hill as a site for a public park with an approach from Philadelphia, $10,000; erection of a monument or memorial structure in the State Capitol grounds at Harrisburg in memory of the soldiers, sailors and marines from Pennsylvania who participated in the war with Spain in the Philippine Insurrection and in the China Relief Expedition, $50,000; to the Executive Department to provide for representation of Pennsylvania at the celebration to commemorate peace between Great Britain and the United States, $3,000; Battlefield Commission of the Third Division Ninth Army Corps, $1,000; for the creation of a proper fence or coping and pavement to protect a monument erected near Petersburg, Virginia, $1,500; monument to Colonel Henry Boquet and his soldiers on the Bushy Run Battlefield, $5,000; concurrent resolution, et cetera, for the commemoration of Pennsylvania soldiers who perished in Confederate prison at Florence, North Carolina, $20,000.

Mr. Speaker, I think the extraordinary number and variety of these bills require some comment. Now, if I undertook to attack each bill in its place, it might be said that I lacked patriotism; that I tried to attack some poor, little monument or some $5,000 or $1,000 celebration. Mr. Speaker, I think the time has come for modern patriotism; to cease spending our money in the commemoration of things long past, which are now history, and to spend it in the doing of acts which will reserve the health and safety of the people of the present time. There were slaves in the old days; they have been emancipated. But there are slaves of the present day, wage slaves, industrial slaves, slaves of sickness and disaster.

I think that this million six hundred thousand dollars and more, instead of being appropriated to the celebration of war-like victories of the past, ought to be dedicated to peaceful victories of the present. Do noble deeds. Act, act in the living presence, heart within and God our head.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. S. B. Scott.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Yes, sir.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know what is the exact appropriation to General Meade's monument. He reads there $17,500. I would like to know if that is the correct amount.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I have quoted the bills as they were introduced in the Legislature. A number have been modified, but I know most of them have been reported from the committee in their original form.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, the way I understand it, he wants to convey a false impression to this House. It was just as easy for him to get the corrected bills as it was to get those.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I conveyed no false impression. I have stated the facts; I have cited the bills introduced into the Legislature. I have cited the further fact that most of them have come out, many of them have passed the Senate; and the total appropriation, if they all pass, will be very little less than I cited as the total amount introduced.

Mr. WILTBANK. Then, Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman. I would like to know if there was not only $15,000 appropriated to General Meade's statue at Washington?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman is simply proving my assertion. The difference between $15,000 and $17,500 is about the average of deduction.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. W. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn for the week.

The motion was agreed to and (at 11:55 o'clock A. M.) the House adjourned until Monday, June 16th, at 8 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor John M. Reynolds) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain of the House of Representatives, Rev. J. E. Wright, offered the following prayer:

Oh, God, as Thy servants enter upon the work of this week, wilt Thou graciously grant unto them energy of will and resolution of purpose that whatsoever their hands find to do, they may do it with their might. May they not undervalue or depreciate in any way the work assigned them, remembering its importance, its far-reaching influence; that it affects vast numbers of people; that it has to do with interests which are vital and precious; that it helps or hinders by its efficiency; uplifts or keeps down. May they render it conscientiously therefore, seeking to do it in the best way and with a view to the best results. May judgment and reason, heart, conscience and will all contribute their quota of influence toward happy solution of the problems presented. May that blessing which maketh rich and addeth no sorrow be upon this whole circle; upon Thy servant, the presiding officer of the Senate, upon each individual member and upon all who contribute in any way to the work which is here being wrought. We ask it with all else needful for us in the name and for the sake of Christ Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session when, on motion of Mr. DeWITT, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

COMMUNICATION FAVORING MATT PENSION BILL FOR PENNSYLVANIA SOLDIERS.

He also laid before the Senate communication which was read as follows and referred to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities:

Brookville, Pa.,
June 12, 1913.

Hon. Jno. M. Raynolds, Lt. Gov.
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir—

Is it possible that the Matt Pension Bill for Pa. soldiers must die in the Senate? Has Penna. lost all her honor for the battle-scarred veterans of July, 1863? Why mock us with bills introduced but to die? while the millions of Pa.'s wealth that were made possible by our lives and bodies are lavishly donated to almost every conceivable object.

Can you not put the Senate upon record for or against this Matt bill?

Respectfully yours,

J. C. WHITEHILL,
Brookville, Penna.
Jefferson Co.

P. S. Our Senator writes me that he is ready to do all in his power in aiding the passage of this bill and we believe our Governor is favorable, his written statement gives us that belief.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE BOARD OF PUBLIC EDUCATION, SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA, PROTESTING AGAINST THE PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1450.

He also laid before the Senate communication which was read as follows and referred to the Committee on Education

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC EDUCATION
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA
CITY HALL, PHILADELPHIA.

June 11, 1913.

At a meeting of the Board of Public Education, School District of Philadelphia, held at its chamber on Tuesday, June 10, 1913, the following preambles and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, There is pending in the Senate of Pennsylvania a bill already passed by the House, known as the Hackett Bill No. 1450, which authorizes the Boards of School Visitors to dismiss janitors of Elementary Schools without the consent of the Board of Public Education as now required, and

Whereas, Since the approval of the act of April 22, 1905, when the control of engineers and janitors of the public schools was placed in the hands of the Board of Public Education and said employes were properly organized under a Superintendent with disciplinary powers, the character of the work done has been of such marked improvement that the proposed change could not help but bring about a condition detrimental to the school system, therefore

Resolved, That the Board of Public Education of the School District of Philadelphia earnestly protests against the passage of House Bill No. 1450, entitled "An Act supplementing and amending section 2208 of Article XX of an Act entitled 'An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, etc,'' and asks in the interests of good school government that the bill in question be negatived.

Resolved, That a copy of the above, duly attested, be forwarded to the Governor and both branches of the Legislature.

From the minutes.

HENRY R. EDMUNDS,
President.

WM. DICK,
Secretary.

To Lieut. Governor John M. Reynolds,
President of the Senate,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1114, entitled "An Act making the land heretofore or hereafter purchased for the new Western Penitentiary in Centre County subject to taxation for local purposes regulating the assessment thereof and the payment of taxes thereon."

This bill gives the right to a township, which is a subdivision of the State, to tax the State itself. To permit this would be establishing a bad precedent and opening the way for any municipality in which property of the State happens to be to request the right to tax such property.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, when this bill was before the Senate some two months ago I advocated its passage. Since that time the bill has been changed and also conditions. Since that time five new judges have been created in Philadelphia and are now sitting. The bill has been changed so that instead of being appointed by the Governor the municipal court judges will be elected next fall and take their seats on January 1, 1914. In the course of events it will be impossible for them to really transact any business for some months after that time, which would bring it very close to the next session of Legislature. Under the circumstances it seems to be better that the whole matter go over until the next Legislature, when a complete new bill can be framed, with one of its purposes to eliminate the magistrates of Philadelphia, and when the conditions can be better ascertained as to the effect on our judicial system the five new judges created will have, and under the circumstances it seems to me best that this matter go over. and this bill be defeated at this session.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would just like to have one word or two on this bill. I am going to vote for the bill myself, but I would like to explain to the Senate that when the bill for the five judges was introduced and passed by this Senate and finally passed by the House and signed by the Governor, I believed that that was the best thing that could happen to the Philadelphia Courts and every body else thinks so; all the best lawyers in Philadelphia, all the ablest lawyers thought so, at that time, and I think the Senate has been well justified in passing that bill. At that particular time there was a Committee of Lawyers, styling themselves eminent lawyers, waited on the Governor and ask him not to sign that five judges' bill on the ground that it was not proper legislation to relieve the congested conditions there. I want to say to this Senate that if those lawyers, the newspapers styled them ''eminent,'' Wharton Pepper is a corporation lawyer and every other one of those lawyers was employed by the traction company of Philadelphia. They did not want that five judge bill because they did not want to reach the traction cases and Wharton Pepper did not want to reach the corporation cases, whereby the working people and others that get hurt in accidents would get a proper redress from the courts. I call the Senate's attention at this time to that visit of these eminent lawyers; of the lawyers who ask that that bill be vetoed that most of them are on a salary of four thousand, and if they knew anything they would'nt be working for four thousand dollars.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I trust that between the opinion of the Senators from Philadelphia as to the standing of the lawyers the business people of Philadelphia will not be lost sight of. I contend that even with the addition of the five judges that have been given to Philadelphia we are witnessing the spectacle of at least six judges of other counties of the State still engaged there in trying cases and dispatching the business in the civil courts. As I have been told and understand from business men, men who are engaged in the sale of merchandise and commodities, they have had quite a time in the last ten years in Philadelphia collecting bills running ten to fifteen fifty and up to a hundred and twenty-five and a hundred and fifty dollars; it is required of them to practically wait four years before there is a settlement or ajustment by the civil court of that kind of claims. Now it is certainly due to the business men of Philadelphia, just as it was due to the business men of Pittsburgh, that this bill should be given consideration and this experiment tried at this time for the purpose of relieving the conditions that have become obnoxious among the business world. So far as it relates to the plan of obliterating and wiping out the magistrates, it is evident that with the jurisdiction of magisterial cases not only would the dockets be filled with the criminal cases, but it would obviously work to the detriment of the business men of Philadelphia. It is clearly and purely a proposition which the entire business communities, not to judge the qualifications or qualities of the attorneys, but the business men of Philadelphia, want for the adjudication of the accounts of people who deal with them and they have been suffering for years and should have this matter bettered. I think this Senate owes them at least an opportunity to experiment with this law, just as they did two years ago for Pittsburgh and I trust the Senate will pass this bill and the House will concur in the bill as amended, because the power is given to the people now to elect these judges after nomination by the respective parties and these men who will be elected by the people of Philadelphia will be sufficiently qualified to serve in that capacity.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, when this bill was in the Judiciary General Committe it was before the five judges' bill had been passed and the committee of lawyers who came before the Committee for a hearing stated specifically, and I think that they were good lawyers, that it was not necessary in Philadelphia to have the five judges bill and the municipal court bill. That meant fourteen judges. That was asked particularly and nobody denied it. There was no thought at that time that it was necessary to pass both these bills and that it is apparent to the Senators here tonight that the people from Philadelphia themselves, that is the Senators from Philadelphia, believe that it is not necessary to pass this bill. It does not seem to me that we ought to experiment to the extent of a hundred and fifty and two hundred thousand dollars a year where there is no general call for a bill. This bill does not give any jurisdiction to criminal cases. It was designed originally for the purposes of abolishing the magistrates in Philadelphia and was so stated by the advocates of the bill. The five judges' bill, that is the authorization of the five judges, were those who do all kinds of work and have original jurisdiction. This is a kind of a justice of the peace bill with a limited jurisdiction. It would cost as I said a hundred and fifty thousand dollars or more to run it every year. Capitalization that means abou three million dollars and I do not think this Senate ought to so stultify itself, even after listening to the speech of the Senator from Philadelphia. Mr. Vare, who a few weeks ago said this bill was not necessary, or that this court was not necessary, and in view of the conditions of the minds of the Senators from that city to-night, I do not think we ought to experiment with an appropriation of three million dollars for the purpose of finding out whether it is a good thing for Philadelphia.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, tell me how long it will take a merchant to collect a bill, even with the additional five judges, whether there is any relief to them with the addition of the five judges?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I have this to say. The committee of lawyers from Philadelphia did say that with five additional judges they would do all the work there is to be done in Philadelphia. That was not denied by any Senator on the floor of this Senate when the five judges bill was passed. I don't know how long it will take to have some man's case tried. I think that very largely depends in Philadelphia upon the counsel you employ and how busy he becomes, but in my opinion there are enough judges in Philadelphia to do all the business they have in Philadelphia.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, including all we have from the different counties of the State.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, they are not there now.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, they have been there for which the State pays a considerable amount. There is another question, Mr. President, where does the Senator from Monroe get the amount of money?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, that is strictly a matter of computation; if you capitalize that you get three million dollars.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I understand the capitalization, but where does the hundred and fifty thousand dollars come in.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I am taking the figures of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, there are nine judges at six thousand dollars, that would be fifty-four thousand dollars.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, besides the judges' salary, the prothonotary of the court, the numerous attendants and all that goes with it and that added together makes up the amount of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and I think that is moderate.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, there cannot really be any expense as to the prothonotary. The tipstaves, if there are any, would not get over two thousand dollars per year, as fixed by law, and if you had one to each judge, that would be eighteen thousand dollars at the outside and it would only be about seventy-five thousand dollars as I figure it.

Mr. HALL. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALL. Mr. President, was this bill reported out by the Committee of which the Senator from Monroe is a member before the five judges' bill.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it never was in Judiciary General Committee, the five judges' bill.

Mr. DIAX. Mr. President, I have listened with a great deal of attention to what the other Senators have said in reference to this bill and I have no better way of answering them then by answering a letter to the various Senators received from a certain lawyer in the City of Philadelphia, wherein he raised many questions in reference to this bill. Among the various things he spoke of was the reference to the expense. In every place a municipal court has been established the court has paid for itself, there is absolutely no question about that. The president of the municipal court in Pittsburgh, before a number of lawyers at a meeting which took place in the City Hall made that statement plainly.

There being a question raised in reference to the five judges, the five judges are now starting with quo warranto proceedings facing them, and if that is declared unconstitutional then we go back to the same thing. This is not a question of a few people wanting it, it is a question of the business associations of the City of Philadelphia wanting it for the last four years. At the end of this gentleman's communication, he mentioned one association and only one, the Board of Trade. I say to you the United Business Men of the City of Philadelphia, of which I had the honor to be President for five years until last Wednesday, sent me a communication as their ex-President, and they state, placing themselves on record, that they are in favor of this bill. He also claimed in his communication there can be no appeal taken. The bill specifically states that an appeal may be taken to the Superior Court. I have looked at the various portions of this bill, and this communication states in reference to the City Hall that there is no room in it. The bill in Section 3 provides that not only in the City Hall, but at such other place or places in the said County as may from time to time be designated by the Court and that is exactly what the business men want. A man who has a claim of $1,000 doesn't want to wait as I waited for four or five years, but he can go in as the bill states and get an immediate hearing. Now I say that is exactly what the business men of the City of Philadelphia want. Again to refer to the communication. He refers to claims for damages and asks if the judges are vested with exclusive jurisdiction in reference to the proceedings in desertion matters. Also in reference to children. It states here, I think on page 11, that there shall not only be immediate hearings, but a judge shall sit continuously. Now what the business men of Philadelphia do want is this relief, and I do ask you in their behalf to pass this bill, which does not put the appointive power in the Governor, but at election by the people, and I ask the Senate of Pennsylvania not only in behalf of my district, but also on behalf of the County of Philadelphia to give the business men of the various trade bodies of the City of Philadelphia what they want.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, for the benefit of the Senate, at the time this bill was introduced, before it was amended it would have taken one hundred and fifty thousand dollars to run it. We amended the bill so as to have the same Prothonotary as they have there now act for this court as well as the other court. I think that explains that part of it. I do not know just what the cost will be. I do not care what becomes of this bill, but I am going to vote for it, and if the Good Man spares me two years from now, if this bill passes, and we have too many courts down there, I am going to come back and ask the Senate to help me clear some of them out.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, so that the members of the Senate may fully understand what this municipal court may mean to a great city like Philadelphia, they may profit by the experience of the City of Pittsburgh and the County of Allegheny. We thought a few years ago that the addition of a No. 4 court would meet all the requirements and bring most of our cases to a speedy trial, but we found that after we did have the additional court four judges that we were practically as far back as we were before, that is to say the cases were on our dockets three, four and five years before they could be brought to trial, which meant that many of the witnesses in the cases on both sides were dead or passed out of the jurisdiction before the cases were brought to trial. This gave us not the necessary relief, and we came to the Legislature two years ago asking for exactly the same court that the City of Philadelphia asks for at the present time. We this year extended the jurisdiction of that court so it may take in more cases and give the Common Pleas Courts greater relief, and we have found out in our county that it has worked out to the universal satisfaction of all, and where our dockets were clogged up with small cases, it now means a speedy trial, and a man knows his case will be brought to trial, and that there will be a hearing upon that case within ten days, and to show you the number of cases that this court in Allegheny county has disposed of, last year, which alone would clog up the docket in any particular court they disposed of over three thousand cases in ten months. This is merely to give to the members of the Senate the information showing them the real necessity for such a court where they may try the small cases that clog the dockets, and instead of them going on for years and years, some cases involving perhaps fifty, seventy-five or a hundred or a hundred and fifty dollars, they may be brought to a speedy trial, and the people know their rights therein.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, in Philadelphia, we are not behind anything like three years. A case which I brought last December was tried in March or April of this year. The courts of Philadelphia are not back anything like they were three or four years ago. Under this bill as amended there would be no municipal court, certainly not before next June or July. It would take at least three or four months, yes, five months, to establish this court, after the men are elected and qualified, and that would be very near the next session of the Legislature, and it seems to me the part of prudence now, the five judges having been appointed to see what affects it will have upon the dockets and then if we need a municipal court at the next legislative session, a proper bill can be passed at that time.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 674 (House Bill 408), on final passage postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act regulating the mining out and removing of the coal and other minerals and support underlying and beneath the surface of the several streets avenues thoroughfares courts alleys places and public highways within the limits of the several municipal corporations and authorizing the creation of a Bureau of Mine Inspection and surface support by any municipal corporation and giving such bureau jurisdiction and providing a penalty for violation thereof

Mr. CATLIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 674 (House Bill No. 408), entitled:

An Act regulating the mining out and removing of the coal and other minerals and support underlying and beneath the surface of the several streets avenues thoroughfares courts alleys places and public highways within the limits of the several municipal corporations and authorizing the creation of a Bureau of Mine Inspection and surface support by any municipal corporation within the anthracite coal fields of this Commonwealth and giving such bureau jurisdiction and providing a penalty for violation thereof

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, this bill as introduced is a cure for an evil that we in the anthracite region have been suffering from for years. It is known as a mine cave. In our city of the second class unfortunately we are undermined. Coal has been removed without adequate support put in place of the coal. The result is that times innumerable our streets particularly have caved in. I hold in my hand a copy of Scranton Tribune-Republican of Thursday, June 12, which states that Pittston Avenue, one of the principal avenues in the city, sank six feet for a whole block, that the police and firemen were called out to protect the inhabitants of that block. They were notified in those houses that had not tumbled over that they had to immediately remove their homes, seek other quarters, until such a time as the surface would cave in to a certain depth so that it would be reasonably safe. Now that has been going on for years until it has reached this stage. In order to secure a loan on a property the first thing a loaning company or a bank asks is whether this property is in what is known as the cave zone. If it is stated that it is within this zone, then the loan is refused. We have another condition confronting us within this last year and that is that the insurance companies are withdrawing their risks on property within that zone, for the reason that the mine cave of course upsets the stoves and they have numerous losses from that cause. Now we come to the Legislature, we are not asking relief from delays of court, or anything of that kind, but we ask for this, we ask you to make it possible to protect our streets. To-day we have three of the largest schools in the city condemned for the reason of a cave. A year ago last August one of our sixteen room buildings was torn apart on a Sunday evening. Had that happened on Monday, we do not know how many lives would have been lost. We want it, gentlemen, and we ask you to do the same as the House did, pass this bill almost unanimously and give us the relief that we ask. I know many of the members of this Senate have visited Scranton and the vicinity, it is unnecessary to explain to them just what our mining is, but I am talking to the members of the Senate who know nothing about the mining in our hard coal regions and I ask you to support this measure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. McNichols, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. McNichols, whether there was not some agreement about reporting out this bill and the consideration thereof.

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, not that I know of.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I am not opposed to his bill, but I wish the Senate to understand at this time that there was understanding by the members of the mines and mining committee that certain conditions would be complied with before this bill would be considered. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Crow, was a party to this agreement and I will ask that this bill go over in its order until tomorrow if the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. McNichols offers no objection.

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, I do not know what the Senator refers to as conditions. The bill has been on the Calendar six or seven weeks and I think all the conditions that possibly he refers to have been complied with.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I request the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. McNichols, out of respect to the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Crow, to withdraw his motion to consider the bill at this time and allow it to go over until morning.

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, I will withdraw the motion.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Endsley, agree that the motion shall be withdrawn?

Mr. ENDSLEY. Mr. President, I will.

An Act to provide for the use of voting machines at any or all elections and primary elections within this State creating a State Board of voting Machine Examiners and defining its powers and duties providing rules and regulations for the conduct of elections and primary elections held with voting machines and providing penalties for violation of the provisions of this act

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this is the voting machine bill. I just want to call the attention of the Senate to one feature in this bill. We had this up last week. There is a feature in the bill which says that in the matter of elections. that the election officers, if he desires assistance, may assist the voter. I merely throw this out at this time to the notice of those Senators who have been interested in this question of assistance to voters, if nothing else appeals to them, that this bill would nillify everything that has been passed by this Senate on the question of assistance to voters. It is simply a question left up to the election officers or to the voter.

HOUSE NON-CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1010,

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House of Representatives has non-concurred in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1010, entitled:

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insists upon its amendments to the foregoing bill non-concurred in by the House of Representatives and that a committee of conference be appointed to confer with a similar committee of the Hosue (if the House shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That Messrs. Endsley, Beidleman and Homsher be such committee on the part of the Senate and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RECESS.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for fifteen minutes.

Mr. ENDSLEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS.

The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there obejction? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McNICHOL, from the Committee on Public Roads and Highways, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1457, entitled:

An Act to establish as a "State Highway" a certain section of public road beginning at the intersection of said road with State Highway Route No. 219 at Beech Creek Borough, Clinton County, and passing through Beech Creek Borough thence via State lands and Hall's Run to Renovo Borough, Clinton County.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 107.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 620 (House Bill No. 107), entitled:

An Act establishing a court for the county of Philadelphia prescribing its jurisdiction and powers providing for the service of its writs process or warrants by the proper officers of the county or city of Philadelphia regulating the procedure therein and appeals therefrom and providing for the expenses thereof passed finally be reconsidered.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President. I voted "aye."

Mr. HILTON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HILTON. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division was called for by Mr. Jarrett, whereupon, it appeared that thirteen Senators voted in the affirmative and eight in the negative.

The PRESIDENT. Less than a quorum having voted, the Sergeant-at-Arms will close the doors and the Clerk will call the roll to ascertain whether there is a quorum present.

The roll was accordingly called, whereupon it appeared that twenty-seven Senators were present, as follows: Messrs. Alexander, Beidleman, Cooper, Crow, Daix, DeWitt, Endsley, Farley, Heacock, Hilton, Homsher, Huffman, Jarrett, Judson, Kline, Knapp, Kurtz, McIlhenny, McNichol, Miller, Morgan, Nulty, Salus, Sensenich, Sheatz, Vare and Gerberich, President Pro Tempore.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I have only this to suggest, We have voted heretofore on questions of this character when there was not a quorum present and nobody had raised the question of no quorum here, and it does not seem to me such a matter as requires the going out of the Sergeant-at-Arms on a mere motion of this kind and I hope the Senate will consider that this vote has been carried. It is a matter of fairness, because it is just as fair as it is to the other side and I think this bill ought to be put back on the calendar, and I do not think the question of the absence of a quorum should affect it.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, called for a division and the Chair was unable to do anything else.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I voted against this bill when it was on the floor, when it was under consideration but I for one do not feel that the motion to reconsider at this time shows the first semblance of common honesty. It is a procedure that has been unheard or during the entire session of 1913, and I think if the man that made the motion, the Senator from Mercer, has one bit of common fairness, squareness, common honesty in him, he will withdraw this motion.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, will state his point of order.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I call the attention of the Senate to the fact that the language used by the Senator from Philadelphia Mr. Salus is unparliamentary and that the statements should not be permitted by the Chair.

Mr. SALUS. Mh. President, if the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Huffman, will let me finish my sentence he may not feel so badly about it. I want to say, common honesty in so far as the parliamentary proceedings in this chamber have been carried on this session. I do not mean by that that I reflect on the personal integrity of the Senator. I do feel that out of fairness to those men who supported this bill, or in fairness to any man who supports any bill, that a matter such as this should not be called up in the absence of those who are advocating the bill. I am against the bill, was against the bill, and will be against the bill, but I have at all times in my practice tried to be fair with every Senator, whatever might have happened, but this should not be considered here tonight, and I feel that the Senator from Mercer does not want to be placed on record as a man who would take unfair advantage of anybody. Whatever statements I made were not made in the nature of a personal reflection. I was just speaking of the parliamentary usages and customs of this present session, and I think if the Senator will just think the matter over seriously he will agree with me and see that the motion should not have been made at this time.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I want it understood that when I made this motion, I had nothing in mind that tended toward being a sneak. I want it understood by every member of this Senate that anything I do I do openly and aboveboard. When I voted on this bill tonight it was without full consideration, and after I had considered carefully how I voted, and had considered the provisions of this bill, I felt it was my duty to make this motion. And if the Senator will recollect, the Secretary had to go out for fear this bill had gone to the House. Now, Mr. President, it has been asserted by a Senator on the floor of the Senate that when I made this motion, I did not play fair. That is a matter I do not like to take. I want to state to the Senator when he is putting that to me, if I have to say it myself, he is putting it to as fair a man as stands on the floor of this Senate. That is something I do not like to take. I do not want to be branded as being unfair, and if any Senator has it in his mind that is is unfair, if there is a promise that this bill will be kept on the desk, I will renew my motion in the morning, but I do not want any Senator to say I am unfair, for I am not.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want to say in fairness to the Senator from Mercer, I meant nothing personal as far as the Senator is concerned, and if the Senator from Monroe had not interrupted me I would have gone on making the statement that I meant nothing personal. I know that the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, does not want to be unfair. That is the reason I made the statement. I do believe he wants to be on record as playing fair with everybody, and that is the reason I asked him to withdraw his motion. I would suggest that the Senator agree to withdraw his motion, and ask that the rest of the Senators do anything further that may be necessary in order that the bill may remain in the Senate until morning and not go over to the House. I do not want the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, to consider that I meant anything personal in the matter.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I want to say for the benefit of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, that the remarks I made were not for him, but they were for another Senator from Philadelphia, and I will withdraw the motion I have made, and will renew that motion in the morning although there is a quorum present at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from McKean, Mr. Hilton, agree that the motion be withdrawn?

Mr. HILTON. Mr. President, I will.

The SPEAKER. (George E. Atler) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The CHAPLAIN, (Rev. J. E. Wright), offered the following prayer:

O God, wilt Thou establish the things which are right by the work of the Assembly, and uproot and destroy the things which are wrong. Wilt Thou breathe into Thy servants a heart of integrity. May they hold the truth in love. May they have a profound consciousness of the righteous will and purpose of God and seek to give expression to it. To this end wilt Thou quicken not merely their intellectual faculties but the convictions of their consciences and the energies of their will. May they fear God and love righteousness. May they hate evil and dread to do wrong.

We commend to Thee Thy servant, the Speaker of this Assembly, asking for him that patience continuance in well-doing and that endurance and energy which contribute so largely to the efficiency and the helpfulness of the office which he holds, and may no spirit of restlessness, no undue anxiety to lay aside the work which Thou hast assigned, interfere in anyway with the thoroughness of it, the completeness of it, the finished excellence of it. May we never forget that we are the servants of God and the servants of the people and should strive to do our work well. We ask the help that we need in order to do this, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

REPORT FROM THE AUDITOR GENERAL.

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House a report presented by the Auditor General in compliance with a resolution adopted on Thursday of last week. The Clerk will read the communication from the Auditor General to the members of the House, and also the report.

The Clerk read the communication and proceeded to read the report as follows:

Department of the Auditor General,
Harrisburg, June 16, 1913.

Hon. Geo. E. Alter, Speaker.
House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge service on me of a copy of a resolution adopted by the House of Representatives June 12, 1913, which reads as follows:

Whereas, In the general appropriation bill of the session of 1911, there was appropriated to the various Departments, Bureaus, Boards, Commissions and Divisions of this Commonwealth, a contingent, emergency, special or incidental expense fund for the fiscal years ending Mays 31st, 1912, and May 31st, 1913, and

Whereas, There are set forth in the general appropriation bill of the session of 1913, now having passed second reading in the House, various sums for contingent and incidental expenses,

Therefor be it Resolved, That the Auditor General inform this House, not later than Monday, June 16th, 1913, of the respective amounts drawn against the various contingent, emergency, special or incidental expense appropriations of the various Departments, Bureaus, Boards, Commissiones and Divisions, for the two fiscal years ending May 31st, 1913, and a detailed statement of the vouchers for said expenditures, with the dates of filing, amounts and nature of the same.

An exact, or even a substantial compliance with the terms of the resolution is impossible for the reason that it involves an examination and classification of a vast volume of expenditures within a period of time wholly insufficient for the purpose.

I have prepared, however, and submit herewith a statement of the various contingent, emergency, special or incidental appropriations to the various Departments, Bureaus, Boards, Commissions and Division of the Government of the Commonwealth; the amounts drawn upon each; the amounts for which an accounting has been filed, and the balances for which an accounting has not been rendered, as the same appear upon the books of this Department

This statement is accompanied by a classification of such expenditures by certain of the Departments, Bureaus or other branches of the Government of the Commonwealth in the order of examination suggested by the sponsor of the resolution, and in such detail as the time at the disposal of the Department has permitted. This statement can be supplemented by a similar or more complete classification of the incidental expenditures of any other branches of the Government, although it would be impossible to prepare a satisfactory statement of such expenditures by all branches of the Government before the probable date of adjournment of the Legislature.

The dates upon which vouchers have been filed with this Department have been omitted for the reason that credit for vouchers filed has been given as of the date of audit and settlement and not as of the date of filing, and for the additional reason that in many cases the date of filing is not a matter of record, though the dates upon which the expenditures were made can be readily ascertained from an inspection of the vouchers.

With reference to the balances shown to be unaccounted for, you are respectfully advised that, in some cases vouchers have been filed covering all or part of said balance, but credit has not been given for the same for the reason that the audit and settlement of such vouchers has been delayed in the press of business incident to the close of the biennial appropriation period, and the abnormal number of accounts now being closed and settled, or the vouchers have been lacking in detail or otherwise defective and approval thereof has been withheld pending correction or explanation.

The preparation of this statement has involved the examination of so great a number of vouchers in so short a period of time that there has been little opportunity to check and verify the distribution of expenditures, but the figures given are accurate and the classification is believed to be substantially correct.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

A. W. POWELL,
Auditor General.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know something about the purpose of this bill.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state for the information of the gentleman that the sponsor is out of the hall. The bill has already passed once, with some amendments.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to have the bill remain upon the table?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire that, but in the last paragraph there is a material change which raised the appropriation from $30,000 to $50,000. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Gans.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. GANS. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I find in the last page of the bill, page 16, line 13, an amendment is made so as to read, instead of $30,000, $50,000. I do not know what the necessity of the $20,000 was. It was doubtless covered by the other provisions and I would like to know something about it.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, this bill was recalled from the Governor on account of typographical errors.

Mr. NEWBAKER. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was passed on third reading it contained a typographical error and it was recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment: Section 3, page 11, line 29, after the word "science" insert bracket; section 3, page 4, line 34, after the word "bureau" strike out bracket. That is the only correction that is made. The bill had previous passed finally and was recalled from the Governor for the purpose of making this amendment.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, well the bill may have passed the House two or three times and been recalled for amendment. It is now the same as voting on the bill as it stands and I have simply casually glanced through the bill and I find on the last page the change in the amount required by the appropriation from $30,000 to $50,0000 and now before I vote on the bill I desire to ask why the $20,000.00 increase.

Mr. NEWBAKER. Mr. Speaker, the only change made was this amendment that I have read. The bill passed before on third reading with the $50,000.00. That had been agreed upon and passed before and this was a mistake of the printer and it was recalled for the purpose of correcting the typographical error. That is the sole change that was made in the bill. On page 11103 on the calendar, page 4, line 29, after the word "science" insert bracket; section 3, page 4, line 34, after the word "bureau" strike out bracket. That is the only change that was made.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I don't seem to be able to make myself understood in relation to this bill. I will admit as one of the members of the House, whether I voted for or against it before it went to the Governor, that I did not know that there was a change of $20,000.00 in the bill. Now I do know that there is a change of $20,000.00 in the bill. I have tried to find out why. It makes no difference to me if I voted for this bill four times, unless I know why there is this change and why there is need of the increase of $20,000.00, it don't say that I will stultify myself by voting against the bill now. It may be that there is some reason for it. but up to this time I have not elicited what that season is. The bill might have gone through and said $150,000.00 and nobody noticed it.

The bill said, here in the original bill. if I can read, on page 16 of the bill, from section 7, beginning at line 1, "that so much of section 7 of this Act which now reads follows:"— dropping to line 6.—"the sum of $30,000.00"— dropping to line 10. "is hereby amended so as to read as follows:"—dropping to line 14,—"the sum of $50,000.00." It is raised from $30,000.00 to $50,000.00 and I have asked and repeatedly asked why. I know that there are three words stricken out of the body of the bill. I see that, but that don't make the bill perfect and neither does it ulace the stamp of approval on the increased raise if there is no occasion for it. Now what does the bill do that requires an increased raise of $20,000.00?

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, the only amendment that I offered on last Wednesday was to change the brackets. I did not amend the amount of the appropriation.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Gans.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Gans), permit himself to me interrogated?

Mr. GANS. Yes sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, what is the necessity of increasing the appropriation to the Board of Medical Education and Licensure from $30,000.00 to $50,000.00 as is done by this bill?

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I think that Mr. Newbaker can explain that.

Mr. NEWBAKER. Mr. Speaker, it was explained at the time the bill passed, but I am unable to give the data now.

BILL POSTPONED.

However, it might be in order to postpone consideration of this bill for the present.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the bill will lie upon the desk. The Chair hears no objection and the bill will be carried on the calendar tomorrow.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 584, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Punxsutawney Hospital Association at Punxsutawney Jefferson County Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?

I want to say relative to the public roads in our section of the State, to which the gentleman from Allegheny called your attention last week when this bill was under discussion, that we have fairly good roads. He would lead you to believe that we are in a backwoods district, and that it would be impossible to drive an auto or ambulance through that section of the country. I want to say that he is in error when he makes statements of that kind. As far as the road conditions are concerned, I would say that an automobile ambulance could be used to almost as good an advantage as it could be in the the greater part of Allegheny County, and I hope that the gentlemen of this House will consider that this institution is laboring under the same conditions as many other institutions in this State.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this is an appropriation of $53,000 to the Punxsutawney Hospital. Heretofore there has been appropriated to this hospital approximately ten thousand dollars a year. This appropriation of $53,000 is based upon the fact that the hospital is now indebted, and also that they desire to purchase an automobile ambulance. To my mind, Mr. Speaker, the necessities of this hospital do not require such a great increase as has been asked for by the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, the sponsor of this bill. We have here the report of the Board of Charities as to this hospital to the effect that the capacity of this hospital is 34. There are 13 patients—

Mr. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I refuse to be interrogated.

Mr. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, this is a matter of importance

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia has the floor, and will proceed.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. This gives an appropriation of fifty-three thousand dollars for this one particular hospital. Let us see in comparison to the other hospitals what this means. As I said the other day, we have in the district which I represent a lying-in charity, a charity that has not five patients, but many hundreds of charity patients, and the appropriation is twenty-two thousand dollars for the two years. In the western part of the city we have the Rush Hospital for Consumptives, which has its large building on Lancaster avenue, and which maintains a farm at Malvern, for the purpose of giving the consumptives a place to be cared for and to be cured, and we have for that hospital an appropriation of sixty thousand dollars. I do not desire to attack the appropriation of any member. All of us are here trying to get the appropriation for our institutions, but this one great increase of from the amount of $9.600 recommended by the Board to $53,000 to my mind is unreasonable, and those of us who opposed the bill have requested that it be sent back to the Appropriation Committee for the purpose of being properly amended, but our advice has not been followed, and the bill is now here upon final passage, and it is for this House to say whether or not we can pass a bill to increase an appropriation from ten thousand to fifty-three thousand dollars. This increase is not for the purpose of new buildings. It is for the purpose of removing an indebtedness of the institution, an institution now in debt, and an institution that has not made good up to the present time. They also ask that we give them an appropriation of four thousand dollars for an automobile ambulance. I take it that that is unreasonable. It is in line with a man with a mortgage on his house going beyond his income. This increase of appropriation is unreasonable in the fact of the other appropriations, for other appropriations for other charities in other districts. After we adjourn, our oppropriations in many respects will be cut down to a figure lower than it was in the bill when it leaves this House. I take it, Mr. Speaker, that the vote on this bill will not only be your opinion on this appropriation, which to my mind is the largest increase in proportion of any bill in the House, but it will also be an indication as to whether or not this House is going to give careful and thoughtful attention to the question of appropriations to charities. We have in the next two weeks a most important work. We have to pass on the millions of dollars that this state appropriates to the various departments and charities of this State. We cannot treat that lightly. Those of us who stand in this House giving thought to these matters, cannot allow this bill or any other bill of this nature to pass lightly, and in our vote we intend to give full consideration to the vote upon this measure. I appreciate the fact that the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee has offered this bill, and while I appreciate that none of us want to vote directly against any appropriation bill, especially against the member who has been the head of so powerful a committee, but, Mr. Speaker, I say that the Chairman of that committee should stand back with his bill, and that he should not take the two bills that he was interested in and has advanced and upon which the contest has been, and thrust them ahead of the other bills and insist upon them being put through this House. It reminds me of the host who grabs the best piece of meat from the table. Here is his appropriation bill which he has advanced, and which he has increased one hundred per cent., while those of us who are asking for increases in our approprirations get no increases. I admit that many of us will be influenced in our vote on this bill because of our liking for the sponsor of this bill, but to my mind that is a reason for a vote of this character. If we pass this bill we vote fifty-three thousand dollars to this institution, four thousand dollars of which is for an automobile, and all over some twenty thousand dollars is for the relieving of their financial indebtedness. Next year there will be no stepping back to ten thousand dollars a year, but on the basis of fifty-three thousand dollars for this year, and they will be back here next session asking for seventy-five thousand dollars.

The defeat of the passage of this bill is not going to do great harm to the finances of Pennsylvania but it is going to do a great deal of harm to the credit which you and I have with our constituents. We have to go back and answer for bills of this character. While I would like to vote for this bill because it has been offered by the gentleman from Jefferson, because I have on different measures opposed them in order to escape appearance of attacking his bills, but I cannot find in my conscience a right for a bill of such a vast increase in it as this bill has, when these other charities who have far greater work, far greater good to accomplish must go with no increase whatever.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker. in considering this bill, I think that we ought also to take into consideration the fact that if all the bills on the calendar go through, that Punxsutawney in Jefferson County is going to be very well provided with extra hospital appropriations. A few pages further along we find the Adrian Hospital Association of Punxsutawey, Jefferson County, Pennsylvania and that Hospital is receiving a sum of thirty-five thousand dollars. This year's bill was introduced for fifty thousand dollars and in the Senate was amended up to sixty-eight thousand dollars:—Within two thousand dollars or twice as much as they got last year. Why, not only that, but the Punxsutawney Sanatorium which never appeared at all in last session's appropriation gets five thousand dollars. Add all this together and there is an appropriation, a remarkable appropriation of this Commonwealth to Jefferson County which is represented by Mr. North—a remarkable increase over last year.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. S. B. Scott, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he knows haw many institutions in Philadelphia have been receiving State aid?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I do not.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he has examined the various institutions of Philadelphia, those that have had appropriations recommended and will he tell the House how much of a decrease or an increase these various institutions have received as recommended by the Appropriation Committee?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I have not made that calculation but I know that they have not received one hundred per cent of an increase over last session.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call the attention of the House to the fact that Philadelphia has received State aid during the session of 1911 as follows: I think there was an appropriation of $4,484.505.26; at this session there has been recommended and the gentlemen from Philadelphia, I believe. have voted for those appropriations to a man. $6.473.060.97, an increase of $1.988.555.71. Now, if the gentlemen from Philadelphia are so much interested in the welfare of the State when they attack the consideration of these three institutions and attack the appropriations of about one hundred thousand dollars; that is really not the purpose of saving the State's funds and if that is the fact it cannot be apparent to the members of this House. It is very apparent that the purpose of this attack is all directed practically at the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee and the member from Chester County and the member from Westmoreland County. I think when the gentlemen get through investigating the Appropriation Committee and the various recommendations that have been made, I think it will come with better grace if they will go home and look over their own institutions.

Mr. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, in looking back over the sessions that I have been in this House, it strikes me as very peculiar that we have in this present Legislature, a Triune of gentlemen from Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties that are attacking the little country appropriations. Now, for fear that I may be considered a partisan, I will state that I came here elected by the conservative members of the Democratic Party, the Republican Party and the Progressive Party. I have no axes to grind but my purpose is to treat people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania all alike regardless of party affiliations. I am not here to protect my friend, Mr. North, and I am not here to oppose the Representatives of this Commonwealth who wish to appropriate a particular sum of money to any county but

I cannot understand why men with whom I have served in this House who never before raised their voices against an appropriation that was asked for, to my knowledge, in the State, why they should rise now in their dignity and occupy page after page of the record objecting to the tiny little country appropriations. It makes me tired. I am here to vote a fair appropriation to the one hundred and sixty institutions, I believe there are, if I am correctly informed. I will vote for the appropriations and I voted for the appropriations asked for in Philadelphia. Let them have them; God bless them, but I cannot understand why a few gentlemen of this House rise up and occupy the time of the House in what I would consider insignificance objections to worthy appropriations. Now, gentlemen of this House, I feel this way about it; I appeal to you to consider the opposition that has been raised to these little appropriations and consider where they come from. Do we know our duty here? Or must we ask to be instructed by a half dozen of members of this House? I love them all but I prefer that they would be just before they object to these small appropriations. I am not here trying to get by feet on the ground either by supporting or opposing appropriations and I do hope that those that are flooding our record with arguments shall stop in this House. So far as this one is concerned I will say that for fifteen years the hospital in Punxsutawney has taken care of all the maimed miners and all the cases within five or six counties when we didn't have a hospital of any reputation within any of the counties surrounding the town of Punxsutawney. I appeal to you, gentlemen, don't be misled by these gentlemen who are trying to make a record as watch-dogs of the Treasury; it so lately came to them. Vote for what you think is fair and right; consult your own judgment rather than be led by arguments that I claim are unfair and unjust.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I could not at the beginning of this discussion quite understand the number of days given in this bill, or the figures given by the gentleman from Jefferson. I ask him to inform me at least how many days were reported from that hospital last year.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, a total of 12,982 days. That is the total number. The days of free treatment 6766.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the reason I asked that was this: I thought that it was over twelve thousand but I could not hear altogether. I want to call the attention of the House that the report which this institution has given to the Board of Charities says thirty-four beds. If you fill each of these beds, each day in the 365 days in the year, you have a total, according to my calculation of 12,410 days which is about 572 short of the number of hospital days that are now claimed. In addition to that the report which was given to this House and which is down in print says that that hospital has thirty-four beds and that the average number of patients was thirteen per day. If there were but thirteen patients per day, it would run to 4,745 days instead of 12,982, if as reported by the Board of Charities to which we must pay some difference, as they must be worth something in this respect; they are the real official guides for this House. If we take away the patients of the charity days, we have 1,825. I call attention to these figures as the reason that they must have counted the help, including all the people at the hospital, because of the fact of the thirty-four beds, or they had to sleep two in a bed a portion of the time for they could not otherwise work it up to 12,982 hospital days. In addition to that, the recommendation of the Board of Charities which was reported on page 77, reported to this House in February 1913, it says that from their report, this hospital is in bad financial shape. Its real estate is valued at sixty-two thousand dollars and it is encumbered by mortgages to the extent of fifty thousand dollars. Reports a deficit of $5,840.00 this year, and a deficit of $2,105.00 last year which would make it an indebtedness in the neighborhood of $40,645.00. At that time, Mr. Speaker, at the time when the report was made when this Punxsutawney Hospital Association in Jefferson County has its application filed in 1913, according to the Board of Charities, it amounted to twentl-eight thousand dollars, twenty-five thousand dollars for maintenance and five thousand dollars applying to finishing the second story and twenty-five hundred dollars in addition. No doubt, the improvements on the basement was brought about and was needed because it was reported in bad condition and bad ventilation. Otherwise, the institution is reported as in good shape. I don't care to say that it is not needed. I don't wish to admit that I am worried in the least by what the gentleman form Indiana or any other gentleman may say in relation to my purpose on these bills. That, to my mind, is absolutely absurd. That on the face of them, they are unjust. That if you were to put the same stamp upon bills other than appropriation bills you would say that it is "steal." It makes no difference to me whether the institutions be large or small, there must be some merit on which these institutions draw money from the State and so long as I occupy a place on the floor of this House, so long as my mind is turned and directed to this class of appropriations, it make no difference to me whether the bill is that of the gentleman from Jefferson or whether it is that from Chester or whether it be that of the gentleman from Westmoreland, to whom attention has been called or whether it be from another gentleman on the floor of this House.

Now, in my own mind, I am convinced that the appropriation is an absurdity and an injustice to deserving institutions in this State. My voice will be raised and it will go down in the record, though it may be the bill of one of my closest and most intimate friends and an institution which at heart, Mr. Speaker, I would like to see receive all the benefits that could be given to it. What we appropriate to one institution more than we ought, we are taking from other institutions in this State. To illustrate as forcibly as possible, if all the revenues of this State were turned over to one institution, then every other institution would have to go unaided. If a great big chunk of that which is not deserved by that institution, Mr. Speaker, is turned into the exchequer of that institution, then and in that event that great big chunk comes pro rata or in a certain proportion off of every other institution in this State. We have heard and the echo has hardly died away on the floor of this House, as to the recommendations of the Board of Charities; those gentlemen who are looked upon by the floor of this House as the leaders on the floor of this House have pointed with pride to the workings of the Board of Charities; and yet, Mr. Speaker, when it comes down to an individual case, it is so easy for those same gentlemen to absolutely forget that there is such an institution as the Board of Charities, a board which spends its two years in making up its report to this Legislature, a Board which puts its report into this Legislature so that every member of this House may be advised, a Board which calculates and bases its calculations upon the revenues which are to come into the State, a board which says you can go so far and no farther, a Board which says that the distributions which they have made are based upon facts and reports, the reports received from the institutions and upon facts as we learn them from investigation; and yet, upon an occasion like this you snap your fingers in the face, under the very nose of that Board, and they say, "Your advice isn't worth the paper it is written on." Here is an Appropriation Committee, an Appropriation Committee which tries to tell us how this is going to be distributed, and when that recommendation comes in, it is our bounden duty to follow, to say "aye" to everything that has been recommended to us. We must close our eyes; we must close our ears, you must be blind and deaf, and all you have to do is to go along. Go along with what? Go along to let things run haphazard, galley-west and crooked. No, Mr. Speaker, every member on the floor of this House is to bring upon the floor such information as he possesses in relation to every institution that is here; to give what he knows to guide this House. An Appropriation Committee may be misled; it may have favors to bestow here and there; I don't say that it does, but it smacks most mightily of it. No, Mr. Speaker, it makes no difference whether I am held up to ridicule or to what. I propose, so long as I can find the snakes, to call attention to the passing menagerie.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he has investigated the seventy-one institutions of the County of Allegheny which are receiving State aid.

Mr. ALLEN. Have I investigated them?

Mr. NORTH. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. No, sir, Mr. Speaker, the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations took care not to send me but to two or three institutions in the State.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I want to reply to the gentleman by stating that he refused to go and he refused to serve on a number of occasions. That is the kind of generous fellow he was to investigate.

I desire to ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, if he knows what the Board of Charities recommended for the Mercy Hospital at Pittsburgh?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I don't know; I can look it up.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask him if he knows what the amount of their appropriation two years ago was.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I haven't the compilation before me. I took them one at a time. I think, two years ago, Mr. Speaker, if my memory serves me right, that the Mercy Hospital received a little over $100,000. It was greatly inadequate, based upon the report which we filed with the Appropriation Committee.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, two years ago they received $100,000 and this year the Committee recommended $175,000.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to explain my answer. In connection with the Mercy Hospital and what put a very severe financial crimp into them two years ago was the fact that they have a Pasteur Department. Their appropriation was cut down to practically nothing for that department and it is only one of its kind in Western Pennsylvania. It is taken care of, to some extent I think, in this year's bill, at least to cover the deficienccy.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman what the Montefiore Hospital received two years ago.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not know what it received two years ago, but I do know that it is a new institution out on Center Avenue and that two years ago it received two more than one of the oldest hospitals in Allegheny County and this year received more than twice as much, and I do not know why there should be such a difference.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, this year the Committee recommends $37.000; two years ago they got $30,000 for maintenance and $20,000 for improvements. This year they got $5,000 for improvements.

I desire to ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, if he knows what the McKeesport Hospital got two years ago.

Mr. ALLEN. The McKeesport Hospital was the hospital that the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee of two years ago was favoring, and it was very well taken care of, just as the Punxsutawney Hospital is being very well cared for by the Chairman who hails from that county this year.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the House I will tell the gentleman that two years ago they got $60.000 for maintenance. and $26,500 for improvements, buildings, et cetera. This year the Committee recommends $70.000 for maintenance and $18,000 for improvements, buildings, et cetera, completion of nurses' home; and I believe the gentleman, to my best recollection voted for it.

The Presbyterian Hospital; I desire to know if he knows anything about that.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the Presbyterian Hospital is one of the Hospitals in Allegheny which asked for about 100 per cent. more than was recommended to them by the Appropriation Committee. They have no place for the nurses. They have only one building, which is incomplete, and for which they were asking sufficient money to finish. It is doing a marvelous work; the amount of money I do not know. I do know, however, Mr. Speaker, that the hospital is filled up to the doors, and could do a great deal more work if it had accommodations.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, two years ago they got $35,000 for maintenance and $10,000 for buildings, et cetera. This year the committee recommends $45,000 for maintenance and $10,000 for improvements.

I desire to ask the gentleman if he knows anything about the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania and the amount appropriated two years ago and what has been recommended this year.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not. That is a social club out there. It is a social club of high standing and I am not acquainted with it.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, last year they got $25,000 and this year the Committee recommends $50,000.

I desire to know if he knows anything about the Children's Home.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, I should suggest that all the appropriations in the State are not under discussion, but the Punxsutawney Hospital. The gentleman should confine his discussion to that hospital.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken, because the question was raised that there have been discriminations in favor Punxsutawney Hospital and the gentleman from Jefferson is showing comparisons in denial of that argument.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he knows anything about the appropriations of two years ago and this year for the Homeopathic Hospital.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not know the figures.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, two years ago it was $130,000. This year the Committee has recommended $165,000.

I desire to ask the gentleman if he knows anything about the appropriation for the Allegheny General Hospital.

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker, the Allegheny General Hospital is the Hospital of which Mr. Francis J. Torrance, Chairman of the Board of Charities, is a controlling member, and they have received all they ask for, and I know that their doors are closed frequently to charity patients, as I can verify by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kaiser, who represents that district.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if that bill has been passed by this Legislature, by this House.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not know; my best recollection is that it has.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he voted for it.

Mr. ALLEN. I did not. Mr. Speaker, unless the Record shows. If the Record shows, of course I voted for it.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, two years ago the Allegheny General Hospital received $171,000. This year, the Committee recommends $200,000, a noticeable increase, and no doubt they deserve it.

The House of the Good Shepherd; I ask the gentleman if he knows anything about that.

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. NORTH. Tell us what they got two years ago and what you get now.

Mr. ALLEN. Now, if you give me time to look up those things. I cannot give the gentleman figures, but I know something about them.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, two years ago they got $12,000 for maintenance and $5,000 for improvements. This year they have been recommended $20,000.

Mr. ALLEN. It was too low then, Mr. Speaker, and not quite high enough this year.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the gentleman if he knows anything about the South Side Hospital, what the conditions are and what the amount of their appropriation?

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker, it is right in the heart of the milling district, near Jones & Laughlin's mills and a very worthy institution; one that is cramped and has been for years and years and needing more buildings and more accommodations for their nurses. I do not know the amount two years ago or now, but I do know that two years ago the mills were practically closed and there ought to be at least an increase of 100 per cent. on account of the work done there now.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I want to say for the information of the gentleman and the House that the Committee took the same view that he has advocated to-night. Two years ago they got $100,000. This year the Committee recommends $110,000. for maintenance and $40,000 for buildings. If there is any discrimination in that I hope it is on the side of charity.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will compare my ideas with any fair-minded Committee he will see I am about right.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he can tell us anything about the Braddock General Hospital?

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker, the Braddock General Hospital two years ago had quite a large increase in their appropriation for the reason that they were greatly in debt which debt as I understand and understood at the time was being carried by certain members of the Board. In order to relieve somewhat this indebtedness of that hospital, quite a large appropriation was made and the debt was somewhat liquidated. I believe that the appropriation is very little in excess of what it was two years ago, notwithstanding the fact that the mills are now running full time and at that time they were running about half.

Mr. NORTH. The same conditions prevail. Mr. Speaker, in the Punxsutawney region as the gentleman has described.

Two years ago the Braddock General Hospital got $30,000 for maintenance and $10,000 for building. This year the Committee recommends $32,000 for maintenance and $5,000 for building.

I would ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, if he knows anything about the Children's Hospital in Allegheny County?

Mr. ALLEN. There are two or three Children's Hospitals in Allegheny County. If the gentleman will tell me the location of the one to which he refers I may be able to answer.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, the one I refer to got $40,000 two years ago and this year the Committee recommends $50,000.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Jefferson tell me which one that is.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I cannot give you the street number.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Jefferson know where it is located?

Mr. NORTH. In Allegheny County, in the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, if the Gentleman from Jefferson, who is Chairman of that Committee, does not know the location of these hospitals—

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman further, whether the gentleman knows anything about the Charity Hospital—

The SPEAKER. It does not expedite business for two gentlemen to speak at the same time. The gentleman from Allegheny will conclude his answer.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I cannot answer the gentleman in relation to the Children's Hospital, because the gentleman from Jefferson, who ought to know the location of the institutions at least too which he is making appropriations for charitable purposes, cannot locate them.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the gentleman to tell us something about the Charity Hospital.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, Pittsburgh Charity?

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, it is an institution which four years ago received no appropriation on account of having changed its name. Two years ago they received an appropriation that was somewhat in line with the improvements they had. They made a complete overhauling of their buildings at that time with some additions. They are located in the East End, all by themselves, practically and doing a noble work and deserving of every cent they ask for—I do not care what amount they ask for, because they would not ask for any more than they need.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, two years ago they got $40,000 this year the Committee recommends $50,000 for maintenance and $10,000 for buildings.

I will ask the gentleman to tell us about the West Penn Hospital.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the West Penn Hospital is located in the Bloomfield District. It is one of the most magnificent buildings for hospital purposes in the State, built in a peculiar style, somewhat in the order of a wagon wheel. Every room of the hospital is an outside room. The office Department is up to date. Senator William Flinn is one of the moving spirits in this hospital and devotes a great deal of his time to its business. Four years ago it was completed. The requirements at that time were great and if I recall aright the institution received from the State about $275,000. It takes care of all the employes who come in from Pittsburgh over the Pennsylvania Railroad and its subsidiary companies and the hospital is practically full all the time. It is a very deserving institution and I presume at this time, on account of the increased capacity of the institution, that the appropriation has been raised. It ought to have been at least.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, two years ago they got $140,000 for maintenance and $100,000 for improvements. The Commiteee has recommended this year $165,000 for maintenance and $120,000 for improvements.

The gentleman would lead you to believe that certain hospitals out of the 71 institutions of Pittsburgh—just two or three of them take care of the entire work of the hospitals. When he has made an attack on the Punxsutawney Hospital he has shown you that it is an impure motive that inspires him to make this attack. Seventy-one institutions in his home County he cannot tell you about, without referring to the records, one dollar of the appropriation or the amount that they got two years ago, but he can tell you every dollar that has been appropriated to the Punxsutawney Hospital, every dollars that the Board of Charity recommends. He has evidently devoted a great deal of valuable time to investigating this one institution, but passes over 71 institutions with a wave of the hand and votes for every single one of them, taking it for granted that the Appropriation Committee knew what they were doing and their judgment was good.

Mr. FOSTER. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by the following gentlemen:

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, we are now on the verification of the roll. The yeas were announced and there were no objections made as to the votes recorded. The nays were announced and no gentleman announced himself dissatisfied with the result.

The SPEAKER. The rule is that members may change their vote at any time before the result of the vote has been announced.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I make a further point of order: the gentleman has not indicated that he voted "no" under a misapprehension.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman stated to the Chair that he voted under a misapprehension.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, as I understood the gentleman, he stated that he desired to change his vote.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman stated that he voted under a misapprehension.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, he must have breathed it; I didn't hear it.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to do the same; I voted under a misapprehension and I desire to change my vote from yes to no.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Wiltbank, desires to change his vote from yes to no, having voted under a misapprehension.

SPECIAL ORDER

The SPEAKER. The hour of ten o'clock having passed, the Chair lays, before the House a special order fixed for that House, calendar No. 3, on page one, House Bill No. 1204.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1204, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Gatlin Institute of Pittsburgh

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill for the appropriation of two thousand dollars to the Gatlin Institute of Pittsburgh. Originally the appropriation asked for was twenty thousand dollars and the bill as recommended now is for two thousand dollars. The sponser of the bill on the floor of the House the other day had no information as to the institution of any consequence. Since then, we have been able to get some information about this institution. This Gatlin institution does not seem to be confined alone to Allegheny county. I thought it was confined only to Allegheny county. We find that the drink habit has reached beyond Allegheny and here is an advertisement of the Gatlin Institute from 441 West 23rd St., New York City, which is as follows:

"The Gatlin system of treatment for alcoholic affliction. This is not an undeveloped cure. It has stood the most rigid test for the last thirteen years. New York physicians call it a medical miracle. The cure is affected in three days time. Guaranteed. Free literature for the asking, The Gatlin Institute."

I have received corespondence from various sources. One is from Pittsburgh which would seem to indicate that this institution has some trade outside of the borders of Pittsburgh. It is owned by the Gatlin Company of Denver. Colorado, and I want to read a letter—in fact several letters from parties in Pittsburgh, which are as follows:

P. S.—I have tested the Gatlin cure home and can not recommend it. I have now a case against me by this Institute wherein I have refused to pay for the last treatment because of the Institute's failure to remove appetitie .

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 15, 1913.

Hon. J. R. K. Scott:

Dear Sir:—You are right in calling the "Gatlin Institute" a private institution—more than that, it is really onwed by the Gatlin Co., Denver, Col., who get a royalty of $25.00 for each patient treated here.

Then again the treatment itself is a fake, to my own personal knowledge four out of five of the men who are treated relapse, when I was there four men were patients for retreatment and then they charge $125.00 for three days.

Dr. Gardner who was the resident physician told me that he was not doing right in giving medicine to patients when he did not know what that medicine consisted of. The medicine all comes from the Denver House.

Gardner also said that $25.00 would be a large fee for the service rendered

Mr. SPEAKER, I have here a most remarkable protest from a manufacturer of rye whiskey. This gentleman says:

Allegheny, Pa., July 12, 1913.

Mr. J. R. K. Scott, Harrisburg, Pa.

My Dear Sir:—Permit me to say that the appropriation bill that is up for the Gatlin Institute of Pittsburgh for $2,000.00 should be defeated .

It is an injustice to impose such a thing on the people of Pennsylvania. It is nothing but a Booze Joint, where they take a man's money and give him absolutely nothing but bad whiskey for three or four days and then let him go. I sent two of my friends there, cost me $250.00 and they left and was worse than when they went .

It is a fake and should not be allowed in Pittsburgh. Would ask you to kill the bill. I can give you names of dozens of good people that will verify what I state. One man died from after being there.

I am surprised at Kuhn for attempting such a bill .

Mr. HARRY E. KUHN. Mr. Speaker:

The Gatlin Institute, incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, is a high class canatorium for the drink treatment. It is conducted by Pittsburgh business men, who have been interested in temperance for years.

For a long period they have watched many cures and selected this, on account of the medicine being harmless. The institute has never had a death from the treatment.

This Institute has not only given many free treatments but has helped about three hundred people on part payment.

If the sum recommended by the appropriation committee, is granted, the Gatlin Institute will be enabled to give many more free treatments. This money is not asked for building purposes, but for the maintenance, board and medical attention of free patients, as well as enabling them to assist a very large number of worthy families, who are in dire distress on account of the head of the family being unable to get away from liquor.

From an economic standpoint, this will be a good investment for the State, there are now over seventy thousand persons confined in the various insane asylums, reformatories, homes and workhouses, which the State is compelled to support indefinitely. Statistics show that a very large number of these persons are there through drink.

If many of these men had been able to take a drink cure, they and their families might be useful citizens today, instead of paupers.

In regard to the claim, that the Gatlin is a private institute, it is no more a private institution than any of the hospitals in the State, receiving large appropriations yearly, without question. Many of these hospitals receiving State aid, acept pay alcoholic patients and refuse to care for alcoholics without means.

The Gatlin Institute is willing to go part way, as far as we can, in justice to ourselves, but the State, I think, should do its part towards reclaiming its citizens who have been yielded to the evils of intoxicating liquors and restore them, as I have already stated, to family, friends and society.

The Gatlin Institute agrees to treat 300 patients free of charge if this appropriation is granted to them.

The institution is a high one, gentlemen, and I know that it is a good institution and is doing good work.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I had supposed that appropriations to hospitals were for charitable purposes and it may be interesting to know something of the manner in which this Institute presents itself to the public. I have here some of their advertising matter, and the pamphlet which they send out in response to inquiries. On the first page of the pamphlet, in red type, it says, "The Liquor Habit and its cure in 3 days," and in a public statement in this pamphlet, I find the following:

> The Capital Stock of the Gatlin Institute Company of America (corporation), is one million dollars, full paid up.
>
> On the date of publishing this book, second edition, May 1, 1909, there has never been a single share of this stotck placed on the market. It is held by responsible business men, and has been considered by them valuable enough to keep.
>
> The stock is valuable because the business is large and increasing. The treatment cures the liquor habit—and cures it in three days—and its reputation as a safe and certain cure has become National.
>
> Institutes are now in operation in the cities of Pittsburgh, Denver, Chicago, Minneapolis and Omaha. Before the full edition of this booklet is distributed, we expect to have an institute in each state of the union, with probably three or four in some of the larger states.
>
> Each Gatlin Institute, wherever located, treats patients just as effectually as they are treated at the parent institute, exactly the same remedy being used. It is requested that you place just as much confidence in any Gatlin Institute wherever it may be located as in the parent Institute.

And they have two methods. One method is home treatment, for which they charge $100 as against $125 at the Institute. And for that home treatment they say, "The fee for the Gatlin Home treatment is $100, cash in advance, and no deviation from this fixed fee to any one." Now, it strikes me that this institution is not much of a charitable institution, and if it is not a charitable institution, it strikes me that we ought not to appropriate money to it.

BILL STRICKEN FROM CALENDAR.

I move that we strike the bill from the calendar.

Mr. BREGEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The SPEAKER. The hour of 10.30 having arrived, the Chair lays before the House the special order for this hour.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, this bill is to my mind one of the bills that ought to be defeated. Among the reasons is this particular reason: The idea of cleanliness and safety in prevention of disease and all that sort of thing seems to have gone almost to extremes. When this bill came to the House it was in fearful shape. I believe that any member of the House who has studied the bill, however aesthetic he might be, would have voted against the bill as it then stood. Some of the provisions have been taken out of the bill, but the bill in its present form is a very, very dangerous bill. It is dangerous, Mr. Speaker, in more ways than one. To-day, if a man is not satisfied with the conditions of the place at which he takes his meals, he goes some place else. Each proprietor of such an institution runs his institution as he sees fit. Some cater to a high class trade, some to a middle class, some to a lower class of trade. Prices are regulated accordingly. We have talked about the high cost of living for several years past. Now, when you dance, you must pay the fiddler. Mr. Speaker, under the provisions of this bill, every man who has a public eating house would be under the inspection of that department which has charge of this inspection. The bill in itself says nothing about any appropriation, carries no expense with it; but I would ask the gentleman of the House how you are going to put in a system of espionage, if you please, in relation to how a man conducts a restaurant or hotel, without paying the people who make these inspections. If you will take up the increased cost of the Health Department since that Department has been in operation, you will marvel at the results. If you put this bill on your statute books and put it in operation in turn, you will turn out upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania an army of inspectors going about high class, middle class and lower class eating houses to see how they keep their dishes, how their kitchen is kept, whether the cook is healthy whether the waiter is strong, and wat-not. It is a piece, Mr. Speaker, to my mind, a piece of absolute absurdity. As I said a moment ago, every man can regulate himself as he sees fit. He can go where he finds the eating palatable if he wants to pay the price; he can go where it is within his reach if his price is limited. But he cannot go out and perhaps have a certificate come along with a plate of beans; he cannot have a certificate come along that everybody in the House is in perfectly good health and the dishes are kept perfectly clean and that they are kept in the cupboard and that there are no cockroaches in the sink and that there are no mice in the cellar; but if he pays for that certificate, if we put this bill in operation, why then I think it is going to increase the price that much, as I said a moment ago, because for the number of places there are in this State there would have to be an army of inspectors to go and nose about. And not only that, but the certificates, or rather the result of the examinations, those certificates must be cared for somewhere. Now, there is a provision in here that a man must have his health examined twice a year,—something of that kind—to show that he has no transmissible disease. As every member of this House knows, the tramps are the people who cater to the public in eating houses. You take the waiters. The waiters as a class will stay in a house till it gets old; then they hunt a new place because they can get a place perhaps where the pickings are a little bit better; where the tips are a little bit heavier. And so it goes; an absolute tramp condition. Cooks are the same way. I do not mean by that the chief chefs of big hotels, because their jobs are permanent. Mr. Speaker, I think the passage of this bill by this House will be an absolute mistake and I do sincerely hope that the House will vote it down.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been amended from its original shape to which the House objected until now it is a very reasonable bill, and I take issue with the gentleman from Allegheny that you have got to pay a high price to get a clean meal. I think that the restaurants throughout the State should be compelled to live up to some proper standard of cleanliness. I also desire to say that there will be no great force of inspectors under the Health Department drawing State salaries to enforce the provisions of this bill. Every police officer and every citizen who finds a restaurant keeper so careless about the welfare of his patrons as to permit persons suffering from communicable diseases to serve them, can upon proper complaint—by any citizen; not by an inspector from the Health Bureau—but under complaint of any citizen can be taken before a justice of the peace, and if convicted can be dealt with summarily. Now, Mr. Speaker, this bill has provisions that no person shall employ any waiter, cook, or person who is suffering from any communicable disease. It encourages the restaurant keeper or hotel keeper to employ people who are not suffering from communicable disease. The bill further provides that in order that no hardship come to the restaurant keeper that any restaurant keeper who has an examination twice a year of his employes shall be considered as complying with the provisions of this Act. Section 2 of the Act provides that no restaurant or hotel keeper shall use any pots, kettles or pans which are not kept in a sanitary condition; and that surely is a very reasonable condition; and the third section of the Act provides that no hotel or restaurant keeper shall furnish their customers with any knives, forks, or other utensils which are not kept in a clean and sanitary condition.

Now, Mr. Speaker, this bill was prompted by the Director of the Department of Health, in order that some proper supervision might be exercised over the restaurant keepers and hotel keepers of this State, simply in order that the people of this Commonwealth be not subjected to inoculation or to the chances of catching disease by reason of the carelessness of any hotel or restaurant keeper. I do not think a man has to go to the highest priced hotel to be insured against getting disease. The humblest restaurant keeper of the Commonwealth has an obligation to his customers that he maintain his place, not with the fine setting of the hotels of Philadelphia or Pittsburgh, but that he has some reasonable standard of cleanliness and there is no hardship imposed upon any person by this bill, and I therefore ask the House, in the interest of this measure for the prevention of the spread of disease and in the interest of the health of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and in view of the fact that this bill has been amended so that it does not affect any person who wishes to provide his customers with proper sanitary food served in a proper sanitary manner, and there can be no valid objection to this bill in its present shape and I therefore ask the House to support it.

Mr. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been fairly discussed from both sides. We have been informed by the gentleman from Philadelphia that this bill was amended so that it will not affect any one and I think he was perfectly right when he reads on page 2, section 2, line 6, where it says that all pots and kettels must at all times be protected from flies and other insects.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, certainly.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman not know that this bill was amended on third reading on June 3rd and that in section 2, line 6, that he refers to, was stricken out?

Mr. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, I have not got that number here.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I presume the gentleman is reading from the file of the Senate, 4291. The correct folio is 4589.

Mr. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, I stand corrected.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say further that various associations of traveling men, who are at the mercy of careless hotel keepers, have strongly advocated the passage of this bill.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as this bill is along the line of the efforts which have been put forth by the Department of Health of this State to reduce the mortality from communicable disease, it might be well to call the attention of the House to a record of just what the Department of Health has accomplished in this line.

"Vital statistics compiled by the State Department of Health for 1912 show that in Pennsylvania the death rate per thousand was only fourteen as against sixteen seven years ago, when the first complete tabulation for the State was made. The figures cover a population of 7,969,904 persons and there were 15,938 fewer deaths in 1912 than in 1906.

The statistics show that deaths from tuberculosis last year were 123.7 per 100,000 of population, as against 158.9 per 100,000 in 1906; typhoid caused 16.5 deaths per 100,000 against 54.6 for the same figure in 1906.

While the diphtheria death rate has been reduced from 34.1 to 24.9; scarlet fever, 8.1 to 7; measles, 20.5 to 10.8, and whooping cough from 21.7 to 10.8.

Now, Mr. Speaker this proposed legislation is just in line with this work. Surely none of us would willfully handle even a vessel of any sort which has been handled by an employe who is suffering from tuberculosis, not to speak of any venereal diseases, and it seems to me this is the best sort of legislation which should almost unanimously pass in this House.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment of the time of the House in connection with this bill. This is practically the same measure which passed the Assembly of New York State a few weeks ago. The measure which was passed at Albany was much more drastic than this bill.

I might say further in connection with this bill, that I have received petitions signed by hundreds of members of the order of United Commercial Travelers, endorsing this bill and asking the members to vote for it. I think in this State a great many corporations have adopted this rule. The Pullman Company, for instance, already has this for one of their rules. They comply now with every provision of this bill. I see nothing unreasonable in it and I ask every member of the House to vote for it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

The SPEAKER. The Chief Clerk desires it to be announced that he has received numerous requests for the report handed in by the Auditor General, and manifestly he cannot grant a number of requests for the same report. Consequently he desires it to be announced that he will have the report at his office at the close of the session to-night, and that it will remain there for the benefit of all the members who desire to examine that report to-night.

Speaker.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 27 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, Senate Bill No. 59, for the purpose of amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1387 (Senate No. 59), entitled:

An Act to amend an act entitled "An Act authorizing the formation of partnership associations in which the capital subscribed shall alone be responsible for the debts of the association except under certain circumstances" approved the second day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four providing for increase of capital stock and amendment of the articles and continuing the term of existing associations and providing for certain additional officers in such associations

On the Question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Title, line 1, Strike out "to amend" and insert in lieu thereof "supplementing."

Section 1, lines 12 and 13: Strike out "or for surplus earnings actually held or invested in property by the association."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to on third reading.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to raise the question of information in regard to the statement made by the Chair as to the report filed in answer to the resolution introduced by me a few days ago. I desire to ask the Speaker if he will not direct the Chief Clerk to permit the report to be in the hands of several of the members of the House who are interested in the General Appropriation Bill. Previous to the announcement made by the Speaker, an arrangement was made by possibly ten or a dozen of the members of the House to meet in the room of the Judiciary Special committee for the purpose of preparing amendments to the General Appropriation Bill, which is fixed for third reading and final passage at 10.30 o'clock to-morrow morning. Our desire is to have the report that we may get the information necessary to properly prepare the amendments. We appreciate the fact that other members of the House will perhaps want to see the report, and they could be very easily accomodated in the Judiciary Special committee room. The members who are interested in preparing these amendments could probably go to the Chief Clerk's office, if they could be accommodated there. I spoke to the Chief Clerk, but he did not seem to think that he could find room for them in his office. We offered that resolution for the purpose of getting information, and in that report there is a great deal of information, information that is necessary to those of us who will talk on the amendments, and information that many members of the House will expect us to give to them. I know that the Speaker will do everything possible in his power to facilitate matters.

The SPEAKER. The Chair made the announcement at the request of the Chief Clerk. Of course, the Chief Clerk is the custodian of the report and is responsible for it and is not subject to any request on the part of the Chair in this regard.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I take it that the Chief Clerk himself is subject to the direction of the Speaker of the House. Of course, I do not want to put it on the basis of a motion. If he or his assistant may desire to be present at the time of the introducing of this report, of course, if that is desirable, I have no objection as I want to do everything possible that can be done with this very long bill. It has been fixed for special reading to-morrow, after we have given our time to it to-night, which we expect to do.

The SPEAKER. The Chair assumes that all the members of the House are desirous of obtaining all the information they can and it seems to the Chair that the suggestion of the Chief Clerk is a proper one—that the report be examined by all the members of the House who desire to do so in the Chief Clerk's office where each member will have the same access to it, the same opportunities and the same rights.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I most certainly object to this report going to any particular committee tonight. If the gentleman from Philadelphia has offered this arrangement by himself and has allowed the bill to go on final passage, I only want the statement made to the House that the appropriation committee has given every attention to every thing to throw every light on this bill and gave it all the time that could be possibly be given to its consideration. I suggested that this bill go to the Judiciary Special Committee, sometime ago, and it was refused, and now when we have only a few hours now the gentleman asks for this bill.

The SPEAKER. The report can be examined at the office of the Chief Clerk. He has indicated his willingness to remain at his office as long as is necessary or as long as any one is there to examine it.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The Gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware has stated that it was his purpose and the purpose of others that have opposed the position that has been taken by many of us to let every possible light be thrown upon this bill; that a motion was made to refer these reports to the Committee on Judiciary Special and that now there was opposition to this report going to the Judiciary Special. There was no thought of it going to the Judiciary Special Committee. We are using the room assigned to the Judiciary Special Committee for the purpose of having sufficient accommodations there to transact our business and having two stenographers that are there at my own private expense and having been working there for weeks, so that it is for the purpose of letting light come in and I say the purpose of this report being kept there, those of us who are working on the appropriation bill, I say it is being kept there for the purpose of depriving us of having that right. I don't propose that any member of this House shall stand upon the floor of this House and say that our purpose is for anything but for the purpose of having as much light as possible thrown upon this bill. That report from the Auditor General has meat in it; it has facts in it. We are satisfied to work away beyond the midnight hour and we have fixed to-morrow at 10.30 o'clock for the final disposition of that bill in order that we could not be accused of fixing a later date, later in the week on Thursday, for instance, when the bill could not possibly be reached by Thursday. We requested that it be put on special reading on Tuesday, so that every member could be here and vote and we are satisfied to put two hours of work to-night on this bill and the least thing that could be done here is for the House to direct its Chief Clerk in this matter and have him and his assistants instead of his hindrance to aid us, all of us members that are seeking to bring light upon the general appropriation bill. Many of us will be sitting in the room assigned for the use of the Judiciary Special Committee, to-night for the purpose of working and we cannot possibly work in any other way. It will take some time to examine it. It is a voluminous report and if it is referred to the Chief Clerk's room, the Chief Clerk cannot possibly meet as with us with our stenographers in the room assigned to the Judiciary Special Committee and act on this question. In so far as the gentleman from Delaware assumes that there is a purpose I say that on the part of the Chief Clerk, who is from the same county, he has not given us one particle of aid to bring out any light and I protest against the Chief Clerk taking the position of placing a report which was given to him by resolution, and placing it in his desk and holding it there as property for which he is responsible. He can place it in the hands of any officer of this House and he can send that officer or any member of this House who is responsible and on oath for the proper return. We have now on that committee reports on other legislation before us which was given to us which we have examined and gotten much material and I cannot see the reason for any such action of the part of the Chief Clerk unless it is that he does not approve of the action of some of us on the floor of this House for opposing the great extravagance that has been shown in the General Appropriation Bill. I say that no good can come from the keeping of that report away from us. We ought to have it and we are entitled to it. One copy has gone to the printer and we won't have the result of that printer for a week. The other is with the reporters and the other one is in the Chief Clerk's desk. I say on this question of personal privilege I protest against the action of its Chief Clerk. It is the duty of the high officer of this body to direct the Chief Clerk either to give us permission with the whole body to meet there in his room or to accommodate himself, which he ought to do as the servant of this House and give to the members an opportunity to examine and pass on this bill during the night.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it does seem very strange to me that the gentleman from Philadelphia takes such a position as he does in this matter. It appears no member of this House is of any importance except himself. He simply misstates the proposition and then argues himself into hysteria over the question because he can't have everything in his own way. Nobody in the House wants to know anything, according to his idea, but the gentleman from Philadelphia. Nobody but the gentleman from Philadelphia has any right. There is only one thing he has complained about and he has complained because he cannot have this like he has all the other records which he has not yet returned to the Chief Clerk and now he wants this also and does not want to stand by the proposition suggested by the Speaker, that they be in the Chief Clerk's office. It is an unfair proposition that the gentleman from Philadelphia presents; it is unfair to the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee. It is unfair to the members of the House. That is the kind of a way he puts the proposition. The gentleman from Philadelphia admits that it has not always been the case with him. The proposition is that the resolution ought to go to the Chief Clerk, as suggested by the Speaker, where every member of the House may examine it. He tells what he wants to do and a good many members of the House have doubts about that. I hope the resolution will go down to the Chief Clerk's office.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. R. J. Baldwin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know of his personal knowledge that the reports which the gentleman from Philadelphia received from the Chief Clerk are still in his hands and have not been returned?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I made the statement.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman say there has been any demand from any member of the House for those reports?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I didn't so state.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, what did the gentleman state?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I have not stated so.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman state so now?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I state they are there and I still make the statement, now I want to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I haven't finished. I desire to ask the gentleman a further question. I desire to ask the gentleman further whether he purposes to ask to see the report now in the hands of the Chief Clerk?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I so stated before the House; is not that sufficient?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I didn't hear the statement. If I had, I wouldn't asked the gentleman.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, speaking for myself, I certainly have a right to presume that there are many members in this House who would like to look at the report and it is just as important that I should see it as any other member of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chief Clerk has stated that he will exhibit the report in his office and the members of the House, who desire to examine it in his office, can do so, and if the office appears too small to accommodate the gentlemen who desire to examine the report that he will come up here in the House and submit it to all the members of the House who desire to see it.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to and the House (at 11.30 o'clock) adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

PRAYER.

The Rev. E. E. Curtis, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father enable us this morning to appreciate that Thou are a spirit, infinite, eternal and unchangeable in Thy being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness and truth. May we recognize Thy sovereignty over us, and Thy propriety in us, and grant our Heavenly Father that our lives may be such that Thou canst approve of us and that what we do may result in the building up of Thy kingdom. Let Thy blessing rest upon this honorable body in all their deliberations this day. Do Thou grant that they may study to show themselves approved unto God, and we pray that all of their proceedings may result in the benefit of humanity. Do Thou grant to bless this great Commonwealth; bless these United States, and grant, Heavenly Father, that the time may soon come when righteousness, which exalteth a nation, may be fully established within our borders, and that sin, which is a reproach unto any people, may be banished from our midst. These blessings we ask in the name and for the sake of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, Amen.

Mr. MILLS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend the bill in the title, line 6, by inserting after the word "therefor" the words "approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred nine."

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 803 (House Bill No. 570), on third readings, entitled:

An Act requiring any individual firm or corporation mining anthracite coal in this Commonwealth where coal is mined and paid for by the car to keep a record of all coal mined at the miners' chutes where said coal is loaded in cars providing that said record shall be the final basis in computing the miners' earnings per car without any deduction for any slate or refuse that may be loaded in said car or cars in the usual and natural course of mining coal providing further that said record shall be open for the inspection of all miners and providing penalties for failure to comply with the provisions of this act go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, I object to this bill going over in its order on account of having a meeting of the Mines and Mining Committee for the purpose of amending the bill, and also a hearing by the sponsor of the bill and some other parties interested, and by mutual agreement with the sponsor of the bill in the House, and I think possibly the Committee will be able to get the parties interested together.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, this bill has been in the Senate for several months; it was reported out of the Committee on Mines and Mining, passed first reading, it was then recommitted for the purpose of a hearing and amendment, if such amendment was desired, after it had passed first reading; it was again reported out of the Committee on Mines and Mining without any hearing, and now it passed second reading and again was recommitted for the purpose of a hearing. No hearing has ever been had upon this bill. This is the bill, Mr. President, to which attention has certainly been called, because it was the bill which was up for consideration in this Senate some weeks ago and I took occasion to arise to a question of personal privilege. And if there has been any honest intention to ask that it be amended, certainly that time has been had. When this bill came on the calendar, I agreed last night that if certain persons were interested in having this bill amended, the sponsor of the bill agreed with me that he would be glad to meet these people and see whether or not any such amendments could be agreed upon and whether or not it would be satisfactory and it was with that understanding that the bill went over in its order last night, and it was for the purpose of meeting the engagement of the men who say that they desire to be heard as to whether or not the bill shall be [illegible] ask that the bill go over in its order this morning. This bill is clear in its terms, and the question as to whether or not it should be amended is a question that can be threshed out on the floor of this Senate, and I can see no reason why this bill should be returned to the Committee on Mines and Mining for a hearing, when it has been in there two or three different times for the purpose of giving the persons who say they want the bill amended a hearing, and there has never been a hearing, and I hope that this motion to recommit to the Committee on Mines and Mining will not prevail. If the Senator from Jefferson will allow the bill to go over in its order, in order that we may consult with the sponsor of this bill as to whether or not they can come to some arrangement as to the amendments to this bill and if they cannot, it can I submit, be threshed out on the floor of the Senate, in order that the Senate may be advised as to whether or not the bill shall be amended. And I think this bill should go over in its order, and not be recommitted to the Committee on Mines and Mining in the light of the desire on my part to be fair to the Committee on Mines and Mining in not asking that the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the bill. In order that there may be no misunderstanding, if the Senator from Jefferson, Mr. Kurtz, will move that the bill be recommitted for the purpose of a hearing to be reported back to the Senate to-morrow morning, I will raise no objection.

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, I cannot speak for the Committee. I requested the Committee to meet this afternoon and thresh it out with the parties interested. I expect to have it reported out to-morrow, but I cannot speak for the whole Committee. The explanation of my stand on this proposition is this: while absent last week on account of sickness, this bill in some way or other got out of my desk. I had the desk locked. This bill in some mysterious way got out on the calendar without action of the Committee, and that is the reason I would like to have the Committee have some say about the bill getting out.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, in defense of Senator Kurtz's position, I want to say that as the ranking member of that committee consent was given that that bill be reported out with the understanding that it be satisfactory to him when he returned here the first of this week, and if he desires to have the bill recommitted for the purpose of a hearing, I think his wishes in the matter should be regarded.

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, I move to amend the motion made by the Senator from Jefferson, Mr. Kurtz, that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Mines and Mining to be reported back to the Senate to-morrow morning.

Mr. CATLIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I am also a member of that Mines and Mining Committee, and I think that the wishes of the Chairman of the Committee should be complied with. He is practically the sponsor of all bills which come before the Senate from the Committee, and if that bill was sent out from the Committee according to the statement set forth by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Crow, it is only more than right that the courtesy that has been shown in every other case, should be extended to the chairman of that Committee and that that bill be referred back to the Committee, and as the Senator from Jefferson, Mr. Kurtz, stated, it is utterly impossible for him to state what the action of the Committee will be and this bill does not deserve any more consideration than any other legislation before the Senate of Pennsylvania. And if that bill was not fully considered before the Committee on Mines and Mining, therefore, it should go back to that Committee, as requested by the Senator from Jefferson, Mr. Kurtz.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER HOUSE BILL NO. 107.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 620 (House Bill No. 107), entitled:

> An Act establishing a court for the county of Philadelphia prescribing its jurisdiction and powers providing for the service of its writs process or warrants by the proper officers of the county or city of Philadelphia regulating the procedure therein and appeals therefrom and providing for the expenses thereof passed finally be reconsidered.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. HILTON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HILTON. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, this bill provides for additional law judges in the city of Philadelphia, in other words establishes the Municipal Court and gives to the city of Philadelphia fourteen more judges. Last night I moved to reconsider the vote but withdrew the motion as I was put in the position of being considered unfair and I do not want to be placed in that position. I last night withdrew the motion and make it again this morning.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, permit himself to be interrogated

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, what has taken place between the time the Senator cast his vote; within half an hour or three-quarters of an hour he suddenly discovered that the bill should be reconsidered for the purpose of absolutely defeating the bill and for the purpose of destroying the effect of that vote.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, It was my understanding before the Committee on Judiciary General when this bill was up for a hearing that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McNichol, and the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare, both represented at that time that if they got the five additional law judges in the city of Philadelphia so far as they were personally concerned, or so far as the public was concerned, in their judgment, they would not need the new municipal court, and for that reason I would like to have the bill placed on the calendar and have further action.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, if the Senator will permit me, this information was imparted to the Senator last night by both the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, and the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McIlhenny, and in the face of that statement the Senator voted for the bill. The Senator refers to the fact that the Senators from Philadelphia sated that if they had the five judges there would be no necessity for a municipal court and that statement was reiterated on the floor of the Senate just a few minutes before the vote was taken on the bill, and still the Senator insisted on voting for the bill. Something has apparently taken place between the time of the vote on this bill having been recorded and the adjournment of this Senate that has given the Senator some enlightenment why this bill should not pass the Senate and I should like to have the information.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I sat here last evening and listened to the debate on this bill and I think heard what was stated, but after I cast my vote for this bill I felt that I had done something that I should not have done and my conscience sort of pricked me that I had done so, and I never want to be in the position of doing a thing which I feel I should not do and I think that the stand that I am making here this morning, I feel that I am in ample time to redeem myself in such a way that I will be easier afterwards.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I do not want to encumber the gentleman's conscience. I would be the last person in the world to send him away from this Senate with any reproach on his conscience but I feel that the Senators having considered this bill for the last three months and it having received the requisite vote last night upon final passage, that the bill should be permitted to go upon its course to the House for concurrence in the amendments and that there is nothing in the bill that any Senator could go home and be ashamed for having voted for it, because it is in the interest and for the general good of the business community of Philadelphia. Pittsburg has enjoyed this privilege for two years and are entirely satisfied with it and would absolutely oppose any repeal of that bill. Certainly Philadelphia, the oldest child of the State, with its great population is entitled to the same amount of consideration that was given to Pittsburgh and I trust that the Senate will not vote to reconsider this vote as moved by the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I just want to state that I understand that some of the Senators who voted for this bill last night were luke warm on the proposition and they said they were not interested in it and as that it is immaterial to them, but they had to go along with the proposition in order to keep straight.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, The gentlemen who made that statement or the Senator I think owes it to this Senate to say who those Senators were that stated that they had to go along with a bill of this kind to keep straight in some respect or other. In a bill relating to the welfare of the business community if any Senator would make such a statement as that to a fellow Senator there must be some foundation and reason for it. There is no political significance to this bill. There is no person in this Senate interested in the passage of this bill except for the purpose, as I said before, to give dispatch to the business that a large proportion of the people of the city of Philadelphia are entitled to and to make such a slurring allusion to a bill of this propriety I think is beyond the bounds, and I would like to know if any such statement was made by any Senator in this hall and who that Senator was.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, if I have offended any Senator here with the statements I have made I offer that Senator an apology, but I feel that every member of this Senate knows that certain sentiments that I have just expressed have been heard here from the different Senators. But as I said, if I have offended any Senator by the statement that I have made and the assertions that I have made I apologize to that particular Senator and the apology stands good and I say you gentlemen can all take it as far as I am concerned, and I will not take the floor of the Senate and name any particular Senator.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, I had some very small part last night in the motion to reconsider this bill and at that time there was some remark made of perhaps it not being a fair time to have brought the question up on account of the lateness of the hour. Of course there was no intention or wish or purpose to do anything in any sense unfair, but it was absolutely necessary to bring it up last night or not at all, because the bill would have been shortly afterwards messaged to the House, and if the Senate will recall it is not an unusual procedure to have a bill reconsidered in that way. Just the week before last, the lead poison bill passed in the morning and when a number of Senators had gone to lunch the reconsideration of this bill was taken and the bill was put back in Committee. Unless the motion is made when we get the chance it is impossible to make it at all, because the bill would leave the Senate and a motion made then would be of no value, and it seems to me that as long as two Senators who voted for this bill have changed their opinion as to the merits of the bill that it is a very proper thing that this motion should be adopted and it seems to me the Senate should have another chance to decide whether this bill should pass or not.

Mr. SHEATZ. Mr. President, no bill that is before the Senate has as much influencial backing as this bill. The business people of Philadelphia demanded it at the very beginning of this session, and I do not see why the members from the country object to permitting the city of Philadelphia to have these additional judges. Philadelphia is not a small corner in this great State; it is simply one fourth the entire State of Pennsylvania. If you add the number of Judges of Philadelphia County together you will find that they are not nearly one-fourth of the number of judges throughout the entire State and why should there be so much objection on account of the little expense. Why should there be objection to give the business men of Philadelphia the judges in order to facilitate their work. They demand it and I hope the Senate will not be in favor of this motion.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideratio nof Senate Bill No. 1003, on third reading postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Providence General Hospital of Philadelphia Pennsylvania

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,
The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1003, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Providence General Hospital of Philadelhia Pennsylvania

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the bill?
And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, I am in a very peculiar situation on this bill. This is a bill which I introduced myself and is for an appropriation to a new hospital in Germantown, my district. I introduced the bill by request because the time had elapsed for introducing bills in the House and I felt the bill ought to have its fair show, although I might be personally opposed to it. My opposition to this bill, and I am opposed to it, is due to the fact that it is a new hospital. I am generally opposed to the starting of new hospitals by State appropriations until such time arrives when we are amply able to take care of the particularly State wards and I mean by them such as the feeble-minded, the epileptic, etc., and it is almost impossible now to get any person into one of those institutions on account of them being over-crowded and until the time comes when the State can catch up with the particular wards which it has, the insane, the feeble-minded and the penal institutions, it seems to me it is unwise to start new and semi-private philanthropic institutions, and if any money is to be given it is better to give it to the existing institutions and let them enlarge their buildings, better than to start new institutions. There is one hospital about a mile and a half from this and another hospital is about three miles away. The distance is not as close as it should be, but I think it is better to wait until such time as we are able to take care of the wards of the State, and that it is unwise to start new hospitals which we must support in the coming years. Therefore I am opposed to this bill.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, it always falls to the lot of the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee when a new appropriation is before the Senate to explain it and I rise at this time. I may say with pleasure in one respect and not with pleasure in another, because it is against my good friend, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McIlhenny. But the Appropriation Committee of the Senate as well as of the House feels it expedient under the circumstances to make an appropriation to the Providence Hospital at Germantown, Philadelphia County. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McIlhenny, states in his remarks that this is practically no necessity, because we have a large hospital, namely, the Germantown Hospital. The reason we think there is a necessity for another institution is predicated on this, that for the first time in the history the Germantown Hospital has come to the State, asking State aid, which is evident in itself that the demands are so great on that institution that they are no longer able to keep up with the work which they perform at that institution and necessarily come to the person who has the largest pocketbook, namely, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Appropriation Committee in considering the necessity of the same took into consideration the conditions in that community, secondly, the wants and necessities of the people of that community, and thirdly, predicated it to a certain degree on the necessity of the same based upon the facts that I have just stated, that they are not large enough to cope with their wants, and certainly my good friend, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McIlhenny, would not object to an institution there when there is absolutely necessity, and it is a great growing district in which this hospital is located and we have never hesitated here on this floor to give out money in the interests of suffering humanity. It sounds well to say that we need money for epileptics. We need money for the unfortunate souls confined in our insane institutions. True enough, but at the same time when humanity demands the same we must always open the door outward to give the assistance desired, and that was the consensus of opinion of the Senate committee and also of the House committee, that this institution be given assistance at this time.

Shall the bill pass finally?

I am interested in these propositions and would like to take the bill up in conjunction with the Senator who is sponsor for the bill and have it go over until tomorrow morning.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I have no objection to that. but I will say, however, that this bill has been given careful consideration both in the Senate and House, that it has been referred to Conference Committee, and they have had meeting after meeting, and there has been ample time for any amendments, if any were desired, and there have been a great many amendments made.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE ON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS FROM THE FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 135.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I move that the Committee on Municipal Affairs, be discharged from the further consideration of House Bill No. 135, entitled "An Act providing for the better government and regulation of citizens of the second and third class, by authorizing the initiative and referendum methods of legislation" and the bill be placed upon the Calendar of the Senate.

Mr. MOORE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, this bill (House Bill No. 135), grants the initiative and referendum to cities of the second and third classes. This bill was passed by the House on April 15th. On April 16th, it was transmitted to the Senate and referred to the Committee on Municipal Affairs. After lying in this Committee for two weeks without action, it was reported out on April 30th on motion of Senator Powell. May 6th, the bill was sent back to Committee under protest, but with the statement from the Chairman of the Committee that the recommittment was not for the purpose of bottling up the bill. The bill was referred to a sub-committee with the express understanding on demand of Senator Hilton, that the bill should be reported affirmatively or negatively from the Committee not later than May 14th. May 14th, the Chairman failed to call the Committee together in spite of the agreement in Committee the previous week. The reasons given was that the opponents of the bill on the Committee could not be present. The Chairman admitted that this was contrary to the express agreement to all the members of the Committee present at the meeting. May 7th. May 20th, the committee took up the bill and a motion by Senator McNichols, seconded by Senator Jarrett to report the bill favorably was amended on motion of Senator McNichol to postpone further consideration. The amendment was carried. May 28th, Committee tied on reporting bill out.

The result is that the bill is indefinitely bottled up in Committee contrary to the statement of the Chairman at the time of recommittment.

Mr. President, the last statement that I have made here "the result is that the bill is indefinitely bottled up in Committee contrary to the statement of the Chairman at the time of recommittment'' I wish to withdraw. This bill refers to cities of second and third classes. The district in which I reside has no cities of the second class, but has cities of the third class. We are interested in my district in another bill which has gone from the Senate and is on passage in the House. And now coming down to cities of the second class, many of the Senators wonder why I take the floor when I have no cities of the second class in my district. The reason for it is this that I feel that I am just as much in duty bound to represent the cities of the second class of which I have none, as I have to represent the cities of the third class which I have. Mr. President, in reference to the action of this bill in Committee, if there is no objection, I would like to say a few words on that. This bill came up for consideration in the committee on Municipal Affairs and the vote was a tie. I think it stood seven to seven. Now, Mr. President, when a vote is as close as that in a Committee, I feel it is the duty of members of the Senate to move to discharge the Committee from further consideration of the bill, and to say that the bill should come out on the floor of the Senate for action, and I want to say I am a member of the Committee on Municipal Affairs which I ask to be discharged.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, in the different counties reperesenting cities of the second class there are seven senators. I would like to ask the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, how many of those Senators are in favor of the initiative, referendum and recall?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I do not know how to answer that unless it would be on a roll call. I think that would be the best way to get it, on a roll call. I understand, I have not polled the Senators representing the districts in which are cities of the second class, but I understand there are two or three Senators from those districts who are for the initiative and referendum in cities of the second class.

Mr. MILLS. Mr. President, as Chairman of the Committee on Municipal Affairs, I would like to ask the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, a question.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MILLS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, if they ever requested a hearing on this bill before the Committee and they did not get it.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I cannot answer that.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, the Committee on Municipal Affairs heard this bill every time there was a request made for a hearing. We sat one afternoon all afternoon on the bill and we heard it from other different times and there never was a time when I put the motion whether the bill would come out or stay in that I did not ask the members of the committee if they did not fully understand what the motion was and what the amendments were, and they all agreed they did. We took a vote on this five different times, and four times the vote was almost unanimous for keeping the bill in Committee, and the last time was a tie vote. I merely want the Senate to know that there has been no underhand methods, there has been no stifling of this bill in Committee. The bill was heard five different afternoons, and the afternoon, the time he talked about we were to have a hearing, the hearing was to be at two o'clock on Wednesday when we adjourned here about one and they all went away, on Tuesday rather, except him and me, and I thought the two of us could not hold a hearing. As far as I am concerned, I have not any interest in the bill. I only wish to say to every Senator in the room, that there is no desire on my part or the part of any member of the Committee to hide this bill or stifle it and if the Senators want to take it from the Committee that is for themselves. I also repeat that I do not wish any gentlemen in this room to feel as if there has been any tampering or stifling of the bill. The sentiment of the Committee was that the bill should not come out and that is why it is in there.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, the reason I think this motion has merit in it is just for the reason as stated by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare, and as stated by me when I first made the motion, that when this proposition came up before the Committee on Municipal Affairs it was a tie vote. It is my policy that all bills that are introduced, if there is a public demand for the bill it should come out of Committee then, and here is a bill that in the Committee, the Committee was tied up and if the Committee was tied up, why should we not discharge the Committee and bring the bill out. The Committee is tied up. There must be a popular demand when the Committee is a tie.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, this bill, as I understand, is on third reading, and the Committee of which I happen to be a member has given this bill consideration second to no bill that is before any Committee in this Senate, and there is a bill which has similar conditions contained in it before the Senate Committee on Elections on which we sat here last Tuesday afternoon practically three hours or two hours and a half to consider, and it was a hard matter to get possibly four of the Senators to remain here and listen to the question of initiative and referendum for the whole State of Pennsylvania. Now when a Committee has been so faithful to its duties and the bill is in such an advantageous position, I do not think we should cause a reflection upon that Committee after the deliberation given to that bill at this particular time, but if it is the contention of this Committee that this is a proper bill to report out they can within the next three or four days report the bill out with either an affirmative or negative recommendation and the Senate will have a chance to vote upon it,

An the question recurring,

And all other acts or parts of acts not herein particularly specified which are inconsistent with the provisions of this act

Date of Operation

Section 22 Except as herein otherwise provided this act shall take effect on the first day of November Anno Domini nineteen hundred and thirteen

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, This is the female labor bill (House Bill No. 105). I desire to call the attention of the Senate to that fact. I would very much like if the gentlemen who propose amendments will tell the Senate what the amendments mean and what they do in reference to this bill because there should be not be any misunderstanding about it.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1, line 8, by inserting after the word "homes" the word "and."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, This bill has been amended, reamended and reamended and there has been considerable difficulty presented in understanding just what the amendments are and for that reason I suggest, although it will take some time, that for the full information and that every one may be recorded intelligently on this vote, that the proposers of the amendemtns state what the purpose of the amendment is and what is supposed to be done by it as compared to the amendments reported by the Committee.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this amendment is offered for the purpose of making a correct sentence. It does not effect the bill at all.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears no objection.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1, line 12, by striking out the words "except that the same shall not apply to women employed in office buildings at night or to telephone operators who work at night and remain upon the premises after work is completed or to nurses in hospitals or to telephone operators in central offices or to employees of hotels."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I trust that the Senate will not adopt this admendment, because this amendment was put in by the Committee after considerable discussion as to the effect it would have upon the large buildings and the people who work in large buildings at night, in cities, in buildings that must be cleaned, and if they are restricted as the amendment now requires, these buildings cannot be cleaned and women could not work in that way and they would be obliged to get men or be obliged to go without the building being cleaned in proper time and after consideration the Committee agreed that this amendment should be permitted in the bill.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Snyder.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Snyder, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, Without this amendment inserted would not the women be permitted to clean office buildings if they are over twenty-one years of age.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I do not know, because if this amendment would be adopted it would prevent women over twenty-one from cleaning after certain hours. Under this bill it seems to me a woman who is over sixteen years of age ought to have a right to work in the building longer than the hours required and the amendment was put in at the request of women who work in buildings and also the owners of the buildings.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, As the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Snyder, says if this amendment is adopted it will not effect women who work as cleaners in buildings provided they are over twenty-one years of age and the bill expressly excepts nurses. It seems to me there is no reason why women under twenty-one years of age should be allowed to work or clean at night in office buildings. The bill as it is now would permit women over sixteen to be employed in any building and in my judgment it is not necessary.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I might say that the telephone operators and hospitals are taken care of in another amendment to the bill later on in a section where it fits in more properly.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I do not wish to question the right to offer an amendment, but I would like to suggest in what section at this time it refers to nurses and telephone operators, because the hospitals of the State are very much concerned about this section of the bill and the Committee has a large number of letters from hospitals of the State concerning the nurses and it seems to me that no chance should be taken to exclude nurses or to include them in this amendment. For that reason I as Chairman of the Committee am opposed to an amendment of this kind.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, On page 7, line 85, of the bill "The provisions of this section shall not apply to the work of nurses in hospitals."

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, What do you propose about the women working in buildings if you strike out this amendment?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, it does not affect women above twenty-one years of age.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I will say this, I do not see why a woman over sixteen years of age has not the right to work in office buildings if she wants to as a cleaner, and this bill would permit her to do so as amended in Committee, and if this amendemnt is adopted unless the gentlemen propose to change it, they are to include the women who work in buildings above sixteen years, as the Committee intended them to do, I shall oppose his amendment.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Chair hear objection to this amendment?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment as indicated.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division was called for by Mr. Snyder,

Whereupon, seventeen Senators voted in the affirmative and twelve Senators voted in the negative.

So the question was decided in the affirmative.

Mr. WILLIAM C. SPROUL in the Chair.

Mr. SPROUL. The Committee of the Whole having before it Senate Bill No. 1090 (House Bill No. 105), the amendments have been inserted in accordance with the instructions of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. D. P. Gerberich), in the Chair.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I move that the Committee of the Whole do now rise.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, As Chairman of the Committee of the Whole I report that the Committee of the Whole has inserted the amendments as instructed by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 1090 (House Bill No. 105).

The PRESIDENT. The amendments will be inserted in the bill as instructed.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resolve itself into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of general amendment.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. WILLIAM C. SPROUL in the Chair.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to amend section 3 by striking out clause (b) as follows:

> (b) A different apportionment of the hours of labor may be made for the sole purpose of making a shorter day's work for one day of the week but in no case shall the hours of labor exceed fifty-four in a week except that in such establishments when the employment is by seasons the number of such hours in any week may exceed fifty-four but not fifty-eight Provided That the total number of such hours in any year shall not exceed the average of fifty-four hours a week for the whole year excluding Sundays and holidays
>
> The employment of such persons at any time other than as stated herein shall be deemed a violation of the provisions of this section unless it appears that such employment was to make up time lost on a previous day of the same week in consequence of the stopping of machinery upon which he was employed or dependent for employment but no stopping of machinery for less than thirty consecutive minutes shall justify such overtime employment nor shall such overtime employment be authorized until a written report of the day and hours of its occurrance and its duration is sent to the Chief Factory Inspector

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I trust the Senate will not adopt this amendment for this reason. After a number of conferences and after hearing the manufacturing industries of the State, the laundry industries and the general industries, the Committee came to the conclusion that it would and will be unfair to require a straight fifty-four hours for these different institutions for this reason. If this clause known as the elastic clause is not permitted in case there is a holiday and the employees direct a holiday or half holiday for themselves and the employer permits it under this bill the employee would not have the opportunity to make up her fifty-four hours and cause them to lose that time; therefore the operator and employer get together and say to one another, we will not work this afternoon and we agree to make up the two and one-half hours during the week— they agree to that among themselves, and so they lose no time and get full pay. Under this provision they could not do that, and they could not make up that time and the employer would lose that time and the employee would lose that time. Now it was deemed wise, it would be fair both to the employer and the employee, to permit them to make up the time if they were agreed upon it, if that were agreed upon or if the holiday was observed, and in case the machinery in any factory would break down, or any part of the factory break down, the time consumed in repairing the machinery might be an hour or two hours or three hours. Under the way the Committee reported the bill, the workman would have the right to make up that time during the week, but not the subsequent or following week, but would make up that time during the week. Under the amendment offered by the Senator from Philadelphia, in case of a breakdown or the loss of an hour or two or three hours, the employee is bound to lose that time as well as the employer, and will not get paid for it, therefore most of the employees agree to make up that time in half hour shifts or quarter hour shifts at noon or evening, and thereby make up as much as possible of the time during the week without any cost or loss in wages. I submit to the members of the Senate, it is fair to the employer and is fair to the employee, to permit the making up of lost time in this way. It is called the elastic clause in this bill, and I submit the side of the employer and the side of the employee should be considered. The amendment presented to the members of the Senate is not fair to the employer and not fair to the employee and therefore I ask every member of the Senate to vote against this amendment.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, when this bill was first introduced in this Legislature, the thought was that the hours should be about forty-eight for children to fifty-four for women. The friends of this bill have been liberal enough to extend the hours to fifty-four as a limit with the idea that they should not be allowed to work more than ten hours any one day, and I submit to the gentlemen of this Senate whether ten hours is not enough for any woman to work. This amendment just shapes the bill so that it is impossible to employ women more than ten hours any one day, and it ought to be impossible to employ a woman more than ten hours any one day, because she is not able to work more than ten hours and keep in good health. Any member of the Senate knows that. If this amendment is not adopted the whole bill will be destroyed. In other words, they could work fifty-eight hours in four days or five days and do nothing on the sixth day. What good reason would there be for regulating the hours? I think the friends of this bill have given away in every direction when they push the bill up to fifty-four hours instead of fifty with the idea that they wouldn't be allowed to work more than ten hours in any one day, and not more than fifty-four hours in any one week, and I hope every Senator will agree that the bill is fair now. I think every gentleman will agree that this amendment ought to pass.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I am sorry to differ with the Senator from Philadelphia. My information is, and I do not think anyone can disprove it, that in many of the states that are so much held up as an example to us, and as the most progressive states, New Jersey, fifty-four are the hours permitted, not more than fifty-four hours, and in Massachusetts they permit fifty-eight hours, and this is permitted in Massachusetts, the state held up as an example. It is very unfair for the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare to state to this Senate that a woman should not be permitted to work more than ten hours, carrying with it the impression that this bill permitted a ten hour day for women all through. That is not the idea. In case she loses two and one-half hours or an hour and a half or an hour, that time may be made up during the week it was lost and not in the following week. Therefore I submit it cannot be a continued hardship upon women who work an hour and a half more. She does not work more, because she has lost that time, but to make up that hour during several succeeding days. For instance, if she loses two hours on Thursday, she could make part of that two hours up by working an hour on Friday and an hour or half an hour on Saturday, and thereby make up an hour and a half of her work. It is not a hardship, the Committee is fair, and I ask it in the interest of the people who are employed. And we might as well get the sentiment of the Chairman at this time on this proposition. I want to say, and I sincerely hope that I am not trespassing upon the time of the Senate when I make this statement, I want to say to this Senate that I for one do not believe in the cry for the children and the women on the part of the philanthropists. They may be proper in their purpose, I think they are proper in their purpose, but I do not think that we ought to give heed to their cry.

To be frank with you, gentlemen, I have come to the conclusion that after the big hearing in the Senate here that it was a political question more than economic one and that it was a matter of political promise and when the Child Labor people were given an opportunity to appear before the Senate committee the Chairman of the committee said to the members of the association: "I will give you a half day to explain your side of it and will give the opposition a half day." That was to representatives of the Child Labor Association. They did not expect that because they said they were satisfied with half an hour and then in the meantime the great philanthropists which represent a so-called State organization that will be extinct after last fall assumed to fix a time to be heard before the Senate committee. In the large number of gentlemen before that committee no distinct representative of woman and children appeared, very few, and they were paid champions of other States; they were paid political experts, if you please, that appeared before that committee. They were given all opportunity and the only person that came here in the interest of Child Labor, and woman labor, were three women who were not heard by this committee or given a place by the men who had the running of the afternoon's entertainment. At half-past six in the evening, very gracefully, gentlemen of the Senate, the gentleman who had the expedition and exhibition under his charge, said: "Will you be pleased to hear a girl who came all the way from somewhere, we don't know where she came from, she's from somewhere, she came from somewhere," and she didn't represent anybody, but she paid her way and she lost her day and she appeared before the members of this committee and she was there, and when she was asked whom she represented she said she represented the women and children who work in the factory and she said: "We have no complaint to make against the sanitary conditions. We have no complaint to make against low wages, we have no complaint to make about the arbitrary conduct of the employer." There was no complaint about this. "But we ask that the members of the Senate give us shorter hours." I said to that lady: "What kind of a factory do you work in?" she said: "In a lace factory." And you remember the arguments about the women who worked in offices, how it affected this generation because it made them barren and everything of that kind, and yet it was proved that among the women that worked in the factories the per cent. of birthrate was about seventy out of a hundred women and in other parts where they did not work the percentage hadn't been recorded because it could not be on account of rarity of birth. We had a doctor from the University of Pennsylvania before that committee who said that the hard work of these women ten hours a day caused them to work at employment which made them accessible to men. Now as far as I am concerned I wish to say although he is a professor of the University of Pennsylvania that I do not believe that statement. I think it is a slur on the womanhood of this state and it is untrue, just as untrue as black can be black, and the gentleman who came here and exploited himself, not the university, did an injustice to the women of this State and did an injustice to the members of this Senate by trying to press upon them his particular impression about the conduct of women, and I do not believe him and I do not believe that you do either, and I do not believe that the women who work ten hours are unfit to become mothers of the future members of the Senate and House. Do you know of any mother that was ever hurt by working ten hours and remember this bill particularly excludes your mother. She can work twenty and nobody kicks for her. No philanthropist came in and protected the mother. No philanthropist objected to the servant girl, and if one of those high brows had two or three servants in their home she knows that they are working ten and twelve hours and she knows what she gets and where she sleeps and how she is maintained. Nobody is pleading for their protection. Not a woman came here and asked for the protection of servant girls in the house, not one, not a woman, she couldn't be gadding about the State, she couldn't be coming here, if the servant girls were protected by law and she is doing her work at home. You consider whether this girl who works in the factory needs every dollar she can earn and if she loses two hours she should have an opportunity to make it up either in the morning or in the evening or the afternoon and I think it is fair and I ask that the members of the Senate not to talk about sentimentality because we haven't time to discuss that. We will hire a hall some time next fall when the campaign comes along and discuss all the sentimentality and progressives. I simply want to ask the members of the Senate to consider when they vote on this whether a woman who works in a factory should not be permitted to work an hour or two so she can maintain herself, no matter what Dr. Fussel or Dr. Fussy says.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I do not think the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Snyder, has answered the question. What about the machine which breaks down on Thursday? What is to hinder the employer from making the woman work fifteen hours on Friday and fifteen hours on Saturday, making up for the loss on Thursday if the machine breaks down in the morning and they did not work at all on Thursday? This is a broad question and the explanation of our friend, the Senator from Schuylkill, of one or two hours will not interfere with the broad question. I don't see any politics in this. It seems to me a simple question of whether ten hours is enough for any woman to work in a day and I submit that if a woman stands on her feet for ten hours she has certainly done enough. What has this State got to do with the State like Massachusetts, holding that up for an example. We do more business possibly in six months than they do in a year. There is no comparison there. The cold facts are looking us in the face to-day, whether ten hours are enough for woman to work or whether she is able to work more.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I beg pardon for rising a second time, but the gentleman seems to misapprehend the nature of the question. I think the gentleman is doing his work in the City of Philadelphia, also some of the friends of this bill. Whenever the gentleman from Philadelphia has an extra snowfall or extra work to do the man he gets to do the work is not a skilled laborer, he can get it by police authority under the ruling of the newspapers; he gets them whenever he can get them and he gets them because they need the work and there are gentlemen on the curbstones to do the work, but in the textile works, the woolen mills, or stocking factories you can't go out on the street and say, "You are my prisoner. Come to work." The Progressive leader in Pittsburg tried that, forcing them on his contracts, but he didn't do that so very long and I submit it would be unfair to ask textile manufacturers to go out on the street and say, "Come in and help us, we have some work on lace and silk and stockings and different things." They tried that very work under their late city moral regime and I think it would be hard to get skilled women to go to work.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, down in Philadelphia, inasmuch as the Senator from Schuylkill has brought in my particular business, in the opening of the year the weather is bad and the streets have got dirty, they being frozen and choked up and we go out and engage enough men to go out and do that work. When the work is done and cleaned up we lay off the extra men and do the regular work with the regular men. There isn't any reason why the factory owners couldn't work along that same principal because they are busy in the spring twenty hours instead of ten, we supply the help to do the extra work and when the work is done lay the extra men off and use the regular force. No sensible man would try to work men more than ten hours; they are not much use after that, when you get ten hours out of a man you get all that is in him, all that he is willing to give you and it will get back to one question, whether ten hours in a day is enough for woman to work. I think it is.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, the gentleman should remember that in Massachusetts they permit the things that the committee reported in this bill and must remember that no woman can work more than fifty-four hours in any week so the fifteen hour problem I submit is untenable.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Snyder.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Snyder, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Snyder, and have him tell the Senate if a machine breaks down all day Thursday, what will prevent the employer from working the women fifteen hours on Friday and fifteen hours on Saturday.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I do not know any law that would prevent it but I believe in the good common sense of every manufacturer and I do not believe any manufacturer in Pennsylvania would permit that kind of a condition to come about. There were a great many objections raised before the committee, but I wish to say for myself at least and for every member of this committee, that this committee does not believe that the manufacturers or any man who employe girls and boys and men and women of this State desires any condition which would bring about a fifteen hour day at any time, and I do not know of any condition that exists in the State of Pennsylvania, that exists in New York and Massachusetts in other lines of work but not in Pennsylvania.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would like to ask if it could not exist under this bill if this amendment does not go through?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, it might, but I do not believe that it would, or could. Under many a law things can be done, but it cannot be repeated, because the factory inspector after all or the Commisisoner of Labor has charge of the whole thing and under the law he gets a record of the hours worked and he would soon step in and stop it. In addition to that I do not believe the manufacturers of the State would permit a condition like that to exits and I ask that the Senate vote against the amendment.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator if he does not think that if a woman stands and works ten hours a day at a machine in a factory whether she has not done a good day's work and whether she is able to do any more?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I am not prepared to answer that question. I don't know whether she stands ten hours a day to do the work, and I do not know she is prepared to do it, but we do know that there are women in the home who work ten hours a day and their husband goes home to his dinner and goes out to his club or some other place and she still keeps on working and he has to compel her to go to bed to rest in order to be able to work for him the next day.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

A division was called for by Mr. Snyder, whereupon eighteen voted in the affirmative and ten Senators in the negative.

So the question was decided in the affirmative.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to amend Section 3, line 35, by striking out after the word "day" the words "except as hereinafter provided in this section."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, that is in conformity with the amendment just adopted.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to amend the bill in section 5, line 6, by inserting after the word "day" the words "provided that this section shall not apply to females over the age of eighteen years employed as telephone operators."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President. I move to amend the bill in Section 7, by adding after line 12, as a separate paragraph, the words "No person shall with knowledge employ or permit any female to work in or in connection with any establishment within four weeks after child-birth."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, the Committee for very many reasons thought it unwise to permit that section in the bill. It placed upon the employer the moral obligation at least to inquire into the personal affairs of women working in his establishment, and it placed an obligation upon him, which some busy-body could construe into a violation of law, if he did not comply therewith. An the Committee thought for conventional reasons, for personal reasons and for reasons respecting the personality of the women who work in his factory and for many other reasons, they thought it best to strike that section out.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I realize that this might cause to arise quite a delicate question; might in some cases be grounds for undue familiarity and many other things, and I am perfectly willing to withdraw that amendment.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, I move to amend the bill in Section 3, line 34, by inserting after the word "day," the words "Provided however that during weeks in which a legal or special holiday occurs and is observed by an establishment any female may be employed by such establishment during three of the five remaining days of such week for a longer period of time than is allowed by this act but no female shall be permitted to work more than two and one-half hours overtime during any one of such three days nor for more than the maximum number of hours per week specified in this act."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, the amendments offered are so plain and so simple and so meritorious that it is hardly necessary to produce an argument. The amendment applies to the laundry business, and it only applies during holiday weeks. It permits them to work overtime two and a half hours in not more than three of the remaining days of the week. Now the situation in the laundry business is this: That during holiday weeks things are in a very abnormal condition. We become very much congested during these weeks. We have about seventeen per cent. more business and one day less to do the work in, and the result is it produces a chaotic condition there that can only be alleviated by being permitted to work these few hours extra time, but above all I want the Senate to remember this—we are not asking any additional hours. We want to conform to the fifty-four hours. This would anly amount to thirty-seven hours in a year, and I trust the Senate will agree to the amendment.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I wish to say that the Committee had in the first instance favored this amendment, striking out the House provision and amending as the Senator now requests, but by some oversight that amendment was left out in the reprint of the bill on last Friday, and the members of the Committee at that time thought it fair and wise and a just amendment for the laundrymen of this State, and I submit that I believe the laundrymen are an exclusive industry; their work must be done at a certain time and there is a condition that cannot be met by extra help no matter what may be argued on that question, and the Committee believed it was wise and fair to have that exemption in the bill, and I believe it is wise to put that amendment in the bill.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I will get back to that same old question whether ten hours is not long enough, particularly in the laundry business where they stand up and work at a bench or table, we get back to the question why cannot we have a night shift the same as we do in any other business. I would like to interrogate the Senator from York, Mr. Wasbers.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from York, Mr. Wasbers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from York, whether they cannot work a double shift, one on Thursday and another shift on Thursday night.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, in answer to that—it sounds very nice, but I think it is generally understood that every employer of female labor is burdened to get them to work one shift without getting them to work a double shift.

We cannot do that with female labor. We have to get the work out the best we can and accommodate the people during that period. Now, we pay them for the holiday, we give them a holiday and we should be permitted to assist in convenience to the public so that we can get the business out. When are we going to do that business? The situation in the laundry business is entirely different from any other line of business. If the people are not going to be accommodated, it will drive the business back to the home, and the industry loses the business.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I ask the same question as I asked Senator Snyder, whether the woman when she works her ten hours is not about done for.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, well, as far as that applies to the laundry business that is different in this way that we have a good bit of leisure time that they do not have anything to do.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, I just want to add a word here in that respect—ten hours after a holiday. After a holiday to my mind the girls are more tired and unable to work than they are before they had it, and as far as the laundry is concerned it puts somebody back from their wash, but they soon regulate themselves to these conditions, and soon have the work out.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from York, Mr. Wasbers.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from York, Mr. Wasbers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, the amendment which the gentleman has offered here is to exclude laundrymen,—that is just to take care of laundrymen.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, I do not know that it specifically mentions the laundry business, but it is intended for that particular line of business, and only provides for a holiday week and at no time to exceed the number of hours—fifty-four. In other words unless they had a holiday, they are not to work over ten hours a day.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I see by the amendment that if we accommodate the Senator from York, we are throwing the door open to all the manufacturers and it will apply to all classes of labor, not only to the laundry business, but to all classes of labor and for that reason, I am against the amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

A division was called for by Senator Snyder, whereupon seventeen Senators voted in the affirmative and eleven Senators in the negative.

So the question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendment was agreed to.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, I move to amend the bill in section 3, line 34, by inserting after the new paragraph, which was inserted after the word "day," the following "Provided that aforesaid restrictions as to hours shall not apply to females engaged in the canning of fruit and vegetable products."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, This is a economic question in my territory, which is the county that boarders on the State of Maryland I dare say the only county that has any canning industries of any consequence. Now, if the canneries were not to be exempted from this act their goods would perish because the elements are a strong factor—the factor—in producing goods to be canned, and since they cannot control the elements they are compelled to work overtime to dispose of their goods. Now the canning season does not last at the most over eight weeks for fruit and vegetables, and therefore I hope the Senate will agree to this amendment. I might also state that Maryland has exempted them, and New York, New Jersey and Ohio have all exempted the canning industry, and I see no reason why the State of Pennsylvania should discriminate against its people.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, the Committee had intended that that amendment should be printed in the reamended bill, on last Friday, but, by some error, that was not done. I submit that we should put this in the bill for we believe that it is a just claim and should be put into this bill, and the exemption should be granted. The State of Pennsylvania is becoming a great fruit-growing State and the canning industry is becoming an important factor in this Commonwealth, and I sumbit this industry should be protected in this way. I do not think that you can apply the argument of extra help to be secured for this business, because it must be done at a certain time and in a certain community and you cannot get help whenever you want it, and I trust the Senate will vote for this amendment.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, the two amendments of the Senator from York are on an entirely different basis. I agree with him that if it was only an occasional overtime would not do anybody very great harm.. Anybody is perfectly willing to work a great many hours before going on a holiday and getting his work up to date, and I do not think it does anybody any great harm. But where it runs over two or three months particularly of continuous labor, when it is done in the summer time, it seems to me undesirable to make this special exception in regard to the canning industry.

Mr. VARE. It seems to me this canning business above any other business ought to be restricted to ten hours because it is not a regular employment the year around, and when the fruit and vegetables are ripe and ready to be canned, what is to prevent the people from employing enough help to do their canning in ten hours, instead of working twelve or fifteen hours. While they are employing them, they might as well employ enough. They don't employ them the whole year, they only employ them a short time and then want to work them a day and a half in a day. It seems to me certainly not a hardship to employ enough to do the work in a ten-hour shift instead of twelve to fifteen hours, and I do not see that the canning industry above all others ought to work people more than ten hours because they can engage more help.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, in reply to the remarks to the Senator from Philadelphia the great trouble is these people cannot get the labor. This kind of labor that they do have is principally foreign labor. Whole families come from Maryland and they work in these factories; eighty per cent. of them are foreign labor and the whole family stays for the period that consists in getting this work out and thereby are renumerated.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, the statement was made by the Senator from York that New York State canneries are exempted from the operations of the bill, I understand that a couple of years ago the State of New York had exempted the canneries, an investigation was made and the result of that investigation was that the New York Legislature just recently put that back in the bill and that canneries are now under the operation of the bill.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Jarrett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, where did the Senator get his information?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, it is made as a matter o public record in the State of New York.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, as a lawyer I submit where did the Senator get his information that this Senate will act upon.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I think it will be found in the Legislative Journals of the State of New York.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, are there any canning industries in Mercer.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, no, sir,—yes, I think there are in Crawford County which is also in my district. If the Senator from Schuylkill wishes to be enlightened on these matters of public concern, I will have a certified copy of the proceedings of the State of New York submitted to him.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, in that case, I will ask when we get into regular session that this bill goes over until we get that information.

Mr. SHEATZ. Mr. President, I have in my mind one large concern about fifteen miles below Harrisburg, in which they raise about 45,000 bushels of tomatoes in one season, and when their vegetables get ripe it is absolutely necessary to can or use them in whatever form they propose to use them and they should not be limited to the short hours that we have in this bill, and I believe for that particular industry this amendment should be adopted.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I represent a district in which there is a great deal of fruit grown and fruit canned and I have been listening with great interest to the remarks made by the members here. I do not think this exemption will work an injury to any employee. It is not an unwholesome occupation in the first place; it does not beget tuberculosis or any pulmonary disease. I am told by those engaged in the business that this bill as proposed would work very serious injury to the canning industry. Now the fact is if I can read correctly and the information which I had given me is reliable these laws in the neighboring states have been amended to comply or to accord agreed with the amendment that is proposed now. In New York State, the act of 1912, chapter 539, sections 77 and 78 relate to the employment of this kind of labor, and in that act and in clause 2 of section 78 it is provided that it shall not apply to the employment of women and minors sixteen years and upwards in canning or preserving perishable products in fruit and canning establishments between the 15th day of June and the 15th day of October of each year. I do not know whether the General Assembly of New York has passed a later act or not, but my information is that that is the latest act which is stamped on the law books of that Commonwealth. New Jersey passed a law in 1892 and that law has been in operation ever since, and it may be found in the pamphlet laws of 1892, page 171, providing that nothing therein contained shall be held to apply to any mercantile establishment for the six working days next preceding the 25th of December in each year and further providing—that is the part I should have read first—that nothing herein contained shall apply to canneries engaged in packing a perishable product such as fruit or vegetables. The neighboring State of Ohio passed a law in 1911, which may be found on page 488 of the Pamphlet Laws of that State, and it relates to this subject, and that no restriction as to hours of labor shall apply to canneries or establishments engaged in preparing for use perishable foods. Now we have the State of Ohio, the State of New Jersey and the State of New York, neighboring states, with this exemption. Why should we then handicap the industry in our own State by making it a hardship upon those engaged in that business. We certainly cannot ask more, we cannot do less, than to protect our own industries and our own citizenship and therefore, I do hope that this amendment will be accepted.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, this is a simply a plain question whether ten hours is enough for these people to work in any one day. It seems to me that after you take ten hours out of a woman, the ten hours the best that is in her, you will not get any more good out of her except to beat her health down by working her overtime. If you can get enough help to do the work in ten hours, what sense is there in getting them to work twelve or fifteen hours. It is a loser for the employer and a loser for the employee, there isn't any question about that, gentlemen.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, this exemption is made broad enough to cover this condition. This overtime work is not continuous. Sometimes it is taken away and sometimes it is intermittent work. It is not always continuous work. First comes the crop. The farmer brings in his peaches, cherries or pears, and they have got to be taken care of then and there, and the question of whether ten hours is not enough, we are all willing to acknowledge that ordinarily ten hours is enough for any woman to work, but as said by Senator Snyder, there are two exceptions here of a class of labor that work under the bill longer than ten hours a day. I am not an advocate of a measure to impose upon women twelve to fourteen hours a day but the conditions that exist are such that it is the proper thing to exempt these canneries, because they cannot do this work unless this exemption is included in this bill.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, now this is an industry to my mind that regulates itself according to the crops, and as the crops are coming in the spring of the year, the people in this industry should know full well how to regulate the business to carry on that work during the canning season, and for that reason they should provide extra help.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

A division was called for by Senator Snyder, whereupon fourteen Senators voted in the affirmative and twelve Senators voted in the negative.

So the question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendment was agreed to.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, I move to amend the bill in Section 17, line 3, by striking out after the word "instituted," the words "by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry or his deputy."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, this amendment is merely to allow individuals to carry on the prosecution and not confine it entirely to the Department of Labor.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I trust the Senate will not adopt this amendment. Now that part of the bill was very seriously considered a long while, and now these amendments will permit any party aggrieved to bring a prosecution, and thereby harrass the unfortunate manufacturer or owner of any establishment continuously. Now there is a Department of Labor established by the State which has many inspectors, which will be reorganized and will be a system such as no other state has, and I submit putting up the prosecution to the Commissioner of Labor, is the proper policy and one the State should carry out and not let prosecutions be brought by the whim of everyone who feels aggrieved. Under the Department of Labor and Industry ample provision is made to gain information with regard to any negligence concerning any violation of law with regard to anything that concerns the interest of the employee, and if he writes to the Commissioner of Labor, the experience in the past has been that it is attended to immediately and I submit that under this new Department it will be attended to with considerable celerity, and we desire that both the employer and employee be protected. This amendment would produce a very serious interference with the business of the employer and I ask that the members of the Senate do not adopt this amendment.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, the question of continually being harrassed would not be very serious, when it is remembered that the prosecution carries with it the costs if the party merely does it for the purpose of harrassing, the costs fall on the plaintiff and that being the case I do not see that it particularly interferes where the purpose is spite. And furthermore we have known a great many cases where the department does not prosecute and follow up the information which they get. This will correct that as I understand it.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I do not think this Senate ought to entertain the amendment for the reason that every grouchy employee who leaves the service of an employer or has been discharged would have an opportunity to come back and harrass him and annoy him with suits of this kind. I think it is best for the discharged employee or for the employee who leaves the service of an employer, that they immediately separate forever.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

A division was called for by the Chair, whereupon seven Senators voted in the affirmative and nineteen in the negative,

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, I move to amend the bill in section 17, by inserting at the end thereof the following: "Any person shall have the right to institute prosecutions for violations of this act by stating upon oath or affirmation the facts alleged as a violation provided that any person other than a public officer who shall institute a prosecution which shall fail to result in a conviction shall be liable for the costs of such prosecution if in the opinion of the court there shall not have been reasonable grounds for instituting the prosecution."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, I move to amend the bill in section 18, line 9, by inserting after the word "punished," the words "for each and every female in connection with whose employment or work such provision shall have been violated."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, this is merely a cumulative penalty. For instance, a manufacturer employs three hundred women. The penalty may be very light, so that he can well afford to pay the penalty for one. It merely makes provision to pay for each employee.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Warren, Mr. Knapp.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Warren, Mr. Knapp, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, under the proposed amendment if a man had one thousand employees he would pay on thousand fines for each one.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, it is the same as the Inter-State Commerce Law.

Mr. SNYDER. I submit to the Senate that that was in the original bill, and the Committee stuck it out upon the ground that it is eminently unfair to submit the employers to pay one thousand fines or five hundred or whatever they may be. Perhaps in an enlighted community, it would not operate to any great injury, but in some communities where people are arbitrary and tyrannical, employers would be put to a great cost and might be imprisoned for a misdemeanor that the act did not contemplate because he could not pay the fine and therefore I ask the Senate to vote against this amendment.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, we do not have very many factories where they employ one thousand, five hundred, three hundred or one hundred men, where they are not enlightened. An employer is supposed to know the law. He is supposed to know the penalty. If he violates it, you must make that penalty enough so he won't violate it. If he wants to violate it, he takes his chances, and if you do not make it heavy enough then he will have an interest in violating it, providing he can make more out of running overtime and violating it than he can under the law. That is why I believe in the cumulative penalty.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Warren, Mr. Knapp.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Warren, Mr. Knapp, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, does the Senator from Warren know that whether by himself or through his agent, servant or employee that he can be held responsible.

Mr. KNAPP. If he is responsible for the acts of his employee.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to amend Section 18, line 8, by inserting between the word "six" and the word "seven" the word "or;" also in line 8, by striking out after the word "seven" words "eight or nine;" also in line 24, by inserting after the word "sections" the words "eight nine;" also in lines 24 and 25, by striking out after the word "fifteen" on line 24, the words "sixteen or seventeen;" also in line 24, by inserting between the word "fourteen" and the word "fifteen" the word "or;" also in lines 45 and 46, by striking out after the word "age" the words "or sixteen years of age as the case shall be;" also in line 52, by striking out after the word "violation," the words "of subsection (c) of section three or;" also in line 52, by striking out the last letter "s" of the word "sections;" also in line 53, by striking out after the word "five," the words "or six;" also lines 55 and 56, by striking out after the word "age" the words "or less than sixteen years of age as the case shall have be;" also in line 62, by striking out after the word "violating," the words "sub-section (b) of section three or?" also in line 62, by striking out the last letter "s" of the word "sections;" also in lines 62 and 63, by striking out after the word "five" the words "or six."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I do not wish to be hypercritical but I assume these amendments are to fix up the grammar and some typographical errors.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I understand this is so.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SPROUL. The Committee of the Whole having before it Senate Bill No. 1090 (House Bill No. 105), the amendments have been inserted in accordance with the instructions of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. D. P. Gerberich) in the Chair.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I move that the Committee of the Whole do now rise.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, in my haste this afternoon I perhaps did not make myself clear to the members of the Senate with regard to portions of bill No. 105, known as the Woman's Labor Bill, and after the amendments were passed in speaking to some of the Senators I found I was perhaps in error in not making myself clearer, and so now after conversation with the various Senators and especially Senator Vare and others I have come to the conclusion to offer an amendment that I did not offer this afternoon, and for that reason in order to perfect my amendments to the bill I know move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I second the motion, and in seconding the motion I would like to say of the child labor people inasmuch as they threw open the doors to the canneries people as well as the laundry people it is only fair to give it to the manufacturers in case of a breakdown of machinery, because this is what this amendment means.

Whereas Through inadvertance the said association failed to file its sworn statement with the commissioners of said county within the time required by law and thereby was prevented from receiving said pro rata share and

Whereas The amount still remaining unpaid of said sum of one thousand dollars is two hundred sixty-five dollars and ninety-five cents which is less than the amount actually paid out by said association as aforesaid as premiums on agricultural exhibits during said agricultural exhibition held in the year one thousand nine hundred twelve therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of two hundred sixty-five dollars and ninety-five cents ($265.95) is hereby specifically appropriated to the Punxsutawney Fair Land Association of Punxsutawney Jefferson county to partly reimburse it for amounts paid out by it as premiums on agricultural exhibits during the agricultural exhibition held in the year one thousand nine hundred twelve in accordance with and relying on said act of Assembly

PRAYER.

The CHAPLAIN (Rev. J. E. Wright) offered the following prayer:
O God, we thank Thee for the generous emotions which Thou hast implanted in our hearts and natures; for the sense of justice of which we are conscious; for the love of truth; for the admiration and reverence for purity and virtue; for the brotherly kindness and charity which makes us desire our brothers' welfare. We recognize Thee in all that is worthy and good in ourselves and we believe that Thou wilt help us if we try to confirm and strengthen those better things and so build them into the structure of our characters and lives. Each day has been a discipline toward this very end, bringing with it opportunity and experience which contribute directly to the purposes of God. May we not be disregardful of it; may we not be selfish and thoughtless, so absorbed in inferior and subordinate things that we shall miss God's purpose and lose God's blessing; may we earnestly covet the best gifts and try to make them our own; may we not shrink from the effort that this will cost us nor let them slip from our grasp through a listless endeavor; may we be honest and earnest in pursuit of the good; and wilt Thou graciously reward us. And Thy name shall have the praise of it now and forever. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that in considering this appropriation bill that the rules be suspended for the purpose of permitting amendments to be offered and acted upon by the House upon this bill at this time.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. W. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment to section 2 of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The amendment was then read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 2, page 10, by striking out all after the word "of" in line 263, down to and including ($50,000.00) in line 264, and inserting the following "twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00). Provided, however, that no part of said sum shall be used for the payment of contingent expenses, official fees, witness fees, serving processes, or other costs incurred by reason of Senate Resolution of May 22nd, 1911, authorizing the appointment of a commission to investigate any charges that have heretofore or may hereafter be made between Legislative sessions against judges or other persons holding civil office, which is popularly known as the Catlin Commission."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. W. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, the object of this amendment is two fold: First, it reduces the amount reported by the Appropriation Committee for the purposes set forth in that portion of section two from fifty thousand dollars to twenty thousand dollars, and in addition restricts the use of the amount of money so appropriated so that none of it can be used for the payment of contingent expenses and official fees and other costs and expenses incurred by reason of the Senate Resolution of May 22nd, 1911 which created what is commonly known as the Catlin Commission. Now, the reason suggesting a reduction of the amount approved by the Appropriation Committee is that in 1903 there was appropriated for the purposes set forth in this section the sum of ten thousand dollars; in 1905, there was appropriated the sum of ninety-four hundred dollars; under the Stuart administration in 1907, which was the beginning of the Capitol scandal, there was appropriated for these purposes twenty-five thousand dollars and in the session of 1909, the sum of fifty thousand dollars and in the session of 1911, under the present Governor, there was appropriated the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

Now, the only reason which seems to be advanced by the Attorney General's department for asking for an increase of this fund is the reason set forth in his reply to the resolution asking for an explanation of the increase asked. The members of the House will recall that when this bill passed second reading it contained an appropriation for this purpose of thirty thousand dollars, but when reported from the Committee last week that appropriation was increased to fifty thousand dollars which is the amount now specified in the bill.

The Attorney General's office says this increase was to provide for the exact amount of the salaries fixed by the Legislature.

The item "For the payment of the contingent expenses, official fees, witness fees, serving process, and for such other costs as the Commonwealth may be liable to pay in cases in which the Commonwealth is or may be a party, and for the payment of postage, express charges, the purchase of law books for the law library of the Attorney General's Department, and other incidental expenses, for the two fiscal years commencing June first, one thousand nine hundred and eleven the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00)" was increased to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00). The essential reason for such increase is that an Act of Assembly is pending which provides that all attorneys and other legal counsel employed to represent or advise the Commonwealth and the several departments of the State government, bureaus, or branches thereof, shall be employed by the Attorney General, and it was thought that this act, requiring as it will more sheriffs' fees, prothonotary's costs, costs of witnesses, expert and otherwise, printing of paper books and other incidental costs and expenses, together with the natural increase in the work of the Department, as indicated by the two fiscal years ending May 31, 1913, over the two fiscal years ended May 31, 1911, would require the appropriation asked for. If the sum is not used, it will, of course, lapse and be returned to the general fund.

Now, Mr. Speaker, the act referred to, or the pending act referred to in the message from the Attorney General's office, may be a mere rumor or it may be an actual fact. If it is a mere rumor, that rumor has never reached my ears until I read this report. I have searched diligently through the files, both of the Senate and House of Representatives of this session, and I have absolutely failed to find any act referred to by the Attorney General's office in his message, or any act of a similar character. It is well known that under the State government each Department has its own counsel. Each Department asks for an appropriation for its own counsel, and I would like any member of this House to direct my attention to the expenses of any such legislation as specified in the message from the Attorney General's office. Now, Mr. Speaker, in the last session, only $25,000 was appropriated for this particular purpose. There was drawn by the Attorney General's office from that fund of $25,000 down to the present time $9,311.24, leaving of the entire appropriation of $25,000 a balance on hand of $15,688.76, which has not been used by the Attorney General's Department and for which no vouchers have been filed with the Attorney General. Now it certainly seems to me, Mr. Speaker, that if an appropriation of $25,000 for this particular purpose for two years—and there was only a real necessity for using less than $10,000—there is no necessity now in the present appropriation bill to increase that amount to $50,000 as asked for in this particular item of the appropriation bill. There are not any contingencies likely to arise now such as existed in the Stuart administration,—the Capitol scandal, which called for large expenses and for which large sums of money had to be appropriated; so that I say there is no necessity for this increase to $50,000, and that $20,000, the amount, that was suggested, is ample to meet all the needs of that Department. Now, the second provision of the amendment applies to something which comes a little bit nearer home. The members of this House who were members last session will recall that in 1911 there was in the City of Philadelphia a factional fight for political possession. There was passed by the Senate of Pennsylvania a resolution on the 22nd day of May, 1911, which created what is now known as the Catlin Commission, a commission created solely for political purposes; a commission which had not for its object the investigation of any department of the State government, but a commission which was conceived in iniquity and which came to Philadelphia for the sole purpose of blackening the character and the reputation of honest men who were candidates for high office at the hands of the citizens of Philadelphia. And when that purpose was accomplished, when sufficient stain, when sufficient mud was thrown around, then that commission, like a thief in the night, folded its books and its papers, moved out of the City of Philadelphia and never investigated another thing; a commission which has been declared by the court of quarter sessions of Philadelphia to have been without authority, without power to subpoena witnesses, without power to investigate because it was created by but one branch of the Legislature of this State of Pennsylvania. And I say, sir, that in justice to the citizens of Philadelphia we should not permit the stamp of approval to be placed upon the expenditure of the moneys of this Commonwealth, as to put up the sinews of war for a mere factional, political fight in any one part or section in this State of Pennsylvania. I ask that the members of this House support this amendment and read it into this bill.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, so far as the Catlin Commission is concerned, I think it would be better to have the amendment divided, but as the gentleman from Philadelphia cannot see any reason for any additional appropriation to the Attorney General's department and while I, of course, do not know any better than he, I would at the same time ask the gentleman if he realizes what expenses the banking law is likely to create. It depends largely upon the financial condition of the State. If the present condition should change, there will be much work to be done by the Attorney General's department through the banking law alone, and the gentleman from Philadelphia must appreciate the great additional work that that act creates. We should not be penny wise and pound foolish. We should not want to cripple that department which is in charge of the department that brings the revenue into our State. I do not know whether it is a mistake to appropriate these $50,000 or not, but if you will examine the Auditor General's report, you will find a large sum on hand of the money that was appropriated two years ago. Now, I think if the gentleman has gone over the matter with the Attorney General and the Attorney General has not been able to use that amount of money, I believe we ought to reduce the amount of money appropriated to that department, but we should be very slow to reduce it, in order that we may not damage our sinews of war in the legal department of the State that we have for the collection of funds. If he has not gone over this matter with the Attorney General, I do not think that the gentleman from Philadelphia stands in a different light from the gentleman from Delaware or any other member of this House, and we should be careful about making an appropriation to this Department. Now, if he has satisfied the members of the House and has received his information from the Attorney General, what amount of money should be made available for this Department, it is a wise policy for every member of this House to support this amendment. The gentleman from Philadelphia has stated that a certain sum of money has not been accounted for in this report from the Attorney General. If the gentleman will read over this report, he will find that it states emphatically at the very outset that it is not to be taken as authentic, but is merely to be used as a guide and that it is the best that could be done in the time given by the resolution. And if the gentleman from Philadelphia has this communication from the Attorney General, I would suggest that he read the whole letter to the House, so that the House may know that the report is not authentic and does not claim to be authentic. And I hope the House will consider these questions in cold temper and as a business proposition. In no instance have we heard of any complaint that vouchers have not been issued and if any complaint had been made there should have been an investigation. We all know that no money that is appropriated can be paid out without the proper vouchers. So far as the Catlin proposition is concerned, I think in all probability the gentleman is absolutely right, that perhaps the Catlin commission did not deserve to be paid for what it did, but I do think we ought to be careful about cutting down money for this department, which looks after the interests of the people, in order that they may not fail in the collection of those revenues which we were depending upon.

Mr. REESER. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Philadelphia has the communication on the floor of the House, I think it ought to be read.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, there was passed by this session a bill to aid the Attorney General in the placing of his employees. At the time the bill was here we were told that the contingent fund that he had, he had to use for the purpose of paying some of his employees. We passed a bill for the purpose of relieving him from that situation. Now this increase of the contingent fund is but one of the many that are throughout this bill, and the amendment of the gentleman from Philadelphia ought to be supported. The amount should be held down to the $20,000 which has been suggested and there should undoubtedly be a restriction upon that fund. What is said by the gentleman from Delaware in reference to having the amount remain as it was, has been answered by the fact that we passed an Act of Assembly this session to cover the amount of expense as claimed by the Attorney General.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, in considering this amendment, I would like to call to the attention of the House the statement made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Wilson, in reference to this item in the General appropriation bill and the same item in the general appropriation bill of two years ago. Two years ago there was $20,000.00 appropriated of which nine thousand three hundred and eleven dollars and some cents were used and accounted for. The Attorney General's report to this House stated that he had still in his possession bills that were paid but for which the vouchers had not bee filed of $850.00 and another item which was still pending of something like $500.00. You will recall gentlemen, that not long ago, may be a few months ago, when the bill was before this House to reorganize this Department, that we were told by the people who advocated that bill that there were no new positions created but merely recognized the positions then in the department and being carried on the contingent fund. Mr. Speaker these salaries amounted to $5,100.00. Now to my mind, if $9,300.00 was sufficient to pay the contingent expenses, official fees and postage of that Department and $5,100.00 in addition for salaries, certainly the amendment suggested by the gentleman from Philadelphia, must place in the hands of the Attorney General a surplus of $15,000.00, more than he had two years ago, and I hope that the amendment of the gentleman from Philadelphia will prevail.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, accompanying the report of the Auditor General is a statement. This is the statement from the Auditor General:

Department of the Auditor General,
Harrisburg, June 16, 1913.

Hon. Geo. E. Alter, Speaker,
House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge service on me of a copy of a resolution adopted by the House of Representatives June 12, 1913, which reads as follows:

Whereas, In the general appropriation bill of the session of 1911, there was appropriated to the various Departments, Bureaus, Boards, Commissions and Divisions of this Commonwealth, a contingent, emergency, special or incidental expense fund for the fiscal year ending May 31st, 1912, and May 31st, 1913, and

Whereas, There are set forth in the general appropriation bill for the session of 1913, now having passed second reading in the House, various sums for contingent and incidental expenses,

Therefore be it Resolved, That the Auditor General inform this House, not later than Monday, June 16th, 1913, of the respective amounts drawn against the various contingent, emergency, special or incidental expense appropriations of the various Departments, Bureaus, Boards, Commissions and Divisions, for the two fiscal years ending May 31st, 1913, and a detailed statement of the vouchers for said expenditures, with the dates of filing, amounts and nature of the same.

An exact, or even a substantial compliance with the terms of the resolution is impossible for the reason that it involves an examination and classification of a vast volume of expenditures within a period of time wholly insufficient for the purpose.

I have prepared, however, and submit herewith a statement of the various contingent, emergency, special or incidental appropriations to the various Departments, Bureaus, Boards, Commissions and Divisions of the Government of the Commonwealth; the amounts drawn upon each; the amounts for which an accounting has been filed, and the balances for which an accounting has not been rendered, as the same appear upon the books of this Department.

This statement is accomplished by a classification of such expenditures by certain of the Departments, Bureaus or other branches of the Government of the Commonwealth in the order of examination suggested by the sponsor of the resolution, and in such detail as the time at the disposal of the Department has permitted. This statement can be supplemented by a similar or more complete classification of the incidental expenditures of any other branches of the Government, although it would be impossible to prepare a satisfactory statement of such expenditures by all branches of the Government before the probable date of adjournment of the Legislature.

The dates upon which vouchers have been filed with this Department have been omitted for the reason that credit for vouchers filed has been given as of the date of audit and settlement, and not as of the date of filing, and for the additional reason that in many cases the date of filing is not a matter of record, though the dates upon which the expenditures were made can be readily ascertained from an inspection of the vouchers.

With reference to the balances shown to be unaccounted for, you are respectfully advised that, in some cases vouchers have been filed covering all or part of said balances, but credit has not been given for the same for the reason that the audit and settlement of such vouchers has been delayed in the press of business incident to the close of the biennial appropriation period, and the abnormal number of accounts now being closed and settled, or the vouchers have been lacking in detail or otherwise defective and approval thereof has been withheld pending correction or explanation.

The preparation of this statement has involved the examination of so great a number of vouchers in so short a period of time that there has been little opportunity to check and verify the distribution of expenditures, but the figures given are accurate and the classification is believed to be substantially correct.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
Yours very truly,
(Signed) A. W. POWELL,
Auditor General.

But the figures given are correct and the classifications believed to be substantially correct, but a large number of the vouchers as he states, have not been placed upon the books and in the short time it is impossible to check up the vouchers. Now I simply read this letter to the House so that the House may know that during any arguments that may arise in reference to the various bills used by any person in the hall of the House that they are not presumed to be absolutely correct. I would not want any member to be mislead by thinking that the Attorney General has had time and has given to us an absolute sworn statement as to what the conditions are in his Department, so that in that case we would be in absolute shape to be guided by such a report. We are not in any such position. I would be only too glad if we were. Now I do think that the gentleman should divide this question. I do think that we are doing a dangerous thing when we cut the appropriation to the Attorney General's Department in the face of the fact that we all know that the Banking Department will undoubtedly require a great deal more money than was required during previous sessions. I think it would be a mistake. Personally it makes no difference to me but to the people of the State. I think the people can see the machinery is to be clogged. In other words, it is like sending a man a hundred miles to do a certain proposition and you give him fare enough to take him only half way. I think the gentleman should certainly divide his Catlin proposition.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I think the argument advanced by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Wilson, in advocacy of the adoption of his amendment should carry to each and every member of the House the fullest conviction. I do not think there is any attempt on the part of the gentleman from Philadelphia to hamper the administration of the Attorney General's office. Nor do I think he intends, in his amendment, to curtail the efficiency of that department of the State Government, but I do think that by the amendment in which he gives the Attorney General's department the same contingent appropriation they got last year and in which he provides that no money out of this contingent fund shall be used for the payment of the Catlin Commission, leaves this appropriation to the Attorney General's Department in very good shape and I think that the fact that the Attorney General's office did not use the entire contingent appropriation given by the Legislature of 1911 and to the fact that they are given the full amount they got then, surely to my mind carries the conviction that the Attorney General's office will not be hampered in the carrying out of the duties and work imposed upon that Department, but it is very important at this time and I can only reiterate the splendid argument made by the genelteman from Philadelphia, Mr. Wilson, that we should not in this appropriation to the Attorney General's Department leave the slightest loop hole for the payment of any expenses incurred by that Catlin Investigating Commission. No member of this House, whether he be from Philadelphia or any other section of this State, should countenance the payment of one penny of the people's money for the payment of the expenses incurred by that commission. I think, Mr. Speaker, this is a reasonable amendment and I think this House, in the investigation of the various items appropriated to the various Departments, is concerned with one particular proposition and that is, are we giving them sufficient money, and the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin, evidenced the very highest patriotism when he moved to suspend the rules in order that we might give all these various items their fullest consideration. There is no effort on the part of the gentleman from Philadelphia, from Delaware, nor is there any effort on the part of any other man who is sincere in the discussion of this appropriation bill to do ought else except to give the fullest and widest scope to investigation, but I dare say from what little information I have gotten from various items in this bill I shall oppose amendments because I don't think we can base opposition to the bill or advocate the support of amendments simply upon comparisons with previous administration expenses. The State has grown in two years and grown in four years and they should come before us with something else besides mere tabulated comparisons; but this is one amendment which does not curtail the Attorney General's office or the administration of their proper work, but it surely means to every man that we should not take one penny of this money to pay any of the expenses incurred by the Catlin Commission and as far as this amendment is concerned I think it should receive unanimous support.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. W. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendment:

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

> On page 11, section 2, amend by striking out all of the items from line 265 to line 279, inclusive.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. W. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this amendment is to eliminate from the General Appropriation Bill that provision which provides for the selection of special Deputy Attorney Generals and special District Attorney Generals appointed by the Attorney General. The reason for the amendment is that in the reply of the Attorney General showing the reasons for the increase, at the last session the appropriation for this purpose was $20,000 and they are now asking for $25,000.00. This is along the line of argument which I made in support of the former amendments offered by myself. In addition thereto we find on line 247, on page 10 of the General Appropriation Bill that salaries are provided for three Deputy Attorney General's, raised from $10,000.00 to $25,000.00, or an increase of $15,500.00. For the payment of clerk hire, line 203, from $19,400.00 to $23,000.00. Now in the return of the Attorney General, showing the expenses paid out of this item in the last appropriation bill, we find that a number of attorneys throughout the State were appointed as special Deputy Attorney Generals for the purpose of their appointment in transacting the business of the Attorney General's Department in special cases.

We find that we have E. Clinton Rhoades, an attorney in Philadelphia, who was appointed in some six cases Thomas Rayburn White, in one, and several other attorneys throughout the State. Now, Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that out of that contingent appropriation under the last appropriation bill there was paid and vouched for $10,189.52 for which vouchers have been filed with the Auditor General, leaving a balance of $20,000.00 appropriated for that particular purpose and as this bill is increased for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Department of the Attorney General to the extent of $15,500.00 I see no reason why this item should remain in the bill at all. In one particular case in which outside counsel was retained or appointed by the Attorney General, that particular case was tried here in the Dauphin County courts with the assistants of the Attorney-General's Office present. If we are going to have an Attorney General's office for the purpose of transacting the business of this Commonwealth, what necessity would there be for the selection of outside counsel to look after the interests of that Department, and more especially when an additional provision of an increase in the appropriation of that Department for the payment of services rendered by counsel appointed as deputy Attorney Generals to the extent of $15,500.00 is included in this appropriation bill. I say, Mr. Speaker, that to my mind there is no necessity for this provision in the bill at all, that the increase in the appropriation to the Department itself is sufficient to cover any additional expense to which the Department is put, and I think for one, and I think I voice the sentiments of many of the members of this House that this item should be stricken out entirely.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment to Section 2.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

> Amend section 2, lines 1058 to 1060 inclusive by striking out the words "one hundred sixty thousand dollars (160,000.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "110,000.00"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, in considering this amendment I would call the attention of the House to the fact that prior to 1909 there were something like 960,000 acres in the State Forestry Preserves of this Commonwealth. During the years 1909 and 1911 there was purchased by this Commonwealth something like thirty-three thousand acres, an increase in the total area of about three and one-half per cent. When the Appropriation Bill of 1911 was under consideration, there was an item added to that bill of $50,000.00 to purchase additional preserves. Under that appropriation at the rate paid by the Department of $3.50 per acre, less than 16,000 acres could be added to the Forestry preserves. Mr. Speaker, that 49,000 acres makes an increase in the area of the Forestry preserves of five per cent. The Commissioner of Forestry shows by his report that these additional acreages or areas were not isolated or new districts by merely contiguous to those areas already established. Now, Mr. Speaker, contemplating the increase of five per cent. in area, the Legislature in 1911, added an increase to the salaries of the foresters and the number of foresters of $40,000.00, an increase of $56,000.00 in that Department to take care of an additional increase of five per cent. in area. Mr. Speaker, I certainly think under the circumstances with an increase in area of less than five per cent. that an increase, and in addition to that the fact that those additional areas were merely contiguous to the areas of the Forestry preserves that we already established, that an increase of 56 per cent. will also take care of the present conditions of the department. Under this bill there is provided for an additional purchase of Forestry preserves $50,000.00, which will enable them to buy 16,000 more acres. Even that increase over 1909 will be less than 7 per cent. We have before us the fact, the still fact, that there is a 56 per cent. increase in the number of foresters over that of 1909, and a contemplated increase by this bill will only amount to a seven per cent. increase in area over what the State owned in 1909. Therefore, I submit that the suggestion to reduce this amount to $110,000 is reasonable and just and should be sustained by this House.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, to my mind this is one of the most important amendments that will be offered to the General Appropriation Bill. It is clearly an amendment to curtail a salary raising, job increasing appropriation. There is no Department on this Hill that has grown in such reckless extravagance as has the Forestry Department. Now as has been said by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Roney, we cannot merely stand upon tabulated figures, but in this Department we find upon looking over the figures that this Department has increased since 1903 up to 1913, a period of ten years, from a sum of about $21,000 for the maintaining of the Department for two years, up to a sum of more than $700,000 for the care of the Department for two years, and this item which has been moved now to be amended is a fair sample of the increase of expenditure in this Department. $110,000 was the amount of money paid two years ago for the Foresters. $70,000 was the amount that was paid two years before that for the Forest Rangers. There was an increase, as stated by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bleloch, of some trifle over three per cent. in area from 1909 until 1911, and in that increase of territory up to a little over three per cent., there was an increase in salaries of 56 per cent. but from 1911 until the present session, there has been an increase in territory of a little over one per cent. and there is an increase of a little over fifty per cent. in the salaries of the Rangers. Now, Mr. Speaker, what explanation have we from the Forestry Commissioner: "There is an increase in the number of foresters and the increase in their salaries which must be paid in accordance with the schedule adopted by the Department, account for the increase asked in the present appropriation. No one forester should be asked to care for and develop more than 10,000 acres of land, or approximately sixteen square miles. The need for foresters to care for the areas purchased is, therefore, a continuing one, and will remain a need until such time as all the State forests are under direct administration and in process of development. Today there are fifty foresters employed, but the million acres of land owned by the State require on the above basis, 100 foresters."

If we are going to allow an increase of this character of from $110,000 to $160,000 when there is an increase of but a little over one per cent. in the Forestry lands, then we are going beyond all reason. Now, this is only a sample, one of the items in this Department. We find further in this Department an item of $50,000.00 to buy forest lands and of that they have already spent $10,000 to investigate the titles to the $50,000 worth of forest land. There is no limit to the extravagance in this Department. While it is a Department organized for the benefit of the State it is a Department that this Legislature ought to put strong hands upon, and this is one of the most important items and a direct attack by this amendment against the salary raising positions and increased appropriations in this Appropriation Bill, and I hope that this House will sustain the amendments of the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I am satisfied if the gentleman from Philadelphia was to go out and look at the sort of territory that we are trying to protect from forest fire and if he was employed as one of the sixty-five to do his share, he would not hold the job twenty-four hours. He would resign. It is simply a question of whether we are going to try to do what we started out to do. I know that the number of men provided for in this bill will not give the protection I think the State ought to give to this property. It is a matter for this House to decide whether or not the small amount of money will do that we spent, practically, in trying to produce the effect we desire to do or whether we are going to protect this department sufficiently.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Delaware, does the gentleman know that there is now an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars for the prevention of destruction by fire?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say that the work to be well done, must be done efficiently.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman does not answer my question.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I will answer in my own way. If the gentleman wants to answer it for me, let him do so. Mr. Speaker, I want to say to this House that so far as the practical side of this proposition is concerned, I knew something of what is to be done. I have been there over a large part of the territory and I know what it means. I am satisfied that the gentleman from Philadelphia does not know. I doubt whether he knows what this practical work is or what the labor involved amounts to. They have labored day and night. Sometimes these men have to work day and night to prevent this property from being destroyed. We know how important it is when a fire starts out to prevent it from sweeping away a million dollars worth of our property. I do know that with the appropriation that is now granted that it will not be done as well as it ought to be done with this limited appropriation, because we don't make it larger and I think it is a mistake not to give any more. We could have been and should have been more liberal than we have been. We cut this as much as we thought it would be wise to cut it and we thought it unwise to cut it as much as we did and be reasonably fair to the department. There is not a single department I think where the committee has cut down but what they have cried out that we have made a mistake. If the House sees fit, as I have said before, to cut this down still more remember you are doing a vital thing. In my judgment the Appropriation Committee has gone carefully into this proposition; many of the men on that Committee live in that section of the State and know thoroughly what the proposition is; men who understand and can act intelligently under the work that is to be done. I hope that the House will not keep on cutting propositions like this and crippling our departments and that they will do here what is necessary for this property, owned by the State and paid for, to prevent it from being wasted by fire. I think the House ought to object to any more cutting down. It is immaterial to myself. I have no more interest in this matter than any other citizen of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, just a word on one item. The members should not lose sight of the fact that the State maintains at Mont Alto a Forestry School, which graduates each year from that school a class of about ten or twelve men. This is an institution where young men are educated in the science of forestry. It is a three years course and the students who enter the Academy enter into a contract with the State to remain in the employ of the Forestry Department for a period of at least four years, at a certain fixed salary, in looking after the million acres of land now owned by the State. There is an item in the Appropriation Bill to continue that school for another two years and it will be necessary under the contract with the students to provide for those who are now pursuing the forestry course in the school. At first when they were put in charge of the land there were not enough of them to look after all the land owned by the State. The graduates today are not sufficient to look after the million acres and will not be fully able to do so with their present number but will in my opinion be able to do so with two more graduating classes. I will say to the House that as I have said to the Appropriation Committee that in my judgment the amount allowed to the Academy should not be continued by the State after 1915. By that time it will have graduated all the men that can be used to advantage in looking after the millions of acres of State land. My thought in connection with this is that if the State has any surplus money to use for forestry education, it can then be appropriated to the State College where an excellent forestry course is maintained and as additional foresters may be then needed, the same can be picked from the graduates in forestry at State College.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to some of the suggestions of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin. Under his argument he explains that this item of appropriation is all for the use of the salaries of employes. This item is only for skilled labor expert foresters, educated by the State Forestry Academy, as explained by the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams. In considering the suggestion of the gentleman from Tioga, I desire to call attention to the fact that on his own argument the Foresters educated in that Academy are under contract for a period of four years and from them we are able to fill the places that are vacated by old foresters so that as far as that is concerned, that is provided for. It appears to me that the graduates of the Academy can be readily cared for by being placed in the positions of those men whose contracts expire. I am convinced that the amount of last session is, upon my information and examination into the report of the Forestry Commission, able to more than take care of the Forestry preservation.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, this is the beginning of what will undoubtedly be a long tedious routine and I don't wish to add to the impatience of the House by talking at any length. I think, Mr. Speaker, it would be well for the members of the House to consider at this time that the only thing advocated by those who are proposing these amendments, by way of argument of their amendments is comparison. The gentleman from Philadelphia who proposes these amendments does not tell us the work these foresters do. He does tell us their duties, he does not tell us their expenses and not much about their work and under these circumstances, I would say that those of us who are not foresters, to us it hardly seems any convincing argument and it seems to me that unless you can prove and it is placing the burden of proof on those who are offering the amendments, unless you can prove that this is a waste of State money and unless you can show the other side of the proposition, I only wish to say to the members of the House that we should be able to decide the proper number to be employed in the administration of the department of forestry and in the carrying on of the forestry work. You have got to take that much of the word of the appropriation committee at their investigation as given us and I don't think it is a good guide for the members of this House to simply take the arguments of gentleman proposing the amendments that it is costing more than it ought to but we should take the opinions of men who have investigated and studied the matter men who live on the ground and know something about it. The question is, is this money to be spent for the benefit of the State by way of the proper preservation of the forestry land? Unless some arguments are brought to bear that this money is not being expended for that proper purpose; unless some real definite proof is brought to the attention of the House that this is a waste of money, it seems to me that we are talking to no purpose. It seems to me that we have got to take the appropriations committee's estimate which has investigated the matter rather than to risk our vote upon the reasons of those who are offering amendments and who give us the data of previous expenditures. Now, Mr. Speaker, with the information that is at hand, I feel it my duty to take the information which the Appropriations Committee has given us and which they have ascertained after careful investigation as my proper guide and I shall vote against this amendment.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the gentleman is entirely wrong in his statement of the fact that the burden of proof is not on the Appropriations Committee. The proof is always upon those who suggest an increase of State expenses. The problem is not will the money be wasted and run out at random but in view of the enormous extensions of the State and the great needs for charitable institutions and the great need for money in all educational departments of the State, it is a question whether or not this particular increase is the best use that can be put to of this money and not whether the money is absolutely wasted and thrown away, but in view of the conflicting claims as to the use of the money is it best to use all this money? Unless there is proof for the argument to the contrary we should not allow one additional cent to be appropriated by the committee not one cent that is not absolutely necessary. Unless the money is proved to be needed for a very good reason.

It seesm that the Appropriation Committee should defend their action to extend any increase that they may recommend if such an increase is recommended.

Mr. REESE. Mr. Speaker, I don't think it is necessary to go outside of the Appropriation Committee on the members who are asking for State aid. I think it would be a godo idea to think of the protection of our water supply. I have been operating in these lines for the last twenty years. My personal experience has been that to-day the water of this State, that the volume has been reduced at least fifty per cent. because at least of the cutting of the timber and the money expended in the protection of timber could be repaid a hundred fold in ten years from now in the protection of our natural streams. I think that is one of the most important branches we should take care of. Wherever there is a tree cut, there should be one replanted. I am heartily in favor of the motion asking for an increase if it is going to benefit our forestry and timber lands.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I am satisfied that the members of the House must appreciate the amount of work that must be done in over one thousand square miles in the amount of land that is involved in the forestry preserves. I am perfectly satisfied that the two attorneys of Philadelphia have no conception of the amount of work required. I have been over that property and I know what is essential. I know lines have to be cut throughout to stop the spread of fire. I knuow that along all the public highways they cut back bushes. I know that they have a nursery. I know they are complaining all over this State for the preservation of millions of trees which require expert foresters who know where and how to plant different kinds of timber. I know it is a stupendous proposition. I am satisfied that the State should even double this money and it would be a benefit to the State if they did so. At the present time we have cut it very seriously in the Appropriations Committee. I do think it would be a mistake to cut it any more. It would be an absolute risk of the waste of fine timber land to cut it any further. We have almost reached the end of that in the Appropriation Committee, but I say and repeat that it is immaterial to the members of the Appropriation Committee as to what action the House takes, and to the member from Delaware it is the same as to how much money you give, except from the standpoint of a public spirited citizen, who would like to see the forestry preserve carried on in the State of Pennsylvania and I repeat what has been done in Europe should be done in Pennsylvania, and I think every man should carry this home to himself and should be for the protection of our forest timber.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I am not so well acquainted with the forestry condition as the gentleman from Delaware seems to be, but I do know that it appears that the amount which has been offered by the amendment ought to be sufficient. When you take into consideration the fact in going back only four years, or about six years to 1907, there was appropriated to this department $207,500. In 1909, $369,500. In 1911, $443,500. In 1913, recommended for appropriation of $1,264,000. It looks to me that the members of this House ought to resolve themselves into a commission of forestry and commence cutting out some of the dead timber. It looks as though the pruning knife will have to be put in somewhere; these people have an overgrowth in that department. You will have a growth that will choke everything else. In 1907, for this same item, there was appropriated the sum of $20,000. In 1909, it was increased $50,000, making it $70,000. In 1911, there was a further increase of $40,000, making it $110,000. And that the committee originally recommended for this item $175,000, an increase of $665,000, which without saying why it is necessary—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny is not quoting the bill correctly. He says the committee recommended $175,000. That was the application of the department in submitting their budget or schedule to the committee, but the committee reduced that to $165,000.

The SPEAKER. No doubt the gentleman from Allegheny will be glad to note the correction.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I maintain still that so far as I had proceeded with my statement, I was absolutely correct, because of the fact that we must take and accept the recommendation of the committee. That bill came out originally with the sum of $175,000 in it, was recommitted to the committee for the purpose of amendment, and comes out now, as I was about to say, with $165,000, now recommended, which is an increase of merely $50,000 over two years ago. Now, $50,000 over two years ago, $40,000 over the preceding two years, and the $50,000 over the preceding two years—in other words, from 1907 to 1913 it was raised from $20,000 to $160,000. That is going some, if you will excuse the slang. Mr. Speaker, taking the entire recommendations of committee in this one department, it is clearly evident that you must stop and stop somewhere. Now, you cannot touch the total unless you touch the items, and attacking one item does not say that there is any venom in that, although the members of the House—certain members of the House—have taken occasion to thrust upon this House or attempted to thrust upon the House that when you attack some single bill you do it with some sinister motive. Mr. Speaker, the entire amount covered by this appropriation bill has to be reduced by reducing specific amounts, and when you come to start in 1907 with $20,000, in 1909 with $70,000, in 1911 with $110,000 and in 1913 with $160,000, eight times the increase if you please, Mr. Speaker, in the short space of six years—eight years to cover the time—where will it be in 1915 or 1917 or a few years further in advance? Why, Mr. Speaker, the revenues which can be derived by any State are in a limited amount. There is a limit to all things, and one of this kind cannot run haphazzard. If it does, it will absolutely bankrupt the exchequer of the State or else put the Forestry Department or other departments in such a position that they cannot receive a single cent from the revenues of the State. This amendment, most certainly, under the conditions existing, ought to stand.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny if I understood him to give the totals of two years ago and this year in the General Appropriation bill as it applies to forestry?

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir.

Mr. WILLIAMS. What were they?

Mr. ALLEN. The total was $443,500.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Now, Mr. Speaker, I would say in explanation of the $180,000 difference that in 1911 there was an item for schol tax of $40,000; for road tax, $40,000; for the purchase of land, $50,000; for the extinguishing of forest fires, $50,000. They were not in the general appropriation bill but were carried as separate items in separate bills, so that amount should be added to the amount of the general appropriation bill, making it $643,000, so that the increase is practically $140,000. Those items were not in the general appropriation bill two years ago, being separate bills, but are in the general appropriation bill at this time.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, that is the very thing that this House should consider. That is the fact which will develop later in the consideration of this appropriation bill. Every member of this House is cognizant of the fact that a general appropriaton bill must go through in a certain form. That bill must go through for the payment of the expenses of this government, and up until this time, Mr. Speaker, the general appropriation bill has somewhat complied with the provisions of the constitution, which sets out what items shall be in the general appropriation bill. In this session, if one were to lay down the provisions of the constitution and compare those items as covered by this appropriation bill with the provisions of the constitution, he would have to come to the conclusion that there are scores and scores of items in this bill which have no right in law or fact or under the constitution of this State to be embodied in the general appropriation bill. And the sole purpose for embodying those bills in the general appropriation bill rather than in separate bills before this House is the fact that in a separate bill they would be considered on their merit and in an appropriation bill, whether proper bills or improper bills, whether they are for the benefit of the State or absolutely stink, those bills must go along with the appropriation bill. It smacks,—and I am very glad that the gentleman from Tioga has called the attention of the House to it—it smacks very seriously in more spots than one that there are scores of bills embodied in this bill which are put in there solely for the purpose of getting them through this House or else the general appropriation bill would have to be carried down with them, and that cannot be. Now, what is our position? At this time and under the separate items we are making the same claims before this House that would be made before this House if those separate items were embodied in separate bills as they should be. Every member of this House, when he votes upon these items, votes upon those items and the matter of amendment as though those items were at this time separate bills. When it comes to the final conclusion, when the curtain finally rings down upon this bill, whether it be bad or good, and there will be more or less corruption in it, whether it be bad or good, our only intent is to sift out from the seed some of the chaff.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I regret exceedingly that the gentleman from Allegheny, who is a member of the General Appropriation Committee, was so negligent of his duty as a member of that committee that he was not present at the meeting when the general appropriation bill was considered, that he might have kept them within their constitutional rights.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware in discussing this question made note of the fact of the long delay in connection with appropriations to the Forestry Department. Now, the gentleman from Delaware fully knows that there is another item in this bill appropriating $125,000 for labor. Will the gentleman from Delaware inform the House the duties of a forester?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. The duties of a forester are to ride over, walk over and travel over all this property and be the director in the work, and they tell me that they very frequently assist in the work, especially in the planting.

Mr. BERGEY. Then, Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Delaware what are the duties of a forest ranger?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. The duty of a forest ranger is to ride ranges, cut fire paths and do anything else that is necessary; report to the Department,—frequently trespassers are there,— and various other things which are constantly arising on the land. It is very hard to explain in detail. The gentleman must appreciate that this property must be looked after. Only last Saturday I was in a section and in conversation with one of the rangers he told me that some of the neighbors had turned a lot of cattle over on the property, and where young trees are planted, cedar and pine trees, six to nine inches high, the cattle will eat them off. All of that has to be looked after.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, according to the explanation of the gentleman from Delaware, the duties of a forester and a forest ranger are about the same. Now, there are two separate items of appropriations in this bill.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, they are divided practically into three classes, foresters, forest rangers and laborers. Of course it could all go into one lump sum, but some members insist upon having every possible subdivision. They could all have been included in one proposition to the satisfaction of the men who work there.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the gentleman from Delaware, the appropriation is to apply upon the voluminous amount of labor and the duties of these foresters . He innocently, perhaps, conveyed the idea that the present amendment covered the entire appropriation for the protection of the forester.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I said nothing to indicate that. I was treating the whole proposition.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, that is all.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I just want to call the attention of the House to the fact that this whole Forestry Department question is one of the great conservation moves of the State and Nation. The attitude of the members on these various propositions is not how much an increase, but rather can the State afford it? The whole thing is, as I say, in the line of conservation and that Department has large tracts of land and they have not more that should be done to properly carry on the work which the State has undertaken. We had introduced in this session quite a number of bills calling for large amounts of money to control the floods down in the Western part of the State. Some of the bills call for millions of dollars. This is all directly traceable to the lack of some certain system such as the State has inaugurated. I believe that should be the consideration that should determine the attitude of the members on this question.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, it is only fair to the Appropriation Committee that the House should understand how the Appropriation Committee handled these appropriations for the Forestry Commission. As a whole, Mr. Speaker, the Appropriation Committee has reduced the appropriation of the Forestry Commission and I am going to tell you how they reduced it. On page 39 you will notice in the item under discussion that the Appropriation Committee approved $160,000.00 instead of $175,000.00 asked by the Commission. Two years ago they received $110,000.00. As I understand, this item of Foresters is the scientific part of the Forestry Commission, the men who are skilled in forestry growth and all kinds of trees and vegetation. The Commission allowed an increase there of $50,000.00. In the item for Forestry Rangers, the men who travel the lands and live on the lands themselves, the Committee allowed an increase of $25,000.00.

In the item of labor, the men who build fire lanes and the men who build roads and actually do the day's labor work on the forestry land, the Committee allowed an increase of $25,000.00. Now these increases are because the State realized that it ought to build fire lanes and ought to build roads for fire protection and more particularly for fire, we have allowed these two increase of $25,000.00 a piece. In the examination of titles, the Committee only allowed an increase of $5,000.00. The Commission had asked for $15,000.00, but the Committee, telling them that they must reduce this bill in some appropriation, allowed them that $5,000.00 increase. In the purchase of lands, it is the same that the Governor vetoed two years ago, $50,000.00. In the Chestnut Tree Blight, on page 98, which is a separate item in this General Appropriation Bill, you will find—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, the item the gentleman from Cameron is now discussing is not under consideration at this time. The Chestnut Tree Blight Commission is an entirely distinct Department of the Government, and not a branch of the Forestry Commission.

The SPEAKER. The point of order not sustained.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I am explaining that the Appropriation Committee did go into this appropriation to the Forestry Commission and took the Chestnut Tree Blight Commission into consideration and reduced its appropriation from $275,000.00 to $100,000.00. The General Appropriation Bill is less than it was two years ago.

Now, Mr. Speaker, it is not my purpose to particularly defend the scientific part of the Forestry Commission, but so far as the labor and Forestry Rangers are concerned. I really do not believe we are giving them more money than they ought to have, and as a whole this Committee tried to do its duty and tried to keep down appropriations in telling them they had to keep it down and they did it on this particular appropriation to the Forestry Commission. The Committee simply tried to do its duty and put before the House what they thought was the honest expression of the actual needs of the Forestry Commission.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this is simply a question as to whether or not it makes fifty more jobs. This is just one of those attempts to make more jobs for more men and there has been no reason offered to us by any of the gentlemen on the other side why we should increase this amount. We have heard from the gentlemen from Delaware and he speaks about the hard work of the fire fighters. We have heard from the gentleman from Tioga that the appropriation of $50,000.00 is to compensate 10 graduates from the Forestry School. We have heard from the gentleman from Lycoming that this is only one of the great conservations of forests growing throughout this whole United States. Now it is nothing of the kind. It is the mere question of whether or not we are going to make these appropriations to take care of more jobs and no reason has been given to us for these increases. As was said by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. S. B. Scott, the burden is upon the Department and they have shown no reason why we should increase this payroll to the extent of $50,000.00 on this item.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. S. B. SCOTT and Mr. W. H. WILSON.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

Speaker.

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment not agreed to.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, on page 17, in the appropriation to the Adjutant General's office, there appears to be a typographical error, and I desire to offer an amendment to correct it.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 2, page 17, lines 441 and 443, by striking out said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "amount paid into State Treasury and upon properly itemized vouchers."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment to section 2.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend Section 2, lines 1071 and 1072 by striking out the words "ten thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "one thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, the "loud chorus of noes" is certainly astounding to me. It merely shows to me that the members of this House have no conception as to what that item of this bill means. This bill provides for the purchase of fifty thousand dollars worth of Forest lands. This bill in this item provides ten thousand dollars for the examination of those titles. Mr. Speaker, I have been in the business of examining titles since I was seventeen years old, and if I had been paid on the basis of twenty per cent of the value of the property, the titles of which I have examined, I would have been pretty well fixed today. Just consider for one moment the circumstances of this item. This item was originally put in the bill as fifteen thousand dollars, fifteen thousand dollars for the purpose of examining titles for two hundred thousand dollars worth of land. Notwithstanding the fact that the Committee has cut down the item for the purchase of land from two hundred thousand dollars to fifty thousand dollars, they have reduced this item only five thousand dollars. Mr. Speaker, on the basis that this amendment suggests, this permits a fair and reasonable compensation for the examination of any amount of titles that could be purchased for fifty thousand dollars. Mr. Speaker, I feel confident that this House will realize that the amendment suggested is reasonable and will support it.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman to explain to the House about what the usual charge is for a Trust Company for guaranteeing a title which practically means the searching of the title?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, the title insurance charges are about one quarter of one per cent.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I can appreciate how a member of the Bar who has searched titles in the City of Philadelphia may be greatly in error when he comes to search titles in the rural parts of the State. Having had considerable experience as Recorder of Deeds in my county for six years, I know this from experience. No man can tell what a search will cost or how far back it is necessary to go to guarantee a clear title. While the gentleman from Philadelphia speaks about the searching of titles, what he says may be right so far as the City is concerned, but there is no one knows that the searching of titles is a difficult proposition in the rural parts of the State. This is not a very large sum when we consider how difficult it is and the necessity at times to go back to the old original patents over here in the Department office. Some are complete and some are incomplete and the Department now has an appropriation for the purpose of completing these searches. In counties where this search has not been completed it is a very difficult proposition to search titles. I know a case in my own experience, on my own father's property there was a charge of $65.00 to make a certain search by a certain party who wanted to make a loan. I know of certain property in Delaware county that I would not care to search for $300.00, and the name is John M. Broomal. Any member who has had any experience in the rural part of the State and in the city knows that the titles in the city are so readily obtained that it is only a matter of five minutes to search the titles. There are titles in the City of Chester that have been brought down and guaranteed by Insurance Companies that to search them does not involve the expenditure of one cent. That is not so in the wild parts of the State of Pennsylvania, but the gentleman from Philadelphia is not acquainted with the work in the rural district.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware might have imagined that my entire experience upon which I based my statement of a few moment ago was found upon my experience in Philadelphia alone. I have examined titles in almost all of the counties in the Eastern part of Pennsylvania and some few in the Western part. I would like to state for the information of the members of this House this method of examining titles is based entirely upon the individuals opinion.

I have examined titles in insurance companies largely wherein the purchaser had in addition to the opinion of the examiner, the heads of large companies, who had large capital back of the company. This system resolves itself into an opinion of the individual. I will state for the information of the gentlemen here and the gentleman from Delaware that I had occasion in one of the counties on a tract of land that cost something like seventy-five thousand dollars made up of sixty-three different parcels of land and sixty-three different titles and the total of the expense incurred in that examination was less than five hundred dollars. My recommendation for this revision is based upon actual experience and should be adhered to by the House.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, the matter of looking up the titles of these properties is one of the most expensive and difficult parts of acquiring new forestry land. These properties are not bought at a large price. The average price paid by the forestry commission is $2.25 an acre and in order to get together a contract of land sufficiently large enough to make it worth while to consider it may be necessary for an attorney to hunt through hundreds of titles to get them cleared up and I think that is the explanation. I think this amendment should not be considered for an instant.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin, and to the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Rockwell, on the subject about search of title. I have also noted a considerable amount of levity that has been given to this discussion instead of attention by various members of the House. I want to say to the members of the House that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bleloch, has offered a very serious amendment. There has been submitted by the Appropriation Committee ten thousand dollars for the investigation of titles of land which cost five thousand dollars two years ago when there was an appropriation of five thousand dollars. They spent not only the five thousand dollars but more than that and they have in this bill a deficiency of six thousand dollars for the search of title. I find in the return to the resolution, which was offered aid adopted by this House, covering this item, that the money is spent as follows:

The searching of titles, such as the gentleman from Delaware, with his experience as Recorder of Deeds will agree, are not as difficult as the gentleman from Lycoming would have you think. Of the $5,824 which was spent, five thousand dollars of it was to go for the searching but $3,125 was used for salaries and it also shows that $1,400 was paid for traveling expenses and recording of deeds, etc. I see here appropriated twenty per cent. of the amount of money that is used for the purchase of land which is used for searching titles which is merely placing it under the item of searching title and it is only another few thousand dollars to carry along on the payroll. We are sure this bill which has many items will show that item after item has been used year after year as a mere cloak to carry along a payroll. This is one of the cloaks. You gentlemen that desire to hunt these amendments out of this House or who don't desire to pay any attention to this very important legislation that is being offered may do so but this will come back and haunt members that laugh at it now. All this will come back as an item of consideration by the people two years from now and two years beyond that. This is one of the very important amendments and I hope this House will take that view of it and agree that one thousand dollars is quite sufficient for the searching of the titles. If this Forestry Commission wants to come forward and ask for more money for a payroll let them come forward in a frank and open way and not hide behind the cloak of any searching of difficult titles. That is the character of this amendment and it should be unanimously adopted by the House.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia are not exactly pertinent. I know something about these titles which are being examined. They are buying land in certain counties, like my own, and they will go into our town of Wellsboro, the county seat, to select some good reputable lawyer that examines that title. He is generally paid on the per diem compensation of ten dollars per day. The title of the land goes into the general county record then he gets his per diem compensation and also goes outside the county. Experience shows that these bills all had to be approved by the Auditor General and that the State only pays what is actually necessary to look up the title of a certain piece of land. If it only takes one thousand dollars to look up the titles that are purchased during the next two years, that is all the money that will be spent and the records in the Auditor General's Department are clear and may be seen there by the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Rockwell, the House must appreciate the fact that the Attorney General's Department has within its department men trained as lawyers, men that can be detailed for the purpose of going to the counties and searching the titles. When we appropriate ten thousand dollars to that one department, we are appropriating a thousand dollars more than was used last session for the searching ot titles. You can also find by looking up the return of the Auditor General that was kept in the office of the Chief Clerk of this House last evening—the members will find that five thousand dollars was appropriated last session and that of that amount there was spent $4,814.85. that was the amount of money spent under that item of the last two years and of that $4,814.85 we find $3,725 was paid for salaries and $1,493 for traveling expenses and the recording of deeds. Not a dollar was spent there for the searching of any titles and why should we take this stand here and give the sanctity of authority to the General Appropriation Committee when it is evident of being a payroll. This is one of the items which should be worthy of our consideration. This is one of the items, like hundreds of other items that are being brought out by the General Appropriation Bill and that has brought the General Appropriation Bill of two million dollars of the Pennypacker administration up to twenty-two million dollars in Governor Tener's time. We must strike at the item before we can strike at the aggregate, and this is one of the items that we should strike out.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, the object of the State as I understand it is to engage a firm in Pittsburgh to examine all the titles of the various lands whether that is the best policy or not is not for the Appropriation Committee to say. When the State wants to pay a thousand dollars for land in Cameron County, they should employ an attorney in Cameron County or some attorney in an adjoining county to examine the titles if it is not directly in Cameron County, but that is a question for the House to decide. A legal question of examining titles is up to this House. Under the rule sixty members can bring out anything in the appropriation bills and it does not find its members voting for anything that comes up. This is the opinion of the sub-committee so far that if they have spent eleven thousand dollars in the last two years and only bought thirty-six thousand dollars' worth of land should have the same amount set aside and not spent unless approved by the Auditor General. If the Auditor General does not approve of this expenditure of ten thousand dollars there will be a surplus left to go back into the treasury, but we approved this appropriation of ten thousand dollars for the next two years.

Mr. JOHN R. R. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Josiah Howard.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Josiah Howard. permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman from Cameron know that there is an appropriation for a deficiency for six thousand dollars on page 37..

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, that was for the last two years.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman how he calculated this appropriation as ten thousand dollars?

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, that is what it contains on page 39, ten thousand dollars for the next two years.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, is not that appropriation now sixteen thousand dollars?

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, no, sir. Not for the next two years.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cameron.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Josiah Howard, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker. yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Cameron whether the legal firm in Pittsburgh who searches titles are workong under a contract basis?

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, it was the province of the committee to investigate and they found that there was a deficiency of six thousand dollars for the examining of titles. We didn't get the information from the Auditor General but certainly we didn't expect the Auditor of this State to go into the Appropriation Committee with a list of what they have and say here is a bill amounting to six thousand dollars and with this six thousand dollars item of deficiency, we thought the same amount ten thousand dollars would be large enough for the next two years. If it is not used, it would not be paid.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. John R. K. Scott, has indicated that a great portion of the items which were appropriated two years ago was for a payroll. I desire to know from the gentleman from Cameron whether or not the legal firm in Pittsburgh, the firm of attorneys that was suggested by him to make examinations of titles, if it was to be for so much per month or if it was for work done by contract and whether they came on the payroll as employes of that department or whether they were paid for the work they did from time to time as it was done.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I have no authority to say that all the titles were examined by a firm in Pittsburgh. I simply based that on the knowledge that several times attorneys from Pittsburgh came to our county seat and spent a week or two examining titles. The examination of titles is a serious problem because every two years, for which taxes are not paid on this land, they are sold out on tax sale. Then perhaps referred to the county. then perhaps they resell these lands, and there enters into it the question of title just as much as it does in a transfer of any title from owner to owner.

Mr. Speaker, I do not know as to whether the attorneys of Pittsburgh were paid a salary or whether they were paid a commission. I have no actual information as to how they were paid.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, what I desire to find out is in relation to this deficiency item, in relation to the $10,000 which is appropriated for the work to be done. Is that work to be done on a contract and the attorneys placed on the pay roll for the amount which they are to be paid per month, or is that work to be paid for as the work is done and delivered to the department. If the gentleman from Cameron can answer that question, I will know something about this item I am very desirous of knowing.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I have been handed a copy of the Legislative Journal of the House, page 4043. If the gentleman would like to have the pages of the Journal of the House increased I can read this whole page on the examination of titles.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman can certainly answer my question in a single word, if he knows.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, what is the gentleman's real question?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, my real question was the same question that I have asked four times: whether or not the work which is to be done for the $10,000 which is now sought to be appropriated for the purpose of examining titles is to be paid to the firm of Pittsburgh lawyers under contract at so much per month, they being carried on the pay roll, or is the work to be paid for as it is done and the work itself delivered to the Department of Forestry?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I can, I think, partially answer the question of the gentleman from Allegheny. I know how it has been done in my county. A gentleman who has an office just a few doors from mine received $10 a day for the work that he had in our county. When he was away he got his expenses, railroad fare, traveling expenses and hotel bill paid in addition. How it is done in other places I do not know, but that is one instance that came to my personal knowledge.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cameron further, or any other gentleman who knows, whether or not he will give the House the name of the Pittsburgh firm of lawyers who does the examining of titles for the Forestry Department?

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I do not know.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that we ought to expect the same degree of economy from one depart-that is practiced by other departments of the State government. I have just discovered by an investigation of the report of the Armory Board of this State that they have purchased real estate aggregating $532,727.61 in the performance of their official duties, and that the cost, not only of searching for the titles but for having the titles properly insured, has not been $2,000; so if it is possible for the Armory Board of the State to buy $532,000 worth of real estate and have the titles insured in an expenditure of $2,000, the Forestry Commission ought to be able to purchase $50,000 worth at an expenditure of $1,000. I believe that the experience of the Armory Board ought to be the exclusive argument to secure from this House the adoption of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Messrs. Ehrhardt and E. J. Baldwin.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

HOUSE RESUMES CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1117.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment to House Bill No. 1117.

The SPEAKER. Mr. Allen offers an amendment to House Bill No. 1117, which will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was then read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section two line 1072 by striking out the words “ten thousand dollars and inserting in lieu thereof “four thousand dollars.”

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker. The reason that this amendment is offered is this: As was suggested in considering this matter this morning on an amendment of one thousand dollar, changing ten thousand dollars to one thousand dollars, it appears on this same item or on this same bill and on the next page in line 1085 that when this bill was offered to the House from this Department, this portion of the bill, they first asked for fifteen thousand dollars for the purpose of examining titles to property which was to be acquired. At that time, as you will see by referring to line 1085, they proposed setting aside for the purchase of lands two hundred thousand dollars. The Appropriation Committee, in its wisdom, saw fit to reduce the amount to be set aside for the purchase of land to fifty thousand dollars or one-fourth the amount. Now, if one-fourth the amount of property, originally proposed, is to be acquired, then in that event about one fourth the price which it would take to acquire the original amount ought to bet set aside for the purpose of doing the legal work. No doubt the Forestry Department with its knowledge could tell how much the legal service would be worth to acquire two hundred thousand dollars worth of property and then in that event after acquiring but fifty thousand dollars worth of property instead of two hundred thousand dollars worth the legal fee ought to be in about the same proportion, about one-fourth as much. If it took fifteen thousand dollars, according to their recommendation for the legal service, to cover two hundred thousand dollars then it ought to require one-fourth of fifteen thousand dollars to take care of the legal services for one-fourth that amount. But so that there will be no crimping in that particular fund for that particular work, we have increased over and above the same percentage and we have increased that to four thousand dollars reducing the amount from ten to four. Any member of this House who believes that the department knew what it was doing when it recommended this increase and believes that the Appropriation Committee knew what it was doing must also agree that this amendment would be fair.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. NORTH and Mr. EHRHARDT.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I ask for the verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

HOUSE RESUMES CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1117.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend Section 2, lines 1062 and 1063, by striking out the words "one hundred and fifty thousand dollars,, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, this is an amendment to provide for the salaries of forest rangers. This is not the item to provide for the salary of foresters. Under the discussion this morning the House will no doubt recall that there is a great distinction between foresters and forest rangers in the employ of the Forestry Department. The foresters are those equipped scientifically at the State Forestry Academy. The forest rangers are an entirely different character of employees, having under their jurisdiction the more laborious work of the department and incidentally forest protection. The arguments used in support of the amendment to the item for the salaries of foresters is applicable and ought to adhere to this amendment. I will again recall to the House the circumstances under which the salaries for forest rangers have been applied and increased in the past. In two years there has been an increase of 56 per cent. in the salary of forest rangers, while the total area added to the state forests has not exceeded five per cent., with a contemplated increase of buying $50,000 worth of forest area. That will only bring up the total increase in four years to seven per cent., and in contrast with that increase, with the increase made last session of 56 per cent. in the number of forest rangers. I certainly think that this amendment should prevail.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bleloch.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLELOCH. Yes, sir.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Philadelphia know what the monthly wage of forest rangers is?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, the amount of wage, I do not take it as being material at this time, because—

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know what is the monthly wage of forest rangers?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, the amount of wage I do not take it as being material, because the Forestry Commission in their report merely asked additional salary for increase and not to increase the salaries of forest rangers.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, now, I will repeat my question. Does the gentleman know the monthly wage of forest rangers?

Mr. BLELOCH. I do not.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I can tell the House what the monthly wage of the forest rangers in the State of Pennsylvania is: Only $45 a month, and they have to keep their own horse, and the number of rangers necessary to do the work is today rather insufficient than too many. In the first place, we did not have enough to guard against fires; fires were occurring all over the State,—that is, in the forest reservations. Now, if you want the fires and a few forest rangers, if that is economy, why cut down this proposition. If you would like to have protection, vote against the amendment. Certainly nobody objects to a man's receiving $45 a month and keeping his own horse.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the argument of the gentleman from Delaware, I reiterate what I said a few moments ago that there is no proposition before this House for the Forestry Department to increase the salaries of the Forest Rangers and therefore I think his argument is immaterial and irrevelant. I would also suggest to the members of the House that notwithstanding the small salary paid the Forest Ranger, if he has given the correct salary, the Forestry Department provides a shelter for these rangers and other incidentals for their keep.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, certainly.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, how many Forest Rangers are there in Pennsylvania?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I have been in conversation with a Forest Ranger last Saturday on one portion of the Forest Reservation and he told me his salary was $45.00 per month and that he kept his own horse and he said that he could get $75.00 a month from the national government.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I do not understand that that is an answer to my question. I asked how many Forest Rangers there are in Pennsylvania.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I was simply wanting to know whether the gentleman from Philadelphia was acquainted with the wage and as I had been in conversation with a ranger and he had no interest and he told me candidly what his wage was and I thought it was good information and it is not material to me whether you take it as a fact or not.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the gentleman from Philadelphia knows how many rangers there are in Pennsylvania.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I don't know how many Forest Rangers there are, but no doubt it is very likely it varies under different conditions. There are times when everybody knows it is more dangerous and they have to increase their number.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I am speaking seriously, I realize, Mr. Speaker, that the attorneys of this House know all about the Forestry business. I realize that. It is a subject that you find a great many men talking about. A subject that they know the least about. There is not a rural member of the House but what appreciates that at certain seasons of the year there is more danger of fire and there are certain seasons of the year that there is very little danger of fire, and the consequence is at the time when there is the greatest danger they have to put on a larger number of these so-called rangers and doubtless employ a larger number of what we call the laboring class. Now for him to ask how many are on the pay roll each and every day in the year, I don't think any member took the trouble to inquire. Nobody has expressed a doubt as to the honesty of any of the heads of our Departments. Now the question is, will you give them what they think is absolutely necessary. The Committee has already cut them somewhat and is the House going to say to them we are going to cut it intelligently or unintelligently.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Delaware and ask how he knows that we have an insufficient number of rangers in Pennsylvania if he does not know how many are employed.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I was willing to take it that the head of the department was acting honestly and for the best interest of the State. I am guided by his information. Now if the gentleman from Crawford is so extremely anxious to know the details about the Forestry Department of Pennsylvania, I am surprised that he comes to the gentleman from Delaware instead of going to the Forestry Department.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, the Appropriations Committee have been informed by the Forestry Commissioner that there are 124 Forest Rangers in his employ with salaries ranging from $30.00 to $60.00 per month, the minimum being due to first year men and they increase gradually as they remain in the service. It will take $133,000.00 for the coming two years for salaries and the balance for the expenses of the Forestry Rangers, travel and keep and necessary expenses.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, they set forth in reply to the resolution what this increased appropriation is. It is to create more jobs. The gentleman from Delaware tells the House that he is following merely the dictates of the Forestry Commissioner. Then voting for this amendment leads to nothing, because we find that the Forestry Commission asks and the Appropriation Committee reported out $175,000.00 on second reading. The bill then after being returned is reported for $150,000.00. We find that last session the appropriation for the Forest Rangers was $125,000.00 and this amendment would return it to that amount. We find in the report as made by the Forestry Commissioner to the House in answer to the resolution, the Department employes about 115 rangers, not 124. On the basis of 5,000 acres to each ranger the present needs of the State with its million of acres is two hundred rangers. There is no question about what this increased appropriation is. It is to increase positions in that Department from 115 to as near two hundred as the Department can have this House appropriate money for. Now, if we are going to increase these various offices there is no end. We find in the argument of the gentleman from Delaware, in reply to the inquiry as to how many rangers they employed, he did not know whether there were two or two thousand of them. Now that is a poor lead for us to follow. It is a question as to whether or not we are going to increase more positions in this State, for a Department that has grown from $28,000.00 in 1905 to nearly $800,000.00 now in 1913.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, it is certainly very interesting for some of us from the rural districts when we hear members harping about the increased offices, the number and the salaries of each, when we sit and reflect for a moment that this session the members from Philadelphia came here and said to us, now our judiciary is overburdened, is overworked and we must have an increased number. This Legislature took their judgment as being correct and increased the number of judges in Philadelphia to five, and there is another bill coming along to increase it nine more. The gentleman from Cambria county came here and told us their judge was hard pressed and overworked and asked for a judgeship and we gave it to him. The gentleman from Luzerne came here to this Legislature and said their judges were overworked and they got more judges. The gentleman from Philadelphia came to us two years ago and stated the judges of that City are overburdened, overworked and underpaid. His eloquent words persuaded this Legislature to increase the expenses of this State $250,000.00 per year. He was able also to persuade the Governor by his earnestness that these salaries were a necessity, if you are going to keep the standard of the judiciary up to the proper level. Here is the State of Pennsylvania, owning a million acres of land purchased by authority of this Legislature and the Forestry Commissioner comes to this Legislature, through the Appropriation Committee and says to the Legislature "To care for and look after these lands in a proper manner it is necessary for us to have so much money" and those who have been loading down the State with increased expenses for salaries of one kind and other come here and say that this department and that department shall not have any increase. It is unfair in itself and is unwarranted.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendment:

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

On page 72, section 3, strike out all of lines 124 and 125 after the word "of" and insert in lieu thereof the words "four hundred and eighty-nine thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I want to say to the House that I introduced the amendment because I thought it stood for more than I can say. The gentleman from Tioga has called your attention to conditions that have existed previously in this House and who was responsible for it? I want to impress the House with the idea that we have increased five judgeships in the City of Philadelphia; that one year ago $8,500.00 was a salary that would scarcely keep a pauper. That was the argument advocated by the gentleman who advocated I think, $12,000.00 for the judges of the City of Philadelphia and we were wiling to vote for the paltry difference. Certainly the rural members know better than the city members whether eleven thousand dollars is a proper salary for the men who live in Philadelphia and $45.00 per month for the man who lives in the country.

I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. John R. K. Scott, what in his opinion is the number of hours of service given by the judges in Philadelphia?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogatory of the gentleman from Delaware, I might say that I only know the judges that sit on the bench and they quit there at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and I am informed by some of their friends many of them work late into the night and late into the summer in their arduous duties as judges.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman.

I would like to know whether the gentleman don't think $8,500.00 would be nearer the proper price to pay any of the judiciary in the City of Philadelphia.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that this is relevant, but I do not think that it would be sufficient, as I said upon the floor of this House last session, and I believe my friends took the same view.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman. I would like to know whether he was the author of the bill, authorizing the increase in these salaries?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, it is irrelevant and not a matter of concern to this House to what bill the gentleman from Delaware refers. The House is here for the purpose of considering this bill and whether or not it is any bill upon the statute books, or one which was not enacted into law is wholly irrelevant to the question at hand. The question is, shall $489,000.00 be appropriated to meet what the law demands, or shall $704,000.00 be appropriated to meet what the law demands.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thinks the point is well taken.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the principle contained here is the question of reducing the salaries of the judiciary in the City of Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. But the authorship of the Act of 1911 is scarcely important in that matter.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I am frank to say that I am not a judge as to what is a proper salary for a judge in the City of Philadelphia.

My objection to this increase of salary two years ago was on the basis that it was not fair to the rural members of the State that the salaries should be increased, and that the rural member is worth just as much as the city member. I simply introduced this amendment to the House for the sake of calling for the yeas and nays and seeing how the members vote on it. I think that the members who are so anxious to have reductions in the rural parts of the State will not be so anxious to vote for them when they come in the cities.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask if the gentleman from Delaware believes in the State of Pennsylvania carrying out its contracts.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, certainly I believe in Pennsylvania carrying out its contracts.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he knows how many judges there are in the County of Allegheny.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. I believe there are, referring to the bill—I don't know why the gentleman should ask me how many judges there are in Allegheny County I presumed the gentleman knew. I don't know. I will look it up and tell him. Doesn't the gentleman from Allegheny know?

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, Mr. Speaker, he knows, but he wants to see whether or not the gentleman from Delaware knows, and whereon he basis his calculations.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I based my calculations on the number and I presumed the number was correct.

Mr. ALLEN. I desire to ask the gentleman from Delaware to inform the House how many there are.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. If the gentleman from Allegheny knows, and as it appears from the attitude of the House that no one else desires to know, I do not see the necessity of answering the question.

Mr. ALLEN. The gentleman from Allegheny could vote with perfect intelligence upon the bill. but it is his desire, inasmuch as the gentleman from Delaware has offered the amendment that the gentleman from Delaware shows to the House on what bases his amendment. I desire to ask the gentleman how many judges there are in Allegheny County, if he knows.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that is the question, the question is one of salary and not one of the number of judges.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Delaware if he knows how many judges there are in Allegheny County.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Well, there are more than ten.

Mr. ALLEN. Are there less than twenty?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Yes.

Mr ALLEN. Are there more than fifteen?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. There are less than fifteen.

Mr. ALLEN. Are there less than fifteen?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. I stated so.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Delaware what the salaries of the judges are as fixed by law in the County of Allegheny.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. If the Legislature will appropriate the money they are supposed to get, I think, $11,000.00 a year, but of course, they won't get it unless we are liberal enough to give them the amount of money provided in this bill. If we do not appropriate that full amount, they will have to divide up the amount that we do appropriate. By this amendment no judge will lose his job, but it simply means less money to be divided up among them.

Mr. ALLEN. I desire to ask the gentleman that if a sufficient amount were not appropriated in this bill, if there would not be a deficiency in that account at the close of the fiscal two year period?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Really I do not think a deficiency in salary of the the Judiciary as in the Fire Marshal's Department, for instance.

Mr. ALLEN. I desire that the gentleman answer my question just as he insists upon the more frail members of the House answering his questions.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I mostly answer by comparison and if that is not satisfactory it isn't my fault.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Jefferson, Mr. North.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. DAVIS. My point of order, Mr. Sppeaker, is that the salaries are fixed by statute laws and we cannot change them by appropriations. Therefore, the amendment is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. Will the gentleman from Jefferson permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NORTH. I will.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether or not $704,000 is the amount that it takes to pay the judges in Allegheny and Philadelphia Counties under existing laws.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I presume it is the amount that is necessary.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, so that the information may be properly presented to the House, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the sub-committee, Mr. Ehrhardt.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALLEN. I desire to ask the gentleman whether or not the amount of $704.000 is required under the present laws for the payment of the judges in Philadelphia and Allegheny counties?

Mr. EHRHARDT. It is.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, this amendment appears to have delayed matters, and I move that its further consideration be postponed for the present.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I certainly insist upon the yeas and nays upon this amendment.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I second the call for the yeas and nays.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will call the roll,

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, it appears to me that we are making a rather ludicrous situation out of this appropriation bill.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that there is nothing in order but the roll call.

The SPEAKER. At the time that the Chair stated that the roll would be called the gentleman from Philadelphia was on his feet unnoticed by the Chair. The Chair, therefore, withdrew the call for the roll call and recognized the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, in a spirit of jest, I do not think that this Legislature should disregard what former Legislatures have done by way of fixing the salaries of the judiciary. It does not appear to me at this time that this is a joke. The Legislature of 1911 deliberated long and carefully upon this subject, as the judiciary forms the most important part of our social family. I do not think this Legislature should laugh a serious proposition out of the House. I think there should be no vote in favor of this amendment. I feel that the gentleman placed this amendment before the House for the purpose of showing the vast expenditure of State money for the salary of the judiciary so that he might compare it with other expenditures in other departments, and I do know that in bringing that before the members of the House he has brought to us a matter of comparison which should receive our careful consideration. The appropriation to the various departments is justified. I do not think that the figures fixed by the Appropriations Committee relative to this department, after a careful consideration and investigation, should be disturbed by this present Legislature. The gentleman has made his point and taught his lesson and I think that the House in all seriousness should reject this amendment.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I introduced this amendment for the purpose of proving to some of the people that they did not know anything of the proposition in the outlying districts, and I introduced it for the purpose of showing you that the members who stand for this appropriation bill are doing so because they believe it is right. I believe this amendment should be defeated because it is right to defeat. This is not the proper method of cutting down salaries.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware has put this House in a peculiar attitude and to my mind his position is unexplainable to any member in this House and there are 205 minds on the floor of the House and a great mind in the Chair. The gentleman has suggested by hitting at this particular item is attacking an appropriation that is made by law, and a contract entered upon by every judge when he takes his oath of office and assumes the judicial functions of that office, and the gentleman was tampering with fire when he did it. It was clearly evidenced from his answers to the interrogaton that he knew nothing about what he was aiming at. It was simply as he said, an endeavor to make a record for this House. When it developed after the answers to the questions that were asked the Chairman of the sub-committee, it developed as we knew, that under law every dollar of that was already provided for, and when that information came to this House there was nothing for any individual member of this House to do but to ridicule the amendment. which was received by those who knew with ridicule at the time it was offered. Mr. Speaker, it is the only move that I have seen on the floor of this House up to this time that has been offered with any other than the best intentions in the world.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, my inspiration came from some other matters that were introduced into this House and seriously opposed by those who introduced them. I saw one bill defeated, I think it was negatived in committee and then brought out on the calendar and the time passed over for reconsidering it, the rules were suspended and it was placed on the calendar and put to a vote, and those who were arguing for it opposed it and voted against it. This is not the first proposition of this kind.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman insist upon the yeas and nays?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I insist on the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. R. J. BALDWIN and Mr. ALLEN, and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then twice read the amendment as follows:

> On pages 40 and 41 amend section two, lines 1099 to 1102, inclusive by striking out the entire item.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the members who have not a copy of the General Appropriation Bill before them, I will read this item:

> "For the payment of making examinations and furnishing advisory reports to the citizens of the State on farm forestry and farm wood lots two years, the sum of $7,500."

Now, Mr. Speaker, that is an item that has never appeared in the General Approprition Bill heretofore. Prior to this session this department—particularly in the session of 1911, had an item put in the General Appropriation bill as follows:

> "For the appointment of special examinations to encourage and promote the development of forestry and for contingent expenses connected with the work of the Commissioner of Forestry, two years, six thousand dollars."

Mr. Speaker, the General Appropriation bill this session has an item for contingent expenses of the Commissioner of Forestry in the sum of six thousand dollars. They have also another item for the payment of other necessary expenses, incidental expenses, to the conduct of the business of the department, maintenance, protection, care, planting and improvement of the forestry reserves and to encourage and promote the development of forestry two years, the sum of sixty-five thousand dollars.

Mr. Speaker, that item is increased fifty-five thousand dollars over the item of two years go. It is patent to my mind that there is no occasion for this item appearing in the general appropriation bill, for what is the purpose of this item? Is it not merely to encourage and promote the development of forestry in this Commonwealth? Mr. Speaker, there has already been an increase in this bill for this purpose of something like sixteen thousand dollars and a fail to comprehend the purpose of putting this item into this bill as a separate item, unless it is the result of what has been seen heretofore.

My observation of this bill and comparing it with the bills of other sessions has lead me to the conclusion that through the course of six or seven sessions of this Legislature, it has been the usual custom for department after department to get an item into the general appropriation one session coveing three or four distinct purposes and subsequently, the next session of the Legislature, comes along and they have under consideration a new general appropriation bill with the request from that particular department; then those items are divided somewhat in accord with the item in the preceding bill. The subsequent Legislature to that will come along and you will find that their bill is somewhat similar and those items are again re-subdivided and separate appropriations made for the subdivisions almost duplicating the original appropriation. I submit to the consideration of this House that for the development of forestry and farm lots it comes under the item to encourage and develop forestry in this State. I want to call the attention of the House at this time, in explanation of the position of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin, on the preceding amendment, that there has been no attempt on the part of those who have delved into this matter to make and reduction in any salary which is now fixed by law, no attempt to reduce the number of employees now in the employee of the State or reduce their salaries, and I am satisfied there will be none, but I submit that this amendment to this item has no place in the general appropriation bill. It is a re-dupliction of what has gone before and it is amply provided for by the item of $65,000.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

A division was called for, 33 voting in the affirmative and 82 in the negative,

And the amendment was not agreed to.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

> Amend section 2, page 51, by inserting the following as an additional paragraph between lines 1404 and 1405: "For the purpose of enabling the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to enter into an agreement with the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, under the provisions of the Postal Appropriation Act of the United States of America for the improvement in co-operation with the Government of the United States of such rural delivery routes as the Governor of this Commonwealth may select the sum of two hundred thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, by way of explanation of this amendment, I want to call attention to the fact that the tender has been made by the postal authorities of the United States Government of $100,000 for the improvement of rural free delivery routes, if the State will appropriate double that amount. In other words, by this procedure we can secure from the United States Government gratuitously $100,000 looking to the improvement of the highways of the State, the only restriction being that those highways must be highways over which rural free mail carriers travel.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

> Amend Section 2, page 49, lines 1350 and 1351, by striking out the words "one hundred and fifty thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "one hundred thousand dollars"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I am not at all surprised by the indication from certain members of the House that they know whereof they are roaring "no" before they know what they are roaring "no" about. After the members have satisfied their desire to roar "no" and their pleasure shall have been expended, Mr. Speaker, then the information will be given, and I trust that the light may prevail.

Mr. Speaker, in 1911, the sum of $100,000 was specifically appropriated for the payment of salaries or expenses for the two year period. Under this department 50 superintendents are provided for. $100,000 was enough to pay it two years ago. No new officers have been created, and if it took $100,000 two years ago to pay 50 superintendents which are provided for, $100,000 ought to pay the same expenses for two years more and not an increase of $50,000 in order to pay it. It is a matter for the House to say whether or not they desire to make 25 more offices in this particular department. Two years ago that was covered by this bill. Now, I am reliably informed that a complete 50 were not appointed for the two year period. If it took $100,000 to pay those superintendents two years ago, we insist that this department which two years ago ran under the general appropriation bill at an expense of $4,905,800, and this year, under the recommendation of the committee, is being recommended to expend, or to have set aside for its expenditure, $8,553,800, we insist that one of the places in which this appropriation, this enormous appropriation must be expended,—not this $50,000 surplus for which we see no necessity. Mr. Speaker, I think the members of this House will agree with me in this: That from the time the constitutional provision was put through this House in the way that it was, some considerable inquiry has gone out throughout the State as to not only the purpose of that money and where it is going to go, but when it is going to go and how it is going to be handled. In addition to that, the large appropriation which is attempted to be set aside for this department under the provisions of this bill, all of which items were not carried in the general appropriation bill two years ago,—again the eyes of the public are upon those expenditures, and the desire is being made and expressed all along the line to know where the money is going. You may not want to know, Mr. Speaker, those members of the House who see fit to yell and roar "no" before they know what line even is attacked, may not care to know; but the people do care to know, the people whose money is being expended care to know, and where is the opportunity that they will have to know where this money is going and what it is going for. Further than that, at this time we are considering the expenditure of all of the revenues of this great State. Every item of this revenue has to be accounted for. It is not a burden, as was suggested this morning by the gentleman from Philadelphia upon the members of this House to show why expenses should be cut down; the burden of the matter is upon those who advocate these measures and these separate items to show this House why the increase is necessary. When, Mr. Speaker, we set our stamp of approval upon the fact that all that has gone before and up to this time has been just and fair, and we have stretched our imagination a long, long way; when we take the items as we have had them here before us for consideration and not the increase over six years ago, an increase of $50,000, and another $50,000 four year ago and another $50,000 two years ago, and asking another $50,000.00 now when we say that two year ago it was all we needed and you are willing to rest there, we are going a long, long ways. When we say, Mr. Speaker, that this Department, which received for this particular work two years ago $100,000.00, that they should receive a like amount this year we are going a long ways in imagination, but being willing to grant that, not going back on the returns, it certainly devolves upon those members who advocate this additional raise of $50,000.00, if you please, in this particular item, for this particular period, to show to the members of this House where that 50 per cent. of the increase, where that $50,000.00 is going to go and where the State is going to be benefitted to the extent of $50,000.00 or more. Mr. Speaker, I feel that this amendment ought to go in and that the pruning of this particular department ought to commence with this very item.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, yes sir?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I presume that the gentleman is entirely familiar with the provisions of the Act of May 31, 1911, under which these county superintendents of road are appointed and I would like to ask him when the eight thousand miles of dirt road covered by this Act were taken over by the State.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, they have been taken over since the passage of this Act.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the gentleman from Allegheny I will read from the Act.

> "Provided, That all township roads abandoned and condemned turnpikes or turnpikes that may hereafter be abandoned or which may hereafter be condemned and paid for by the County in which the same may be located, and which form a part of any such highways, shall be taken over by the State Highway Department before the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and twelve."

The county superintendents were appointed on that day and have served one year and this appropriation was to cover their salaries for that period. Now the appropriation is to cover the salaries of these men for the period of two years.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, if as the gentleman states the appropriation of $150,000.00 is necessary for the payment of these superintendents for two years, will he explain to me how much of a surplus remains of the $100,000.00 which was appropriated for the pay of the same gentlemen for one year?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I am unable to tell him the exact amount.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, can he approximate the amount?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, the Assistant Highway Commissioner, Mr. Hunter, appeared before the sub-appropriation Committee in the absence of Mr. Bigelow, who was at that time and, as I suppose, is yet home sick. He said that out of the $100,000.00 he was unable to give us the exact amount, but that a part of that would revert to the treasury, the exact amount I am unable to say; but the act provides for fifty deputy county superintendents at $1,500.00 which takes $150,000.00 to pay for their services for the next two years.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment:

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

> Page 51, amend section 2, line 1385, by striking out the words "sixty thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "twenty thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I want to call the attention of the House to the provision which is made in these two lines for the payment of investigations, experimental work and tests for two years, the sum of $60,000.00, at first the amount asked for being $80,000.00.

Mr. Speaker, as I am reliably informed, the State Highway Department is absolutely satisfied with the class of roads that are being built and constructed under that Department today. In point of fact, Mr. Speaker, as I understand the situation from those who enter into and attempt to enter into contracts for certain parts of work, the State Highway Department is so satisfied with the manner that these highways are now being builded and constructed that it uses but one particular preparation in a certain class of that work; that this preparation is a patented preparation and a monopoly, if you please; that it has received the stamp of the highest experts connected with the Highway Department to the effect that nothing else approaches its utility and its usefulness; that is absolutely discriminated in favor of in all of the constructive work, and requirement is made in the plans and specifications of the public highways calling for the using of this particular composition. Now, Mr. Speaker, if that be true, and it is true, it was stated upon the floor of this House a few days ago when a certain resolution was emanated in the other branch of the General Assembly was drawn to the attention of this House, that Warrenite is called for in the construction of practically all the highways which are now being constructed under the Highway Department. If this substance be so perfect in the formation of roads to meet the requirements of the time and is a patent and can only be controlled by certain interests, those who own it, then Mr. Speaker, there is certainly no necessity for this State throwing away sixty thousand dollars for watching what will come out of this work which is done with this particular preparation. There is no need for that at best. There is no need certainly in experimenting when it was sought by the General Assembly to memorialize Congress, under cover, for this particular substance to be used in the national highways. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that this item of appropriation of $60,000.00 is absolutely burning money up when we face the conditions that we face today in relation to public highway construction in the State of Pennsylvania. If this Department is more than satisfied with the work that it is doing, if it is highly pleased with the class of work that it is turning out, if, as it has said time and time again, there is nothing in the preparation of roads but this particular substance that will give what this State wants. then and in that event the State ought to be satisfied and this $60,000.00 ought to be cut out of the bill. In the original bill the sum set out was $80,000.00, but the Appropriation Committee saw fit to prune that sum and it now appears before us for $60,000.00. I believe that two years ago there was no particular item set out. Two years ago the item for experimental work was $50,000.00 and since that time the experimental station, the experimental branch and those who were in authority there have passed upon and finally approved this composition which I have named as a substance which will make roads, which will comply with all the conditions and all this statement. If that is true, if that department has served its purpose, if this substance is the substance that makes the perfect road of today, then certainly there is no need, simply because the Department was formed six years ago, there is no need to keep that department for experimenting when it is satisfied with the work that is now being turned out. I take it Mr. Speaker, in all fairness, in all fairness to the revenues of the State, in all fairness of the people who patronize the highways, in all fairness to the Department and in all fairness to the farmers and as a compliment to the experimental department, we ought, by cutting out this item, say your work is well done; we appreciate it and are now willing to go ahead with what you approve and have approved up to this time.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, while I believe that it is true that up to the present time we have not been able to discover anything better for the purpose of road building than the Warrenite construction, at the same time that does not say that there may be something better than the Warrenite and the only way that we can discover this is by experimenting and I believe that the money for experimenting on road building is well expended.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER declared the noes appear to have it,

Whereupon a division was called for, 30 having voted in the affirmative and 106 in the negative the question was determined in the negative and the amendment not agreed to.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer further amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Page 51, amend section 2 by striking out all of the items from line 1394 to line 1404 inclusive and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"For the construction of State highways described in the act creating the State Highway Department, approved May 31, 1911, for two years, the sum of three million five hundred thousand dollars ($3,500,000.00)"

"For the payment of the State's share of the maintenance and repair the State-aid Highways constructed prior to or constructed or improved under the provisions of the Act creating the State Highway Department, approved May 31, 1911, two years, the sum of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($450,000.00)."

"For the payment of salaries and all other expenses necessary to carry on the work of the State Highway Department two years, the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00)".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I simply call the House's attention to the fact that line 1394 to 1404 inclusive provide a general fund of four million dollars which is at the mercy of those who have that fund in hand. I call attention of those members of the House who believe in good roads, and who believe that more money should go to the roads, and less to the salaries, to the fact that the figures are not changed in this amendment, that four million dollars are still carried, and that three millions and a half of it at least go under the provisions of the Act approved May 31st, 1911, and that four hundred and fifty thousand dollars of it go for the payment of repairs to State Highways and that fifty thousand dollars of it go to the payment of salaries. If you believe in putting the money into roads, instead of putting it in the hands of creative job holders, you will vote for this amendment. If you believe in putting it into the hands of the job holders and into the hands of the preferred few and not on the roads, then you are in favor of the bill as it stands. On this amendment I call for the yeas and nays.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, some of the amendments offered today have not appealed to the reason of some of the members. Some of the amendments would have more force than others. Some of us vote for the amendment and some of us vote contrary to the amendment. The amendment that is offered now, even if it is late, and many of us are exhausted and tired of listening to these various amendments, we should stop and consider what this means. The lump sum of four million dollars that has been appropriated is not limited to the construction of roads but it is limited to the improvement, repair, and construction of roads and salaries. The amendment has been offered by the gentleman from Allegheny is in the line of good roads. Now those of us who appeared here in the contest on the fifty million dollar bond issue amendment vote for that amendment with the assurance that it would be for good roads. I would ask that the Speaker, prevent the different members from throwing around books and papers.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker has not noticed any special disorder.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. I want to say that if the gentlemen persist in the conduct they have been carrying out today, I intend to name them and call the Chair's attention to them. I shall call the name of any member of the House whether he be friendly to these amendments or not. It is not right that these amendments should be treated as a matter of levity and there have been various things done in the hall of the House to disturbe the speakers on the floor of the House and to detract the attention of other members from the arguments that were being attempted to be given to them. I think that it is a courtesy due this body and the Chair and any member who may be on his feet. If it is persisted in, I will call the member by name.

The SPEAKER. The Chair agrees entirely with the gentleman from Philadelphia, but the Chair must state that the Chair had not noticed any disorder at the time the gentleman called his attention to it. The Chair trusts that the members will be attentive and preserve proper order at all times.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. This amendment insures $3,500,000 for good roads, it insures $450,000 for the keeping up of the roads, and $50,000 for salaries. Now Mr. Speaker, that is the very amount of money that is in the Highway Department, which is now in this item, $50,000 for salaries, $450,000 for repairs contemplated and $3,500,000 for the construction of good roads. Now, what we here in the House want is that this item be divided up into different amounts, so we will be sure of having $3,500,000 to expend in the construction of good roads. Mr. Speaker, while upon my feet, I want to say in reply to the gentleman from Delaware and the gentleman from Tioga, in speaking contrary to these various amendments that they have tried to inject a distinction between those of us coming from the city and those coming from the rural districts, that there is a sectional opposition. I want to say Mr. Speaker, in reference to that that the very strongest opposition we have to the various amendments was from the men right around me who come from the cities, and the very strongest advocates that we have for these amendments and the very strongest aid we have had from the beginning of the offering of the first resolution we have had from the gentlemen who come from the rural districts, and Mr. Speaker, upon this very amendment I wish to say that there is no amendment that has been offered that is of more importance to the man who comes from the sparcely settled section than this amendment which insure the good roads, not to those of us who come from Philadelphia, because we do not get a dollar of it, but to those who come from the other sections of the State and gentlemen do not be mislead by any thought that we are being actuated by sectional prejudice. Do not allow yourself to be mislead by the cry you heard a few night ago that our actions here are prompted merely as a matter of politics. You know what that cry led to in the matter of the resolution to adjourn this House, which was met by the other branch with contempt, and the voices that raised that issue of politics, didn't have the strength of manhood to even muster up a blush when that resolution which was allowed wrongly in this House was met by a contemptuous sneer in the Senate. We are not actuated by politics or sectional prejudice. We are actuated by a desire to bring to this House an honest discussion as to these amendments, and I want to say that I don't find fault with many members whose votes defeated some of the amendments. Some of the amendments have great strength, and some had little; some had much merit and some had little, but I think that this amendment is one of the strongest amendments ever tried to be incorporated in this bill, this throwing of a safeguard around the four millions of dollars that you and I are sitting here voting to a department for one purpose, and that is for good roads. It was said by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bleloch, that not one dollar do these amendments take from the salaries of the men, and not one dollar do they attempt to take from any department to make that department inefficient. Our amendments are the result of thought, and the amendment offered by the gentleman from Allegheny is an amendment that should be embraced by every one of you gentleman who are here for good roads and for good government and advancing the purpose of our Commonwealth. Where, Mr. Speaker, there can be placed any votes as against this amendment, I cannot see. Surely those of us on this floor who either by self-appointment or not are speaking for the Administration, how they can possibly oppose this amendment I cannot see. The Executive has stated time and time against to his people that he wants to give them good roads. We are standing by his side aiding him in giving good roads by through around this appropriation or four million dollars the protection that this amendment provides, and you, as members of the House will vote to do that if this amendment prevails.

Mr. SCHUCK. Mr. Speaker, I want to ask the members of this House if they think they could run a business with the salary one-half per cent of the value of the investment. This amendment calls for an appropriation of four millions of dollars with fifty thousand dollars salary for the management of it. I desire to ask the gentlemen of the House if they think the business of the Department can be run on that percentage.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman from Westmoreland know that the salaries of all the officers connected with the Highway Department are provided for in specific items in this bill. This Mr. Speaker, is only the incidental expense that would be incurred on the outside, and further than that I may say as some gentlemen think that this amendment might interfere with the amendment offered by the gentleman from Crawford and adopted by the House, that this amendment does not in the least conflict with his amendment. This amendment simply specifies how much shall go for roads.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. John R. K. Scott.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. I will.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask upon what basis does the gentleman arrive at the conclusion that fifty thousand dollars is sufficient for the salary purposes on the four million dollar appropriation.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. On the basis that that is the salary now being paid out in that Department.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, as the item now reads the salary is not fixed. It merely states what the purposes of the four million dollars is, and now will the gentleman tell me upon what he bases his conclusion.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I base my conclusion upon the fact that the salaries are being carried in other funds. One of the salaries in that Department is being carried in the contingent fund. The salaries are now fixed by the people holding the positions.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia certainly does not know what he is talking about. I want to call the attention of the House to this fact,

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that any gentleman discussing or controverting any statement that I may have made should use such language as "the gentleman certainly does not know what he is talking about."

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I will modify that expression to any form the gentleman might desire.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I take it that it is hardly fair for one gentleman in discussing a subject of legislation should so address any other gentleman on the floor of the House.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman feels agrieved at what I have said and will give me the language that he desires me to use, I will use it.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. R. J. Baldwin, permit the gentleman from Philadelphia to conclude?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I have concluded.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would state that the gentleman from Delaware might have been more happy in the choice of expression, in his reference to the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, to proceed. I will state that we must know the necessary expense incurred in this department. It seems to me almost ridiculous to us to presume that it can be conducted at least without some careful person making an estimate to divide this appropriation. It is a well known fact that each and every section thereof bearing on the state roads or the main highway roads built under these four millions, calls for a state inspector to spend every day there, to see what has been done. There is not a single step but what he is there to see the process of the work all the way through. If this work is let by contract all this state aid work, the amount of salary required would be very small and I would be satisfied to put it into a division, but not blindly; not to go into a division in such way that hereafter, the balance of it will be expended without any proper inspection to see that the road is built in the proper manner according to contract. It does seem foolish to see how this is to be done. How can any member see or know a way to be able to say inteligently that fifty thousand dollars is enough? I am satisfied to make a division,—work it out in a proper way in the department of highways and what is to be specified, but the highway department cannot estimate. Here is a contract let out and whether it is for five miles of road to be built—one inspector covers five miles; another two miles; another ten miles and one inspector cannot cover each of these divisions as it requires an inspector for each division. I don't think the House has an objection to dividing that item but it should not be made or attempt made to do it without knowing exactly what it is doing. I think it would be a great mistake to divide it blindly.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, it strikes me that there is another phase in this question that has not been mentioned: That is the phase that interests every person in this House who voted for the bill which I had the honor to present, providing for the distribution of funds to the Highway Department on the basis of unimproved road mileage in the State. In the absence of such an amendment like the one now pending were that bill to pass the Senate it would be an absolute impossibility to enforce its provisions because you have made in the bill as presented a lump sum appropriation covering three or four distinct propositions and purposes. Unless that appropriation is so divided that there is a particular amendment to road building or improvement of highways, so that a definite sum is determined by the appropriation all the purpose of proportioning it to the different counties of the State—that bill if it passes, would be an absolute nullity. Every member of this House who is in favor of proportioning the highway appropriation to the counties of the State either in proportion to the road mileage or their population or on any other basis must support this amendment or he is putting it beyond his reach and beyond the reach of the Legislature beyond a possibility of carrying into effect his ideas on that subject. It strikes me that it is absolutely essential that this amendment should be adopted in order that the appropriation can be proportioned as in justice it should be to the different localities of the State.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, in reference to this proposed division of the item of four million dollars, I would like to call the attention of the House to the fact that last session there was passed by the Legislature an act which is commonly known as the "Sproul State Highway Act." That act was passed creating the various positions, fixing the salaries of the various officials and providing for the necessary help for the construction, maintenance and work of the Department of State Highways. That act was prepared, I believe, by one of the best informed men in the State of Pennsylvania, on state roads. It contemplated at that time, the improvement and the development of the entire eight thousand miles of state highways. It was within the purview of the Legislature of that session that the construction of that great system of roads in this Commonwealth have provided for it ample aid, help, engineering forces, inspectors, and superintendents for the proper construction of that work. Now, Mr. Speaker, they come along with an item for an appropriation for construction that is already provided. What this item is proposed to mean to the members of this House, is already provide for. The bill at the last session created salaries for the maintenance of the Department of Inspectors of the roads, the various engineering corps to the amount of something like $603,000.00. Mr. Speaker, I believe in the mind of the sponsor and the drafter of that bill that was ample to carry on this great system of the Highways development. Now, Mr. Speaker, in this item of four million dollars which, as I said before, was only to mean to the members of this House, in my judgment, they have added this additional salary item; there has not been any argument deduced here against this amendment which will show the necessity for any salaries whatever in addition to those provided under the Sproul Highway Act. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, when you stop to consider this statement of the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, as to the number of superintendents required, there is absolutely no occasion, no neecssity for any additional salary item. But simply for the purpose of perfecting the rural districts, the districts of men that come here looking for aid in the getting of good roads, it is in their behalf that the amendment is offered and so that the appropriation for construction will not be consumed in salaries—for that purpose we are for this amendment. The amendment suggested and proposed by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen, should certainly prevail, as it should appeal to every reasonable man on the floor of this House.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, it ought no to worry any member of this House as to how the salaries of this department are to be paid. Commencing on line 1333, providing for the payment of the Commissioner:

For the payment of the salary of the State Highway Commissioner two years the sum of sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000)

For the payment of the salary of the First Deputy State Highway Commission two years the sum of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000)

For the payment of the salary of the Second Deputy State Highway Commissioner two years the sum of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000)

For the payment of the salary of the Auditor two years the sum of six thousand dollars ($6,000)

For the payment of the salary of the Chief Engineer two years the sum of fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000)

For the payment of the salary of the Bridge Engineer two years the sum of seven thousand two hundred dollars ($7,200)

For the payment of the salaries of the fifty superintendents two years the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000)

For the payment of the salaries of fifteen Assistant Engineers two years the sum of seventy-two thousand dollars ($72,000)

For the payment of the salary of the Chief Draftsman two years the sum of four thousand eight hundred dollars ($4,800)

For the payment of the salaries of four clerks two years the sum of nine thousand six hundred dollars ($9,600)

For the payment of the salaries of four assistant draftsmen two years the sum of fourteen thousand four hundred dollars ($14,400)

For the payment of the salary of the chief clerk two years the sum of four thousand eight hundred dollars ($4,800)

For the payment of the salaries of four stengraphers or clerks two years the sum of nine thousand six hundred dollars ($9,600)

For the payment of the salaries of two bookkeepers two years the sum of six thousand four hundred dollars ($6,400)

For the payment of the necessary traveling and other incidental expenses of the State Highway Commissioner the First Deputy State Highway Commissioner the Second Deputy State Highway Commissioner the Chief Engineer the Bridge Engineer the fifteen Assistant Engineers and the fifty Superintendents two years the sum of one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000)

For the payment of contingent and incidental expenses of the State Highway Department two years the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000)

For the payment of the salaries and other necessary expenses of the Automobile Division of the State Highway Department two years the sum of one hundred and forty thousand dollars ($140,000) and so, Mr. Speaker, all the salaries that are to be put into execution have been provided for. Where they have not been provided for specifically, they have been cared for in these large items of one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars and one hundred and forty thousand dollars for the various departments as contingent funds and traveling expenses. This amendment simply says these things having been done; grant fifty thousand dollars more and put it into execution but put it on the roads. That leaves $3,450,000.00 or $3,400,000.00 set aside for the repairs of these roads which have already been built. Mr. Speaker, the whole question resolves itself into whether or not the House is here for the purpose of making roads or making jobs.

The SPEAKER. The question is will the House agree to the amendment?

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment:

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend Section 2, page 52, after line 1411, by inserting as a separate paragraph the following:

'The work of repairing constructing or reconstructing any road or highway covered by the several items of the foregoing appropriation under the heading State Highway Department shall be done only upon contract duly let based on the cubic or square yard of work completed All specifications therefor shall contain a provisions requiring the contractor for a period of five years from and after the completion of the work bid on to maintain the same free of expense to the State and which undertaking shall be secured by a bond with one or more sureties in adequate amount to be fixed by the State Highway Commissioner and approved by the Auditor General Where the construction repair or maintenance of any such road or highway calls for the use of material protected by letters patent it shall be the duty of the State Highway Commissioner for and in behalf of the State to arrange for the payment of all royalties or other charges for the use thereof so as to enable contractors to be placed on an equal competitive basis. All bids shall at stated times be publicly open in the office of the State Highway Commissioner in the City of Harrisburg in the presence of the said Commissioner and the Auditor General or their duly accredited representatives Notice of all proposals asked for shall be duly advertised in three daily newspapers of general circulation published in the different parts of the Commonwealth one of which shall be published in the City of Harrisburg."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would indeed be surprised to hear anything than a suggestive "no" in relation to an agreement to an amendment which really means something to this bill. This amendment is an amendment which is based on simply the same procedure that is followed on practically all public works. In the first place the last provision of the amendment asks for an advertisement. I presume there is nothing unfair in that; nothing unjust; nothing that will in any way limit the liberties of the Highway Department. There is nothing perhaps in that amendment that would be for the benefit of any member who might vote in favor of this amendment, and there is certainly nothing in the amendment that would be of benefit to any of the members who might vote in favor of this amendment, and there is certainly nothing in the amendment that would inure against the interests of the people whom you represent or are presumed to represent. In the first part of the proposed amendment there is a provision which practically covers all street work, as everyone who is acquainted with city work knows. In our great cities, as is known to every member of the House, to every contractor who has had any such work to do, and in general in all public works of like character, the same provision prevails, namely, that you shall keep your work in repair for a certain length of time. Now, I ask, Mr. Speaker, is there anything unfair in saying that some contractor who is favored by having an award made to him under a competitive bid on the same terms as every other contractor; is there anything that will hurt the people along those highways, or the Department of Public Highways, or anybody else, by saying that the contractor, whether the work be constructive, repairing or reconstructive work, that he shall keep it in good repair for five years? Certainly not. There is nothing in that provision that could tread on anybody's toes. There is nothing in that provision that anybody who is fair and honest would oppose. There is nothing in that provision that would handicap any department which is attempting to carry out the provisions of the law under which it was organized, or wince or squirm or turn a hair; not a thing.

It is something that they ought to welcome for the reason, Mr. Speaker, if you please, that when the contract has been advertised and when the bidder has made his contract, when the work has been completed, his bond having been put up in the Highway Department, approved by the Auditor General of the State, it is a guarantee to the State of Pennsylvania that for five years the highways constructed under that bid will be kept in good repair. Now there is certainly no answer to that quesion.

Just one more question involved and that is this: Where a patented article is used in the construction of a highway, that instead of each contractor having to make arrangements for the payment of the royalties to those who control that patented article that the State Highway Department makes that payment and that arrangement. Now why? Simply this: Mr. Speaker, I might control a patented article which was being used and if I saw fit to discriminate in favor of my friend "A," who was making a bid for the work as against Mr. "B" who was making a bid for the same work, I could say to "A," "Yes you pay me a royalty of $25.00 per so many cubic yards and I will make the price just $50.00 to Mr. "B" who is going to be your competitor in bidding. Thereby what becomes of Mr. "B?" He cannot compete and so that any concern that handles or controls a patented product, a patent right on something that is being used, they cannot discriminate as against the bidders. Mr. Speaker, whether the bidders pay the royalty, whether it comes out of the pocket of "A" to be reimburse, instead of from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or whether it comes out of the pocket of "B" to be reimbursed by the State of Pennsylvania again for the payment of that royalty, it makes no difference; but provided, as it is provided in this amendment, which I now call particular attention to in reference to that, by providing as it does here, the door is absolutely closed to the discriminating process, which I have just attempted to outline.

"Where the construction, repair or maintenance of any road or highway calls for the use of materials protected by letters patent, it shall be the duty of the State Highway Commissioner, for and in behalf of the State to arrange for the payment of all royalties or other charges for the uses thereof so as to enable contractors to be placed on an equal competitive basis."

The whole proposition, Mr. Speaker, if you please, in relation to that provision, is incorporated and stands out boldly in the amendment. It stands out so that the purpose cannot be mistaken. So far then, Mr. Speaker, as being absolutely fair, in making a wise provision in this bill, in relation to patented articles, I think there can be no question. That question having been settled as it is and as I feel that it is, the matter of advertising being only in accordance with the general rule for all public work, the matter of competitive bidding and the opening of the bids only being as is done in everything else, save this, the matter of requiring and providing that the roads shall be kept in perfect order by the bidder for the period of five years as it ought to be done and thereby giving an insurance to the State that for five years at least all of the new roads will be kept in good repair, all of the reconstructed roads will be kept in good repair and all of the repair work—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ELY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ELY. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the amendment is not germane to the bill. The bill is an appropriation bill and this is an enabling act he wants to get into this bill.

The SPEAKER. It seems to the Chair that the amendment here is to provide the manner in which the money is to be paid and therefore it seems to the Chair that the amendment is germane and that the point of order is not well taken.

Mr. ALLEN. All of the repair work shall be continued to be kept in good repair for five years and Mr. Speaker, I fail to see how any of the members of this House, any single member of this House can oppose the amendment which is now offered to them and I ask the yeas and nays on the amendment.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, certainly.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the gentleman from Allegheny can give us any information about what it would cost to build highways such as come under that provision?

Mr. ALLEN. Why, Mr. Speaker, there is no additional cost to the highways, there is no additional dollars added to the expenditures for highways under the provisions of this amendment. This amendment simply stipulates, Mr. Speaker, the process by which bids shall be received and the work shall be done.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I am afraid the gentleman from Allegheny does not appreciate the fact that in portions of the State where there is not a very great deal of travel the highways will be constructed along different lines than where the travel is heavy. Now such a provision as the gentleman has in that amendment, requiring the roads to be guaranteed and kept in good repair for five years, would mean that all these roads wherever they might be would have to be of such a grade or character that they would cost three times the amount of the road which would be amply sufficient in some localities. I can appreciate that in thickly populated sections such as those surrounding the large cities that it might be wise enough to make such a requirement but knowing the conditions that in many sections they will build a Telford road with an ordinary granite or crushed rock of the finest order put over the top and crushed down by a steam roller, means that unless a cloudburst would occur the repairs would be small. If the gentleman binds the Highway Department to such a practice as that, that the same sort of roads must be built all over the State and provide against damages caused by cloudburst or by extremely heavy travel that the roads would be crushed down, because otherwise there would be slight destruction of the roads in many sections, the contractor if bound for five years, it would mean such a heavy expense for the roads in this State of that character that I don't think the members want the amendment to go in.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, unlike the gentleman from Delaware, I do not understand everything, but there are some things on which his information is very limited and this seems to be one of them. He fails to comprehend what I attempted to state, not only in the amendment, but in explanation of the amendment, that where a road is constructed, improved or reconstructed under contract, that the Department is to be guaranteed, that the work is to be guaranteed for five years and kept up to the proper standard for that time by the original contractor. Now, Mr. Speaker, it simply means this. If the road does not stand up to the conditions that it should, in that event the original contractor is responsible. Under present conditions a contractor can go out and build a road today and next month the road may be in bad repair and then what does the State Highway Department do? It has to give out an additional contract for repairs. Now who is to do the work? This amendment says, the original contractor keeps all repairs for five years. Under the present system there may be a half dozen from the first or original. A road gets out of repair this year and the contract is given to one man; next year if it is out of repair the contract is given to another and the next year it is given to another repair man and so on.

Now in relation to the Act of God, suggested by the gentleman from Delaware, it is true that it is not provided against in this bill and why? Because of the fact that every layman in this State, every layman on the floor of this House knows that you do not need to make any such provision. It would be absurd, Mr. Speaker, for the gentleman to beg the question and it is absurd for him to beg the question here as he frequently does by calling attention to something of that kind which could not stand under any power on earth, any court of law. Nobody would say that a man who had built and constructed a road and had it in proper repair, a road of half a mile or ten miles, and there came along a terrific flood and it was washed away, or a cloudburst occurred following a heavy rain and a dam burst like the dam at Austin and the road was washed away, that the original contractor should go out and reconstruct that road. That is too absurd to talk about and I do not think that any such argument as that would have any weight with the gentlemen of the House.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, just making a rough estimate I find that it would cost in the neighborhood of $15,000.00 per mile to construct a road of the character as provided for in this amendment. That provides nothing for grading, nothing for culverts and in all probability it would amount to a cost of $20,000.00 per mile for the roads in the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I want to call the attention of the gentleman of Allegheny and the members of the House to the fact that practically everything that he seeks to embody in this act by this amendment is now all covered by the Act of 1911, which provides for everything in relation to the construction and maintenance, the act specifying that these shall be taken care of by contract and letting to the lowest responsible bidder and in section 14 it goes on and prescribes in a better manner than his amendment how that advertising and contract shall be let. Then the only thing left in his amendment is the proposition of requiring a contractor to enter into a binding obligation and give a bond therefore to maintain his work for five years. That proposition would be nice if we could get the roads constructed with the guarantee attached to it as if it was not, but what is the result? It would simply be that the contractor would put up his figures high enough and in dealing with the State they would be so much that he would be absolutely safe and probably have a large percentage besides. It seems to me that with the present condition of the law with relation to advertising bids and letting all work by contract that it is all amply covered except the proposition of the guarantee and that would not be wise to incorporate in the bill.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, there is no doubt some merit in the amendment offered by the gentleman from Allegheny, also in the statement made by the gentleman from Tioga. Such provisions are largely provided for under the present law, but the whole matter is based on the supposition that all of the work done by the Highway Department is done by contract. Now I think that the Highway Department at the present time is building a piece of state road in one of the counties of Pennsylvania for about one-half of what it would cost if let by contract and it seems to me that the provision would be tieing the hands of the Highway Department so that they could not do their own repairing or their own construction and thereby save in money expense many thousands of dollars. On that basis is one of the reasons why I opposed and voted against the former amendment, because I did not think that the allowance of fifty thousand dollars for salaries was sufficient and therefore I think this is a weak point in this amendment that is now offered because you would prevent the Highway Department from going on with work of this kind with its own help.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

An Act amending an act approved April twenty-ninth Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" as amended by an act approved May ninth Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine entitled "An Act supplementary to an act approved April twenty-ninth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled 'An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations' amending the eleventh section thereof as far as the same applies to companies incorporated to supply the public with water giving and granting authority to the said companies incorporated for the supply of water to the public to issue capital stock to an amount not exceeding two million dollars" so as to allow the issuance of the shares of stock of any corporation other than preferred stock without any nominal or par value and fixing the bonus payable upon such stock.

Mr. CONNER, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as amended, House Bill No. 1259, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the G. M. and Agnes Hoffman Orphanage, of Littlestown, Adams County, Pennsylvania.

Mr. SNYDER, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2174 (Senate Bill No. 601), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation in aid of the erection upon the Capitol grounds at Harrisburg of a memorial to commemorate the founding of the common school system of Pennsylvania and to perpetuate the memory of the men who were principally instrumental in establishing and carrying it into practical effect and providing for the appointment of a commission to select a model for and supervise the erection thereof.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I ask for unanimous consent to call up from page two of to-day's calendar, House Bill No. 1258.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia asks unanimous consent to take up at this time the bill on page two of to-day's calendar for which a special order was fixed for this morning at 11.30 o'clock, for the purpose of moving to drop the bill from the calendar. Does the House give its unanimous consent? The Chair hears no objection. The Clerk will read the bill.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1258, entitled:

An Act establishing the State Penitentiary regulating the sentencing of persons thereto abolishing the Eastern Penitentiary providing for the transfer of the inmates thereof to the State Penitentiary providing for the sale of the site buildings and equipment and materials of the Eastern Penitentiary and repealing certain acts

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, my object in calling this bill up now is from the fact that some of my colleagues think this is not the proper time to present this bill. I would like to make a little statement to the effect that I offered this bill in good faith. When I introduced it, I thought it was the proper time, but it will be about five years before a Legislature can take that up properly and there will be two more Legislatures meeting in the meantime to let one or the other Legislatures pass this bill, as it will possibly make some difference with the organization of the Eastern Penitentiary. I therefore ask the House to drop this bill, and I move that the House drop this bill from the calendar.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE RESUMES CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1117.

The SPEAKER. The House will resume consideration of House Bill No. 1117.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment to page 98 of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then twice read the amendment as follows:

Amend on page 98, section 39, line 9, by striking out the words "conditioned upon the passage," and by striking out all of lines 10, 11 and 12.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment ?

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, at the time when this paragraph was drawn and incorporated in this bill, the bill had not been as yet approved by the Governor. Therefore, we are striking this out now as he has since that time approved of the resolution.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment ?

It was agreed to.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then twice read the amendment as follows:

On page 16, amend section two, by striking out all of lines 408 to 415 inclusive.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is to strike out the appropriation of $2,500 which is for the classification of letters, telegrams, historical documents, et cetera, with reference to the civil war. This has been in existence since 1905 and certainly ought to be finished by this time. The appropriation for last session was $2,500. The report from the Auditor General's department shows that the Adjutant General's department has used but $1,250 of this $2,500 which was appropriated last session. Now, certainly, if they had no reason to use more than $1,250 since the last session, this work must be completed and the item should be dropped from the bill.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman made an investigation of what the facts are in this item?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I believe the Auditor General's report shows what has been done by that department.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it may be possible that under conditions that existed during the past two years they were unable to complete this work. Perhaps this means that they want to complete the work and there is an appropriation here to carry it over this session. After being included in this bill, I think the House ought to be careful about cutting it out. I have no interest in the matter, but it is evident that two years ago we thought it a proper thing to put in. I was in hopes that the gentlman would explain to the House the fact that he had made an inquiry, or some one had made inquiry. I do not think that we ought to blindly cut that out.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I thought that my explanation had made the amendment clear, and I merely reiterate what I said before. This item started in 1905 and was carried on continuously from that time up to the present time. Now, of course it is a salary item. Now, in the last two years they have only used half of the appropriation of $2,500. The work certainly must have been completed. There is no reason to come in and ask for $2,500 more and take that money from deserving charities or institutions that need it badly at this time. It should be stopped and now is the time to do it.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I hope the gentleman will not misunderstand me. I simply mean that if we have not made any attempt to get information on the subject, that simple fact does not explain it, because a very small part of the appropriation remains unused. They are carrying it over and may badly need it in the next two years.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me the figures are in themselves a sufficient answer. Now, if the Adjutant General's Department did not see fit to spread on the records the necessity for this appropriation, then it is for us to take it for granted that it is not necessary.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the sub-committee on the matter.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Ehrhardt, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, the reason the Adjutant General's Department did not make a return or a report in answer to the resolution passed here asking for reasons for increased appropriations, was that it is asking for a less amount than it did two years ago, and in regard to the $2,500 item, many times it occurs that veterans are dying off and their many letters, telegrams, documents, and so forth are given to the Adjutant General's Department. There may not be many, but there are a few, therefore they would like to have this money to work with.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, there is a contingent fund which will safely take care of the letters and telegrams that may come in after eight years of this old work. Now, there is no reason why $2,500 of the State's money should be tied up in this appropriation.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a further amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend section 2, page 17, by striking out all of the item from line 446 to line 460 inclusive.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, this paragraph of the bill carries with it an appropriation of $6,000, payment to the organization of the National Guard for the collection of bond for deficiencies in the accounts of various officers. Now the report of the Adjutant General's department shows that only $274.31 was drawn against this appropriation since last session, when $6,000 was appropriated. Now the same reasons that I have stated for my first amendment apply to this amendment. Here is $6,000 of the State's money tied up which could be used to good advantage in the various institutions which all of you are familiar with. These items are not large in themselves, but in the aggregate in this bill, they amount to a considerable sum and it is time to call a halt.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. S. J. PERRY and Mr. EHRHARDT, and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Page 43, section 2, strike out the entire item from lines 1181 to line 1184.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is made for the purpose of striking out an item that has no business in the bill at all. There is no reason for taking this $6,000.00 from the working capital of the State. I do not say that experienced electrical service ought not be secured for making examination of mines, but I call your attention to the fact that such service has been used during the last two years and the Department of Mines in their letter to this House, shows that fact, page 4051 of the Legislative Journal of June 9th, showing that $1,071.06 was used for this purpose during the last two years, and charged under another item, an item providing for the payment of traveling expenses of inspectors, for their office rent, stationery, postage and incidentals. Now for this item under which $56,350.00 was appropriated last session, an increase of about twenty per cent., or $10,000.00 is asked for this session. The total amount asked for is $65,000.00 and I submit, Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House that if this service is necessary, and I admit that it is, that there will be plenty of money under that increased appropriation of $10,000.00 to pay for the little bit of expert electrical services that may be required and this $6,000.00 should not be taken out of the working capital of the State when it is not necessary, when the money is provided for in another item of this same bill.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, in reference to this particular item, the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Baldwin, has already explained to this House the fact that during the past two years this service has been done by the Department of Mines at an expense for two years of ten hundred and seventy-one dollars and some cents. This service in the past has been done as occasion required. The item in the bill which this amendment proposes to cut out reads thus:

> "That for the payment of expert electrical service in connection with the installation of electrical equipment in the mines, two years, the sum of $6,000.00"

The Chief of the Department of Mines in his report to this House attempts to justify this item on the ground of economy. He reports that it would be an economical feature to employ a man at an annual salary of, I think, $3,000.00, the amount in the bill being $6,000.00, and I would suggest that the facts in his report showing the amount used for this service in the past two years of $1,071.00, does not justify his request. Mr. Speaker, I certainly think this amendment should meet with the approval of this House and should be carried.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, it is true that "Fools rush in where angels fear to tread." We have before us the spectacle of an attorney from Philadelphia and one from Beaver county undertaking to tell us what is and what is not necessary in the conduct of coal mines. They seem to forget that there was a mining code adopted by the last legislature and in that code were many new things seeking to provide for the safety of the miners who work under ground. It is true that electricity, as used in the mines, is of comparatively recent origin and it is also true that there are many dangers involved in the way of explosions. The work which is sought to be done with this $6,000.00 appropriation, is work which has not heretofore been done and which should be done, and if there is any one thing in the appropriation asked for by this Department which should be voted upon favorably by this House, it is this very item of the paltry sum of $6,000.00 for the protection or human lives.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, there have been so many talking on this bill that I did not think it would become my duty to have my say in it, but it seems that this part of the bill comes my way and I was never scared to defend what I thought was right. I notice this refers to electricity. They talk about $6,000.00. What is the difference if it was $20,000.00. What is the difference if it was $50,000.00. If we had more regulations of electricity we would not have so many widows and orphans at the Cincinnati mine today. The bread winners of those families are gone and they are at the mercy of that community or at the mercy of the State. I say it is only justice that this ought to stand as it is and if it requires more than ten times as much to regulate the use of electricity in the coal mines of Pennsylvania I say it ought to be at the hands of the Department of Mines, ample money to protect and regulate electricity so that our miners who have to go into the bowels of the earth will not have to be in danger every moment from the time they leave the sunlight until the time they come up to the sunlight and I say this should stand and it should be more if the Department needs it.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Clearfield.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clearfield permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, certainly.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Clearfield aware that under the same item under which the expenses of this electrical service was paid during the last two years ten thousand dollars is appropriated by this bill?

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I did not catch the question.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman understand that in addition to the amount appropriated two years ago, from which item the electrical service done during the last two years was deducted and paid, is an increase of $10,000.00 this year?

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I understand the question, yes sir.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Well then, Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman why the expense of electrical service could not be paid out of that $10,000.00 instead of tieing up another $6,000.00 by an independent item?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, let me state that there has never been an electrical expert employed regularly in this Department. The item of $1,600.00 to which the gentleman referred, was only occasional service which was done outside of the Department; but this $6,000.00 is to provide for the employment of a skilled electrician in the Department of Mines to regularly inspect the installation in the workings of the mines.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. If that is the occasion, then I would say that the Department is at fault for not putting any information in the letter written in response to the request of this House, for it is truly silent for any occasion for that additional amount and if that be true I have not doubt that the appropriation may have some merit.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, less than two weeks ago there was a joint resolution passed by this Legislature providing for a Commission to investigate the causes of accidents in the Anthracite Mines of this State and it carried an appropriation of $25,000.00. I am surprised that the gentleman from Beaver, who was here no doubt and voted for that resolution should at this time question an item of this kind which is for the same purpose practically to prevent accidents, although this item covers bituminous items as well as anthracite.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, in view of the light and information that has been given to the House on this question I withdraw the amendment.

Mr. HEIDINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

> Amend section 2, page 19, line 500 by striking out the words "fifty-two thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "thirty thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HEIDINGER. Mr. Speaker, this is not an attempt to cripple any department, it is not cutting out any item, it is not reducing any salaries, nor does it attempt to create any new position. At the last session of the Legislature, there was an appropriated a contingency fund for the expenses of the Insurance Department to the amount of $52,000. Of that amount there was drawn by the department $32.500 and of that amount they only spent and returned vouchers for $22,673.44. Now, if the appropriation is made in the amended form, they will still have over the amount they spent in the last two years a margin of nearly eight thousand dollars for unlooked for expenses. If the amendment is not carried it will simply withdraw so much money from the working capital of the State. It is a matter of some twenty thousand dollars.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEIDINGER. I will.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the gentleman asked the Insurance Department whether or not this was necessary?

Mr. HEIDINGER. Mr. Speaker, I have the returns of the department, but I made no inquiries at the office.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, in this session we have passed two different bills relating to the Insurance Department which will entail a great deal more work in that department and it is probably for this reason that they have asked for this increase. We certainly would like to see these acts in force.

Mr. HEIDINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state for the information of the House that the Insurance Department did not ask for any more this session than they did last. They have made a request for $52,000 and that is the amount they asked for last session, and the amount appropriated. I cannot see why fifty-two thousand dollars should be appropriated when they only withdrew $32,500 and spent a little over twenty-two thousand dollars.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, we have already put additional work on that department and have given them larger questions and subjects to be investigated. The appropriation last session may have been a mistake and this department may have made a mistake in asking for more than was necessary. It is a difficult thing in that department to know just what contingencies may arise, and it is difficult to know what their expenses will be because their services are rather indefinite. As I said before we want the provisions of these acts that we have passed enforced. The fact that they are returning whatever money is not necessary seems to indicate that there is no danger in placing in their hands more money than may be used. There is but eighteen thousand dollars that is inactive. I do not want to be standing here objecting to these amendments that are offered, but I think the gentlemen should go to the departments and inquire there so as to be able to explain these amendments to the House, but we are left in the dark. I think it would be unwise to reduce this appropriation at this time. We have been putting additional labor and work upon that department. If they use thirty-two thousand dollars in the last two years with this additional work they may use more. The Appropriation Committee had the request from this department for this amount of money, and the committee was satisfied that it was a correct amount that would be necessary to properly conduct the business in that department. There is always a surplus in the State Treasury of from eight to ten millions of dollars. There would not be much money tied up but this would leave an available fund for the department to act properly. The gentlemen offering these amendments may have made mistakes in their amendments and the Appropriations Committee may have made mistakes in its recommendations, but the House is always willing to correct any mistakes that we may make.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, I have been asked to support quite a number of these amendments and I have voted against others. I would like my friends who are asking me to support these amendments to give me some good argument or reason why they should be supported. The best argument for the heads of the departments to use more money would be that which calls their attention to the fact that if they did not use all the money appropriated to them one session that they would be given less money the next time. I would like some good reason for voting against these appropriations. I have no doubt but that some of the men proposing these amendments have a little surplus once in a while and are very glad to have it.

Mr. HEIDINGER. Mr. Speaker, I will admit what the gentleman from Delaware stated in regard to the Insurance Department in the last two years asking for more money than they needed. I will admit they made a mistake and I think they are making a mistake this time. If this amendment goes through there would still be the amount of eight thousand dollars over the amount they spent in the last two years. I think there is an excellent reason for not tying up this money. You have twenty thousand dollars in this item and twenty thousand or more in another item, and so on until you will tie up, as the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. John R. K. Scott, stated on the floor of the House some time ago, the sum of seven or eight millions of dollars. The statement was made and not controverted by the gentleman from Delaware that the Appropriations Committee is making the claim that we have not sufficient money for the State Normal Schools and other deserving institutions, and yet we are tying up fund after fund, and depriving ourselves of our working capital. I do not think that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McAleer, would withdraw from his business so large a percentage of the working capital. This amendment is reasonable and should have the support of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 2, page 18, line 470, by striking out the words "twenty thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "five thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is in line with the other amendments offered to-night. Two years ago twenty thousand dollars were appropriated to reimburse the United States Government for organization of the National Guard of Pennsylvania for loss incurred by fire where such losses have been covered by insurance placed by the Adjutant General and the losses are adjusted by the Insurance Company or companies and payments made to the State of such losses, and the amounts recovered have been paid into the State Treasury. Now in two years this fund has had withdrawn from it $114.64. In other words the State has had over nineteen thousand dollars tied up. This is not cutting out any department nor is it hurting anybody. Five thousand dollars is certainly an ample appropriation to cover any contingencies of this sort when in the past two years there has been withdrawn only $114.00. I agree with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McAleer, that the mere fact that a department has not expended all the money is not a sufficient cause why the department should be reduced in its appropriation, but this is not a department appropriation, but a contingency fund that evidently arose from some cause or other and I think, Mr. Speaker, that we should have the use of the difference between twenty thousand and five thousand dollars.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will guarantee that in the next two years that there will be no fires or fire losses, we will vote for this amendment. If a fire occurs, the insurance is paid into the State Treasury and you cannot get it out until the next Legislature comes along. This insurance is carried by the State, and this money is appropriated to be available in case any contingency of this sort should arise.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I have been interrogated by the gentleman from Delaware and if that is the end of his question, I will answer that to the best of my ability. Yes, I think it is right that there should be some sort of insurance and I know that in two years we have had no loss by fire, but there is no guarantee that there would or would not be any fires within the next two years, but there is no reason why so large a sum of money should be tied up when five thousand dollars is ample.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it does seem to me that this is a strange way to look at it. In the last twenty-five years, I have paid fire insurance money and I have received nothing in return, but nobody can tell when a fire will come or when you are going to have a loss by fire and it is a very unwise thing to interfere with the department in this respect.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Forster, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman, was this amendment given to him to present?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, that is a most extraordinary question and I don't know whether I should be called upon to answer it.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman to answer.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, in answer I will say that I prepared this amendment myself.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman, did he make any investigation into the matter?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I made an investigation into the matter.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I want to ask the gentleman, was not the amendment passed to him to present?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, the amendment was certainly not passed to me except by the typewriter operator.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Wiltbank.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether or not the amount stated by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Forster, as to the loss during the past two years is correct?

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I didn't understand the question.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Wiltbank, whether the figures as to the loss given to the House by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Forster, during the past two years are correct?

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I believe they are.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether there has been any loss during the preceding two years?

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I am not conversant with it.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I want to ask the gentleman, were there any losses during the two years preceding that period?

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I am not conversant with any of it.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, are there any two years in connection with this department, as to this subject, with which he is conversant?

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, none whatever.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. R. J. Baldwin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I decline to be interrogated.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk then twice read the amendment as follows:

> Amend Section 2, page 29, line 769, by striking out "fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000.00) and inserting "five thousand dollars ($5,000.00)" in lieu thereof.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I would call the attention of the House to the purpose of this item. This item is for the payment of the cost of procuring various bonds required by statute to be given by State officials. Under a careful perusal of this bill, it would seem that there are items of this character now under the appropriation to the various departments. A similar item in the appropriation bill of the last session was in access of twenty-five thousand dollars. This item in this bill has been cut from the last session to fourteen thousand dollars. Now, Mr. Speaker, let us go back to see how much of the twenty-five thousand dollar appropriation was consumed and we find that it amounted to less than five thousand dollars. That has been occasioned I have no doubt, by the fact that the Legislature in its wisdom has seen fit to make appropriations to the various departments to permit them to procure their own bonds for employees. It was not only another indication of what I already have called to the attention of the House in previous arguments that this is only one item of many which when it once gets into the general appropriation bill it very seldom gets out, whether there is a continued need for it or not. While I admit that there is continual need for this item, I say that there is no occasion for an excessive amount for that purpose. You will recall that at the last session there were bills passed providing for the payment of same department to secure bonds for their employes. We find this bill in different departments where the law applies that these items are now in this bill. I certainly think that this is only a reasonable proposition and should prevail.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ALLEN and Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT, and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

> Amend page 43, section 2, lines 1167 to 1175 inclusive, by striking out the words "ten thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "five thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, this item is the appropriation for attorney fees in the Department of Mines. The amount used in the last two years was something less than $4,000. The appropriation was, if I recall it, $7,500. Now, the amount used by the Department for this purpose during a two year period is a pretty fair indication of the amount that they ought to have. Now, this places the item at $5,000, an increase of twenty-five per cent. over the amount used in the last two years. It seems to me it is a fair increase and that the amendment ought to carry.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. J. A. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

> Amend section 2, page 45, line 1224, by striking out the word "forty" and inserting the word "eighty."
> Line 1225, by striking out "$40,000" and insertnig "$80,000"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. J. A. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, this is not in line with the previous amendments offered to this bill. It is more on a progressive line. In offering this amendment I present to the House the appeal of a body of fishermen from the district from which I come. They are appealing for assistance. We have nine fish wardens. The law requires thirty. The Fish Department are unable to carry out the provisions of the law in this State. The law requires thirty and the $80,000 carries out the purpose of the law. I believe that this department is one one of the most important departments in this State, especially on Friday. It is the department for the protection of streams and down in my district where these fishermen are, along the Delaware River, and where the wardens are hardly seen, it cannot carry out the provisions of the law. The buildings in which the fish are hatched and prepared and from where these young fish are planted in the Delaware river are a disgrace to the State of Pennsylvania. I have gone along the banks of the Delaware River in my district and have seen millions of dead fish which were killed by pollution of the stream. The purpose of these fish wardens is to protect, and also to prosecute manufacturers and others who pollute the streams. That is the most important part of the work of the fish warden, and I want to appeal to you members of the House for the protection of this industry, although small, and humble, but honest, the fish industry of the Delaware River. I ask the protection of the State to give this allowance.

BILL INTRODUCED.

Mr. WILLIAMS asked and received consent to introduce a bill the title of which was first read for information of the House.

THE HOUSE RESUMES CONSIDERTIION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1117.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

> Page 45, section 2, line 1214, by striking out the words "five thousand" and inserting in lieu thereof "one thousand five hundred dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I think it proper in attempting to save expense for this Department that I should commence with the reduction of attorney's fees. In the general appropriation bill of 1911 the amount appropriated was $2,000.00 and of that $1,481.60 was spent. On the basis of that showing I think the State can struggle along for two years more with $1,500.00, more than was used during the last two years.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not think the gentleman's statements are based on a knowledge of the situation at all. I do not charge that he knows not whereof he speaks, but it is very evident that he does not have a full knowledge of the situation. Does the gentleman realize that this House this session has passed two bills absolutely changing the fish law of this Commonwealth, one relating to the game and food fishes in the interior and another to the game and food fishes throughout the State as well as affecting Lake Erie? Those laws impose penalties for violations, with drastic penalties. Does the gentleman think that $2,000.00 for the administration of the fish laws in this great Commonwealth, in the 67 counties of this Commonwealth, is an extraordinary amount? Does he think that $2,000.00 or $5,000.00 is sufficient for two years?

He has suggested, I believe, $1,500.00. Does he think that $1,500.00 is sufficient to prosecute those who violate the fish laws throughout the State, or, in order words, $750.00 per year? Does he realize that there are violations of the fish laws in every county of this Commonwealth? Does he realize that the foreigners in the chemical woods throughout the sparsely settled regions are dynamiting the streams? Does he know that they have been fishing out of season? I submit that the gentleman does not know what he is talking about when he makes this proposition, or would he have some one from the Attorney General's Department go to the back woods and prosecute these violators? Is it possible that that is his idea in offering this amendment? If it is, I think he is proceeding along the wrong lines. I think the amendment is absurd absolutely and I think it sould be disregarded and ignored.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman offering the amendment may possibly not know as much as the gentleman from Erie, but his ignorance is not quite so profound as indicated by the gentleman from Erie. It will be noted that this item is merely for counsel fees and court expenses. It is not for the services of counsel in prosecuting. It is merely for counsel. In all criminal cases the prosecution, as shown by the court proceedings, are done by the various District Attorneys and the fees where there are convictions are charged upon the county and in cases where the charge would be put upon a public prosecutor, the Fish Department, are practically nil. Therefore the only expenses are for special private counsel and that should not happen at all except in extraordinary circumstances; and when the gentleman asks me whether I think so and so, my answer is yes.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, how about those who are fishing illicitly in Lake Erie, the great corporations who are fishing illicity for white fish and the other fish which abound in those waters? How about the convictions and fees for the prosecution of those men, prosecution against fish companies, with their mighty influence, who have high priced men? Could you send a game warden up to confiscate the boats and nets? It is absurd.

Mr. Kitts. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia about it being the province of the District Attorney to prosecute violations of the laws, I do not quite agree with that logic, for in my experience in these prosecutions they are unable to call in the District Attorney in the case of a criminal prosecutions until it reaches the Court of Quarter Sessions. Usually the Fish Department are obliged to go into some back district where this dynamiting is taking place and the fish laws are being violated and bring the prosecutions before a country justice of the place and it is entirely out of the province of a District Attorney to go out and appear in those cases. The Department must have means whereby they can hire special counsel to prosecute these cases as the man who is arrested will generally have his attorney present and it is absolutely necessary for the Department to have legal representatives there.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I want to call attention to the fact that up in the Northern tier of this State we have some of the finest mountain streams in the world. You can go to the head waters of Pine Creek and find that stream polluted and some times for from fifteen to thirty miles along the banks you can find heaps of dead fish caused by the pollutions by the tanneries and acids factories and there is a great demand up there for some prosecutions to be made against the big corporations for this pollution of the streams and if you cannot furnish your State officers with something to do business with and employ counsel and compete with the counsel of those big corporations, you cannot expect to have any fish. It seems to me that this amount is not in excess at all, but if anything it should be bigger.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to exactly reiterate what the gentleman from Tioga has said. Last summer there was an occurrence on the Susquehanna River whereby some offensive material was shot into the river that absolutely destroyed the fish for miles and miles and the explanation as to why the Department could not go ahead and prosecute was that they had no funds with which to employ counsel. Now it is a fact that it does not come within the province of the District Attorney to go out and institute these prosecutions and the only way it can be properly handled is to provide these funds for counsel and the amount covering fines will be pretty near self sustaining.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, it was not my purpose to enter into any controversy because I believe that the House recognizes that sufficient time has been wasted by the introduction of an amendment affecting almost every paragraph of this bill and these amendments with regularity have been voted down. I would call attention of the gentleman to the fact that they are not consistent. The majority of the amendments came from those gentlemen who have held up to the people of the State of Pennsylvania the fact that we were wasting time here by methods that only could be designed as that of the obstructionists. We have wasted four sessions in the discussion of this bill and I submit for the consideration of the gentlemen of this House that this amendment, in accord with the others, should not be made because of the employment of counsel to enforce the laws so far as the Fish Department is concerned has to do not only with the destruction of the fish, but it has to do with almost 50,000 manufacturing establishments, almost all of whom empty their refuse into the various streams of this State. Sometimes persuasion has the effect desired. Sometimes threats are accepted as coming from the Department, but as having no effect, because the Department is not in a position to prosecute. These people recognize it and continue to violate the law and I submit to the gentlemen of the House that this amendment should be voted down because the $5,000.00 is small enough in my judgment to give to the Fish Department of this State—

In line with the action of the gentleman from Philadelphia who preceded me I will be compelled to ask for order or I will report some names to the Chair.

In closing, gentlemen, in all seriousness, I think that this is one amendment that has been simply introduced in order to consume time. The gentleman that introduced it cannot introduce it with an honest intention because he as a lawyer must recognize the necessity for the ammunition required to put the wheels of justice in motion.

Mr. BAYLE. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, from my earliest boyhood I heard of the wisdom of Philadelphia lawyers. The depth of that wisdom and the height of their fees. Has old Pennsylvania fallen on cheap ground? Why should my learned friend, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Samuel B. Scott, one of the leading attorneys of the great City of Philadelphia, who looks forward to the time when he will be a leading lawyer in the Commonwealth, come here and talk down counsel fees? Why should he, Mr. Speaker, in a department as important to the State of Pennsylvania as the Department of Fisheries, come here and advise them to keep counsel down with their fees and employ cheap attorneys? We do not do business in that way up in our corner of the State. And now, Mr. Speaker, as has been well said by my colleague, Mr. Mitchell, and Mr. Kitts, from Erie, and how far will a paltry $1,500.00 go in the prosecution of cases of violations against this law which will save fish to your tables and reduce the cost of living.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, after such melodious compliments and in view of the extraordinary important consideration which just have been adduced, let me close this debate with the paltry consideration that during the past two years the State did struggle along with this item of $2,000.00 and only spent $1,461.60.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

> Amend section 2, page 45, line 1235 by striking out the words "sixteen thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "eight thousand dollars"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the amount appropriated in this bill is a jump of 100 per cent over last session, just twice as much. If every item were just twice as large, it is easy to see just where we would land. I have suggested that it should be reduced to the amount appropriated for the last two years, which was not entirely used. The amount was $7,780.00.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

> Amend section 2, page 34, lines 926 to 939 inclusive by striking out the five items contained therein.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I introduce this amendment, and at the same time raise a point of order. I do not know anything about the merits of these particular items or association that are sought to be taken care of by this appropriation. I am not questioning the propriety of the amounts that they seek to appropriate, but I do question the constitutionality of these items. Mr. Speaker, I am raising this as a point of order and will ask you to rule upon it. Section 15, of Article of the Constitution provides that the General Appropriation bill shall embrace nothing but appropriations for the ordinary expenses of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments of the Commonwealth, interest on the public debt and for public schools. All other appropriations shall be made by separate bills each embracing but one subject. Now, Mr. Speaker, I submit that not one of these items is embraced in that provision of the Constitution. They are for associations of various sorts in no ways connected with the Executive, Judicial or Legislative Departments, and certainly no member will contend that they relate in any way to the public school system. This part of the section appropriates the following:

> For the payment of aid to the State Horticultural Association of Pennsylvania for two years the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000)
>
> For the payment of aid to the Pennsylvania Dairy Union for two years the sum of two thousand dolllars ($2,000)
>
> For the payment of aid to the Pennsylvania Live Stock Breeders' Association for two years the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000)
>
> For the payment of aid to the Pennsylvania State Poultry Society for two years the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000)
>
> For the payment of aid to the Pennsylvania Bee-Keepers' Association for two years the sum of two thousand dolllars ($2,000)

Certainly no one in the House would contend that an appropriation for a hospital or to any charitable association could properly be taken care of or be carried in this general appropriation bill. I ask you, Mr. Speaker, to rule upon my point of order.

The SPEAKER. It does not seem to the Chair that the question is in shape for a ruling. The question before the House is: Will the House agree to the amendment?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I then withdraw my amendments and raise the point of order that this section of section two, on page 34 lines 926 to 939 inclusive, are unconstitutional and not properly included in this bill and therefore be stricken from the bill.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. On this question Mr. Speaker, I may state to the Chair that it will not only be raised on this item but on other items which seem to be as clear if not clearer than this particular item raised by the gentleman from Philadelphia. For instance, there is an appropriation in the bill which sets forth an appropriation to the Fire Department of Harrisburg. Surely that cannot be carried in the general appropriation bill, and quite a few items throughout the General Appropriation Bill where there is a question under the constitution as to the propriety of it being incorporated in the general appropriation bill will be raised to the Chair.

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, I might suggest that these separate items do not provide for payments to be made directly by this body or by the State, but these are items contained in the general appropriation to the Department of Agriculture. We appropriate certain definite sums to the Department of Agriculture and these items are charges upon the Department and I therefore believe that the items are properly before us and are constitutional.

The SPEAKER. The difficulty in the mind of the Chair is that there is nothing at present before the House which permits of a ruling. If this bill were on second reading and this second were up to the question "Will the House agree to the section" then the point of order would be applicable. These sections are not separately before the House but the whole bill is before the House and open to amendment, and the Chair cannot strike out the section.

Mr. FORSTER. Then Mr. Speaker, I ask consent to reinstate my amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, we are now up to the question of whether or not we shall vote for this appropriation which is clearly unconstitutional. This section of the Constitution says, that it must belong to the ordinary expenses of the Executive, Legislative or Judiciay Departments. Now how in the world can we say that an appropriation to the Horticultural Association, a separate corporation can be part of the Executive Department or the Department of Agriculture. I submit that this is entirely separate from any Department in this State.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the sections are not being attacked now because of any complaint against them. The question was taken up by those of us who prepared these amendments with the gentleman from Mifflin, Mr. Peachey, who is very familiar with the interests in the farming portions of the State. We are not attacking the sections upon their merits, but we are attacking them upon the present position of legislation Now if these appropriations are proper, if the State should appropriate two thousand dollars to the Bee Association and two thousand dollars to the Poultry Association, and two thousand dollars to the State Horticultural Association and two thousand dollars to the Dairy Union, the members of the House here who are desirous of getting an appropriation, they are simply going to miss their legislation if they have their legislation in this general appropriation bill, because when they come to get their money and the question is raised by the lawyers in the Auditor General's office and he refused to countersign the vouchers, that means that the appropriation falls because of its unconstutionality. Those members of the House friendly to these appropriations should not be blind and should not take the position of merely being against the amendments offered here and vote against these amendments. The Appropriations Committee ought to report out an appropriation bill the same as reported out by the gentleman from Tioga here tonight by unanimous consent. That was done for the purpose of making that appropriation constitutional. I dare say there was first the thought of having the Committee on Committees expenses carried in the General Appropriation bill and the question likely has been raised that it would not be proper to carry it there and therefore a separate bill has been placed before the House. You can see the wisdom of the makers of the Constitution in providing for that very question so that there cannot be hidden in the general appropriation bill items that ought to be put through by a distinct and separate bill, so that it will escape that charge the gentleman from Allegheny a few hours ago said that this bill was often used as a vehicle to carry things that were hidden in the darkness of the bill.

This amendment ought to prevail and then submit a proper bill to the House with unanimous consent for its introduction. I dare say that there will be little opposition to a bill by at least a majority of the members of the House, if I have a correct feeling of the House on this forty-one million dollars appropriation, as they vote upon it. I suggest that this amendment prevail.

Mr. PEACHEY. Mr. Speaker, In the discussion of this amendment I am reminded of the little boy that turned up in a reformatory. A lady interested in a boy's reformatory came along and spoke kindly to the little boy and she said to him "What brought you here?" He answered, "A poor lawyer." Back of that, the little boy meant this: If he had had a good lawyer, he would never have gotten to a reformatory and what we want here is a good lawyer and if there were plenty of money back of it you would not question the constitutionality of it. You talk about the constitutionality of this and all the members have heard about that. We have heard it all winter, and you know about what the lawyers have done with the constitution; they have turned it inside out. Now, then another thought in conection with that is this that I am not going to discuss the constitutionality of this business in the least but consider it from the sense of right. I say what we need is a good lawyer and what troubles me right here is this: That these good lawyers in this House for years have allowed these things to go right through and they have appropriated them every year. Now, it looks to me very much like as though we have blind leaders of the blind, or this wouldn't have continued in this time. But that is just now the thing that does not concern me. I suppose if this amendment would carry you would want to go further and they would take the money appropriated to these little organizations that get two thousand dollars. I believe the objections to these organizations come from that fact that there are no salaries connected with it. As I understand it they hold shows—the horticultural association holds a show every year, the other organizations hold their shows annually and the people through the State of Pennsylvania gather together and you that were here in January and visited the Corn Show down here and the horticultural display and the people of the Dairy Union, all this you know and what it means. I ask of the people of this House that they vote down this amendment.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Mifflin who wants this amendment voted down might find this story of the boy applicable to himself. It might be that when the farmers go to the Auditor General, they might find that the present Auditor General might not be as agreeable as the Auditor Generals in the past. The farmers might think they have been led into the trap by a poor Legislature. If he wants to take the responsibility of opposing this amendment, I dare say he will find a great many friends who will help him to vote down the amendment. I think we will allow the responsibility to rest upon the gentlemen who vote down this amendment.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, in explanation of the constitutionality of the Appropriation Bill I have said time and time again I don't know whether it should be considered. This bill went through the House in preceding years and under separate appropriation bills and the sum of these matters are being called to the attention of the House and the danger of having them put through in the manner now attempted. That is the very thing that this House and these discussions at this time are trying to consider. It is true that these acts are not the only acts which, as I stated this morning to the members of this House, are being thought to be floated through on the necessity of a general appropriation bill. There are many and various of these items and as has been suggested by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scott, the House by setting its stamp of approval upon these matters places it upon record concerning the reason and assumes the responsibility of resting upon the departments which are concerned to administer their duties according to law and the responsibility of perhaps turning these items down by administering the law as it is placed upon the books for the guidance of these various departments. It is not that these items should be eliminated from the consideration of this House, as has been suggested, but there has been no occasion up to this very hour that these bills which ought to be introduced and which ought to receive consideration of the House have been. Now, they have been received by this House. There is no question in my mind but that under the provisions of the constitution, not a single item to which the attention has been called is entitled to a place in this bill. That by leaving them in this bill we vitiate at least these items on the questions which are being raised, and if they be passed in this bill the doors will have been locked to their consideration in a proper form. These items for the reaching of the appropriations which are intended to be reached for the purpose which they are specified should not appear in the appropriation bill; should be stricken from the bill and introduced in a separate and distinct bill under the provisions of the law under which no question can be raised as to the constitutonality of the bill. There is a serious question in this matter and I think those who know the provisions of the constitution in relation to the general appropriation bill, that there is no question but that they are not entitled to a place on the general appropriation bill. This amendment ought to be passed in safety and for the purpose of guarding these appropriations they ought to at this time be stricken from the bill by this amendment and be re-introduced in proper form.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, we are not acting nearly as unwisely as when we provided for the new officers for judges in the city of Philadelphia and a great many of us were sure at that time that it was unconstitutional but fortunately for the Philadelphia lawyers and unfortunately for the Pittsburg lawyers, there was fifty thousand dollars thrown their way by these five judges, eleven thousand dollars a piece in salary and now they come back here with this very technical objection in regard to constitutionality and claim that the House is overstepping the line of the law.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I consider that this proposition and these arguments bear about the same kind of influence as the rest of the amendments. The gentlemen of this House whose whole theory has been to attack this administration has been prompted over their defeat as Speaker of this House or to use the expression "throwing the hooks into this administration" and to embarrass the Speakership of this House. We had an illustration the other day when the very Chairman of the Appropriation Committee was attacked, for no other reason but that some of the members of this House wanted to show up some of the members who had been carried on the Appropriation Committee. I hold with what little knowledge I may have as an attorney that these departments are departments of Agriculture and that the Appropriation Committee or the appropriation bill is absolutely legal and constitutional in that these departments, as a part of the whole Agriculture Department they may set up and classify with separate appropriations. I think it is time that the House sets down on this dilatory method and I wish they would do it in a decided manner. If it was not for the fact that I might be ungentlemanly, I would like to disabuse my mind of some of the thoughts I have. It seems to me that it is proper for the members of this House to get on the floor and try to save the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, if there is merit back of the argument and if there were merit to the proposition, I would give my heart and my vote to that. I have voted on some of them but when you put them under the eye of scrutiny, you come right back to the motive and means that have prompted these amendments to be introduced, and you will find that the whole purpose is to delay these proceedings and to harass this administration. I had members of this House who were interested in these amendments come to me and lobby for them and they are taking as much interest in attacking these appropriations bills as they did when they tried to be elected to the office of Speaker of this House. I hope the House will sit down on this disgraceful proceeding. It is a disgrace to the State of Pennsylvania. It is a blot on her fair name.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I am not surprised at the remarks of the young man from Erie. I have sat here in this House from the time that I was a candidate for Speaker and I have seen him upon the floor of the House abusing his ability, sitting here as a legislator and his remarks to-night are but a culmination of his force in this Legislature. He speaks about the waste of time. I look back upon him masquerading as a Democrat, standing by a Republican administration, urging no other legislation than the legislation of the liquor lobby around and about this House. I am not, Mr. Speaker, surprised when I have an insult hurled at me, a stranger to him, when I consider that insult comes from one who has loaned himself away from his party, loaned himself to liquor legislation and given his time and his eloquence and his ability to the advancing of the legislation of the liquor laws of this Commonwealth. Mr. Speaker, I say that he has no right, either as a member of this House or as a man, to impugn the motives of either myself or other gentleman from Allegheny who, likewise, was unsuccessful in his candidacy for Speaker. When, you, Mr. Speaker, became the successful candidate of the different candidates for the Speakership, I joined with the others in casting my vote so that the vote might be unanimous in this House. Then we extended to you every courtesy that we could as members on the floor of this House. We did so because we felt it was due you and we have extended to every member of this House the courtesy that is deserved. We have extended to the gentleman from Erie, the courtesy that he has abused and from his conduct to-night indicates that he didn't deserve. He has no right, Mr. Speaker, to take his license on the floor of this House and attack any one of us who are standing here arguing for this general appropriation bill.

When he impughs the motives of myself, I contradict his statement. I say that I gave a pledge to the people when I was a candidate for the office that he says I now feel the sting of disappointment in not having. I have had the manhood to stand by those promises, and I ask the gentleman from Erie whether he likewise has shown the same manhood in standing by his pledges to his party and the pledges he gave to the people and the platform that he stood upon as a candidate. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry that any member of this House has so far forgotten himself in his zeal in opposing the position of some of us that he would indulge in personalities, but it shows to what extent some members will descend in attempting to stop those of us who have had the hardihood to withstand influence upon influence that has been brought to bear upon us in putting the light on this general appropriation bill. Mr. Speaker, possibly I should be more charitable to the gentleman from Erie. Possibly the same hand unseen that has directed his career as shown by his course on the floor of this House has directed those remarks tonight against myself and against the gentleman who stands side by side in the fight against these various amendments. Possibly I have been uncharitable. I have been compelled to answer, and I answer:. I deny that there is any spleen of disappointment. I would rather stand on the floor of this House with the independence that I have now, that I can look in any man's face and say, "No man is my master," than to have sat in that high office of Speaker of this House and either be an ingrate or be the agent of any political party, any political faction or any political leader. I started this session to fight, and I am going to continue to fight on until the session closes, and neither the slurring remarks of the gentleman from Erie, nor any other man, whether he be the highest man in the State or the lowest creature who holds a position on the floor or about the building of this House, can take me from the position that I have pledged to hold throughout this session.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I am glad that finally the House has gotten stirred up a little bit. It may be possible that I went too far, but I have no apologies to make, Mr. Speaker. I have been a Democrat—

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, what is the question before the House?

The SPEAKER. The question before the House is, will the House concur in the amendments offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Forster?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. STEEDLE. Then I rise to a point of order. The gentleman is out of order.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I suggest that the gentleman does not know what I am about to say. How does he know that I am out of order?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I refuse to be interrogated.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know as a matter of personal information whether the gentleman himself knows what he is about to say.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say that this amendment, along with other amendments, has been brought up in a foolish way, and without merit in them. Amendment after amendment has been voted down, and the yeas and nays are called time and again to waste the time of this House. It seems to me, Mr. Speaker, that you can see the handwriting on the wall as plain as if it were written in glowing letters, that this amendment, with others that have been introduced, as I stated before, have no other purpose than to annoy the administration, and I say that the amendment should be voted down. I am a Democrat, I will admit, Mr. Speaker; and I am proud of it, and if any one can go to my home or hunt up any action that I have taken in this House and question my democracy, perhaps with the single exception of having voted for two of the clerks who sit before us this evening, they will have to peruse the Legislative Journal farther than I think they can. I do not think, Mr. Speaker, that it is within the province of any man, whether he be a Democrat, a Prohibitionist, a Washing Party, or any other man to come down to this Legislative Assembly in the halls of the Legislature, and simply because the man who holds the executive authority in this Commonwealth was not elected on his ticket, that he should be branded from across the floor of the House as a traitor to his party, and that he came over, patch and breeches, and surrendered himself to the administration.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not speaking on the question before the House.

The SPEAKER. It scarcely seems to the Chair that the gentleman is confining himself to the amendment.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, if I may proceed with the truth in argument with the gentleman, I might say that it looks as thought there was nothing but politics in these amendments. I presume it is a mistake on this amendment or any other amendment to have called up a matter of this kind, but it seems to me to have been in the minds of members of the Assembly day after day that this was the only purpose in introducing this and several other amendments. It may be my privilege, Mr. Speaker, before this Assembly adjourns, to get this truth out in the right manner. It seems to me that there is much that could be said that possibly is not in parliamentary order upon this question, but when such frivolous and ungrounded arguments are advanced in favor of these amendments, it appears to me that they are for no other purpose than to tear this appropriation bill to pieces, for no other purpose than to harrass the Executive Department and this whole administration, and the people who are interested in it. These amendments seem to have been allotted to certain men to introduce them and the typewriters are burning up and the stenographers working overtime, it seems to me, to get them out. It must be important, gentlemen, for us to sit down on this procedure and sit down on it right.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a further amendment.

The amendment was read as follows

Amend Section 15, page 91, lines 4 and 5, by striking out the words "one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "one hundred thousand dollars"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, this item in the general appropriation bill is to provide the fund by which the advertising of the Constitutional amendments pending before the people of this Commonwealth may be paid before. In the general appropriation bill of last session, there was an item of $175,000 for this purpose. About two months ago, you will recall the discussion on the floor of this House over a bill providing for a deficiency appropriation. I need not go into that in detail to show you the extravagance pursued by some of the heads of departments of this Commonwealth in using State funds. I want to impress upon your minds the fact that the item for that purpose appropriated last session was exceeded to an extraordinary extent. In the appropriation bill for that purpose, the House provided the funds for that deficiency. Now, gentlemen, we have before us the fact that there was introduced in this House, I believe at the suggestion of the Secretary of State, a bill restricting the insertion of notices of proposed amendments to the Constitution to two newspapers in each county. Under that idea of the Secretary of State, $100,000 would be pretty nearly double the amount necessary to pay for this advertising. Mr. Speaker, I certainly feel that the members of this House should consider the scandal that the appropriation of last session occasioned and vote for this amendment.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bleloch.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLELOCH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask whether the gentleman can tell the House how many amendments to the Constitution have already been passed through the House.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I do not know, and I do not believe the gentleman from Delaware can tell this House how many have been passed.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman. I would like to ask whether the gentleman did not come to me when I had the bill, when it was on third reading, and request that the bill that I introduced limiting the publication to only two in each county—did not request me to have it amended to three papers in each county?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I did.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Now, Mr. Speaker, to cut down this item without some information as to what the probable cost will be in the next two years, to publish the amendments to the Constitution, which involves the question of republishing those which were published last year and to publish all of those that have passed this present session would be a mistake. In my opinion, I doubt very much whether $175,000 will pay the bill which, as a matter of fact, was exceeded the last time, and the newspaper men all over the State that did the work had to wait six to eight months for their pay; and whatever money is not necessary will again revert back to the treasury. But I think each and every member who knows how many were published during the last two years that will again have to be published this year, and all of those that have been passed this year, which will also have to be published, with after a little computation readily see that the amount asked here is not excessive. And to cut down this appropriation would be a great mistake. It will simply mean that the publishers all over the State of Pennsylvania will probably have to wait until another Legislature passes a deficiency bill to pay them for their work that they get by contract with the State. Certainly the State of Pennsylvania ought to have money available to pay her honest debts. I do not think the amendment ought to prevail and I hope the bill will pass as it is.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. R. J. Baldwin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Sure.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire from the gentleman from Delaware if the sub-committee on appropriations that had this bill under consideration did not get from the Secretary of the Commonwealth a statement upon which to base this amount.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would refer the gentleman to the Chairman of the sub-committee on appropriations, who is in the House.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Delaware. I would like to know if he has any idea of the space that will be required by the amendments which will be published in the next two years.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, not accurately; indefinitely, yes. And a greater number than has passed any session of the House I served in.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the intimation of the gentleman from Philadelphia that when the House bill limiting the advertisement to two papers in each county was under discussion on second reading or third reading, I do not recall which, that I asked him to amend to read three newspapers, I had for my guide at that time and I had at my hand worked up on that appropriation, on the appropriation for the advertisement that was then before the House an estimate that the 34 inches of space in something like four hundred newspapers in this Commonwealth would consume something like $69,000.00 if it were advertised in only three newspapers in each county of this Commonwealth.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to call attention to the fact that my statement on the floor of this House that if the Secretary of the Commonwealth adhere to his idea that two newspapers were sufficient, that a hundred thousand dollars would be twice as much as would be necessary to have the advertisements of these amendments for the coming two years. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to the vice in tying up the State's funds with an unlimited amount without any warrant. There has been lying idle in the State Treasury for years. and it has been a common scandal throughout the State that these moneys lie idle in banks that give credit to political parties and politicians. Mr. Speaker, it has not been very long ago since a big bank in Pittsburgh failed and the disclosure was made that the securities in the vaults of that company certainly confirmed that statement, and Mr. Speaker, I do not know but I believe there can be no purpose in tying up vast sums of money. It has been demonstrated here on the floor of this House, in the amendments that we have offered and the reasons therefor, that there are vast sums of money under the previous appropriation bills which are tied up in this manner and that there will be enormous sums lying idle in the State Treasury to serve some purpose.

Mr. Speaker, I say that the arguments adduced against this proposition to confine the necessary appropriations to the various departments to their various needs is a reason that should respond to the good judgment of every member in this House. Mr. Speaker, I would call the attention of this House to the fact that on this particular amendment that is now under consideration, that with these items in this bill and similar—Mr. Speaker, I forgot, I was on a new subject.

Mr. Speaker, I would call the attention of the House to the fact that this amendment is only reasonable. It is based upon calculations that I made in the previous argument and I say that the members of this House should certainly support it.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendment:

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Page 66, amend section 2, line 1820, by striking out the words "one hundred and six thousand dillars" and inserting in lieu thereof "sixty thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, in view of the attitude this House has taken in response to these amendments which look to the saving to the State of considerable sums of money. I believe it is almost a useless effort and it is further for me to say anything on it, but in view of the remarks of the gentleman from Erie on the last amendment offered by me, which I considered directed directly at myself, I think it is only fair to myself that I should state my position. When I came to this House I took upon myself a solemn oath—

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not talking on the amendment.

The SPEAKER. The explanation of the gentleman is in line with the amendment and he has the entire confidence of the House and will be allowed to proceed.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I feel that it is only due myself to state my position. When I took my position in this Legiature I took upon myself a solemn oath to do my duty as a legislator as I saw it. I have not and I do not propose to sit down and see acts put through here that I consider bad for this State. I believe it is my duty to oppose any acts which carry money with them which I believe could be used to a better advantage in other ways by this State. I am not capricious, I am not playing politics, but I am trying to save this State money. When I offered this amendment I did so with a view of saving this State about $46 000.00. It may seem like a paltry sum to the gentleman from Erie, but it does not to me. I say this because I believe it is unnecesary for this State to tie up $106,000.00 in the hand of a department to do [illegible] it will on the supposition that there is a possibility of some part of it being used. This department during the last session of the Legislature was appropriated $106,000. Out of that amount it used $50,000.00. It can certainly amply carry on its business with $60 000. Now if the gentleman from Erie thinks I am capricious in offering this, I say he is mitaken. If he says I am capricious, I say he is misinformed and I could use another word.

Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I think this amendment should be adopted. It should be adopted as a matter of economy and the question of politics should not enter into it at all.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, for information, I would ask the Clerk to read the letter of the Auditor General accompanying his communication, omitting the recital of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The letter will be read by the Clerk.

The letter was again read by the Clerk.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, the point I wish to make at this time is this: The gentlemen offering the resolutions bring out this one fact, that the appropriations of two years ago have not been expended, that there is till in the hands of the Auditor General an unexpended amount.

They would lead us to understand that there is an unexpended balance. The Auditor General, as I understand his letter as read by the Clerk, says that there is this unexpended amount, but that he cannot tell how much of it will revert to the State Treasury. Some of it is practically all used up but in other cases vouchers have not been submitted to the Auditor General as yet although there is an offset for the greater part. As a matter of fact practically all of the money appropriated two years ago has been expended by the different Departments.

Mr. FORSTER. Of course, Mr. Speaker, I only have before me this report of the Auditor General. The report shows an appropriation of $106,000. It shows the amount drawn, not the amount expended of $58,586.00. This is the total amount withdrawn from the Auditor General's Department by the Pennsylvania State Railway Commission. Of that $58,586.00 $53,197.00 was accounted for by vouchers, I am not saying any thing about the looseness of the system. $5.389.00 are not accounted for by these vouchers, leaving a difference between $58,586.00 and $106,000, or an amount of $47,414.00. Now, Mr. Speaker, I think that this appropriation of $60,000 is ample to carry on the expenses of this Department. In the last two years they drew out $58,586.00, and if the appropriation was $60,000.00 it would leave a leeway of over $1,200. There is no question but that the vouchers in this Department show that it spent that much money. Furthermore, it would seem to me that if we have the public utilities bill that there is a great question, an almost certain fact, that there will be no further use for this department.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, the Auditor General states in his report that he is unable to say what is the amount of the unpaid bills in the several Departments. It may absorb all of this balance. He cannot give us this information now.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I can inform the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, the exact amount that the State Railways Commission can use of their last appropriation over the $58,000 that they have drawn, and that is not one cent. On the thirty-first day of May the balance of the appropriation reverted to the State Treasury and, Mr Speaker, not having drawn the total appropriation, I call attention to the fact that it is not now available to that Department. The gentleman from Tioga has said that in the arguments we used as to the necessities of the different Departments that we have not taken into consideration the vouchers outstanding. I believe in every instance where we used that argument that we gave the figures to this House as to the amount actually drawn. Under those circumstances, Mr. Speaker, the excess appropriation is not now available to that particular department.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment and I desire to say in reference to this amendment that it applies to the Health Department. I have some other amendments here and in order that I might not consume too much time of the House, I will place this amendment before the House and follow it with another amendment which is a salary raiser amendment, and as the House expresses its view on this amendment, I will take it as its expression in regard to a great many other amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

> Amend section 2, page 65, lines 1778 and 1779 strike out the words "two hundred thousand dollars and insert in lieu thereof the words "one hundred thousand dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this is the first amendment that applies to the Department of Health.

This department has been increased in its appropriation from three million seven hundred thousand dollars to somewhere over four millions of dollars. This appropriation is a new appropriation altogether. It arose under the School Code and it applies to fourth class school districts for medical inspectors. As those who were here last session know it is optional whether there will be medical inspection for the fourth class school districts. The inspection I presume is to be expected unless it is positively refused. There are seventeen hundred districts that have not refused. At the present time forty-six have refused. That will allow the presumption that arose that some two thousand will have medical inspection under the Director of Health. The Appropriation Committee has set in the item two hundred thousand dollars. This places the new appropriation at one hundred thousand dollars. It was placed there arbitrarily. We have no knowledge as to the workings of the department other than what the reports have given us that we got from the Commissioner of Health. This is an amendment reducing the appropriation of two hundred thousand dollars to one hundred thousand dollars. In order to have the expression of the House on this question on record, I call for the yeas and nays.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, the Commissioner of Health in his report to this House in reference to this matter states this: There will be constantly fifteen hundred schools to be inspected on a cost for one inspection a year which will amount to a total of about seventeen thousand dollars. The clerical expense in checking up the work and writing letters to parents is about fifteen thousand dollars, making it a total cost for one complete inspection a year of eighty-five thousand dollars. Mr. Speaker, this being in its infancy, and merely an experiment, we must stop to consider that this only applies to fourth class school districts. We don't know whether this experiment is going to return to the State its money in value. We have no idea as to its advantage to the pupil, but, Mr. Speaker, the proposition to appropriate for this purpose two hundred thousand dollars is just one hundred and fifteen thousand dollars more than the estimate of the Commission for one annual inspection of these schools. I certainly think that in justice to the citizens of this State, we should say that here in this proposition to experiment, one inspection a year is sufficient to try out the scheme. Mr. Speaker, I certainly feel that this is an amendment that should be adopted by this House.

Mr. WALTER A. BLAIR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bleloch.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. WALTER A. BLAIR. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how much that department of health is spending to examine each pupil?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I do not. I have for my information the report of the Health Commissioner.

Mr. WALTER A. BLAIR. Mr. Speaker, what is that? Are there estimates per pupil?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, he does not give the estimates.

Mr. WALTER A. BLAIR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inform the gentleman what the physicians get for examining each pupil in a school: It is seven cents for each pupil.

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I don't criticise the appropriation or the compensation of the physician. We got what we did from the report of the Commissioner of Health. His estimate for one inspection annually for two years. He says that eighty-five thousand dollars will carry one inspection for two years and we submit to this House that one hundred thousand dollars is ample.

Mr. SWIFT. Mr. Speaker, I don't know that any remarks that I shall make will change the voice of any person here, in casting their ballot, but I think we need to be very careful at this point. There is nothing more vital to this State than the health of the people. Nothing can be more vital than to guard the lives of those afflicted and those who are not afflicted from affliction. I believe that we should not undertake at this point to curtail the health department in any way. We would do it with harm to ourselves and to our State. I believe that but few of us take time to inquire into what the Health Department of our State is doing. If we could examine the work done at Mont Alto we would discover what is being done.

The Mont Alto Sanatorium is the largest institution for he treatment of tuberculosis in the United States. Over one housand patients are continually under treatment.

The Medical Director is in charge with a deputy, a resient staff of competent physicians, laboratory experts, a druggist and nursing staff.

The Sanatorium is located in the South Mountain, Frankin County, in the heart of the State Forestry Reservation f fifty-five thousand acres.

The institution is made up of the following buildings: ining-room building, general hospital, administration buildng, childrens' building, seventy cottages, sixteen pavilions, four bath houses, a chapel, laundry, power house, nurses home, doctors' home, medical director's house and infirmary, stables and garage, ice house and sewage treatment plant. All of the structures have been carefully planned by the Commissioner of Health and located to allow a maximum of air and sun-light.

From 1907 up to March 31, 1913, there have been 9,208 admissions to the institution. Of these 45 per cent were in the far advanced or terminal stage. Thirty-eight per cent moderately advanced and seventeen per cent were incipe

The advantages to patients in this institution are numerous and the social life constitutes no inconsiderable advantage in aiding their improvement. The mental stimulus obtained from the contact with their fellow seekers after health is distinctly advantageous. When their physical condition permits they are allowed to perform light work around the spacious grounds and on the sanatorium farm.

The possibilities of providing amusement and entertainment for patients is fully utilized. The institution orchestra, dramatic club, monthly magazine and various other similar activities aid in encouraging and stimulating the patients.

In addition to all these advantages in the care and successful treatment of patients the size of the Sanatorium allows the maximum of these advantages at a minimum cost per patient.

The capacity of the Sanatorium at Cresson is at th present time three hundred and forty. This institution is located in the Allegheny Mountains, adjacent to the State's main artery of travel from east to west. Accommodations for both advanced and incipent cases have been made. The administration, dining-room building, etc., have been planned to allow an increased capacity by the addition of other wards without the necessity of expanding these administrative units.

This institution was planned by the Co Health and offers the same advantages of a maximum of sun-light and air for their patients.

The organization of the staff is identical to that of Mont Alto.

The Sanatorium at Hamburg is now in the course of construction and there is every indication that it will be finished within the time specified in the contract. This institution will have a capacity of four hundred and eighty beds.

There are two great wards connected by passage ways with dining-room and administration building. These ward buildings are so planned that they can be adapted to the use of advanced or incipent cases as may be required. The Sanatorium is located in the foot hills of the Blue Mountains in Berks County.

I need not try to tell this House the advantages of the treatment at these institutions or at any of the other institutions. It is a well known fact that recently another Sanatorium has been opened at Cresson and it is also a well known fact that it is rapidly being filled. It is also a fact that at Hamburg a sanatorium is now under the care of our Health Department and there are new and constant demands arising day by day and no one can tell what the demands will be merely to sustain these institutions. No one can tell at what time an epidemic may break out in some part of this State. In the Health Department those at its head are constantly on "the watch tower." Not simply eight hours in the day but from early morning until early morning again, day after day, watching the health of this State. It seems to me that we need to watch very carefully as to how we undertake to curtail this department, for all unconsciously we may strike a fatal blow at ourselves. I have facts here. Mr. Speaker, which might be of interest to this House, but I shall not read them or refer further to them. I trust this House will stand true to the Health Department of this State. I have understood that it leads in so far as it has accomplished what work it has done, all other states in the union. We lead in the work we have done. We are proposing to do it and that we must do, and I hope that nothing will be done at this moment which will in any way curtail the work of this department. Let us stand by it and by standing by it we shall stand by ourselves.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the adoption of the amendment.

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a further amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

> Amend section 2, page 59, lines 1602 and 1603 by striking out the words "seven thousand" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "six thousand."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this amendment I have now offered to the House; I intend to have this amendment answer for some thirty-three of these items. I think it is important and I want to call the attention of the House to this one fact, that these thirty-three amendments are amendments to either keep the salaries of the different officers down to what they are or to remove new positions. In other words, in this appropriation bill there are thirty-three tems fixing salaries or creating new positions which include thousands of dollars, increasing the expenses of this department. Now, this one amendment, for instance, that has been offered, decreases the proposed salary from $7,000 to $6,000. That is the position of Assistant Chief Medical Inspector, and from the Assistant Chief right on down to the stenographer the salaries are raised. Now, this amendment, with the other thirty-three amendments covering the thirty-three items, cuts down many thousands of dollars. I do think the House should give some very serious consideration to this amendment before you raise in this particular department this great number of salaries, including as I said many thousands of dollars. If it is the thought of the House that the Health Department should be given an unbridled course then there should be no restraint. If the House should vote for this amendment, I would then feel that you men should raise your voice against this general increase in salaries.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I understand that the position provided for in this item is that of Assistant Chief Medical Inspector. It seems to me that the salary of $7,000 for two years is not an excessive salary for the position and for the duties imposed upon the person occupying this position. I take it that this position requires considerable skill and certainly $3,500 a year is not a large salary.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I should further say to the House that when this Department was created, the fixing of the number of positions and the fixing of salaries was left entirely with the head of the Department. In other words, he can have as many employees as he wants, fix their salaries at whatever he wants, and depend upon the general appropriation bill for their salaries. Now we have found that originally in this department that each new appropriation bill has been used for the purpose of raising the salaries $500 to $1,000 each session up to the present time. Now these amendments to these thirty-three items carry as I say many thousands of dollars of increased salaries and newly created places.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The amendment was not agreed to.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer further amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

> Section 30, page 94, amend by striking out the entire section.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a further amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

> Section 21, page 92, amend by striking out the entire section.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this section should come clearly before the House. It is clearly beyond the purpose of government, clearly beyond the purpose of a general appropriation bill. It has no more right to be in this bill than an appropriation to the Fourteenth Ward Republican Club. For the several fire companies of the City of Harrisburg for the fiscal year beginning June 1, 1913, the sum of $5,000, to be distributed in equal amounts to and among said companies. Now, that clearly should not be appropriated. The State has no power to give such money as that to the fire companies by means of a general appropriation bill. It has just as much right in this general appropriation bill to ask for an appropriation to any social club or any social gathering in the City of Harrisburg or the State of Pennsylvania. Now surely this amendment should be adopted. In order to have the expression upon this character of appropriation, if the House will indulge me, I desire to have the yeas and nays.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT and Mr. ALLEN, and were as follows:

COMMUNICATION AGAINST APPROPRIATION TO WASHINTON AND INSURANCE TO BE FILED WITH THE STATE FIRE MARSHAL.

He also laid before the Senate the following communication which was read and referred to the Committee on Insurance.

Philadelphia Board of Trade, June 16, 1913.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met;

This memorial of the Philadelpha Board of Trade respectfully represents:—

That it is opposed to the passage of Senate Bill No. 1937, requiring the filing of applications for insurance with the State Fire Marshal at Harrisburg, as its provisions disclose a most cumbersome and entirely unnecessary burden upon the business public of this Commonwealth;

That if pasesd for the purpose of reaching a class of individuals who destroy their property for the insurance money, it will certainly fail of its purpose for such people would just as readily fill out the form of application provided in the said bill and afterwards burn their property.

That a very large amount of insurance is carried on merchandise in transit under open policies, the goods being covered as soon as shipped, the consignee having no knowledge of the value until after the arrival of the invoices. frequently several days after shipment. These risks are insured from point of origin to point of destination but not entered on the policy until after the arrival.

That few persons know the value of their buildings apart from the ground, an appraisal by experts would be necessary;

Therefore, your Memorialist, the Philadelphia Board of Trade for the above recited and other reasons earnestly protests against the passage by your honorable bodies of Senate Bill No. 1937 requiring the filing of applications for insurance with the State Fire Marshal at Harrisburg.

And your Memorialist will ever pray.

WM. M. COATS, President
Attest: Philadlephia Board of Trade.
W. R. TUCKER,
Secretary.

We are informed that a bill is pending to give State funds to Washington and Jefferson College. We as Trustees of the College adress you in its name and on its behalf and earnestly urge you to vote against any such bill.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resolve itself into Committee of the Whole on said bill for the purpose of general amendment.

Mr. CATLIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. CHARLES H. KLINE in the Chair.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 1, line 12, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 1, lines 17, 18 and 19, by striking out the words "except that the same shall not apply to nurses in hospitals nor to telephone operators in central offices of telephone companies or to the employes in hotels."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, in view of the same difficulty, I proposed yesterday concerning the amendment and re-amendment and re-reamendment and the possible misapprehension of the purpose of some of these amendments, I would most respectfully ask the Senator from Philadelphia to state just in what particular he proposes to amend the various sections.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, that will be done as we go along.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, this amendment strikes out the clause exempting nurses, telephone operators and employees of hotels under the age of sixteen years.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, I do not object to this amendment. As I understand it the telephone operators are taken care of in other sections.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 3, line 7, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 7 by striking out all of clause (B) from line 41 to 60, inclusive.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, this clause as I understand strikes out what is called in the bill the elestic clause and it binds the employer to employ the minors only fifty-four hours a week and not more than ten hours any one day.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend the motion to amend Section 7 by striking out in clause (a) page 9, line 6 the words "except as hereinafter provided in this Section" and add after the word "day" in line 6 the following:

Provided however that during weeks in which a legal or special holiday occurs and is observed by an establishment any minor may be employed by such establishment during three of the five remaining days of such week for a longer period of time than is allowed by this act but no female shall be permitted to work more than two and one-half hours overtime during any one of such three days nor for more than the maximum number of hours per week specified in this act.

The employment of such persons at any time other than as stated herein shall be deemed a violation of the provisions of this section unless it appears that such employment was to make up time lost on a previous day of the same week in consequence of the stopping of machinery upon which he was employed or dependent for employment but no stopping of machinery for less than thirty consecutive minutes shall justify such overtime employment nor shall such overtime employment be authorized until a written report of the day and hours of its accurrence and its duration is sent to the Commissioner of Labor and Industry.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion to amend the motion to amend?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, This amendment offered by me is simply making the hours fixed by the bill uniform with the women's bill that passed yesterday. It works no hardships on anyone and I ask that it be adopted. I want to say to the members of the Senate at this time in this Child Labor bill no child under sixteen years shall work anywhere in the State of Pennsylvania unless he has a certificate from the school authority as to his health and his ability to perform his work; secondly, that the certificate from the school authority must be given by a doctor and approved by the Secretary, who shall also certify that the child is capable to work and in a perfectly healthy condition. Now it seems to me that where a minor under sixteen is safeguarded as to his health and to any hardship that may be anticipated might be worked upon the child, this provisions will not permit that minor to work any more than the time allowed under the act in case of breakdown and the Committee came to the conclusion, after consultation with several members of the Senate and people in Committee, that it was a proper provision and I think the amendment should be accepted.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion to amend the motion to amend?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment as amended?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 7, line 80, by striking out the letter "(c)" and inserting in lieu thereof the letter "(b)".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 7 by inserting before line 61 a new paragraph as follows: clusive.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 7 by interting before line 61 a new paragraph as follows:

> "Provided that the aforesaid restrictions as to hours shall not apply to minors over fourteen years of age employed in the canning of fruit and vegetable products"

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 8, by striking out the balance of the section after the word "day."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I understand that this amendment strikes out the section granted to employees in glass works where children under the age of sixteen years are allowed to work at night. I understand that those boys of any age are taken in these glass factories between fourteen and sixteen, mostly to work at night, and I understand it is the only industry in the State where this is allowed and it is one of the sections that the people interested in the bill are extremely anxious to have taken out of the bill.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, I shall object to that amendment for this reason. Before the Committee when the glass workers made their addresses they told us that there were only five hundred and sixteen minors employed in the State of Pennsylvania in this business and by reason of the invention of machinery in the course of a year or two these boys will all be eliminated. They told us they had considerable money invested in their several plants and if this exemption was not to be granted, it would mean a dead loss at once. And they also stated to us that they believed that in the course of two years or three years there would not be any minors employed in the glass works. Now the Committee decided after hearing the petition, and I wish to state the Committee was presented a petition signed by a majority of pretty nearly nine-tenths of all the glass workers in the State, the fathers of these boys, these minors, and then by the minors themselves, asking that they be permitted to continue to work. Now we came to the conclusion that it would be a hardship for the manufacturers of glass to put them out of business in this way And as a period of two years will eliminate most of these boys, by reason of the machinery that has been installed in these several schools, we thought it was no more than proper and just that the Committee should allow the exemption prayed for and for that reason the Committee asks the members of the Senate to oppose that provision, which permits the glass workers to continue as they have, because that we believe that by the time the Senate meets again one-half of these five hundred and sixty boys will be out of the business because of this machinery that will be installed.

Mr. CROW. Mr. Chairman, Coming from a county where a considerable portion of the glass industry of the State is located, I want to say that including boys employed by glass companies in the provisions of this bill would be very disastrous to the companies. There is not a very great number employed. There help is of very essential value in those plants where machinery has not been installed. The boys are taken in there. The work is not hard, not burdensome, and not injurious to health and the boys go in the glass plants when they are thirteen to fourteen years of age and come out first class glass blowers. Keep them out until they are sixteen and they will have no opportunity to learn the trade. I hope the amendment will be voted down.

And the question recurring,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 13, line 3, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve;" also in section 14, line 7, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 9, line 2, by striking out the words ''person under eighteen years of age'' and inserting in lieu thereof the word "minor;" also in line 5, by striking out the word "four" and inserting in lieu thereof the word ''six;'' also in line 6, by striking out the word ''eleven'' and inserting in lieu thereof the word "eight."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, this amendment raises the age from eighteen to twenty-one years for messenger boys employed in night work.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, the Committee gave the Telegraph Companies a full hearing and also heard the objections on the part of the child labor people against this section. The Telegraph people tell us, and we believe them, that it is impossible to get boys or to get men twenty-one years of age to act as messenger boys. They inform us in the large cities of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Harrisburg that to get men twenty-one years of age to act as messenger boys would simply be impossible. In the first place the amount of compensation does not recompense men of that age, and in the second place he wants some other kind of work, and we agreed that we would fix it at eighteen years. The Committee agreed that the age should be eighteen years in regard to the certain hours and in regard to other hours the age should be sixteen, and for that reason we ask that the amendment be rejected and the provision adopted by the Committee should remain in the bill. It ought to appeal to the justice of every Senator that a boy twenty-one years of age to be a messenger is a "sis" and is more apt to go wrong than a boy of eighteen who is a good, strong and healthy boy.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, most of the messengers I have known are more fitted for a prize fighting ring instead of being a "sis" unless they live in Schuylkill County. I find most of them boys will take care of themselves and possibly a little too well. This amendment fixes the age at twenty-one and tries to get these boys between eighteen and twenty-one off the street. I think it is a fair amendment and ought to be adopted.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Chairman, if this bill is to protect the morals of the boys, why not pass an amendment to the bill prohibiting him from delivering any message to an immoral house. To my mind it is most ridiculous that the morals are going to be protected by any such legislation as this.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, in answer to the Senator from Philadelphia, the amendment does not apply to Schuylkill County at all because in Schuylkill County we have no messengers; every man is his own herald. However, let me say to the members of the Senate that the telegraph companies, when they appeared before us assured us that in no instance either in cities or in suburban towns like Harrisburg, and perhaps Philadelphia, do they permit their messengers to deliver messages or flowers or confections to places that are not proper and that they know because the vice commission keeps them informed of all places unfit for messengers to attend, and with that assurance we rejected this amendment and the Committee asks that the amendment be not agreed to. Let me say in reply to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, that under the law boys are not boys at twenty-one and if not in Philadelphia, I assure you somewhere else, a boy of twenty-one should be doing something else than being a messenger boy.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 16 by striking out the entire section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

> "Employment certificates shall be issued by the following officers for children residing within their respective school districts. In school districts having a district superintendent or supervising principal by such superintendent or supervising principal. In school districts having no district superintendent or supervising principal by the secretary of the board of school directors of that district. Provided that any district superintendent, supervising principal or secretary of the board of school directors hereby authorized to issue such certificates may authorize and deputize in writing any individual who is regularly employed by the board of school directors to act in his stead for the purpose of issuing such certificates but no certificates shall be issued by any individual to any child in or about to enter such individual's own employment or the employment of a partnership or other unincorporated association or corporation of which such individual shall be a member, officer or employe."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, either through inattention, or because I do not know, I cannot just exactly apprehend what is being stricken out and what is supposed to be amended.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, this is what is known as the certificate clause, that I understand applies particularly to parochial schools.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 19, line 2, by striking out the word "eighteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen;" also in line 15 by striking out the word "languages" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "language;" also by inserting after the word "facts," in line 33, the words "and upon receipt of such school records by the officer issuing employment certificates such certificates shall be issued without delay."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 19, line 18, by striking out the word "three" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, This applies to the grade children should have reached before they go to school, what they call the educational clause. The third grade as I understand, represents a year and a half schooling or represents three years of school and the fifth grade represents five and a half years of school, because children go to school at six and that would make their age, if they are fairly good scholars, eleven and a half years and by clause that now appears in the bill the only schooling that would be necessary for them to have would be to reach what would have been called in my time the secondary class. The demand of the people interested in the bill is that they should have at least a grammar school education.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, The reason the Committee changed the grade from five to three was because many of the foreigners have children who are employed in the mills as soon as they get here and it would be impossible to apply the same rule to non-English speaking people as you would apply to native born. Furthermore in making the grade three we considered the socalled champions and adherents of uplifting education in this Commonwealth and we thought that at least in this instance we would be willing to concede to Massachusetts and accept their proposition of three instead of five, and when we put in three we are doing what the champions of this bill say the most progressive state in the Union is doing, and the Committee thought it wise in view of the fact that it applied mostly to children of foreign born parents and in view of the fact that the education certificate is issued by the education authority, and for that reason rejected this amendment, and hope the Senate will not adopt the amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 24, line 12, by striking out after the word "boy" the balance of the section.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section amendment which desires that newsboys should be badged. I presented this amendment at the request of the people who are interested in this bill. I am also informed that the Senator from Schuylkill County has a Star Spangled Banner speech wherein he is to defend this Commonwealth and in order that this Senate may not have imposed upon it at this time a Fourth of July speech, I want to say that I personally do not believe in badging a newsboy, and I do not care as far as I am concerned what the Senate does in this matter. I hope the Senator from Schuylkill will save his Star Spangled Banner speech until next Fourth of July.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, We object to this amendment and we do it entirely in justice to that large body of the State, the newspapers, who have so kindly helped to pass every other section of this bill except the one in which they are interested. We believe the friends of legislation of this sort should be benefited, and since the newspapers want it, and they went to the people who are interested in this legislation, the Committee thought it wise and proper and just to listen to their wishes ,and for that reason the Committee put this section in and we ask the Senate to vote against this amendment and adopt the amendment as put in by the Committee.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 7, by inserting after line 60 a new paragraph as follows:

> "Provided that the aforesaid restrictions as to hours shall not apply to minors over fourteen years of age employed in the canning of food and vegetable products."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, as Chairman of the Committee that considered this portion of the bill, and by error neglected or forgot to put it in the bill, I would ask the members of the Senate to adopt this amendment. Now as I stated in the first place, no boy or girl can work in a cannery or laundry unless he first has a certificate from the school authorities, or a certificate from the doctor, a certificate as to his ability and capacity to do this work. As it is entirely seasonal and for a short period, the Committee came to the conclusion that it does not hurt the boys and girls or in any way affect their health or future. Now I desire to call the attention of the members of the Senate to this fact. The State of Pennsylvania is a larger municipality than a great many of the framers, and opposers and champions of this bill may know, and that canning is becoming a very important industry in this State by reason of the cultivation and culture of the fruit, apples, cherries, etc., and the peas and tomatoes, why the State of Pennsylvania will be in the forefront in a very short time. Therefore we submit that it is a proper amendment to put in. Now the sentiment, and it is largely sentiment, against this amendment, that it affects the health, etc., of the boys, it seems to me cannot lie, because it does not interfere with the boy for any considerable time and I pray for it the sanction of the Senate.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. Chairman, I want to say a few words in regard to this amendment. The amendment is very important, it is not only important to the man who is engaged in that line of business but to the community at large, because they are handling perishable goods. Now they cannot select their own time, as the elements are an important factor in ripening products and when they are ripened they can't select their time for putting them away and they have to put them away at that particular time. The next day they do not have anything to do, the next few days they do not have anything to do, they have to do it that day. Now getting back to the individual. The seriousness in not passing this would be that the consumer has to stand the burden if they have got to throw aside their products that should have been canned and could not be canned because of the hours. And the result is it comes right back to the consumer and he is paying for it. And I don't believe the State of Pennsylvania wants its industries to jeopardize their own interests.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President. I only want to say to the Senator from York that I would not want my future existence depend on the fortune that I would receive by the goods, or the value of the goods that were thrown away by the canneries in York or in any other county. The consumer is not going to suffer. That is just talk to my mind and it does not amount to anything. Yesterday. we heard that the tomatoes were going to get rotten and be destroyed and thrown away, if we did not let the women work. Now that the women are going to work, they are going to be destroyed because the children are unable to work, at certain ages. The truth is they are not going to be destroyed at all, and tomatoes are going to sell at the same old price that has existed in the City of Philadelphia, and I am now ready to take contracts on that question, so we need not worry about it. The act allows children between fourteen and sixteen years of age to work ten hours a day in these canneries, and that to my mind is sufficient work—a sufficient length of time for any boy or girl between fourteen and sixteen to work in any one day. If they need any extra help to can their produce, let them get the children of men and women and boys and girls over the age of sixteen to do this work, particularly now that they have the women who can work all night and all day under the bill passed yesterday. And I believe this amendment should be defeated by the Senate.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. Chairman, if this amendment carried, any child, either girl or boy sixteen years of age could work for any number of hours in a canning factory. There would be no limit whatever to the number of hours a child could work. It would not give any advantage at all, because this amendment would entirely except from the provisions of the act children working in a cannery. No child can work longer that ten hours a day and do good work. I believe the child can do more work in ten hours than he can in twelve or fifteen hours, and if the canners need help from any persons they have the power to employ a child over sixteen years of age. They might have to pay one dollar a week more, but it is better to do that than to make any child under sixteen years of age work more than ten hours a day, at any employment, and I trust that this amendment will be defeated.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. Chairman, I only want to say a few words in reply. In the State of Maryland—before proceeding I wish to state that the canneries in our locality are really a benefaction to these people. It comes during a period of the year they do not do anything else, they do not go to school, and they do not have anything to do. It only lasts for a short period, and it is really a benefaction to these localities. They earn sufficient to go to school all winter. Here is Maryland, who has exempted them, Michigan, Maine, Indiana, Ohio, California, Delaware and Iowa, and I see no reason why this amendment should not be passed.

Mr. VARE. Mr. Chairman, when the manufacturers first came to this Senate as well as the House to get help restricting these child labor bills, they were glad to get 54 hours a week and not more than ten hours in any one day, and it seems to me that since the Senate has been liberal with the women workers now they come around and say that ten hours is not enough for the child who ought to be going to school. There is not a Senator sitting in this room who would let one of his children work more than ten hours in a factory. I desire to interrogate the Senator from York, Mr. Wasbers.

The Chairman. Will the Senator from York, Mr. Wasbers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. Chairman, I will.

Mr. VARE. Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask him if one of his children was working, would he be willing to let him work more than ten hours a day?

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. Chairman, in answer to that question, I worked before I was sixteen years of age, and I worked all night, sir and it didn't hurt me, for I simply worked because I was compelled to. I was under sixteen years of age, and I want to say that a great many more men in this body worked before they were twelve years of age. And I don't think it interfered with them at any rate.

Mr. VARE. Mr. Chairman, I wish to answer that I did the same thing, but I would like to have laws passed to have it stopped. Every Senator knows that a child under sixteen years really ought to be going to school, but if his parents are not able to send him to school. he must go to work because they need support and money. We certainly ought to protect them against over-work. Just the time when a boy is developing toward manhood, fourteen to sixteen years, is the main time when his health should not be tampered with, and I think these people are ridiculous who come here and say ten hours isn't enough work for a child to do. The fact that these tomatoes are going to spoil does not concern us. If you want fifty boys to work fifteen hours a day, get seventy-five boys to work ten hours, and you will get the same result. I hired laborers since I was twenty years old and already hired enough labor to do the work, and after I got through with them, I laid them off. There isn't anything in this talk at all

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, I hesitate to disagree with so eminent a gentleman and so kind a man as the Senator from Philadelphia, but he is in error in this respect, and I am sorry I must say this. The manufacturers, and I hold no brief for them by the way, are not insisting upon this amendment. This amendment as asked for by men who live out in the country, who do good by employing children to gather the tomatoes, gather the green peas and gather corn and above all they work in the open fields and in the sunlight which these uplifters say the children are not permitted to have, and furthermore, who are most of these boys and girls who are employed in the canneries and in the fields to gather these fruits? Are not they the girls and boys of Italians, of Poles, and some Russians from the south of Russia, where adolescense comes quicker than in the northern countries. Why most of the girls fourteen and fifteen years old are women and the mothers of children. They have arrived at the age when children in northern climes are still infants, and I submit to have a girl or boy between fourteen and sixteen or between twelve and sixteen, working out upon the fields is not a hardship. Now I think it, however, that the men in Pennsylvania are not oppressors of women and children, but want to give them a fair show to make a fair living. You know we read a great deal of boys being denied the right of swimming in the pools, and running across the hills and so forth. That is very beautiful, but on the other hand not an uplifter not a philanthropist in this State has stood up in the Senate or House providing a place for these boys and girls to go to school. Do you know that one-fourth of the boys and girls can not attend school, because the authorities of this Commonwealth have not provided schools for them to go to. Not one of these uplifters, not one of these millionaires, who are here whether in pursuance of the policy of remorse or restitution at the expense of the State, and care little. Not one of them has proposed a scheme or plan by which these boys and girls who work for a living can get an education and the parents be cared for while they are getting education. It is well enough for the gentleman from Germantown and for the gentleman from lower Philadelphia to talk about the injuries to the boys and girls. I know that there are a number of men in this Senate who worked before they were twelve years of age and pride themselves on the fact that they were taught to work then and if they hadn't been taught to work then, they would be loafers today. You look at the healthy boys and girls. They talk about the aenemic and oppressed children. Under this bill a child cannot work if he is not healthy. He must have a certificate. Every member of this Senate works when he is not well, and members of the House too and these uplifters the same way with them. They are all aenemic looking fellows, the women are all aenemic, and under this bill they could not work because the doctor wouldn't give them a certificate. They are not well enough to work. It is all right to be sentimental before academies and schools of science or before a large convention, but we are dealing with practical facts; we are dealing with the interests of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and by the way Pennsylvania is rich because its men were taught to be industrious and frugal and because the women work on the farms and in the factories. Look at the state below you, look at the states west of you, look at New York, look at Massachusetts, if you please, where their women are as barren as their hills. It is a matter of fact that the State of Pennsylvania is great because of its many industries. Now the industrial affairs of this State represent $750,000,000. $250,000,000 of which is in Philadelphia, alone. Not one, not a single person, not a woman interested in this great uplifting movement has a dollar of interest in this great and magnificent wealth that has made this State. Now, they say the State of Pennsylvania ought to provide a place for them to go to school. I have been trying for some time to get the State of Pennsylvania to provide places for children to go to school. But it is a poor business proposition. But I cannot find an uplifter who will help. I cannot find a newspaper who will help, because there is no exploitation in that matter. It is a pure business proposition, an economic question. Let the State of Pennsylvania provide schools for the boys and girls. Let them provide places of employment for the mothers of the boys and girls and I will agree every boy and girl shall not work a stroke before the age of sixteen. But when you do that you will soon fall back to the condition of Rome which fed its citizens out of troughs, and out of their hands. Now, when these uplifters are willing to feed the people, but want to do it at the expense of the State, I am against it, and I ask the members of the Senate to vote against it.

I am here under forcible obligations, first as a Senator, second as an attorney, third as an Elk, who swears to protect children in their tender age, fourth as a father and fifth as a citizen of this State, and I submit there is not a man in this Senate or in the House or in any of these committees who has greater regard for his sons and daughters than I. I am in this Senate because of no uplifting movement. I come from a county where everybody works, and just as soon as they quit their work they take their money and move to Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and begin this uplifting movement. Pennsylvania has become wealthy through her magnificent industries, and men, women anud children. Remember what Christ said to the young man who was rich and who had done everything except give away his wealth. He went his way and has not been heard of since. They will be like that same rich man. They will go their way and you won't find them anywhere except at the seashore and at conventions. Doing nothing for the uplifting of the children which their own wives don't wish to bear in the future. Now I submit, stand by the men who made this State. These people, gentlemen, who are uplifters are like the vine which grows upon the mountain pines, which grows up in a day and the sun withers it, but it holds up its head—it says "Look at me, what I have done in a day it took you a hundred years to do," and that is the way with these uplifters, every one striking at the party and at the principle and at the policy that made this State great, and I ask you in the interest of this great Commonwealth that you make its men industrious, that you make them frugal and that you give them a chance to work and not make loafers out of them.

Mr. McILHENNY.. Mr. Chairman, The characteristic speech of the gentleman from Schuylkill was very interesting but unfortunately not on the point. What we are discussing is whether there shall be an exemption on the part of the canneries. If this amendment carries, it will take the canning industry entirely outside of the bill, and that the children work any number of hours in the day, in other words, to work children under sixteen years of age in the canning industry, and not in the field more than ten hours a day. And if you want to work the whole families in the canning factories after six o'clock at night you had better turn out the children under sixteen years of age and let them go home and let the others work the rest of the time.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. Chairman, I just heard here remarks of some of the Senators on boys who worked when they were twelve years of age. I was one of those boys myself, but I can recall when I was twelve years of age the boys had the opportunity of going to those farms and developing themselves—the boys and the men had the opportunity, and I suppose you all recall in the City of Philadelphia when the streets were lined morning and night with the products of the farm on the wagon. Now the canneries that they are talking about at the present time. It would be well to-day if the people could go back to the farm and have the products of the farm delivered in the city, as they were years ago. Just a few weeks ago there was a fight on the floor for putting the food-dopers out of business in the canneries. The canneries came into existence some years ago, and from that day to this the consumers of stuffs that grow on the farm have been denied the opportunity given them years ago. I do not suppose there is a man here from Philadelphia who cannot recall in the streets watermelons, canteloupes, peaches, potatoes, string beans, green peas, and everything was distributed to the consumer in the city in those days. The canneries have stopped that and they have gone out of business, and if they would not work over ten hours the people would have an opportunity to get those foodstuffs again.

Mr. VARE. Mr. Chairman, my friend from Schuylkill County, Mr. Snyder, doesn't talk on the point at issue at all. He talks about the philanthropists and the millionaires, why they do not uplift the boys, etc. The question it seems to me, is the same question we had yesterday, whether ten hours of hard work in a factory is enough for a boy or not. So far as I am concerned, after you get ten hours out of a boy, you get the best in the boy. I think you have got the best in him. That being the case, I hope the Senate confines the number of hours to ten for these boys. If the uplift and growth of the State depend upon boys working twelve and fifteen hours, I think the State is in a bad way.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. Chairman, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the remarkes made pro and con regarding this proposed amendment. I want to say at the outstart, I am in favor of these amendments exempting these canneries. They are largely in the country. I know of one community not in my section of the State. where there are employed the number of about 500 for a period of some eight weeks during the summer and autumn season. That factory or canning establishment in that community often employs some 150 people, and many of them boys and girls. These people are not wealthy people, and this industry is the only industry established in that particular place. Boys and girls of families earn a little money that enables the older members of the family to attend the normal school of this State. That place that I spoke of is Bakersville, in Adams County, and not in my own county. I do not know of any specific instance of any person working in the canneries who has been injured. Injury does not come so much by excess of labor as by excess of dissipation. I do not know of a man who is a member of this Senate who has ever injured himself by over-work. If so, let him stand up. We live in a country where our Coat of Arms, it has been said, is our shirt sleeves. Representing a county which has a large growing fruit industry, I know that the boys and girls employed in that factory or these factories are not injured, and I do not know but it would be a good thing for the boys and girls who live in cities and who live in environments that are not good, who come from the very poor class of people, and are not very familiar with the sanitary laws, if they would be compelled to go out and work in some such employment. I am not in favor of extending the hours of labor to these minors beyond ten hours. The truth is according to reliable data, the average hours per week in these canneries is only something like forty-five and one-half hours, and the season is only a short one. Now this is not an unwholesome employment, so to speak. Much of the labor done is done primarily, so to speak, much of this fruit is taken home. Some of this is done by the day, to be sure, but much by the quart or pound, and therefore these people who work are not compelled to work longer than they want to work. But don't deprive them of the opportunity of working. But that which appeals to me in this. I have here in my hands the dictation of the laws relating to this subject in other States of this country. In the State of Maryland, that is on one side of us, in the State of Delaware, in the State of New Jersey, in the State of New York and in the State of Ohio, this exemption prevails. Then why place upon one of our industries the handicap that the other States do not have. Let us be fair to our industries. I live in a community midway between the State of Ohio and the State of New York, and I know that those who work in factories up that way could easily go into New York and Ohio and work as long as they want to. I am pleading for an opportunity for these people who have asked for it to have that opportunity to work.

Mr. VARE. Mr. Chairman, it was said here on the floor of the Senate yesterday that New York tried working under this proposed amendment, but got rid of it and did away with it, and if they did away with it in New York, why do we want it in Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

A division was called for by Mr. McIlhenny, whereupon 17 Senators voted in the affirmative and 14 Senators in the negative.

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 20, line 2, by striking out the word "eighteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen;" also in line 9 by striking out the word "eighteen and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen;" also in section 21, line 9, by striking out the word "eighteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen;" also in section 22, line 13, by striking out the word "eighteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen;" also in section 22, line 17, by striking out the word "sixteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve;" also in section 25, line 2, by striking out the word "twenty-five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-four;" also in section 26, line 3, by striking out the word "twenty-five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-four;" also in section 26, line 5, by striking out the word "nineteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "eighteen;" also in section 27, line 2, by striking out the word "twenty-seven" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-six;" also in section 27, line 12, by striking out the word "twenty-seven" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-six;" also in section 29, line 13, by striking out the word "eighteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen;" also in section 31, line 10, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve;" also in section 31, line 16, by striking out the word "nineteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "eighteen;" also in section 32, line 5, by striking out the word "fifteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "fourteen;" also in section 32, line 6, by striking out the word "eighteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen;" also in section 32, line 12, by striking out the word "thirty-one" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "thirty;" also in section 33, line 11, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve;" also in section 34, line 3, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve;" also in section 34, line 11, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve;" also in section 36, line 7, by striking out the words "forty to forty-five" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "thirty-seven to forty-two;" also in section 36, line 35, by striking out the word "nineteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "eighteen;" also in section 40, line 6, by striking out the word "twenty-five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-four" also in section 42, line 4, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve;" also in section 42, line 22, by striking out the word "thirteen and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve;" also in section 43, line 8, by striking out the word "thirteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

It was agreed to.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. Chairman, I move to amend section 7, line 5, by striking out the word "fifty-four" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "forty-eight;" also in section 7, line 6, by striking out the word "ten" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "eight;" also in the same line by striking out the words "except as hereinafter provided in this section."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Chairman, as Chairman of the Committee, and the Committee object to that amendment, so that the Senate may understand this amendment, it would fix the hours at 48 hours per week and 8 hours per day. The Chairman of the Committee and the Committee itself after due consideration came to the conclusion that to have uniform hours of work for women and children is the only proper thing in all of these industries. To have two shifts of workers, one of eight hours and one of ten hours in some factories would bring about complications, and interruptions and misunderstandings. And I submit in order to make it a companion bill to the woman bill, this amendment should be defeated.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. Chairman, I imagined that this perhaps was the cause of the putting in of the ten hours instead of the eight. I can see some reason for it, and yet it strikes me that when our Government is getting the employees down to eight hours and nine hours for men, adults, and the adult women, and we are limiting them to ten hours, why should we not give the chilldren some of the benefit underneath that. There has been considerable said here to-day relative to the opportunity of labor and yet I believe everyone here will turn back to the days of their youth when they wanted some little bit of recreation. The boy must have recreation. The girl must have recreation. And if you work them up to ten hours, where do they get their recreation? I hope every Senator here will take this into consideration. The most tender age we have in children, the age when they are growing and developing, changing life, from twelve to sixteen years, and to work them ten long hours six days in a week, I declare it is not right. It is liable to degenerate them, and I hope every Senator here will take this into consideration. It may prove a damage to the employer, but which is the worst that he shall be damaged in his work and have to put on a new person, or that the rising generation shall be injured and have their growth stunted. Several of the states already have this; fourteen states have already passed laws in which it is only eight hours per day. Massachusetts, the greatest texile state in the United States, has just passed an act by which they limit child labor to eight hours a day. Now, there are more texile works, more machinery and more factories in that state to the square mile than in any other state of the Union. If they can adopt it, why should we not?

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Chairman, I move the Committee of the Whole do now rise.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. Chairman, I second the motion.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1415 (House No. 1614), entitled:

An Act authorizing the attachment of wages or salary upon judgments obtained for necessaries limiting the amount of exemptions to be claimed and providing for the payment of the costs

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to amend section 2, line 8, by inserting between the word "costs" and "shall" the words "together with an attorney fee of five dollars to be paid to the attorney for the employer appearing for him in any such statement proceedings."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I happen to be an attorney and I think that this amendment, while I am in favor of the bill, would be rather unfair, because of the fact that there are very few cases in Pennsylvania where attorneys are allowed to collect their fees. There is a certain sum allowed by court in certain attachments, but I feel that in a case such as this where you are attaching the wages of the employees, that the clause paying attorneys should not be inserted in the bill.

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, The average employer is not able to make out the papers in cases of this kind to go before a squire or magistrate, and he has got to employ an attorney to take care of that, and this provides for the man who wants to collect the bill or wages to pay the costs or pay an attorney in place of it coming off of the wage earners.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, It strikes me this amendment ought not to pass.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection?

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

A division was called for whereupon twenty Senators voted in the affirmative and ten Senators voted in the negative.

So the question was decided in the affirmative.

PRAYER

The chaplain, Rev. J. E. Wright, offered the following prayer:

O God, we thank Thee for this world which Thou hast given us for our home, this world so beautiful as we look upon it to-day, with its summer decorations, with its robes of gorgeous coloring and splendor. We rejoice in mountain and river and valley, In flowers and fruits, in orchards and vineyards and grain-bearing fields. We thank Thee for the capacity to enjoy all this and in some way to appreciate its usefulness and value. In the multiplicity of the gifts may we not forget the giver; may we recognize the fact that Thy generosity towards us calls for continued expression of reverent thankfulness, and that Thy consideration for ous welfare and needs should be returned to Thee in service. And may we also recognize the fact that the most effective service we can render is that which finds expression in that phrase of the scripture "The beauty of holiness." And so may we be faithful unselfish, sincere and honest, abounding in the work of the Lord, trying to be at all times and under all conditions what we ought to be. We ask it in the name of Him who has taught us to say: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy name; Thy kingdom, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven; give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL NO. 791.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a committee of conference on the part of the House on Senate Bill No. 791, Messrs. McCaig, Kenna and Leslie, to Confer with a similar committee appointed on the part of the Senate.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The SPEAKER. The Special Order fixed for yesterday morning at 11 o'clack, which was displaced by the extended consideration of the general appropriation bill, will now be laid before the House.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1402 (Senate Bill No. 421), entitled:

An Act to repeal the act entitled "An Act to provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the poor in the county of Washington" approved the sixth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty and to repeal the first four sections of the act entitled "A supplement to an act entitled 'An Act to provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the poor in the county of Washington' passed the sixth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty and also 'An Act to incorporate the Monongahela Manual Labour Academy'" approved the twenty-ninth day of March Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six and to repeal the act entitled "A supplement to the laws for the relief and support of the poor in the counties of Washington Green and Fayette approved April sixth one thousand eight hundred and thirty" approved the thirtieth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five so far as it relates to Washington county

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BRAWNLEE. Mr. Speaker, it ought not be necessary to say anything on this bill, but because of the vicious attacks that have been made upon it by my friend from Allegheny every time it has appeared here, and it has appeared here a number of times, it seems necessary to explain what we want. It is a repeal of a local law, so far as it effects Washington County, and that county alone, repealing the law affecting the poor. Prior to the constitution of 1847 there were many special poor laws. After the constitution, a general act was passed in 1879 creating or making each county a poor district. Under that general law thirty-two counties in the State are now acting. The act sought to be repealed was passed in 1830, under which we have a poor board of three members. Now, the people of Washington County are dissatisfied and have been for many years with this special law. They believe that the provisions of the general law of 1879 would be more satisfactory to the county. Our poor boards have no power to levy taxes, but simply go to the county commissioners with their requests for money. There has been constant friction between the commissioners and the Poor Board and our people feel that is an unnecessary Board and that it is simply the expenditure of $3,000, $1,000 to each member of the Board, when the same work could be accomplished by the County Commissioners. Now the people of Washington County want this; nine tenths of them who know anything about it. This bill was advertised for thirty days prior to the beginning of this session. It has been talked over in our county ever since, and I have yet to hear a word of protest against it except from the Poor Board. Now, Mr. Speaker, there is no reason in the world why this bill should not pass, except that it puts out of office the members of the Poor Board, and we are just as sorry for that as anybody.

We are not after the Poor Board. We are particularly friendly to them, personally and politically, and I am more friendly to the Poor Board than I am to the County Commissioners, and if a change has to be made, if a change ought to be made, there is no time when it wont rip out of office the tail end of two terms, because the Poor Board are elected at different times, one each year, and the time will never come when their terms will expire together. Hence, it is absolutely necessary to rip the tial end off of two terms. Now, gentlemen there is no politics in this. I know that it has been injected into this House by a certain gentleman that this is a political measure, that the Progressives and Democrats of Washington County are trying to rip out the regular Republicans. I brand that as a falsehood. The regular Republicans of Washington County are entrenched in the Commissioners Office and that is where we propose to put the care of the Poor. If there was any politics in this gentlemen, this would be the last thing in the world that we would be doing.

Now what are the objections to this? I have just heard wo words, one of them is the word I mentioned, the 'ripper,'' and the other is, it will leave the real estate f the Poor Board in the air, without ownership. Now, gentlemen, there is absolutely nothing of that kind. I ave authorities in abundance to sustain me, but as the uestion was raised by the gentleman from Allegheny the ther day I want to mention it. It is true that the real state of the Poor Board is vested in the Poor Board as rustees, but only as trustees and on the passage of this Act, if it is passed, these Commissioners will succeed as the rustees of the Poor and the real estate will vest in them. can cite you to a number of cases in the Supreme Court irectly on this question and there is absolutely no question, ut what the real estate of the Poor Board will vest in he Commissioners as trustees. Now outside of that I do ot know that there is anything I ought to say except this, entlemen: It has been said here on this floor time and ime again, that where a community or a county were nited on a piece of legislation effecting nobody but themelves, that this House ought to give them that legislation. This is a piece of legislation that effects neither directly or indirectly any county in the Commonwealth but our wn county, and our delegation is united on it, both Senaorial and Representative, and our people are united on it, without regard to politics or faction and I hope this House will give us a fair, square deal on this and pass this bill

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, a few days ago, or rather few weeks ago, this bill appeared on the Calendar and at hat time it was called to the attention of the House, the act that this was a plain ripper bill.

When the suggestion was made to the House as to the onditions and provisions of this bill, it being in point nd in fact simply a ripper and when the further attention f the House was called to the fact that under the powers f this board which was created under the act of 1830, mended in 1836, that the Poor Board in this particular istrict, as now being attacked by this bill, was the owner n fee of about 231 acres of land and that no provision was made in this bill whereby that land could be properly isposed of, this House, in its wisdom, at that time, openly xpressed its sentiment in oppositon to this bill. It was uggested at that time, Mr. Speaker, notwithstanding the ipper features of the bill, that the bill be referred to the ommittee and be amnded in proper form and that was mentioned at the time, and met with no open opposition. The bill was properly referred. A few days ago a motion was made to discharge the Committee from the further onsideration of the bill. On the vote as reported, 63 members of the House saw fit to discharge the Committee rom the further consideration of this bill and the bill s once again before the House in identically the same orm in which it was recommitted to the Committee.

Now, Mr. Speaker, it may be said, it has been suggested n favor of the repealer which is now offered, that this oard is a Board created by special act. Very true; but ou must consider also and take into consideration the urther fact that when it was so created under a constituonal provision of the then Constitution of the State of ennsylvania, which allowed legislation of this kind. The oard was duly created and acted upon its authority. From me to time it received such persons as according to the ise provisions of the law creating the Board were to be onsidered and were considered eligible for admission to at institution. The increment of moneys coming into ands by due process of law reached certain sums and in e time contracts were made for the erection of permanent omes, grounds were acquired and deeds were made for ese grounds. The question was brought to the attention the Court in Washington County by the Directors of this ome and against the Commissioners of Washington County, e directors claiming the right to hold and own and control e property which had been brought for poor purposes nder provisions of law and claiming their right and title the property under the original creative act for this oard as supplemented by a subsequent act. In passing on that question which was only some few years ago, long fter the new constitution was made, long after the general ll for the creation of the Board was written upon the atute books, the court passed upon all of these acts which ere and which are now under consideration in the matter this bill and the court then and there directed, if you ease, that the deed to the property be made to the Directors of the Poor for the purposes specified in the original act and that deed stands upon the records of Washington County today. Now looking only to this matter for the time being as a matter of law, this Board and entity, made such by the creative act of 1830, this Board is today the absolute owner in fee simple for the purpose of carrying into effect the act of 1830 and its supplements and there is no other Board, there has been no other Board created by general act or otherwise, if you please, Mr. Speaker, that on the ripping out of office of this particular Board can take its place. No. Why Because that ownership is acquired in a special and specific way and under provisions of a special and special act which has been refused and re-refused by the court and on which the courts up to this time stand on that one single proposition. If then, unfortunately this Board should be ripped out of office by the passage of this act, what,—and I ask any gentleman of this House,—what becomes of the 231 acres of land and all the improvements on that land which is in the owner this day without some provisions being enacted which will say that property shall pass in a certain way. You take away the owner. You wipe the owner out absolutely and it is not as if you were dealing with a single individual who might be the owner. The law already provides who his successor shall be. The law makes that wise provision, but under the provisions of the law which created this Board there was no successor except the successors in office under the provisions of the creative act and under none other act. Now by taking away the very life blood of that institution, by wiping that institution as such off the statute books by eliminating it by any entity by killing it absolutely and leaving the matter without subsequent distribution provided for, that property then hangs in the clouds, so to speak. There is no provision for successorship. There is no provision for ownership, there is no provision for control; and further than that, there is no provisions for the purposes for which that property shall be used, save and except the provisions of the bill under which it was acquired and owned and under which it is this day held. So much as to the legal proposition and that Mr. Speaker, to any one who has no selfish interest,—and I am not speaking on this matter, as has been suggested by the proponents of this bill, from a political standpoint, but I am speaking on this matter from a legal standpoint and from an equitable standpoint and the standpoint of justice between man and man.

Now take the other side of the question. It has been said that the great majority of people of Washington County are in favor of this bill, that nine out of ten are in favor of this bill. I do not challenge that statement, but I do say, Mr. Speaker, that if nine out of ten people in Washington County are together on some one proposition it is an anamalous condition to find in Washington County today, especially when a political matter is in evidence and it has been suggested by the gentleman from Washington County that this matter is more or less political. Why, if that be true, that puts a great big question mark after the very statement that nine-tenths of the people of that county are a unit in favor of this matter. In the first place I believe, and I sincerely believe from all that has been stated to me that a vast majority of the people of Washington County are opposed to this same matter. You may say that I do not know anything about Washington County, that I am far removed from there. Washington County and my district, which I in part represent, is like the great metropolis of Pittsburgh on the other side. We are only separated from Pittsburgh by an imaginary line, and streets and alleys. When I have been out with the old campaigners, who led the way and fired the way through the forests, we frequently found ourselves across the Allegheny County line, electioneering over in Washington County. It wasn't bad work at that, because there is an intimacy between the people of our country districts, there is an intimacy that really makes us feel like brothers. My good friends across the border have been with me before, but today I do not know whether they are in my corner or not, but these people have appealed to me to represent their cause in this matter. I have stated the matter to you from the legal standpoint as I see it and as I believe it to be true. Further than that, and just a word along this line, this House on matters of this sort has at all times frowned on matters of ripper legislation. I believe that so far as this House is concerned altogether as it is from all over the State of Pennsylvania, that the sentiment of nine-tenths of the members of this House frowns upon and is not in favor of ripper legislation. If anything had been presented to the members of this House, showing that the poor commissioners in this county, who have stood as a board from 1830 down to the present time, during any of those years if the Board had been guilty of any acts of which they should not have been guilty, or if it had been neglectful of its duty, or if they had squandered any of the funds with which they were entrusted, or if they had refused to take care of those who were entrusted to their care under the provisions of the bill which created them, if there had been one single word stated upon the floor of this House why the old Board should now be absolutely executed, then, and in that event, there might be some ground for some member of this House to vote in support of this bill. There has been nothing of that kind, there has been no showing along those lines. The matter as presented here on its face is a ripper with a sinister purpose, for that purpose and for no other purpose, because if there were those who are in favor of this legislation being enacted have the nerve, and I know that they have the nerve and should have it, to stand upon the floor of this House and tell us why it should be passed, just now, as a neighbor, stand upon the floor of this House and tell you why it should not be passed.

Mr. BROWNLEE. The gentleman has swelled the Legislative Record and has told you that this real estate would be up in the air if this act is passed. I challenge the gentleman to produce or cite any authority supporting that assertion. If it is merely his own opinion I would like to have him so state to the House. I can cite the case of Straub and the case of Rose vs. Beaver County, 20 Sup. Ct. 110, and other cases directly on this question.

In the case of Straub v. City of Pittsburgh, reported in 138 Pa. 356, that case construed section 17 of the act of June 14, 1887, P. L. 395, which was entitled "An Act in relation to the government of cities of the second class." The 17th section of that act provided as follows:—

> "To the department of charities shall be confided the care, management, administration and supervision of the charities, almshouses and hospitals, and all other similar institutions, the expenses of which are paid out of the city treasury."

In Struab case it was decided that by the provisions of the act of '87, above referred to, the powers and duties of the board of guardians of the poor of the city of Pittsburgh were transferred to the department of charities of that city, and that though, at and before the passage of the act of '87, the legal title to the city poor farm was in said board of guardians of the poor, the board was but a naked trustee of the title, the beneficial ownership being in the city, with full power of sale in its councils under section 12 of said act. The decree of the Allegheny County Court in this case was affirmed by the Supreme Court in a per curiam opinion. In the opinion of Judge Ewing in the lower court, he says:—

> "The Pittsburgh City Poor Farm, situate in Mifflin township, Allegheny county, with all the improvements thereon, was wholly paid for by the sale of property belonging to the city, and by taxes levied on the entire city therefor. On June 14, 1887, the legal title to this property was in the board of guardians of the poor of the city of Pittsburgh. This board was elected by the city councils and performed the municipal functions of caring for the poor of the city. The board was but a trustee of the title, with no interest otherwise in the property. It was in no sense a private corporation. * * * * By act of May 25, 1887, P. L. 263, the board was authorized to sell the poor farm, with consent of councils, and from the proceeds purchase other lands in Allegheny county, and erect buildings thereon and pay the balance in the city treasurer. By virtue of the act of June 14, 1887, P. L. 395, relating to cities of the second class, i. e. Pittsburgh, the powers and duties of the board of guardians of the poor were taken and transferred to the city councils and to the Department of Public Charities. Assuming for the present the acts to be constitutional * * * * upon the re-organization of the city government under the act of June 14, 1887, all the powers and duties of the board of guardians were ended, unless it was the duty of executing a formal conveyance of the property in question to the city their cestui que trust. They were the mere naked trustees: and while, it may have been their duty to convey the legal title, such conveyance was not necessary to the ownership of the city."

In Rose, Appellant, v. Beaver County, 20 Superior Court 110, the Superior Court construed the acts of March 29, 1851, P. L. 260, and April 3, 1852, P. L. 80, in regard to Beaver County, in connection with the act of June 4, 1879, P. L. 78. In delivering the opinion in this case, Judge Beaver says:—

> "The county of Beaver having already purchased property, and created buildings necessary for the care and maintenance of their poor, no vote of the people in regard to the purchase thereof was necessary. The property belonged to the county, notwithstanding the fact that the title is in 'the directors of the poor and of the house of employment for the county of Beaver' instead of 'Beaver county poor district,' as provided in the act of 1879. The property was purchased by the levy of a general tax and each individual citizen is as much interested in the property in the one case as in the other."

It is absolutely absurd to think that the County of Washington would lose the title to this valuable tract of land, and unless the gentleman has some authority to sustain his position, and I challenge him or anybody else to produce an authority, he should then drop that question. Now, as to the ripper, I have explained our position on that, but in reference to the gentleman's position, I would refer him to the Legislative Record where we find that he voted on every bit of ripper legislation passed in this House. On the file of the Senate, Bill 421, a ripper pure and simple, we find the gentleman is recorded as voting aye. In the Legislative Record of May 20th, in discussing the reclassification of cities, the gentleman said:

> "We have listened time and time again to the voices that have been raised upon the floor of this House showing these facts when a certain classification which affected not me and not you; that didn't affect our constituents, were under consideration, and what did we do? We said "Aye" for the asking and said "ye shall receive."

The gentleman has shifted his position on ripper and local legislation and now he has interested himself in a county to which he does not belong and in which he is not interested. I say again the people of Washington County want this bill. I have received no protest against it. If the people are against this bill why have we not heard from them except through this mouthpiece. Not a protest or a letter have I heard or received from anybody excepting this Poor Board and I say, gentlemen, in the interests of the people of Washington County, I hope you will support this bill.

Mr. POST. Mr. Speaker, this is entirely a local bill, applying only to Washington County. This bill was advertised according to law upon its presentation to the Senate, in the paper, and we as members of the House representing those people have received no protest whatever from our constituents by whom we were elected as members of this House by a vote of practically eleven thousand votes. We are representing here two political parties and we are responsible to our constituencies for what we do here. We know that the people of Washington County want this bill passed. Some thirty counties of this Commonwealth already have the privilege we now ask. I hope that the gentlemen of this House will acquiesce and give us what we know our constituents want. We are representatives from a county in which his Excellency, the Governor, is a resident, and I ask in fairness to our Governor, who is conversant with this matter, that you will vote aye and allow this bill to go to him for his consideration.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. CARSON. Mr. Speaker, I call for a verification of the roll.

This was done as follows:

On the question,
Shall the bill pass?

Mr. STEELE. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steele.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill which passed the House and also the Senate and was referred to the Governor and was sent back for a change on page four, an amendment purely and simply for the change of a bracket. This bill, if you will notice, has had some opposition, due to the fact that the appropriation has been raised from thirty thousand to fifty thousand dollars. I wish to tell the members of this House that in raising this appropriation that it will not cost the State of Pennsylvania one cent. This is a salary raiser of itself, that is before the State Board of Medical Licensure, which intends to place itself on the same footing as the European Boards, besides having more examinations will have laboratories which will increase the cost of assistance and materials, etc. The object is to do these things and this is made necessary in bringing this work to a higher standard. The increased number of examinations is one item. Thus, they have been held two a year, now, they intend to hold from six to eight examinations in one year. Last year the State Board of Medical Licensure turned into the State Treasury $13,600.00 and their expenses were $13,900.00, making a balance of $300.00 and, therefore, the State had to pay the small sum of three hundred dollars. Now, by means of increasing the license fee, which is now twenty-five dollars and will be made fifty dollars, you can easily see that we intend to bring this up to a higher standard not allowing the State to pay anything to the State Board of Medical Licensure. The fees which used to be ten dollars will now be made twenty-five dollars. The number of branches which are allied with the Medical Board of Licensure for examination have been increased remarkably and that will curtail the amount of the expenses, but we get that into our State Treasury—that amount of money to be paid in fees for the extra expense. All this, of course, increases the amount of traveling expenses when there are more examinations in the year—from six to eight instead of two, and by that means the extra expense is accounted for. This is purely and simply a salary raiser but I don't think the State will be paying one cent out of its treasury to meet this expense, and at the same time it will place us on a higher level than we have been on before and I ask every member to vote Aye on this proposition.

Mr. NEWBAKER. Mr. Speaker, I may be able to add a few words in support of this bill.

Heretofore examinations made by the Board of Medical Education and Licensure have been altogether written, which method of examination in some instances may unjustly prevent qualified men from passing, and for this reason it is proposed in addition to the usual written examinations, to give bedside examinations and examinations in laboratory work, for which purpose use of laboratories and services of assistants must be hired and material used and spoiled must be paid for. The use of chemical physiological, anatomical, histological and embryological laboratories will be required. The whole legislation from beginning to end is to increase the quaifications and efficiency of physicians hereafter passing State Board examinations in the interest of the public.

Fees for examinations in certain branches of medicine have been advanced from $10 to $25 and reciprocity fees have been increased from $25 to $50.

The work of the Board of Medical Education and Licensure will cost the State practically nothing for the reason that all fees must be accounted for and returned to the State Treasury and in the aggregate it is estimated, the income of the Bureau from fees will equal the amount appropriated in the bill.

For the reasons stated, I think this bill should have the unanimous support of the House.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I am not opposed to the features of this bill, but it is a most peculiar way of appropriating $50,000 to the certain department this bill covers. The Act of 1911, which this bill seeks to amend, appropriated $30,000. Now, you come back and by Section 7 amend that act and make it $50,000. This bill never has been before the Appropriation Committee. They could not have had any method of figuring this $50,000 in their estimate, and I simply make this statement to call the attention of the House to what we are doing. You are appropriating $50,000 to carry out the work of a certain departmental institution by amending an act passed two years ago; thus you are repealing or changing the Act of 1911 and making it a new act by appropriating $50,000. To my mind it is a very improper proceeding.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I don't believe it is necessary to go into this bill much further, but I made an investigation in the department in relation to why it was recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment. I believe the House understands that it is not a question of the amount of the appropriation, but merely a question, as the gentleman from Allegheny stated, of a change on page 4. wherein the printer in printing the bill sent to the Governor inadvertently placed the brackets in the wrong place in a paragraph, making it ineffective entirely. Now, so far as the receipts or the expenses of the department and the revenues raised are concerned, I wish to say that last year the amount of money spent by the department out of their appropriation was $13,900. The amount of money this department received from fees and turned into the State Treasury was $13,600, lacking only $300 of the amount expended. Owing to the increased number of examinations this year, it will necessarily involve more expense, but with the increased number of examinations, on the other hand, it will involve more revenue. Therefore, with an appropriation of $50,000, I contend, from the figures of last year, that we are wasting nothing, that we are bringing the department into more efficiency; we are establishing better medical standards, and at the same time in my opinion it is costing the State practically nothing. It is impossible, on account of the increase in the number of examinations to carry on the work with the appropriation they had last year. They could not go to the limit they desired for that very reason, and I hope the House will concur on this vote.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, as I understand this act, it is simply to enable the Examining Board to give a real examination and practical bedside and laboratory examination. For that reason I think the bill ought to pass.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire as to the effect of the provisions of this bill amending the appropriation section of the Act of 1911, striking out $30,000 and amending it to $50,000. Does that work an appropriation of $20,000 additional, or is it an entirely new appropriation of $50,000?

The SPEAKER. The Chair, like the Court, only passes upon questions to be adjudicated.

The Chair is not sufficiently familiar with the situation to venture an opinion.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I might say for the information of the gentleman from Crawford that this provision here was taken up when the bill passed through the hands of the Attorney General and I understood that the matter was passed upon as being legal. I could not just tell which way they decided the matter, but the stamp of approval was put upon the bill when it came from the legal department of the Commonwealth.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, there seems to be no question in my mind that this is an absolutely new appropriation of $50,000. The section on page 16 of the bill reads thus: "Fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for the two fiscal years ending June 1, 1913." The only objection I had was to the manner of making this appropriation. It ought to have been a separate appropriation bill for this department and not made by an amendment to a previous act.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. Speaker, Section 7 of this bill, where the appropriation is made $30,000, is amended to read $50,000. Now, I do not know; I am not a lawyer and not acquainted well enough with law to know whether or not this in effect would be a new appropriation of $50,000 and one of $30,000, but I do know that it is not going to cost the State anything, even if it is a $50,000 appropriation. That is the idea of the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time, on page 12 of to-day's Calendar, bills on third reading postponed for the present, House Bill No. 1469.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1469, entitled:

An Act relating to roads providing for the supervision construction maintenance and repair of township roads relating to road tax making an appropriation and providing penalties for the violation thereof

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not like to oppose bills sponsored by the gentleman from Susquehanna, but this is a bill that we have heard so much about that it is plain it takes the suprevision practically from the Road Supervisors out of their hands and puts it into the hands of the State Highway Department. In addition to that it creates a new office of Assistant Highway Commissioner at a salary of $6,000.00. It goes, so far as I understand the provisions of the bill, that every bridge or culvert erected by the township or the township supervisor would first have to have the approval in relation to its character and specifications of the Highway Department. It is going too far to my mind, taking away from the home district the right to control and build and operate their own public road. The intention of the sponsor of the bill I have no doubt are absolutely good, but to my mind this bill is going too far and it seems to me that it ought not to pass at this time.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Tioga has enlarged upon and magnified the features of the bill to which he has called your attention. It is true that in this bill we create in the Highway Department a Bureau of Township Roads with a deputy on the same par with the other deputies in the Highway Department at the present time and at the same salary. We also place the township supervisors and the matter of construction and maintenance of township roads under the supervision of the Highway Department and that is to be done through the present District Superintendents, fifty superintendents who are now provided by law. There is no change in the election of township supervisors. They are elected precisely as they are at the present time, only that their term is to be extended to six years instead of four. It is also true that they levy the taxes as they do at the present time and manage their affairs at the present time, excepting that this bill makes available to township supervisors the expert road makers and authorities that we have in the State Highway Department and this Bureau of Township Highways, which is to be established in the Highway Department, will lend its help and support and supervision to the township supervisors.

Now gentlemen it may appear to some of you that this is going to quite an extent and to quite a change from the present system as indicated by the gentleman from Tioga, but I want to say it is going no further than already has been done in the State of New York. The system that we hope to have inaugurated by this bill is precisely the same system as has been inaugurated in the State of New York, and which has worked wonderful results in that State and today over the thousands and thousands of miles of earth roads in the State of New York you can go there and travel over them and find them in a No. 1 condition, all rounded up according to a system and standard as established by the Highway Department of New York State and the condition of those earth roads in the State of New York is something to be long remembered if you have traveled over them. I live near the New York State line. The man in New York State, Frank B. Lyon, who is responsible for this condition in this State is the man who assisted in the drafting of this bill and incorporated in this bill the system which has been tried and put in force, and this man, probably one of the greatest road experts in the United States, in his early days was in favor only of high priced macadem roads and he found in working the system which he was trying out in New York State, that it would be a century before he would have many improved roads in that State, and therefore rather than take the head of the Department of Highways in the State of New York, when it was created he asked for the position of second deputy, and in that position he inaugurated the system of township roads and he has devoted his work and energies to the perfection of the system which has produced in New York State a system of township roads which is famous all over this country. We are merely trying to do the same thing in the State of Pennsylvania and from what I have seen, living near that system, I believe most heartily in this bill. I believe it is one of the best pieces of legislation along road lines that we have ever proposed in this Legislature and in the State of Pennsylvania. I believe that it will result in the improvement of town roads all over the State of Pennsylvania, and while we are in favor of the main highways being constructed as they are at the present time, in an expensive manner, yet we people who live back in the county want our roads improved so that we can get to the railroad and to the creamery and the churches and the schools, and those people who live in those sections today ask you to pass this bill.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Susquehanna.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Susquehanna permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I certainly will.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman state whether or not the Board of Supervisors, the local Board, will have the power of the employing of all labor and all employees connected with the Department, especially the local part of the concern?

Mr E. E. JONES. They will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT Mr. Speaker, will the superintendent have any control over the expenditure of the money or granting of the contracts for construction and repair or merely right of supervision?

Mr. E. E. JONES. Merely right of supervision, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. What control under your bill will your superintendents have over your Board of Supervisors.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, it is the purpose of the bill that the district superintendents, under the direction of the Highway Department, may lend assistance to the supervisors, go into the various townships and aid the supervisors in laying out their plans and in making up their plans how they shall improve the roads, giving them the benefit of their knowledge, which ought to be and is superior to that of the local supervisors, merely putting them in the position of aiding the township authorities.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, have they any more authority than mere supervision and advice.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr Speaker, that is as I understand it; that is from the provisions of the bill

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Susquehanna.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Susquehanna be further interrogated?

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, certainly.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr Speaker, what powers do these county supervisors have under this bill, what are their powers

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, the powers of the district superintendent?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. The county superintendent.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, the powers of the district superintendent are supervisory and to help the township supervisor

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, what does the supervision under the bill mean.

Mr. E. E. JONES. It means, Mr. Speaker, that the State in connection with this bill is to contribute fifty per cent. of as much money as the township supervisors levy and collect for road purposes themselves.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I mean what power of supervision does the county superintendent have, what are his powers.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, the district superintendent, not county superintendent, has the power of supervision over the township supervisors and tells them how they shall construct roads, maintain roads or build roads.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman to say that the local supervisors must do whatever the district superintendent says? Does he have the superior power?

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, if it came into a conflict between the district superintendent and the local supervisors, I expect that so far as the State's money is concerned that it would have to be spent according to the direction of the district superintendent. But, Mr. Speaker, it is the purpose of the district superintendent to work in harmony with the supervisors, lend them aid and assistance and not antagonize them. This is all done by rules and regulations which are isued by the Bureau of Township Highways here.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the information I desire maybe is not made plain by the question I ask. The information I desire is whether the supervisors of the township roads retain all of their powers that they now have over the roads in their districts if this bill becomes a law.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I think in the main they do. However, if a Board of Supervisors is wasteful in its methods, and proposes to let a contract, for instance for a bridge, which is wrong, and which would let in a firm of grafters, then the District Superintendent would have the power to change that.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask another question. I must confess to the House that I have not had the time to give this bill the consideration that I would like to have given it, and must rely upon the Chairman of the Committee for the information I desire. How do these County Supervisors get their office? Are they elected or are they appointed by the State Highway Department?

Mr. E. E. JONES. The Superintendents under this bill are the present fifty superintendents who are already appointed by the Highway Commissioner under the provisions of the Sproul Bill.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Then there is no additional expense attached to these supervisors.

Mr. E. E. JONES. None at all.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. None whatever.

Mr. E. E. JONES. None whatever.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Apparently by the bill they have the power to direct whenever there is a question as to the mending and improving of roads. Their's is the superior power.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Yes.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. The powers of the supervisors are superseded by these fifty county supervisors now operating in connection with the State Highway Department. Then these fifty supervisors now in charge of the State Highways and scattered all over the State have extended by this bill the controlling power of all the dirt roads of the State?

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question of the gentleman from Delaware, I would like to be perhaps a little more a length than a direct answer. This Highway Commissioner will organize those operating the township roads in the Highway Department. There will be certain information which he will publish, and not only that but there will be conventions held where they will establish a set of rules and regulations as to the construction and maintenance of township earth roads, fix a standard, if you please, of the grades and what sort of sluices shall be built and regulations and rules of that sort which will be a benefit and help to the township supervisors. Then the enforcement of these rules will be done, of course, through the district superintendent. At the present time we have no system whatever in the State to govern the township supervisors who build their own roads as they see fit, and in great many cases it is a waste of money. In a great many cases they merely grade the road and do it superficially, at least it amounts to that. At this stage of road progress in this State and all over the United States there are certain standards which could be established for the construction of earth roads. With the district superintendents we hope to raise very materially the standard of the earth roads. It is not in a spirit of antagonism but the district superintendent would be a great help and use to the local supervisors.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, This bill reads in part as follows: "Establish or cause to be established such grades and recommend such means of drainage repairs and improvement as seem to him necessary when directed by the State Highway Commissioner." Mr. Speaker, my impression is that the State Highway Department has a pretty big job on its hands at the present time. Whether it is carrying out as far as it is possible for it to do the provisions of the law relating to the State Highway Department, there is a great deal of doubt in the public mind at the present time. I do not belong to one of the doubting class as you members probably well know. At present, there are eight thousand miles of public roads under the control of this Department. Now the proposition claimed in this bill is that the Department is to take over the remaining eighty-five thousand miles of roads and to be held responsible for it, and subjected to the condemnation and criticisms of the people all over the State. By the proposition contained in this bill the powers of the local authorities are subservient to the powers of these supervisors. These supervisors are connected with the State Highway Department. Now I would not want to raise my voice against anything that would tend to improve the public roads of this Commonwealth. I would rather make a mistake trying to do more than to be too slow and not do as much as I might have done, but I am inclined to think that if I voted for this bill and went back to my county in the rural districts, and they were awakened to the fact that I voted for a bill that took away from them their supervision and control over their own roads and which would say to them that the road must be graded to a certain grade which would call for increased taxation, I think I would be greatly condemned for it. While I believe that the gentleman from Susquehanna is using his best efforts and has given to the State more than half of his energy while in this Legislature trying to solve one of the most difficult problems that confronts our State, I feel that he is making a mistake and I feel that the people at large are not ready to surrender these powers, but that they would like to retain the power of control and supervision over the money and control of the roads in their district, and unless I have more information on the proposition, I shall certainly feel constrained to vote against the bill.

Mr. GRABE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Susquehanna.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Susquehanna permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. GRABE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman explain to the House how the fifty superintendents appointed now by the State are going to take care of the 100,000 miles of dirt roads in the State of Pennsylvania?

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Butler I would say in the first place that there are about seventy thousand miles of dirt roads in the State instead of a hundred, and in addition to that I think some of us seem to be afraid that the district superintendent has got to go out and work the road himself. This bill doesn't call for anything of the sort. It is the intention of the bill to provide for this supervision of township highways as I said sometime ago and then to work out these rules and regulations which are to help construct good earth roads, and to work them out through these district superintendents. Their work will be to advise and help the local supervisors and get them together perhaps once a year in convention and have discussion of road questions and other matters pertaining to roads in the townships. At other times they will travel through the different townships whenever they can be of any help whatever to the local authorities.

Mr. GRABE. Mr. Speaker, at the present time these superintendents have charge of about eight thousand miles of the roads of the State of Pennsylvania. They are at this season of the year repairing these roads, a time of the year that is not fit to repair roads. At this time of the year what good effect do we get from the repair work on these roads. It does not make a solid road. The right time to repair is in the Spring of the year just at the time the frost is coming out of the ground. I want to say to the members of this Legislature that we have approximately seventy thousand miles of roads in the State of Pennsylvania to be taken care of at the proper time of the year, which is in the Spring of the year. Why should we repair in the Spring? For this reason; the ground is in a condition at that time that it can be packed and eventually when the dry season comes along this road is in a compact condition, and remains in that condition the whole year around. But in the various counties of the State if these fifty superintendents were to look after the roads, I want to say that our roads would be in a very serious shape. I therefore, hope that the members of this Legislature will vote against this bill and let the conditions take care of themselves according to the bill given us in 1911.

Mr. LOHR. Mr. Speaker, I say there should be some right given to local authorities to manage their own affairs. I tell you there has been too much taken out of the hands of the local authorities in such matters, and for that reason, if for no other reason, I am opposed to this bill. I believe in the system of education for better road building and I don't want to be misunderstood along that line. I believe that the State Highway Department by building state roads is doing much to educate the common people along the proper system. In all road building, I will say right now, that I also think that the State Department has enough on hand to take care of that will take up all their time and attention for a few years a least, if they mean to take over all the roads of the state. Some of the roads in 1912 which have been taken over are now in a deplorable condition. On last Saturday, I traveled over some of the roads, taken over by the State and now under the supervision of the State Highway Department, and they are in worse condition than at any time during the last twenty years. One bridge had three planks out of five broken. Large stones were lying loose on the roads and automobilists going over the road were inquiring whether there was not a better road in the neighborhood over which they could travel. Under conditions of that kind, you feel that local authority should be given some right to look over their roads in that section. I know that a certain amount of supervision is necessary but when you come to place to much time and expense to overhead supervision and not enough money for the man who goes down to work on the roads, why there is a mistake. This bill provides that the State Highway Department shall have the supervision and control of all the roads of the State and also that the State and county roads shall be under their supervision. As has been well said by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Baldwin, they have a right under this bill to change the grades of the road and I think this is a grave mistake. I believe in a system of educating the people and that the people should be given the right to elect or select the best material they have for road supervisors and then make them responsible for the work and see to it that a certain amount of this work is put in the hands of reputable persons to take care of in their own way and in a satisfactory manner without having to be under the control of the State Department.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Road Committee of last session I listened with a good deal of interest to a talk by Mr. Lyons of the State of New York who explained how this sort of bill works in the State of New York. I don't know whether this bill exactly carries out the provisions as it is applied to New York State or not, and it will be most unfortunate if it does not. It was found, for instance, in the State of New York that one county built for about thirteen thousand dollars as many feet of bridges as would have cost under a previous system in the neighborhood of two hundred thousand dollars; for the reason that by an exchange of forms of building concrete, they were able to send them from place to place as needed and the Advisory Board extending to the local supervisors the knowledge of how they might use material exactly at hand, and without going to some great distance for the material as it was required. Along various other lines like that,—educational lines,—the State of New York was able to get much better roads and get them at a great reduction of cost. We found then among the members of the Road Committee last session members who were road supervisors of districts who claim that they didn't like automobiles traveling through their counties and townships at a high rate of speed and for that reason they would put as many thank-you-mams, as they call them, on the bottom or along inclines of hills. It was perfectly reasonable to understand that the State Highway Commissioner or some one in authority should direct these men not to put these thank-you-mams, for instance, on the road-bed but in reference to the roads which are better and cheaper, in the long run, it is best to place upon that road material and workmanship that will last. I say it would be most unfortunate if this bill does not provide that some such system can be carried out in the State of Pennsylvania. We are twenty-five years behind New York State in the matter of road building.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I think a great many of the gentlemen who have spoken on this bill are looking for trouble that is not here. This is based on the same principle as our school affairs. In the school affairs the State aids every individual. In the school district and by means of that monetary assistance we are able to get assistance and organization work from our county and all work together as a unit. This bill is based on that principle; It is based on the proposition that the State use money according to this bill, that has been prepared carefully and after long study. The gentleman from Butler, Mr. Grabe, has said that the proper time to do work on the road is early in the spring.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Gibson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman tell the House what the object is in creating this position paying six thousand dollars a year.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, it is considered best to have a head whose duty it shall be to look after the township road affairs. It was very carefully considered. It was thought if we were to take someone out of another department or some other officer to do the work in connection with something else, it would not receive the earnest and intelligent and agressive effort it would receive if only one man had to do the work. The salary was made six thousand dollars a year to put the township roads on the same par as any other road. The matter of that salary was taken by one of the most influential members of the State Grange. Originally it was proposed to make it five thousand dollars and when the question was put up to him, he said "This is a matter of five or six thousand dollars a year and as a township road is just as important as any branch of the work, the salary should be ample."

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the gentleman to answer my question.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I have answered it.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the gentleman to answer this: After this bill was reported out of the Committee did not one of the members of the road committee ask that this salary proposition be removed from the bill?

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, the matter was discussed at one meeting. There was an adjourned meeting at which the gentleman was not present and at that meeting the matter was left in its original shape.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Gibson, to tell this House if the object of creating this position was not for the purpose of employing a man by the name of Lyons from New York State and putting him in this position? Do you deny or affirm the question?

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry the gentleman has put it in that shape. I do say that there were some of us who felt that this man, Mr. Lyons, would be the man for such a position and we should be glad to have that man in it, if the bill passes. But to continue with the merits of this bill. Originally the bill provided for the election of two superintendents. Owing to the amount of work that will be done, it is necessary that the superintendents that are in office cannot exercise the detailed supervision which some of these gentlemen seem to fear. The bill provides that the township supervisor should enter into an agreement; they make the agreement themselves and that is submitted to the State authorities for their approval. That is done on the basis that if the State is saving fifty per cent. of the expenses, it is perfectly right and proper that the State should have a certain amount of supervision. I feel that while there may be an honest doubt in many of your minds as to the wisdom of taking this step at this time, but I wish to say that this bill is absolutely a step in the right direction and it should be carefully considered and not hurled aside because of little fears here and there. We should base our laws on the proposition that things are going to be run systematically and in the interest of the people and not make arbitrary rulings and regulations that are impossible of compliance.

Mr. GRAMLEY. Mr. Speaker, about sixty years ago, when this State was about to institute certain offices in the schools, we were told the same opposition arose as has arisen here this morning. Our forefathers were bothering themselves and troubling themselves with worrying and thinking their rights and their perogatives were taken away from them if those offices were established. You and I looking backward now are prepared to say that the step taken by the State then was a good one. It is true a county Superintendent of schools, if he is a Czar, can do mischief; it is true that if the man who gets the position of Superintendent, in accordance with this bill, will act as a Czar, that he will do mischief. We are not supposed to believe that that kind of a man should occupy that position. The State today gives us from fifteen to sixteen millions of dollars for the benefit of the schools but the State will not relinquish absolutely its authority over the schools to any extent. If the school district will not comply with the requirements of the State, they will punish that district by withholding money, and justly so. You cannot expect me, an investor of my money in any enterprise, to relinquish my hold upon what shall be done entirely with that money. Our Supervisors of roads today in our district, I believe, that nearly all of them do the best they know how but don't do very well because a goodly number of them are just as you and I would be there. They are misfit. They don't do the work right because they don't understand it. Their intentions are all right. If there was some supervisor over them to direct them discreetly, prudently, wisely they would give the State better roads. That is what we want. I believe the measure is a good one and I believe if we refuse to act in this Legislature and fail to pass this bill now that in the near future another Legislature will take up our work that we are not doing today.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to one feature of this bill that perhaps they have not noticed. In the first place it creates new State officers, I believe at $6,000 a year. It leads up to another State department. It gives this commission the power of appointing an unlimited number of clerks and assistants. As a matter of fact if the fifty supervisors today employed by the State give proper attention to the 80,000 miles of road that we are now expending our money for, they will be busy men from the beginning of the year to the finish. I know that the district supervisor of the county that I live in and the adjoining county is daily on the road looking after the number of miles that he has now; but by this bill you will place upon him the supervision or the examination of just one-fiftieth of 85,000 miles, over 1,000 miles per superintendent. Why it is as impracticable as you could think of. He may be able to get over the roads once each three or four years under the provisions of this bill. The intentions of the bill are right but that isn't what the House wants to know. The House wants to know whether the bill is practical. Is it practical to give 85,000 miles of road in this State over to the care of the supervising power, the highest power, the power that controls? Fifty and eighty-five thousand makes nearly 2,000 miles additional placed upon these supervisors with this controlling power. Why, my friend certainly does not mean to say that that will improve conditions; that the power is greater than the one that is daily looking at it, daily watching it, subserving to one who only comes and looks to see what is there about once in three years. What supervisor can travel over 2,000 miles of road, or 1,800 at least? Why, I am afraid that my friend who drew up this bill could show no practical application; a practical application to show that any good could come from this bill for the additional money expended. As I said before, in passing road legislation I am not opposed to practical things. I am opposed to putting a practice like this up against the local conditions that exist now. As I said, in my own county we have men there that I believe are just as good as the district supervisors; some of them are better. I do not believe the district supervisors, either of them, in the two counties, who are honest, clean men—I would not say anything against them, but we have in the township that I live in and in the township that adjoins my county, men who know more about road making than the supervisors do.

Mr. PEACHEY. Mr. Speaker. I do not know about this impractical side. The gentleman from Delaware seems to be unduly exercised about the labor that might be put upon district superintendents. I do not think that he is weighed down with a great deal of labor to-day, from the fact that I believe he can get over his work and do it without injuring himself very much, and I believe it is possible for him also to take upon himself what would come to his lot under this bill; that the increased work that he will have will not injure him very much. So far as the practical and impractical side of this thing is concerned, I want to say that this bill has been worked out by men who have studied the road building business and the principal objections are made by men who have not studied road building in any particular. Now, then, we have heard them speak of the township supervisor. Now, I am going to say to the gentleman from Delaware—he says they have had a few of them—well, you can't prove anything by that. From the fact that a few of these are equal to the occasion, that doesn't say that they all are, and that doesn't establish the fact, from the fact that we are talking along general lines, not special lines. Another thing I want to say is this: You can go over the State of Pennsylvania and you can find some supervisors at work and they don't have two good road ideas to rub against each other. And that is true, too. The people in the rural districts, and I know what I am talking about, have not yet learned to take care of the roads. They work them in the spring of the year, just as we have heard, and there is only one way to work roads to-day and that is to work them 365 days in the year, barring Sundays, and have men on the roads all the time. The trouble with this bill is that it is an advance. The trouble is this, that the sponsor of this bill in connection with another man who has been doing splendid work in New York, are in advance. That is the trouble with this bill. When you once study it and once look upon it as you ought to look upon it, then you find there is something in it. Now, in connection with the man who invented the split road drag; he has gone all over the State—no, gone all over the United States—and they pay him as much as $100 a night, $100 a lecture, to teach them how to use these split road drags. And the people of Pennsylvania, with all their knowledge, with all their accumulated knowledge that dates back a number of years, have not yet come to learn the use of the split road drag, and it is a simple principle. It is one of the practical things we want to get. While there are things in this bill that I do not like; while I have voted upon a number of bills before this House which were not perfect; you do not want perfection; you don't get perfection; but because there are things in them that you do not like; because there are things in them that are not true; because there are things in them which do not suit your own ideas; is that to say that you should vote against it. I believe it is the best that we can get and I believe that it will eventually work out to the good of the people of Pennsylvania. I am not going to tell you to vote for or against it, but I want you to study it. I want you to study it from a practical standpoint. I want you to go over it and study it from a scientific standpoint. Now, then, that road superintendent is not supposed to travel over this road and point out the mud holes and point out the grades. He is to work in a far different way. He is to work with those county superintendents through the county organization. What you want them to do is to organize and when you get them together at convention amongst their own people and have an expert road builder to educate them, you will get educational ideas into their heads with reference to road building. I have gone all over the State of Pennsylvania and have heard this question talked about, cussed and discussed, and everybody has his own idea and what we want is more uniformity than we have to-day.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, this bill, if it becomes enacted into law, is a direct blow at local self-government. It places in the hands of the Deputy State Highway Commissioner absolute jurisdiction over 78,000 miles of State highway, and if they refuse to obey the recommendations of the State Highway Commissioner the local townships are penalized; and this is what the bill says: "That upon the neglect or refusal of the supervisors of any township to carry out the instructions, rules and regulations of the State Highway Commissioner, then the State Highway Commisisoner may withhold from said township so neglecting or refusing the amount to which it would otherwise be entitled for the year in which said neglect or refusal occurs." That alone in the bill should defeat this measure.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Montgomery, the point he has just raised, that is no different in this law than it is in the old supervisor's act. What money the State contributes to the township can be withheld to-day under the old law just as well as it can under this law, if it becomes operative. Now, then, Mr. Speaker, we have come here to the Legislature for four years, promising the people back home a bonus of 50 per cent., not to exceed $20 per mile, for the construction of roads, and have been unable to get that money. One of the great objections has been that the State had no supervision over the expenditure of that money. In school affairs we do have supervision. In road affairs we merely turn it over to the local supervisors without supervision, with the exception that it must be spent for permanent improvements and if not so expended can be withheld by the State Highway Commisisoner. Now, Mr. Speaker, I realize that this bill is an advanced step, a very great step in advance of present legislation, over present methods, but as to its being impractical, as declared by the gentleman from Delaware, I want to say that it is practical. and my reason for saying so is this: That precisely the same system has been put into effect in the State of New York and it has worked out practically. That is the best reason why it will be practical in Pennsylvania. that it was practical in the State of New York. Now, Mr. Speaker, in the State of New York, when this matter started some four or five years ago, the gentlemen who were trying to inaugurate this system met with the same opposition which we meet here to-day. I am not surprised, Mr. Speaker, at the opposition which has developed, not at all surprisd. As a matter of fact, Mr. Speaker, I expected it, but I want to make a prediction and that is this: That while this House quite likely will not vote in favor of this bill to-day, I want to say that two years from now or four years from now the Legislature of Pennsylvania will place under the Highway Department the affairs of the township supervisors in a bill similar to this; that this system must come. We have been laboring under the old system of the township supervisors for years and we are not getting anywhere. Our roads are not getting any better. It is unquestionable that of the several million dollars which are raised by local taxation annually in the State of Pennsylvania and expended under the present system, there is no doubt that half of that money is absolutely wasted.

And by this system we hope to stop that waste and put that money into roads and make it into good roads. Now, Mr. Speaker, so many people are laboring under the misapprehension of what will take place in case this bill becomes a law. We fear that our affairs are going to be taken out of our own hands, that the powers which are invested in the Highway Department and through their agents will be used to destroy local self-government and that these people have to go out and supervise all the roads, which is not true. It is merely advisory, that they be helpful, and that the expert men which we have already in the Highway Department, that all that will be available to the township supervisors and that they will go on doing their work under the help and direction of the road expert and we will all get the benefit of this matter instead of it being a detriment.

Mr. GRABE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Centre in reference to the State School Superintendents and in referring to the various County Superintendents, we admit that we have got to work in conjunction with the State Highway Department as well as those county superintendents of schools have to work in conjunction with School Department; but it is not a fact that those Superintendents are elected by the School Directors of the various counties of the various townships? The bill as it first originated provided that the township supervisors in convention elected these county superintendents, which under this bill they are deprived of and it comes right back to the Highway Department. Can we not as supervisors do as the school directors do, elect our own county superintendents and keep the work back near to the people? Why, we are getting away from the real work. Let us keep the work nearer home and work in conjunction with the Highway Department through those county superintendents which we are justly entitled to and I hope that this bill will be voted down.

Shall the bill pass?

BILL INTRODUCED.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, during my absence last evening there was stricken from the general appropriation bill a small item giving an appropriation to the Harrisburg Volunteer Fire Department, not from a point of lack of merit, as I understand, but because it was argued that its insertion in the general appropriation bill was unconstitutional. I shall not argue this point because I do not know, not being an attorney.. However, Mr. Speaker, I desire to call you attention to the fact that the Harrisburg Volunteer Fire Department has always given the same valuable and efficient service to the property of the State that it has given to that of its own citizens, which has been fully demonstrated in 1897 during the fire at the capitol where two men were injured; also within recent years at the fire which occurred at the State Arsenal. Its services were recognized first in the year 1859, when an Act was introduced by the Honorable William C. Lawrence, then Speaker of the House. It has been a continuous custom ever since and for the purpose of correcting this constitutional error I would ask unanimous consent of the House to offer a bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection. The Clerk will receive the bill.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. SAMUEL PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 584, was defeated on final passage on Monday, June 16th, be reconsidered.

Mr. SHERWOOD. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The title of the bill will be read for information.

The Clerk then read the title as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Punxsutawney Hospital association at Punxsutawney Jefferson county Pennsylvania

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this is the bill which makes an appropriation to the Punxsutawney Hospital. I have expressed my views on the floor of this House. I did think that the sponsor of the bill would have had it amended. It has not been amended, but I do not intend to go into any elaborate remarks on this matter. I would now want this matter to appear as an attack on the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee. I want to say on the floor of the House that I know the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, having served several sessions with him, and there is no attack upon him personally in opposing this bill, as was said on the floor of the House the other night. I have set forth all the facts, that I thought the appropriation was too large, and a mistake to ask for this large appropriation under the circumstances the appropriation presents. For my own part I intend to vote against this bill although I would be very pleased to vote for a proper amount for this hospital, as I am not desirous of opposing any charity.

Mr. ALLEN. It may be that a like reflection has been cast upon the attitude of your humble servant in relation to his position against this bill. I do not want to see that hospital get other than the amount of money that is coming to it. I had hoped that the gentleman who is sponsoring the bill would consider those things that have been stated in relation to the hospital, not only that but the feeling which was evidenced by a sufficient number of the members of the House to defeat the bill in its present form. I hope he will be as generous towards the House on the matter of presenting this bill as I feel towards him at this time, and towards his institution. I want to see this institution get every dollar that is coming to it and if I stood behind this bill or any other bill I would sooner have the bill go through with the feeling that the members were satisfied and that no injustice had been done to other institutions than to feel that I had simply driven the bill through. I am in perfect harmony with the idea to reconsider the vote but like the gentleman from Philadelphia if the the bill is presented in its present form, I will be compelled to vote against it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 14 of to-day's Calendar House Bill No. 1705, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of H. R. bill No. 1705, entitled:

An Act making State taxes unpaid bonus interest penalties and all public accounts a lien upon the franchise and prperty of corporations companies associations joint-stock associations and limited partnerships and relating to the entry continuance and satisfaction thereof providing for the furnishing of certificates relative to such liens and repealing certain acts

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill to correct a condition of affairs that was unknown not only to most of the laity but to a great percentage of the lawyers. In 1911 there was an act passed which made State Taxes a first lien on the bonuses and personal property and real estate owned by any corporation. Now under that bill a piece of property originally mortgaged by A to B, transferred by A to the corporation; the corporation neglected to pay its taxes. The State came in on a writ and sold the property originally mortgaged by A to B transferred gage if enough taxes had accumulated to exceed the value of the property. Now of course where it was a mortgage created originally by a corporation it was easy enough to provide in the mortgage for the production by the corporation to the mortgagee of the tax receipts, but where the mortgage was created by one individual to another there was no reason for the mortgagee having such a requirement placed in the mortgage. And then comes the transfer to the corporation subject to this act of 1911. Now this act which I have introduced provides that the unpaid State taxes shall be a first lien on all property except real estate where the mortgage has been created and recorded prior to the acquirement by the corporation of the property. I think this is a bill safeguarding the small investor who buys his own home, and I for one figure it is a bill which certainly should be passed.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. STONE. Mr. Speaker,, I desire to call up at this time from postponed calendar page 12, bills on third reading, Senate Bill 750.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1981 (Senate No. 750), entitled:

An Act authorizing the councils of incorporated boroughs to require the sprinkling or oiling of public streets or thoroughfares or parts thereof and assess the cost of the same to the owner or owners or occupiers of the property abutting thereon and providing for the collection of the same

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STONE. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Stone.

Mr. STONE. Mr. Speaker, when I moved for the postponement of this bill I discovered that there was opposition to it. I have no personal interest in it except what I read upon its face. I think if the members of the House will read one or two clauses very carefully, they will find that it is a bill that has a good intent as it simply provides, and it is not mandatory, that borough councils shall notify that the property owners may agree to the sprinkling or oiling of the streets in front of their premises. They have this law enforced in the State of New York and in one or two places I am acquainted with; one of them Waverly, New York, and it costs for a lot fifty feet in width is on the average of eighty-seven cents per year. You will notice on page two of this bill line seventeen that this cannot be enforced except by petition of the majority of the property owners and when they desire to sprinkle or oil the streets, they do so by petition. I believe it is a good bill and ought to pass without opposition.

BILL STRICKEN FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, my opinion is that this is a very unjust bill. It seems to me that it will put it up to the property owners to sprinkle or oil the streets in front of their properties and pay for it instead of having the borough pay an expense of this kind. I think there is another thing I want to call attention to. It says "sprinkle or oil the streets" in one section and in another section "oil" is cut out. Therefore, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. CHARLES A. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Whereupon, a division having been called for and seventy gentlemen having voted in the affirmative and thirty-five in the negative,

The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move to reconsider the vote by which the House non-concurred in the Senate amendments on House Bill No. 956 and that the Conference Committee be withdrawn.

Mr. W. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the adoption of the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this bill is a bill that was drafted by the Director of Health in Philadelphia and supplies to manure pits and to licensing and regulating slaughter houses and slaughter wagons and places where fish are sold and I move that we concur in the amendments of the Senate.

The SPEAKER. Have the conferees agreed on the bill?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would suggest that the Senate should first withdraw its conferees before proceeding to concur in the amendments as the bill would not be out of conference as long as the Senate conferees remain in caucus.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the purpose was merely to escape the drafting of a conference report. This just came from Senator Salus who is on the conference committee but if that is the Chair's position I will withdraw my motion at this time.

The SPEAKER. The decision of the Chair is that as soon as the Senate has withdrawn its conferees, then the House can concur in the amendments.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON RULES.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a report from the Committee on Rules.

The SPEAKER. The report from the Committee on Rules will be read.

The Clerk then read the report as follows:

That the order of business Friday, June 20th, 1913, shall be: first, bills on first reading; second, bills on second reading and third, bills on third reading and final passage, and the House Bills shall have precedence over Senate Bills and that on said date the House shall meet at ten o'clock A. M. and recess from one to three P. M.

(Signed) FREDERICK C. EHRHARDT,
SIGMUND J. GANS,
GEORGE W. ALLEN,
GEORGE W. SASSAMAN,
GEORGE A. BALDWIN,
GEORGE E. ALTER.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the adoption of the report.

The report was unanimously adopted.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2153, entitled:

An Act to repeal an act approved the ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act relating to the settlement and audit of the accounts of all officers elected or appointed of boroughs townships poor districts and school districts prescribing the time for such settlement and audits for the matters to be contained in the report of settlement and audit for the filing of said report in the office of the clerk of quarter sessions and for appeals to the Court of Common Pleas and Superior and Supreme Courts" in so far as the same relates to the settlement and audit of the accounts of all elected or apponted officers of school districts

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Humes.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I submit that the sponsor of this bill failed to realize that we passed an act reconciling an act that this purports to amend It is my recollection that the bill has no wbecome a law. Under the act which this amends we find the only satisfactory provision for taking appeals from the audit of school audits with this bill as it is before us enacted into law, the only provision would be the general provision that appeals should be taken as appeals are now taken from the reports of county auditors, and that is a very indefinite and unknown practice and it strikes me that until the sponsor has an opportunity to ascertain as to whether or not this bill is covered satisfactorily in the act that was introduced by the gentleman from Jefferson and passed by this House that this bill ought to be postponed.

Mr. MORROW. Mr. Speaker, the idea of this bill is to do away with the fall audit of the school books in the school districts of Pennsylvania. Under the School Code 2620, requires an audit during the month of June and under page 865 the Journal law requires another audit again in December. This is to do away with the audit in December.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I think that will not accomplish that purpose at all. The bill repeals the act of 1911 in so far as pertains to school districts. Section one of the act of 1911 provides the method of making audits. The School Code also prescribes the method of making a school audit and the gentleman from Jefferson, Nr. North, introduced a bill which has been reconciling the act of 1911 with reference to taking appeal with provisions of the School Code. If this bill should pass it would destroy the advantage which the act of 1911 affords with reference to taking an appeal. The provision under the act of 1911 for making audits has already been removed by the act introduced by the gentleman Mr. North. So the purpose that this bill intends to accomplish, if it intends to accomplish what the gentleman states, has already been accomplished by the bill that has been passed.

Mr. MORROW. Mr. Speaker, if that is so, I am perfectly satisfied with the bill.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, in order that the House may have an opportunity to ascertain that fact I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. MORROW. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to ask, is there any objection to the Chair giving House Bills precedence in calling the list of bills?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand by that, that members forfeit the right if they desire to have Senate Bills called when it is in order, if there is any desire on the part of members of the House to call up Senate Bills. I have had a Senate bill that I have desired to call up and I would like to get a shot at it.

The SPEAKER. The thought of the Chair was that a Senate Bill now passing the House has finished its legislative career while the House Bills now on the calendar must not only pass the House but must go through committees and pass through the Senate. The Chair is anxious to facilitate the passage of House Bills. That is the one thought in the mind of the Chair.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, perhaps the members who have diligently waited for their bills and for an opportunity to call them up, when the time comes that they can be called up, they should have the right to call them up. Would that be agreeable? I have waited for one bill to be reached for sometime and I would like to get a shot at it.

The SPEAKER. If there is any member desirous of having any particular bill taken up in its order, the Chair will give the member that right. The Chair will call the bills on the calendar in order and take up only such Senate bills as some member may request until the House Bills have been disposed of.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 2066 (Senate Bill No. 1391), entitled:

An Act to provide for the better protection of quail and rabbits and hare in this Commonwealth fixing the time when such birds and animals may be legally killed in this Commonwealth and providing penalties for violation of its several provisions

Section 3 So much of the act approved the eighteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled "An Act to provide for the better protection and preservation of game game-quadrupeds and game-birds in Pennsylvania and prescribing penalties for the violation of its several provisions" as relates to rabbit and hare and also all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. E. G. M. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1 line 9, by striking out "open."

Amend section 1, line 10 by inserting after the word "be" the following: "Closed for five years."

Also line 11 by striking out "of each year to the thirtieth day of the same month both days inclusive" and insert in lieu thereof the following:—"nineteen hundred and thirteen to the first day of November nineteen hundred and tighteen."

The SPEAKER Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendments as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted..

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. DONNALLY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section one, line 12 by striking out "fifteen" and "October" and insert in lieu thereof the words "First" and "November."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendment as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Young, J. H.
Alter, Speaker.

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative, and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2078 (Senate No. 1399), entitled:

An Act to amend sections fourteen and seventeen of an act approved June first one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act to establish an Insurance Department authorizing the appointment of an Insurance Commissioner and prescribing his powers and duties also providing for the licensing examination regulation and dissolution of insurance and surety companies and associations and for the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and insurance brokers also providing for the collection of fees and prescribing penalties for the violation of any of the provisions of this act and repealing all existing acts"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, just a word of explanation on this bill. It merely amends the law with reference to agents and brokers of insurance companies and is not to be confused with bill 1397 against which there was so much protest and which has been referred back to the Insurance Committee.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—4.

Blair, W. A.,
Carson.
Jackson,
Lohr,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I call up on page 3, Senate Bill No. 1395.

The SPEAKER. It looks as if the plan of taking up Senate Bills will result in all of these oills being taken up to the delay of the House Bills. Is that the pleasure of the House?

On the question,

Shall the House bills be given precedence?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will be governed accordingly. Next bill is House Bill No. 1502. at the top of page 7 of the Calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1502, entitled:

An Act to provide for the erection of a monument and memorial tablets to Battery F Independent Pennsylvania Artilllery (known as the Hampton Battery) on the Battlefield of Antietem and the dedication of the same and of the expenses of the Commission appointed to select supervise and erect the same and the transportation of the survivors of said command to and from said battlefield

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, we have now arrived at the head of the column of the marshal of monuments. I do not want to be forced into the position of making any particular attack on any one of these individually. I do not want to pretend to be able to discriminate among them. Yet it must be perfectly obvious that we cannot pass them all. I wish the House would realize that every dollar which is appropriated for a purpose of this kind is just that much less that can go to the various charity appropriations and educational appropriations which we have already put through. We have already and will appropriate much more money than there is in the treasury and the Governor will be saddled with the duty of making the appropriate cuts. Therefore, he will probably find it very difficult to veto these patriotic appropriations, just as I find it very difficult to stand here and oppose them and just as you may find it difficult to vote against them and therefore the proper thing to do, in my mind, is to refer them back to the Appropriation Committee and let the Appropriation Committee make what discrimination they see proper and if there are some of these that ought to be reported back and passed, we can do so; but it is obviously impossible for us to pass them all and I would not like to take the responsibility of urging the passing of some and the defeat of others. Some can wait, others cannot. For instance, those which mark the location of historical places which are being destroyed ought possibly to be passed at this time, but those which are to be erected in honor of men whose fame is growing with age, will be easier to pass in subsequent sessions.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. CARSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. NEELY. Mr. Speaker, it seems rather strange that my bill should be the first one for an attack on the grounds that Mr. Scott brings up. This bill carries an appropriation of $2,500.00. It is for the erection of a marker on the battlefield at Antietam for Hampton Battery. Now, gentlemen, there is another bill following, for a marker on the battlefield of Chancellorsville for the same battery. There are very few of the members of this battery now surviving and they are very anxious to see on at least one of these battlefields a marker showing their position. At the battle of Chancellorsville, Hampton Battery B was almost annihilated. I think that while there are a few members of this battery living that some marker should be placed in commemoration of the deeds which they have performed on this battlefield. They tell we there was a man named Neely in this battery and that is the reason I introduced it, and I hope it will not be committed to the Appropriation Committee, but that the Governor will be given the opportunity to pick out of these various monument bills those which he thinks the most proper to erect. It is almost impossible for the members of the House to decide that themselves.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I think the Appropriation Committee is the proper place to make this discrimination. We have no right to load the Governor up with that. It is a question of comparison. We cannot spend one million six hundred thousand dollars. I think the House is a proper body to take the initiative now and that the Appropriation Committee is the proper body to advise the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1505, entitled:

An Act to provide for the erection of a monument and memorial tablets to Battery F Independent Pennnsylvania Artillery (known as the Hampton Battery) on the Battlefield of Chancellorsville and the dedication of the same and of the expenses of the Commission appointed to select supervise and erect the same and the transportation of the survivors of said command to and from said battlefield

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. NEELY. Mr. Speaker, I hope that this motion will not prevail. I would prefer, if either of these monuments were erected that the one on the battlefield of Chancellorsville should be the one. The members of the battery are most desirous of having this monument erected and I hope that the members of the House will allow this bill to be passed.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to the passage of this sort of bills for a reason which came to my attention during the last session of the House, and that is, that if you follow up these appropriations for these monuments you will find in almost every case they are followed up by an appropriation of four, five or six thousand dollars for the printing of a book to be distributed. Now, it would look to me from my observation as if the building of the monuments is simply for the purpose of giving some printer a job to print memorial books or something of that sort to keep him busy when he has no other work to do.

Mr. NEELY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia has said that we will likely follow this up with an appropriation for printing a book. For the information of the Speaker and the members, I would say that Hampton Battery already has this book printed, quite a large number of copies, which they have had printed at their own expense for private distribution, so that there will be no necessity for an approprition of that kind.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1511, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of acquiring and marking the site of Fort Morris erected about one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five at Shippensburg Cumberland County and providing a suitable memorial to the Pioneer Settlers of the Cumberland Valley

Mr. CHARLES A. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

The SPEAKER. Under Rule 22 a motion to recommit is precluded by a motion to postpone.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. C. M. C. CAMPBEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. S. B. Scott.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. C. M. C. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, these bills have already been considered by the Appropriation Committee. This may be rather pointed, but is it your intention to place them there so they may be killed?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. No, it is my intention to place them there so they may be sifted. It is utterly impossible for the State to pass them all and I think the committee should have had that in mind.

Mr. C. M. C. CAMPBELL. I would like to ask the gentleman what reason he has for stating that they have not been well sifted in the Appropriations Committee?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Too many of them, Mr. Speaker, the sieve was too big.

Mr. C. M. C. CAMPBELL. That does not answer my question. I have a bill here that I put in in good faith. It does not carry an appropriation for printing a book, but it does carry an appropriation for a certain amount of money to perpetuate the names of the defenders of this country, and there is nothing better qualified to educate the public than to erect these monuments. I know of nothing better and nothing that will do more good for the rising generation than these monuments.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. AMBLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. AMBLER. Mr. Speaker,' my point of order is that the bill under discussion is not that of Dr. Campbell.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. The gentleman from Allegheny will continue.

Mr. C. M. C. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to take up the time of the House and I do not think that I have taken up much of its time during this session. I feel that these are important and educative measures and that they should not be put back into the committee without some good reason and I consider that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scott, has not given a sufficiently good reason. I believe that this State can well afford to spend this money to erect a monument in every cemetery in this State where there is a soldier buried, but if the gentlemen of the House feel that the defenders of this country from 1861 to '65 do not deserve to be perpetuated, I ask them to vote to send thees bills back to the committee.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, unquestionably the position taken by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scott, was not taken at the proper time. There are a number of these bills of the same nature that have already passed the House, the Valley Forge appropriation, the Molly Pitcher appropriation, and the appropriation for the commemoration of the Public School System and the Panama Canal Exposition and these appropriations are included in the total presented here last week when he told you that these [illegible]riations contained $1,600,000 and included eight [illegible] I will read: For the Public School System, [illegible] of the flags from the Library to this build[illegible] Memorial Commission and the trans[illegible] Gettysburg and other Gettysburg [illegible]ancipation Proclamation and [illegible]na-Pacific Exposition, those [illegible] balance between that and [illegible]propriations are that we [illegible]s to hold them up now. [illegible]he State to commemorate [illegible]it be on the battlefield or [illegible]where. Now we have not [illegible] of this country or in the [illegible] have abandoned the mili[illegible]e that there should be uni[illegible] we have not reached that [illegible]priate money for armies and [illegible]ng of the National Guard and [illegible] army and we still appropriate [illegible]tion and services performed by men in these armies. I want to say to you that the grand total shown to you is misleading for the reason that I have stated. I would say further that the pension appropriation which we passed through the House here to reward past services of the men who brought honor to the State of Pennsylvania, has gone by the boards. Are we going to abandon every spirit of patriotism, every mark of respect by this unpatriotic demonstration which has been going on here this afternoon? I hold that the planting of a little marker in the different places of the State telling the youths and future generations what their forefathers have done, commemorating the history of this great Commonwealth tends to make us a better State. I hold that the State of Pennsylvania has been derelict in this respect in the past. We turn to New England for example as to how to do it, and we turn to the Southern States and see how they have rewarded the veterans of their States who fought in the Civil War. I believe that every one of these appropriation bills ought to be voted upon on its merits in this House. They were considered by the Appropriations Committee and it was decided to report them out here to stand fairly before this House. If you send them back you can't begin to consider them in the Appropriations Committee and you can't begin to consider, let us say, a marker commemorating the services of the 47th Regiment at the battle of Cedar Creek. That is the one bill that I introduced and it is the only regiment which does not have a marker on that battlefield. All other Pennsylvania regiments have. If we postpone them for another two years there will be few surviving of the men in that regiment whose services and valor ought to be commemorated before they pass away. That is what it means. Every one of these bills has some merit in it. That is why the Appropriations Committee sent it out here, and if you have any questions to ask why they should not be passed, or what they stand for, I think it is only justice to the men whose valor and services have been given to the country, it is only justice to them that the bills should remain right here in this House and that you should ask questions and that they should be answered and if they should stand the scrutiny of the House, they should not be sent back to the Appropriations Committee for the purpose of killing them, simply because the thing was misrepresented to you last week. Gentlemen, I ask you not to send a single one back to the committee other than the ones sent heretofore, but let them be tested here as to their merits.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, if these bills cannot be considered in committee how can they possibly be considered properly upon the floor of the House? The gentleman has spoken of patriotism. There are different kinds of exhibitions of patriotism. Some people seem to think that patriotism consists in flinching away from the protection of the State Treasury against every demand which is made upon it in the name of patriotism. It seems to me that patriotism is sometimes carried on in a different way and that is to save the larger interests of the State. I have felt, Mr. Speaker, in my course in this matter and other matters where I have tried to reduce appropriations that I have been doing things which I know has been unpopular and I confess has been unpleasant, and yet which I really believe to be for the final good of the people of this State, and that belief and that conviction is what has given me the strength of mind and courage to do it. I think that this bill, of course, ought to be considered upon its merits and the fact that such a large number of them have been reported on the floor of the House convinces me that they have not been so considered, but that the Appropriation Committee has evaded its responsibility by reporting everything out upon the face of which appeared the stamp of patriotism. To say, Mr. Speaker, that I misled the House is absolutely absurd because I even went to the length of reading over the title of every single bill which I called to your attention. Of course, some of them have passed. My purpose in speaking on the grand total was to call your attention to the fact to what tremendous extent these things had gone, and we are met with that very insidious kind of an argument that we must pass this bill because we passed the other little bill and so on with the next one until finally the whole thing is through. Somebody had got to call attention to it, and I feel that the only fair way is to report these bills back to the committee and make that committee assume its responsibilities and to give us the knowledge as to which ones ought to be passed now, and which ones ought to wait.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I want to call the attention of the members to this particular bill under discussion. You will notice that it is to appropriate a certain sum of money to perpetuate the memory of the pioneer settlers of Cumberland Valley. Where patriotism creeps into this particular I do not see exactly. No doubt there is not a single valley in the State that did not have pioneer settlers in it. If you give an appropriation to this particular valley, in the future sessions of the Assembly you will be asked to appropriate to every valley in the State. Now these several bills are for all kinds of purposes, some for battlefield memorials, some for other kinds of memorials and some for pioneer settlers' memorials and that class of propositions. I am informed by one of the members of the Appropiration Committee that the statements made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scott, that it would look as if these bills were admitted without consideration, would appear to be correct. It seems that it would be the proper method to put them back into committee and let the committee reconsider them.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion to recommit.

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1456, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the erection of a monument for the reception and preservation of certain relics of the Battleship Maine commemorating the services of Lieutenant Friend W Jenkins and the sailors who were killed in the explosion of the Maine

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion to recommit to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. BIGGER. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Bigger.

Mr. BIGGER. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill that we will be glad to consider the merits thereof. I don't believe that any member of the Appropriation Committee has the least objection to this bill. I shall briefly state the facts in connection with the object of this bill and I believe that I can satisfy the members of this House that they will appreciate its merits.

The object of this bill is for an appropriation by the State of $25,000 to help defray the expenses in erecting a monument to commemorate the life and memory of Lieutenant Friend W. Jenkins and the sailors of our navy who lost their lives, February 15, 1898, while in the service of the nation, by the explosion of the Battleship Maine, in the harbor of Hanava, Cuba.

Lieutenant Jenkins was born in Allegheny City, June 26, 1865.

He attended our public schools, also the Allegheny High School, from which he graduated when 13 years of age. He then entered the Western University of Pennsylvania, from which he would have graduated in 1882, but was appointed a cadet, after a competitive examination, to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland. He graduated from Annapolis in 1888.

He was always a deep student with a remarkable genius for mathematics. Frequently he was called upon to perform special work of this nature by the officials of the Naval Department and always responded in a manner with great credit to himself.

He was promoted to the grade of junior lieutenant in January, 1897.

His body was taken to his old home in Allegheny and was buried with military honors in Uniondale Cemetery.

He was the only officer of this State who lost his life on this vessel.

This in brief is a short sketch of his life.

The sinking of the battleship Maine, although not the direct cause, was the indirect cause of the Spanish-American War.

Almost 14 years the wreck of the Maine lay in the Havana harbor, when public sentiment was roused to such a pitch that the government was compelled to take action. All portions of the wreck which could be used as memorials or relics were raised and shipped to the United States.

The army and navy of the United States justly had the first choice of these relics and from them are erecting two monuments, one in Arlington Cemetery, the other at Annapolis, Maryland.

Pittsburgh had next choice, even a superior claim to the State of Maine, after which the battleship was named, which claim was recognized by the War and Navy Departments, and they turned over to the American Veterans of Foreign Service and United Spanish War Veterans of the City of Pittsburgh certain portions of these relics, consisting of a large piece of the armor plate which includes a torpedo port and a torpedo tube and various other smaller relics which will go to make up an elaborate memorial to the battleship Maine. This is now in Pittsburgh and ready for use.

There is no monument in western Pennsylvania in honor of the services of these marines.

The City of Pittsburgh has already donated a tract of land in one of its beautiful parks within a short distance of Jenkins' old home, upon which the monument can be erected.

The County of Allegheny will also assist.

We hope the State of Pennsylvania will also assist, as this officer and man belongs to Pennsylvania and the Nation.

The world admires great men, those who stand for facts, noble acts and for thoughts; those who survived or fell victims to the principles of civil and political freedom; or advanced those great movements of the world by which liberty has been established and perpetuated. All nations have had their heroes and have honored them.

So a beautiful custom has been handed down from ancient times in the service of commemorating the lives and services of heroic men. All civilized nations have told the story of their lives in song and story, art and architecture, marble and bronze, not for the purpose of ministering to the needs of the departed, for they are beyond the help of mortal man, but that their noble deeds from song and marble may speak to the living and be an inspiration to them. The noble sentiments which they express are elevating and affect the mind most powerfully. They play an important part in the political education of a people. They serve well in teaching patriotism.

It is a happy faculty of our nature that enables us to commend a worthy deed in others. Gratitude is the best expression of a generous heart. It is found more fully developed among the higher types of men. The selfish and envious man is slow to give credit to another for splendid achievement, but to the healthy normal man there is something grand that responds delightfully to a noble act in another.

So long as this nation continues sound at heart and emulates deeds of patriotism and loves great deeds of humanity, just so long will it continue to erect shaf[illegible] marble and bronze as a lesson to the living [illegible]

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, while I desire to save the House time and argument on these various bills, and while I think the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Luzerne are very interesting, but the House seeks to know the relative merits of these cases and that can only be had after due consideration by the committee in whose charge it should be placed. Notwithstanding what has been said, I will insist on my motion to recommit.

Mr. ADAMS. Mr. Speaker, it must be understood by the members of the House that this is merely an iota of an appropriation for this monument. The State is merely asked to appropriate part of the requisite sum necessary to defray the expenses of the erection of this monument.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion to recommit.

Whereuon, a division was called for, and 58 gentlemen having voted in the affirmative and 46 in the negative,

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1442 entitled

An Act making an appropriation for the erection and dedication of a Soldiers' Memorial Monument in Pleasant Hill Cemetery in Reads Township Cambria County

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1369 entitled

An Act to appropriate the sum of fifty thousand dollars as a part contribution toward the erection of a memorial building in the City of Altoona in the County of Blair and State of Pennsylvania in commemoration of the Conference of the Governors of sundry loyal States held September twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth eighteen hundred and sixty-two to adopt measures for a more efficient support of the Government in suppressing the rebellion

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. CLAYCOMB. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say a word on this bill before the vote is taken. I wish to say that this bill had its inspiration, not through any particular local pride, but rather from national pride. The bill is asking for an appropriation for a memorial to the loyal war governors' conference held in the City of Altoona in September, 1862. In 1862 the armies in the field were much discouraged by defeat. Lincoln't head was bowed by reason of the defeats to the Union Army. Our great war governor, Andrew Curtin, called a conference of the Governors of the Northern states, pointing his finger to the little mountain city of Altoona, and there this loyal war governors' conference was held. There were fourteen Northern States represented there and after deliberating for two or three days a resolution was framed. It was adopted and signed by every governor of the loyal States. It was forwarded to Abraham Lincoln and from that time on the course of the Civil War changed. It gave encouragement to Abraham Lincoln when his heart was breaking, with storm clouds hanging above the Northern States, and when it was a serious question with Lincoln and his advisers whether to continue the war or settle it at any price. And it was in this mountain town in the Logan House that this conference was held which supplied a new current of inspiration to those in the field and to Abraham Lincoln in the White House. Last September the Fiftieth Anniversary of this conference was celebrated. The President of the United States was present; His Excellency the Governor of the State, was there; and people from every northern state east of the Mississippi River and north of the Mason and Dixie line were there to participate. Now, my friends, that is in brief what this loyal war governors' conference was, and the memorial, if the State should in its graciousness see fit to make this appropriation, which is only on the condition that Altoona subscribe $25,000 first in order to make it binding on the State; we do not come asking for all the appropriation necessary to build this memorial, but we are asking for such an amount, coupled with the 25,000 which the local organization must first raise, as is deemed sufficient. I submit to the gentlemen of the House it is a fair proposition; it has a patriotic motive back of it; and I ask that it be not recommitted but the bill be passed.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1188, entitled

An Act providing for the erection of a monument on the Grand Army of the Republic lot in Mt Vernon cemetery located in Elizabeth township Allegheny County Pennsylvania to the memory of the soldiers of the Civil War of Elizabeth township providing for a commission to carry the same into effect and making an appropriation therefore

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. C. M. C. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to have this bill made any different than the others. I believe this bill has merit. I believe that some of the bills that preceded it have more merit. All I wish to say is that I do not think that these bills have received the treatment from the House that they should have received. The bill that has just preceded this, or the bill to erect a monument to Lieutenant Jenkins, is a most meritorious bill, and if that bill does not appeal to the House, it strikes me that neither will mine. So I ask that this bill be sent to the Committee without a dissenting voice.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1623, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation toward the improvement of county roads in the suburban section of the city of Philadelphia

Whereas for some years the State of Pennsylvania has been making large appropriations for the improvement of roads in the several counties of the State in which the city of Philadelphia up to the present time has never been a beneficiary therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the [illegible] of the same That the sum of three hundred thousand ($300,000) dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated toward the improvement of county roads in the suburban section of the city of Philadelphia Provided That the said city shall spend an equal amount for the improvement of said roads

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. J. A. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, this bill is my final effort this session to try to get some money from the State for good roads in Philadelphia for the farmer. I had the pleasure of presenting five different bills for the farmers in my particular county for good roads. Each bill was opposed by the farmers of every county, almost, in the State of Pennsylvania simply because they thought it would take some money from the State Highway for the purpose of going down into Philadelphia County and assisting those farmers in repairing the county roads. One of my bills was to extend the State Highway route into Philadelphia County and to assist those farmers to reach the city proper, but the members of the country districts opposed it because it was opening up other cities.

They were in favor of that bill provided it only included Philadelphia County and the result was it went down. I understood also that some of the members voted against that bill and they told me later on it was because they thought the fifty million bond issue for public roads would come up and if they defeated that, if they extended the roads into Philadelphia county, they thought the people of Philadelphia county would be against the bond issue for good roads. We are not selfish down there and even if you try to defeat this bill appropriating $300,000.00 for two years for the county roads. We are not selfish down there and when the good roads bond proposition comes up before us next November you will find that Philadelphia county leads this State with a majority for the fifty million bond issue. You must remember, gentlemen, that the property owners in Philadelphia county pay for the street paving. Probably you are not aware of that. Every property owner pays for every improvement in the streets of Philadelphia county.

(Mr. Speaker. I hope you will kindly keep a little order until the funeral comes on.)

You have this year or this session appropriated, including the automobile licenses and coming fees for the next two years, three million dollars for the State Highways. If the Grabe bill passes you will add one million five hundred thousand more to the State Highways. The general appropriation bill, which we passed yesterday, gives four millions more for State Highways, giving for the next two years for the State Highways alone, over ten million dollars, not including the fifty million dollars which you propose to vote for next November. With that it will give the State, outside of Philadelphia county, very near sixty million dollars for country roads and Philadelphia County has not got a penny of it, and this $150,000.00 for each year for the next two years is on a proviso that the State or the City of Philadelphia will appropriate an equal amount in order to repair the country roads in my particular district. It is the estimate of the City Highway Department of Philadelphia County that it will cost one million dollars to repair the country roads in my district and the suburbs of that county, and it is only fair of the gentlemen in this House that they give Philadelphia county a little out of the general appropriation. We are not asking for anything from the State Highway Appropriation but we are only asking a little for those farmers down there in the next three years.

I have here what Allegheny county has received in the last three years, four hundred and fifty-four thousand dollars and some odd pennies. For the last three years Allegheny county, the next county or the next city to Philadelphia county, has received over $450,000.00. I go down further to my own locality and take up Delaware county with a population of 117,000. They received in the last three years over $104,000.00. Now it is only reasonable that Philadelphia county, from which you expect a majority of the votes to come up here to pass the bond issue of fifty million dollars for country roads,—not Philadelphia country roads,it is only fair that you give Philadelphia county and the farmers down there a little encouragement whereby they may have $150,000.00 each year provided the City furnishes an additional amount to fix the country roads in that county. I only ask you to be fair with the farmers of Philadelphia county. I supported every measure in this House in the interest of the farmers of the State and I only ask you to give us a little money to repair those roads down there so that the farmers who are fifteen miles out of the city can reach the city proper so that they can bring their products to the working men in my district, which will reduce the high cost of living.

Mr. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, we have listened to a very nice appeal from the gentlemen from Philadelphia, when he says he is not selfish and he asks to have just a little of this money. Now let us look at it for a second. He asks for just a little, $300,000.00, and there are 66 other counties in Pennsylvania and 66 times $300,000.00, when I have learned the multiplication table, means $19,800,000.00. Now the gentleman from Philadelphia tells us that he is asking for just a little of this great amount of money that we are spending on the public highways. Mr. Speaker is it not a fact, according to the general appropriation bill, that we can figure on about $6,000,000 to be spent on these different highways throughout the Commonwealth? He asks for his measley share, just a little bit for the City of Philadelphia and he wants $300,000.00 of the $19,000,000.00, think of it. Now, Mr. Speaker, we possibly throughout the Commonwealth never made a complaint or never said a word, because there are so many people living in the City of Brotherly Love, when they ask this Commonwealth for millions of appropriations for charities. We never said a word. The farmers throughout the State gave a loud "aye" vote on each and every one of these large appropriations and now Mr. Speaker, not to be selfish, he wants us to give him a slice of the public highways money, a share of the nineteen millions, according to the share that we are getting. Let us go slow and be easy, and take care of some of our country roads before we go to the great city of this Grand Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 681, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Fiftieth Anniversary Emancipation Proclamation Commission

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Represetntives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Fiftieth Anniversary Emancipation Proclamation Commission for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirteen for the following purposes namely

The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary for the improvement of the grounds and the temporary erection of buildings and removal of the same

The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary to obtain install secure and to re-deliver or remove exhibits which shall accurately and fully show the industrial educational and religious progrees of the negro race

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr Speaker, I second the motion

Mr BASS. Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House, I am not ready for the proposition submitted by the distinguished gentleman in front of me, Mr. S. B. Scott. This bill is drawn in the interests of a people who despite great opposition have helped to build cities and helped to bind the States together with blood and iron. These people whom I have the honor to represent, Mr. Speaker, have here spread upon this book a bill that has for its purpose the celebration of the extraordinary event to them in all American history, that is, their freedom. It is the idea that they cherish with all their heart, and any postponement with respect to this bill, any change from its regular order would disturb the hopes and the interests of a people who suffered for over one hundred years. I do not believe that is the sense of the illustrious men who dealt out this great American citizenship and a large measure of American civilization to a people, has been indicated by the gentleman who sits before me. I believe, on the contrary that these gentlemen will stand in favor of an appropriation that will enable them to give such an exhibition of the progress that they have made in the last half century as shall reflect on them and also reflect credit upon the illustrious men who gave them their freedom fifty years ago. I ask that this bill take its proper course and be submitted to a vote of those members who represent the spirit and the genious and the hope of the great American people.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill appropriating money to celebrate an historical event. About fifteen or twenty other bills of a like character have been recommitted. It would be grossly unfair to the other gentlemen to give any special favor to this bill.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the thought expressed by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scott, it seems to me to be clear that this appropriation is not in the same class with those which were recommitted this afternoon, and this for the reason that the State is already committed to this exposition. In the session of 1911, an appropriation of $20,000.00 was made for the preliminary work and a Commission authorized, and I had the honor to be appointed a member of that Commission. I believe that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bass, and myself are the only members of the present House who are members of that Commission. Now, after making that appropriation and having the work done which has been done by the Commission during the past year in preparing for this exposition, and having the colored people all over the State and outside of this State given to understand that this exposition of this great anniversary was to be held, for the State now to withdraw, for the State now to refuse to appropriate money to carry out the plan that is inaugurated would seem to be absolutely inconsistent. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bass, and the other gentlemen of his race who have been co-operating with him in the active work of making the arrangements for this exposition have, as I have an opportunity to know from being on the Commission, been exerting themselves industriously, faithfully, and I think with excellent judgment in making the preparations which have been made, and it seems to me, Mr. Speaker, that there should be no question on the part of this House as to giving the necessary financial support for the carrying out of the plan which was inaugurated by the Legislature of 1911, in order to provide for a fitting celebration demonstrating the industrial possibilities of the race which this year is celebrating the greatest event conceivable in the history of any race, that of acquiring its freedom.

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker, I trust the House will vote against the passage of this motion. Every member on the floor will vote in favor of the passage of this bill. The colored people throughout the State are getting very little and receiving less State aid than any other class I know of and for the past few years, they have been very active having a large corps of men employed out there, preparing for the exhibition. If there is any doubt in the members' minds as to the proper expenditure of this money, I would just refer to the Speaker (Mr. Alter) who is prepared to figure out and will vouch for every dollar being spent properly.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The motion was not agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the conference committee appointed by you two weeks ago tonight, I feel it due both myself and the House that some statement should be made this evening as to what that committee is doing and what results may be expected on the Workingmen's Compensation Bill. We were told a week or so ago, on the floor of this House, that an agreement was all but accomplished and that some results were to come out of the conference committee. We have been at work in a way for two weeks and there is absolutely no hope of any results at this time, nor will there be any other prospects next week. This committee was appointed two weeks ago this evening. That some day the Senate adjourned. On the next week efforts were made to have a meeting. Every effort was made on the part of the House Committee to have the Senators meet them. They were met all along the line with discouragement. They even went so far, the gentleman from the other side of this Legislative body as to tell the members of this Committee there was no use of meeting, that we could not agree upon a bill anyhow. But, finally, on Tuesday evening at nine-thirty o'clock, there was a meeting, the first of this conference committee. It was the night of the same day that the newspapers came out with a statement that a conference had been had with the Chief Executive, and that there were chances of a compromise, and it looked as though the Senat were willing to agree upon a State Insurance plan and then to accept the bill as drawn by the Commission with the optional clause stricken out. I say on that very night when this committee met, the Senators said that while it might be that they would agree to such a plan, that they had not yet had time to read the insurance bill and begged that the committee might adjourn until a future day. Furthermore, that one of the members of that committee due to legal business at home was unable to attend another meeting of the conference committee that week. Accordingly, it was agreed that on the following Tuesday, yesterday morning, at nine o'clock there was to be a meeting of the conference committee again. At the appointed time, the House committee was in waiting for the meeting. But it was not until very nearly ten o'clock, one hour after the appointed time before we could bring the Senators to a meeting in the rear of the Senate Chamber. It was understood a week previous to that that there was to be some understanding on the insurance plan submitted by the chairman of the Commission. At that meeting the Senators plead ignorance of the provisions of the bill and said that they had not had time to examine, said that they did not know what it provided, and then finally said that as much as they knew about it, it was unsatisfactory. We asked that there be another meeting yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, but to meet the convenience of the Senate committee, the meeting was postponed until yesterday evening at seven o'clock. The members of the Senate committee were to examine the insurance bills of the several states, and to report what to their mind was a satisfactory state insurance plan. Furthermore, it had been stated at the morning meeting that the position of the House committee was this: That they were willing that the bill as it passed the House should be reported out of conference committee with these two amendments: first, that the date of operation was to be January first, 1914, and secondly, that instead of paying benefits for life in case of total disability, benefits should be paid for four hundred weeks, but insisted that the optional clause be stricken out. The House committee said that they were willing to do that, to place the bill on the calendar, for the Senate to place it on their calendar as a report of the conference committee, and to permit the Senate to hold it on the calendar until they saw that a State insurance bill had passed through the Legislature before they set in motion the report of the conference committee. That was the clear position of the House. The Senate did not submit any position, they did not take any position, they did not take any position except a clear defined course of delaying action or attempting to postpone consideration of the bill from time to time every man we met. Last evening when we came together, the Senate submitted no plan at all, they had not the law of any State that was satisfactory to them and we did not even get together last evening. The House Committee went over there at seven o'clock and awaited the pleasure of the Senate Committee for very nearly two hours, waited until a quarter of nine finally they found one of the absent members and he informed us that he had been called to another meeting at eight o'clock. I would not make this statement this evening, but I feel that it is due to myself and to the House and by reason of the indignity showered upon this committee, that the position of the House committe should be made clear. We held the fourth meeting this morning, and the Senate conference committee had absolutely no plan at all. They were no further than they were before, and they said definitely that they, under no conditions, except with the optional clause in it, were willing to accept the bill which had been prepared by the Commission. They were unwilling to accept that bill, together with a State-wide insurance with the optional clause stricken out. They were unanimous on that stand. In other words, this morning it was practically agreed that their could be no agreement on the Workingmen's Compensation Bill and merely as a matter of form the time of making that definite report to the House was postponed until next Monday night. We feel, however, that after the workingmen in this State has been deceived, that after we have spent fifteen thousand dollars to have a Commission examine the laws of European countries and the laws of the several states of this United States, and submit to us a bill which they think embodies the best of all these and after we have made these glowing promises in the platforms of all parties, and promised so much, we feel, that is the House committee feels, that their position at least should be made clear in this matter. And we feel further that there may be an honest position on the part of those not willing to agree with this bill on the other side. It may be consistent, but it seems to me that there is something wrong in the position of a man who says that the law of England is wrong for this reason, that the Compensation Bill of Germany is wrong for this reason, that the law of New Jersey isn't satisfactory, that the law of Washington isn't satisfactory, that no law is satisfactory, to him, and that the law of Pennsylvania, which means to embody the best, isn't to his liking. It seems to me that there is something wrong with that position and it seems to me that we are just up against the proposition that the dilatory tactics of the gentlemen on the other side so plainly and clearly show that it is their intent to carry out the position of the majority of the members of that body, namely, that the workingmen of Pennsylvania shall have no Compensation Law, that they are going to give them this farce, this worthless sheet of paper and tell them that it is a compensation law. It seems to me that the position of the Senate Committee is ridiculous, that it is an insult to the intelligence of the men of Pennsylvania, and the men who have put faith in these election promises made prior to the election, the promise of a workingmen's compensation law. If they are unwilling, to give us a compensation bill, then the bill prepared by the Commission should be voted upon upon its merits, coming in as a real compensation bill on the floor of the Senate, and not as an idle mockery as it stands in its amended form. Next Monday night, I expect the conference committee to come back to this body and to tell you that there has been no agreement and that there can be no workingmen's compensation bill to be expected from this session, but we make this statement now in order that you may know that we have not lagged in our work, in order that you may know that our position has been square and clear on this matter, and we make this statement in public in order that the House and every one else made known that if there is no workingmen's compensation bill in this session it won't be because the House doesn't want it, or that the conference committee appointed by this honorable body has not stood out for it.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, like my colleague on the committee on conference on the Workingmen's Compensation Bill I would likewise desire the privilege, the special privilege of the floor tonight. Mr.Speaker, it grieves me to find that after two years of hard work in the interests of the working man of the State of Pennsylvania we have arrived at nothing in their interest. Two years ago, in this House of Representatives, I presented a bill for workmen's compensation. At that time, it was considered that there wasn't a proper bill presented, the result of which was the appointment of a commission by the Governor of this State to investigate workmen's compensation plans of other countries and of other states and draw up a bill that would be constitutional and would be fair to both employer and employee. The result has been that this bill, that has been drawn up with hard work on the part of that commission, without any salary attached to their work, is now turned down and cast aside by a committee of men who, in my estimation, are nothing more nor less than deceivers of the working people of this State. They are men who are four flushers. They are not here in the State Senate to represent the people of their districts. They are here to represent their own personal interests. It grieves me very much to find that they will be serving the people of the State in the State Senate at the will of the people by their vote and will ignore the people. It grives me very much tonight to know that something is threatening this State and that I in all my efforts would try to avoid. The very action of the Committee representing the State Senate in this Legislature is going to threaten a hardship on over two hundred thousand people of this State. I venture to say that when the notices will go out from the State Federation of Labor of this State, there will not be a mine with any employee working in it. There will not be an employee working on the railroad. These men who represent the Senate Committee were aware of the fact that such a thing was confronting the employers and this State Legislature and yet irrespective of all these things, they would venture to refuse to serve the people. There has been placed before that committee in the Senate all told four forms of State insurance as they themselves had suggested in the first place. Their idea to begin with, was a State insurance plan whereby the large employer along with the small employer would have to receive the same benefit. A State insurance plan was drawn up by Mr. Reeves at the suggestion of the Committee from the Senate speaking favorably along that line. The result has been that they have ignored that plan of a State insurance whereby the employer would have an enabling act in case of liability. Since that time there has been presented to some members of that committee three other plans of State insurance. The Governor of this Commonwealth has recommended all kinds of insurance to that committee. They went along and told us that they favored State insurance and then, finally, after they told us that they favored a State insurance, then they denied the fact that they had ever suggested anything like State insurance. They claimed that it came from some other source outside of them. And then when we go into conference with them, they speak of having further meetings whereby they would have time to make up their minds as to how to draw up some plan of State insurance. We have had our fourth meeting with that Senate Committee and they have not yet mde up their minds that they had any plan of State insurance. They have utterly refused to strike out the amendments that they inserted into the bill that passed this House. They have finally come to the conclusion that there is hardly a real State insurance that will benefit all of the people. They have made up their minds as they did this morning that the time has come when they must cast aside the bill that has passed this House, entirely and draw up a new act. At our third conference they suggested taking the compensation bill that was drawn up by this commission and putting it to one side and draw up an insurance plan and insert into that plan the schedule of the liability. Then at our last meeting, which was held this morning, they didn't seem favorable to the liabilities, the schedule of liabilities. I have made up my mind that the responsibility for no Workmen's Compensation bill being passed in this State will not be on the shoulders of this House of Representatives. It will not be on the shoulders of the committee that represents it in the conferences and we ought to as a body in this branch put the burden where it belongs on men who are not true to the general public, who are not true men, who are "four flushing" and men who are here to serve their own personal interests and not to serve those whom they have been sent here to serve.

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, being the third member of the Conference Committee on the part of the House on the Workmen's Compensation bill, I desire just to make a short statement. I have two reasons for making a statement. One is that during the last campaign, one of the pledges that I made was that I would support a fair liability and workmen's compensation act. This is the only employer's compensation act that has been before the body of any kind. It is considered by all that I have come in contact with, except the members of the Senate, to be a fair bill. For that reason I believe it is the only opportunity I have to make good the pledge. My other reason for the statement I have to make here agreed with what has been said by the other members of the Conference Committee. We have been working in harmony and will continue to do so with the hope that when we make our report, not a single voice will be raised to criticise us for our actions.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Hr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, I have been requested to explain this bill, and if you will give your attention for a few minutes I will explain briefly the provisions of the bill. It is to permit and require that the Water Supply Commission of the State shall acquire title in the name of the Commonwealth by purchase or condemnation of property covered by natural lakes or ponds which in area consist of not less than ten acres. Bear in mind they must be natural lakes. Those lakes or ponds which are artifically constructed by building dams are not included; only lakes which are natural. If you will indulge me for a few minutes, I will read the reasons why I am in favor of this bill and why it is submitted for your consideration.

Within the seven counties of Northeastern Pennsylvania, namely, Wayne, Susquehanna, Wyoming, Luzerne, Monroe Pike, and Lackawanna, there are two hundred and thirty-four natural lakes and ponds besides several others in various parts of the State. The water in most of these natural bodies is clear as crystal and pure. Therefore, well adapted to the culture and growth of fish. Many of these lakes are noted for their beauty because of their surroundings in most instances by forest lands and fields, with a gentle slope extending from the hill side to the water's edge, making them suitable locations for picnics and other social gatherings, such as Sunday schools, churches and various organizations.

Originally when patents were issued for the tracts of land surrounding and containing these natural bodies of water, the purchasers did not consider that they, the lakes and ponds possessed and intrinsic value, and when the land was divided and resold as farms, in surveying, the land under water was not included, for the reason that it could not be productive of any value, and therefore without doubt the intent and thought was that the lakes should be open and free for the use of the public in common. The fish of the water like the game of the forest is wild, and of right belongs to the public, and should be under the control and supervision of the Department of Fisheries, whereby the people may derive the greatest possible benefits. The population of the seven counties before mentioned is over seven hundred thousand people, the great majority of whom are in moderate circumstances, and are compelled to earn their living by hard labor. They comprise tillers of the soil, diggers of black diamonds, laborers of various vocations, their wives and children, all seeking the comforts and pleasures of life as opportunities afford. There is a small minority of the population who by inheritance, speculative ability, or profits upon the natural resources of our Commonwealth have become wealthy. Some of these, not all, are so selfish in their nature that they would like to grasp everything within their reach for their own comfort and pleasure, regardless of the comfort and welfare of their fellowman. In other words, they might be termed aristocrats, and look upon the poor man as a mere slave.

There is another element of human nature to contend with. The man of ordinary means, who by training or environment feels that he has the right to govern conditions about him, who is probably sincere, but looks upon matters in which the public is concerned from a wrong point of view, and still another—the man of medium circumstances, who by nature is extremely selfish, and therefore seeks to build up what might be called a cheap aristocracy by getting control of all that he can, that he may gratify his selfish ambition and disposition, by saying to his neighbors, Keep off! This is my little Kingdom. What is the application? There are several instances where individuals or corporations have gotten control of these natural lakes, which have caused much litigation, and a large amount of trouble, for the reason, that the people feel that they are wrongfully deprived of a God given right endowed upon them, whereby, they should be permitted to enjoy the blessings and pleasures of life as supplied by the works of nature. To demonstrate, I will recite two instances of which I have been informed. An aged and highly respected citizen went to a lake and caught a fish for a sick neighbor. He was arrested and convicted, and served a term in the county jail. It is reported that one person who had control of a lake became so arbitrary that he would not permit the people residing in the community to harvest ice that they might have it to use during the heat of summer, so it became necessary for them to haul it several miles distant because it was absolutely necessary that they should have the ice. The fundamental principles, why this bill should be enacted into law are the following:—

First. In Northeastern Pennsylvania, these numerous lakes constitute a large part of the water supply which is of itself one of the greatest natural assets of that part of the State, and inasmuch as our forests are being rapidly cut away, it becomes absolutely necessary that our water supply be conserved.

Secondly. The large number and great variety of fish which abound in these waters, should be free for the common people to enjoy the pleasure of catching and furnishing their tables with that palatable and wholesome food so extensively used throughout the country. And I am happy to say that our worthy and capable Fish Commissioner heartily endorses this proposition.

Third. Hundreds and thousand of people, from towns and cities:—miners, laborers, clerks in stores and offices, in fact whoever desires, should have the opportunity on a holiday or during a brief vacation in the hot and sultry weather of summer to go to these natural pleasure resorts, located among the hills and valleys of our Commonwealth, and enjoy the scenery, pluck the wild flowers, drink the crystal spring water from the spring on the hillside which frequently supplies the water for the lake, and breathe the pure and invigorating air that they may be refreshed and better prepared to prosecute and accomplish the work before them.

Mr. Speaker. The important issue just at this time is the contest between Aristocracy and Democracy. If the great majority is permitted to rule, the masses will have their rights. If the small minority is allowed to control the comparatively few will receive special favors. Let us hold to the Grange doctrine! "Special favors to none, and equal privileges for all," and thereby give to the people the rights and privileges, as proclaimed to them by the Declaration of Independence guaranteed to them by the Constitution of our Government, and endowed upon them by the Allwise and Supreme Ruler of the Universe. Finally, Mr. Speaker, Fellow Members of the House, let us avail ourselves of every opportunity to grant unto the masses of the people the legitimate privilege of the pursuit of happiness, the unobstructed right of way for an honest endeavor for true enjoyment of life, and establishing permanent pleasure and comfort within their respective homes. Pass this bill and take a step in the right direction for progress, justice, the good of our Commonwealth, and the people.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I see that this bill carries an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars with it, to give the Water Supply Commission power to acquire certain lakes or ponds of five acres in extent in various parts of the community. Now, Mr. Speaker, it seems to me in view of the amount of money that we have already appropriated and the fact of the appropriations which we have refused to pass for monuments and what not to commemorate the historic incidents of this Commonwealth, it hardly behooves us at this time to pass an Act of this kind. I quite agree with the gentleman from Lackawanna, that every common man and every man in this State should have the right to his pursuit of happiness, but I cannot see how the granting of the power of eminent domain to the Water Supply Commission in any way helps any citizen of this State in the pursuit of his happiness, and I think this bill should be defeated.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I call attention to one line of the bill, abount eight words, which seems to me would justify every member of the House in voting against the bill for the reason that if that provision as made applies, there would be no happy hunting grounds surrounding the lake, there would be no picnic grounds, or any place for a person to set a foot on. This is the reason: "Shall acquire title in the name of the Commonwealth by purchase or condemnation to all property covered by natural lakes and ponds.'' Now there is no provision in the bill for purchasing one foot of ground outside of the ground that is covered by the water of the lake or pond. If you can only acquire the pond, without any surrounding land, where are you going to hold your picnics?

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, I would say in reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia, that I think he read a wrong copy of the bill when he stated five acres. Ten acres is the lowest amount.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, possibly I did. Five, or ten acres, I do not see that it makes any material difference.

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, I want to say to you gentlemen of the House that the gentleman from Philadelphia does not know the conditions in the rural districts of this State as pertain to the natural lakes and ponds. As I said before, there are 234 lakes in northwestern Pennsylvania and I know by actual experience and observation that a great many people have been deprived of pleasure by being deprived of privileges of going to these natural lakes with no ill intent. This bill, as he says, carries an appropriation of $50.000.00 which is a very small appropriation and if those lakes can all be purchased by the State an investment of a million dollars would be cheap for the purpose of conservation of the natural water supply and for the fish which abound in these waters. In reply to the gentleman from Allegheny, I wish to state that many of these lakes are adjoined by the public highways passing by them and so far as getting control of the land outside the lakes it would probably be an impossibility, but the people who are owners of these natural bodies of water are not opposed to holding picnics in the groves by the side of the lake, as a rule. Therefore, his argument is without any force. The appropriation for this purpose is of greater importance than many other bills presented here and carrying appropriations. It means conservation of our natural resources. It means increase of wealth for the State. It means greater privileges for the people and to give the people what they are naturally entitled to you help to build up the feeling of good will between man and man. Therefore, gentlemen, these arguments produced by either of these gentlemen are without force and I would ask you to vote for this bill.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOBBS. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Would the gentleman state to the House how many of these 234 lakes are of ten acres in area or more?

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, I am not prepared to give that correctly. I do not know.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, you do not know how many lakes will have to be taken over under this act?

Mr. HOBBS. No, sir, Mr. Speaker, it would require considerable investigation to obtain that.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman further if he does not think the bill will amount to nothing so far as the purposes mentioned by him are concerned unless the bill carries a provision to condemn the surrounding land.

Mr. HOBBS. No, sir. I think that has nothing to do with it.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, what good would it do the people to go to the lakes if they could not get on the surrounding land?

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, there are cases, as I said before, but the great majority of the people who own the surrounding land are not opposed to the people going there.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, they could prevent them if they wished to.

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, they could, but the great majority of the people are charitable and kindly and would not prohibit them.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman depend entirely upon the charity and kindliness of the people who own the surrounding land?

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, not entirely, but we can depend to a great degree on the people of this Commonwealth or our government is a failure.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

In section 1 after the word "That" in line 3 strike out "each" and in the beginning of line 4 strike out "car operated by a" and in line 4 after the word railway strike out the word "Company" and insert in lieu thereof the words "cars operated." In line 7 after the word "ground" insert the following. "Provided that where the headway of cars is less than ten minutes on any line, or there are a number of lines operating in the same territory, the State Railroad Commission, or any body that may succeed it, shall prescribe how many of the cars operated on said lines shall be so equipped."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I understand the amendment that has been read by the Clerk apparently seems to have been to destroy the purpose of this bill. I do not believe that this amendment is necessary in the bill. This bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Nulty at the request of a great number of his constituents in the City of Philadelphia. If this amendment is inserted in this bill, it will permit the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company in Philadelphia to go along for ten minutes without carrying a jack. In the City of Philadelphia the cars run as close as six minutes. It has only been two weeks ago when on one of the particular lines where the cars run six minutes between each other, that a woman lay under the wheels of a car for fifteen minutes and it was necessary, in order to remove that body from beneath the wheels of that car to wait that length of time for the repair wagon to come with a jack and lift that car to release the body. In our city, the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company has a jack for every car. They had been carrying them for a length of time up to two years ago. Lately, or probably over a year ago, they reduced their jacks to one jack for every car. Now, they have reduced them so that when this particular accident occurred two weeks ago, or a little over, almost twenty cars were lined up behind each other before the repair wagon came to lift that car and remove that body. If they have jacks, they should be compelled to carry them, and I would ask that rather than to have the cars run six minutes apart and having to wait fifteen or twenty minutes and sometimes half an hour before the body can be released, not to make it any worse by inserting an amendment that will allow them to run ten minutes apart rather than six. I will ask the House to vote down this amendment and leave this bill in its original form, if they can, for those who may have to suffer in case of an accident.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the gentleman from Philadelphia distinctly understand that there is absolutely no effort on my part to destroy the original provisions of this bill. Under the provisions of the act as it is at present, each and every car is obliged to be provided with a jack. My object in this amendment was that where a car carries one or two trailers, only one jack is supposed to be supplied to that train, and to my mind one jack to one or two cars should certainly be sufficient to relieve any accident that may occur during that time. Now that is the provision of this amendment. There is absolutely no use in compelling a traction company to place a jack on each car when there are two or three in the same train.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Wildman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILDMAN. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Dauphin if it is not true in his amendment that he strikes out the word "comapny."

Mr. WILDMAN. Yes, sir.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I would ask why he strikes out the word "company?"

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I could not answer that question. I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia what good the word "company" is in the bill?

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, it is not the question of what good the word "company" is in this bill.. It does not specify any particular company. It means all companies. I ask the House to vote down this amendment.

I ask the gentleman from Dauphin to withdraw his amendment until we can get together and talk it over.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second, third and fourth sections and the title of the bill were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 Any street passenger railway company that shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than fifty dollars ($50.00) for each offence Each day's failure to equip a car as provided in section one of this act shall constitute a separate offence

Section 3 This act shall go into effect on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and fourteen

Section 4 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

An Act requiring each car of street passenger railway companies to be equipped with a jack or similar device and providing a penalty

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,
